

The County in General

The "Doings" of our Country Friends and Neighbors.

STELLA.

Vera Gould began her school near Howe last Monday.

S. H. Bailey and wife moved into the house recently vacated by J. R. Cain, Jr.

E. Wheeler is on the sick list, being confined to his home with rheumatism.

Mrs. Theodore Weaver visited in Falls City with friends Friday and Saturday.

L. M. Swan and wife of Peru visited over Sunday with Geo. Mitchell and family.

H. V. Davis went to Burwell last Friday to look for a location for a barber shop.

S. R. Feed and wife drove to Bern, Kansas last week for a week's visit with friends.

Mrs. Lizzie Shiley is spending a couple of weeks in the country visiting her children.

Fred Spivy of University Place was in town last week to attend the funeral of little Ralph Tolly.

Miss Constance Sayer is making her home with her aunt and attending the Stella High school.

Earl Butler began his term of school in the Hodge district Monday with an enrollment of twenty-two.

M. H. Vandeventer and wife left last week for a week's visit at the latter's old home at Hollenberg, Kas.

Mrs. Noah Allen and children of Omaha are visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Smiley.

Miss Blanch Monette returned to Atchison Tuesday where she will continue her school work at the Midland college.

Mrs. Artherton of Salem, who has spent the summer here with her niece, Mrs. Frank Hinkle, returned to her home last week.

Norman Smiley and wife returned last week from a month's visit in the east, where Mr. Smiley attended a reunion of his regiment.

Joseph Marts and wife are visiting relatives near Stella this week, having been called here by the death of their grandson, Ralph Tolly.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Curtis gave a family dinner last Sunday, there were twenty-four present for dinner, representing seven families.

Max Keefer and wife have moved their sleeping rooms from the Kleckner house to the rooms over their restaurant, vacated by Mrs. Raper. Miss Fairy Thomas, of Lincoln, who had spent her summer vacation with Stella friends, returned home last week to take up her school work again.

Mrs. M. Shafer, who has been sick most of the summer, was able to be taken to the home of her daughter last Sunday to attend a family reunion.

Mrs. Jacob Hinkle was a Falls City visitor last week. She was helping care for her daughter, Mrs. Jess Brown, who has been sick for several weeks.

W. H. Hogrefe's family moved to Lincoln last week where Hazel will continue her school work. Harry Hogrefe will occupy the house vacated by his father.

Helen Baldwin spent Friday night and Saturday at the country home of E. Withee and wife. She was the guest of Nellie Hossack of Falls City, who is visiting her sister.

Miss Mable Culp of Nemaha, who had been visiting a couple of weeks with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lyanna, went to the country Friday to visit her aunt, Miss Louise Lyanna.

The Misses McIntosh of Harvard, who have been visiting their aunt, for a couple of weeks, left for their home at Harvard. They were accompanied by their cousin, Ernest Morgan, who will attend school at that place.

NIMS CITY.

School opened Monday with Mrs. Ola Crook as teacher.

This place was well represented at the Sabetha races last week.

Sam. Kennedy and family of Salem spent Sunday with the McGinnis family here.

Tom Morris and family visited over Sunday with his brother south of Sabetha.

Supt. T. J. Oliver preached at the Christian church near here Sunday morning and evening.

Mrs. O. C. Ayers returned Friday from Nehawka where she had been attending the district conference of the U. B. church as a delegate.

E. Wittwer went to Coatsville Saturday accompanied by his nephew, Charles Wittwer of Salem to visit brothers of the latter on a ranch.

Warning.

Do not be persuaded into taking anything but Foley's Honey and Tar for chronic coughs, bronchitis, hay fever, asthma, and lung trouble, as it stops the cough and heals the lungs. Kerr's Pharmacy.

HUMBOLDT.

Lute Kotouc returned Friday from South Dakota.

A. A. Tanner was down from Lincoln Thursday.

Lewis Edwards of Falls City was in town Saturday.

Mrs. Will Norton and children went to Lincoln Saturday.

Fae Sanford returned Sunday from a trip to the Pacific coast.

School opened Monday with an unusually large enrollment.

Mrs. Sue Wheeler and son, Guy, went to Table Rock Thursday.

Veda Waggoner left Friday for a visit with her sister in Aurora.

Mrs. A. J. Buerstetta and little son returned Friday from a St. Joseph visit.

Leonard Mann and Walter Legg went to Franklin Thursday on business.

Madge Ford, after a several weeks' visit in Red Oak, Iowa, returned home Friday.

The Humboldt concert band furnished music at Johnson the last of the week.

Ms. Clay Edwards and little son left Friday to visit relatives in Abilete, Kas.

Frank Butterfield, wife and daughter, Lillian, returned Tuesday from a trip to Ohio.

Mrs. Hattie Hunzeker from Elk Creek is visiting with her aunt, Mrs. Jacob Hunzeker.

Miss Neva Philpot left Friday for Broken Bow, where she will attend school this year.

Mrs. Will Alexander and little daughter of Dawson visited Dr. Morris and family this week.

Mark Williamson, who has employment in Falls City, was in Humboldt between trains Thursday.

Mrs. J. Atwood entertained the ladies Missionary society at her home Thursday afternoon.

Gabriel Krasny of Ames, Neb., was here Tuesday to attend the funeral of his nephew, Charles Krasny.

Boyd Nehr left this week for McCook, where he will work on the ranch owned by Mason Shurtleff.

Charles Albright and wife of Dawson visited several days with W. B. Albright and family of this city.

Ina Nehr left Friday for Rulo and on Monday took up the work as a teacher in the schools at that place.

Grace Colson left this week for Merna, Neb., where she has accepted a position as principal of the school.

Rose Klossner left Friday for Milligan, where she will teach the eighth grade in the public school at that place.

Mrs. L. S. Hackett entertained at her home Wednesday afternoon complementary to Mrs. Clinton Lytle of St. Joseph.

Miss Minnie Unkefer and her niece, Helen Allen, who have been sightseeing in the east returned the first of the week.

Mrs. Jno. Powers pleasantly entertained the Philanthea club of the Presbyterian church at her home Friday afternoon.

Sybil Wilson, a trained nurse, who has been attending James H. Smith during his recent illness returned to Lincoln Friday.

Mrs. S. E. Davis gave a six o'clock dinner in honor of Calvert Edwards and Harry Boyd, who expect to attend college.

Miss Carrie McCready of Campbell, Neb., who has been employed as principal in our schools arrived in the city Thursday.

Word was received here Thursday that Hattie Bennington of Table Rock and Art Wise of this place were married at Pawnee City that day.

While playing with a sickle Wilhelm Tjaden had the misfortune to cut her hand so severely that the services of a doctor were required.

Harry Norton, the little son of the editor of the "Standard," had the misfortune of breaking his arm last Thursday while working with the job press.

Mrs. Minnie Grinstead Himes, a former school teacher of this place, and daughter, Lois, of Spokane, Wash., visited Dr. J. A. Waggoner and family this week.

Joseph Petrashek and wife, accompanied by Mrs. John Holecek and Mrs. Frank Eis, returned the last of the week from Funk, Nebr., where they attended the funeral of Wensel Petrashek.

Mrs. Tom Maxwell met with a painful accident Thursday while working with the cream separator. In some manner she crushed one of her fingers so badly that it was necessary to amputate it.

Rev. George Adylotte, pastor of the Christian church is the third minister who has resigned his pastorate during the last month. He expects to leave the first of October to accept a charge in New Orleans, La.

Rev. Fred Arnold has resigned his pastorate of the Baptist church of this place and left Thursday for Boston. He will also visit other points of interest, and will then enter a Theological seminary at Rochester, N. Y.

Rev. C. M. Cantrall offered his resignation as pastor of the Presbyterian church Sunday. At a meeting of the congregation, the resignation was accepted. He will leave the first of October for Princetown, N. J. where he will take a post-graduate course.

Charles Krasny, the nine year old son of Frank Krasny and wife of this city, died Saturday evening after an extended illness, death being due to a disease of the heart. Funeral services were held from the home Tuesday morning and interment in the city cemetery.

BARADA.

Monday being Labor day, Barada had no mail.

C. H. Martin is taking in the state fair this week.

H. H. Woodring and son, Henry, were in town Sunday.

Al Gushard and wife were shopping in Falls City Tuesday.

Miss Verna Wilkinson of Verdon is visiting relatives here.

On Thursday a large picnic party spent the day at Morehead Island.

Mannie Allen of St. Joseph is visiting friends and relatives here.

Rev. Lawrence Scott of Texas held meetings at the Christian church last week.

R. J. Dunn and daughter, Hazel, left Monday for a visit in Plain City, Ohio.

Mrs. Elizabeth Duerfeldt of Nemaha is visiting her niece, Mrs. E. E. Butler.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schulenburg visited Sunday with J. F. Rumbaugh and wife.

Miss Bertha Duerfeldt went to Falls City Sunday where she will attend High school.

Harry and Lizzie Zubrick of Verdon spent Sunday at the home of E. E. Butler.

J. S. Spickler and sons, Otis and DeLos, started for So. Dakota Wednesday to purchase land.

Loy Franklin, Harley, Kittie, Lela, Henry and Ralph Butler are taking in the state fair this week.

Gus Duerfeldt and wife returned last week from an extended visit to Montana, Oregon and Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Rumpf of St. Joe visited the first of the week with Mrs. Rumpf's aunt, Mrs. E. E. Butler.

A. W. Nixon was recently treating his friends to Genetan apples kept over from last year. They were firm, sound, and delicious.

School began Monday. Misses Marie Riggs and Hattie Lilly teach in Barada; Miss Ella Kuhlman in District No. 1; Miss Mary Dodds in Dist. No. 24; Harry VanEst of Brownville in Dist. No. 20.

E. V. Goff, who has been ill at the home of his brother, J. B. Goff for some time, died Saturday, September 4th, of tuberculosis. The body was taken to Hamburg, Iowa, for interment. We extend sympathy to the bereaved relatives.

Not a minute should be lost when a child shows symptoms of croup. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears, will prevent the attack. Sold by all druggists.

WILLIAMSVILLE.

N. A. Arnold went to Falls City Monday.

Mrs. Renke who has been very ill is improving.

Andrew Lippold and family went to Falls City Thursday.

August Neimohler marketed a car load of hogs this week.

Wendell Gerwick and family went to Falls City Thursday.

Wm. Wheeler is putting a rock foundation under his barn.

I. A. Dunn is hauling rock for the foundation for his new corn crib.

Mrs. Anderson of Emporia, Kas., is visiting at Jacob Wissinger's. Jacob Arnold is dangerously ill at his home. He has symptoms of typhoid fever.

Misses Emma and Bertha Duerfeldt are attending High school at Falls City this year.

N. A. Arnold and wife and Miss Ogg of Shubert visited at I. A. Dunn's Sunday.

Miss Hazel Dunn and Katie Gerwick and company spent Friday evening at Mr. Gerwick's.

Mrs. Faller of Falls City and her sister of St. Louis were visiting at the home of Wm. Goetz Friday.

Dist. No. 23 opened school last Monday with twenty-eight scholars present and Mr. John Feicht as the teacher.

John Constantine, who was better last week, grew worse Sunday and the attending physician states that he has symptoms of typhoid fever.

R. J. Dunn, wife and two daughters Lottie and Hazel and Miss Flossie Wamsley spent Sunday afternoon at the home of J. A. Dunn. Mr. Dunn and daughter, Hazel, will leave soon for a visit in Ohio.

German Day!

Falls City Nebraska

Grand Parade, with floats, at 2:30

Illuminated Parade at night

German and English Speakers

Two Military Bands and other amusements

Wednesday
Sept. 15th

All are Invited

New Fall and Winter Styles Are Here

Children's and Misses' Dresses

New Fall and Winter Styles and Cloths are in. You will find a real economy in buying these dresses. There is something of novelty in their make and decoration which distinguishes them from most of the home-made creations.

Dress Goods and Suitings

Every shade and woven design at from 50c to $2.50 per yard, will be found on our counters. In the new colors--Wisteria, Catawba, Ashes of Roses, Reseda, Rasin and Egg Plant--our assortment is complete.

Remnants of Best Cloths

Every short length of high and low grade has been put on our center table, at very low prices to close. This offering includes some of the best cloths and affords an opportunity to get great value seldom offered.

Sweaters Very Popular

We are selling Sweaters freely. You may remember the difficulty we had in getting them last season. Come at once if you are thinking of buying one or more. Prices range from $1.40 to $5.00. Colors White, Oxford and Cardinal. They are very popular.

V. G. LYFORD

