

We Do This For You

Copyright 1909
The House of Kuppenheimer
Chicago

We mention Young Men's Clothes in a separate paragraph because they are a specialty with us. Here are smart, snappy styles, the lively patterns, the new ideas in cut that the young chaps want.

We make a specialty of studying the details for you; there are a hundred little points that must be right; the length of coat, the shape of collar, the roll of the lapel, the placing of the buttons and pockets. You don't know all about the many details, but you do know that when you get into an Hargrave suit or overcoat, it's right in every particular.

Get your new Fall Suit and Overcoat today; come and see what we have here. If you want to go away and buy something else, go ahead, but you'd better not until you know what WE'VE GOT HERE.

The finest clothes made by the greatest style-makers in the country, represented in Hargrave stock are here.

Suits, Overcoats and Raincoats
$18.00 to $30.00

Want to pay less? The Suits and Overcoats we sell at $10.00, $12.50, $13.50, $15.00 and $16.50 are worth more than the price we ask for same.

The satisfaction you get at Hargraves' lies in the fact that we are more interested in satisfying you than pocketing your money. You are looking for good clothes, real service, fair treatment, big values—YOU'LL FIND THEM ALL HERE.

Hargrave's
THE HOME OF GOOD CLOTHING
FALLS CITY, NEB.

We make a specialty of studying the details
FOR YOU.
Result — Satisfaction

When you get into a Hargrave's
this seasons
CREATION
you are SATISFIED

THE COMERS AND GOERS

HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST TO YOU AND ME.

What Your Friends and Their Friends Have Been Doing the Past Week.

Pay the ice man, and order a ton of coal.
Al Southard is ill at his home in this city.
Mrs. A. N. Harris of Shubert spent Friday in this city.
George Wright was down from Humboldt Monday.
John Breuner of Stella was a pleasant caller here Monday.
Mrs. G. J. Crook returned this week from a visit to relatives in Iowa.
H. C. Davis is quite ill at his home in this city, threatened with typhoid fever.
Even the most learned of us never realize how little we know till a small boy begins to ask questions.
Cox & Reynolds have just completed an artesian well for Peter Christian, in the east part of town.

Hoarseness in a child subject to croup is a sure indication of the approach of the disease. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given at once or even after the croupy cough has appeared, it will prevent the attack. Contains no poison. Sold by all druggists.

Foley's Honey and Tar clears the air passages, stops the irritation in throat, soothes the inflamed membranes, and the most obstinate cough disappears. Sore and inflamed lungs are healed and strengthened, and the cold is expelled from the system. Refuse any but the genuine in the yellow package. Kerr's Pharmacy.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Veach and daughter, Margery, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Parsons and two children, Mrs. Joe Parsons, Mrs. Julia Hall and daughter, Camma, Mr. and Mrs. Sig Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Arnold and John Hall were among the Verdon people, who came down Friday to view the autos that took part in the Duff auto race.

Miss Beulah Fry, Mrs. J. R. Pickett and Clayton Fry returned this week from their trip to Newton, Okla. The trip was made in the Fry auto and was a very enjoyable trip. They were accompanied home by Mr. and Mrs. Garth Mettz, of that place, who will visit relatives in and near this city.

The high school literary society has been organized for the school year, and the first meeting was held Friday evening. A fine program was rendered and all present enjoyed the debate.

"If the shoe fits, wear it," is a time-worn saying; but with woman if the shoe fits she takes it back because it is too big.

Mrs. Margery Grant returned this week from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. James Sinclair, near Preston.

Beginning to think about your coal pile? That's right. Cold nights make us creep up about the stove.

Misses Ethel, Stella and Frankie Shields returned the first of the week from a several days stay in Omaha.

C. M. Wilson returned the latter part of the week from Omaha, where he attended the Ak-Sar-Ben festivities.

There are always a good many people who keep the balance of the community busy wondering how they live so well.

Don't give the cats and dogs stale, dirty or soapy water to drink. See that it is clean and fresh. You know how it is yourself.

Mrs. John Crook, living south of town, has been in a hospital in Kansas City for several days. Friends in this city have received word from her that she is improving.

The kicker and the croakers have no place in a city with the push and progressiveness of our town. The man who opposes needed public improvements and stands in the way of progress is not a good citizen.

Your cough annoys you. Keep on hacking and tearing the delicate membranes of your throat if you want to be annoyed. But if you want relief, want to be cured, take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Sold by all druggists.

If you are a kicker and see the shadow of failure in everything that is proposed to help the town, for heaven's sake go into some secluded canyon and kick your own shadow on the clay bank, and give the men who are working to build up the town a chance. One long-faced, hollow-eyed, whining, capable, chronic kicker can do more to keep away business and capital from a town than all the drouths, short crops, chinch bugs, cyclones and blizzards combined.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Metzgar left Saturday for Pittsburg, where they will attend the national convention of the Christian church. They will also visit relatives in the east before returning.

Dr. R. Cooper Bailey and Dr. C. N. Allison left Wednesday to attend a meeting of the Presbyterian synod, which is held at Minden.

Don't forget the 15c tea given by the Presbyterian ladies at the home of Mrs. Samuel Wahl, this (Friday) evening. Don't miss it.

Rex Oliver spent a few days the latter part of last week in Omaha.

It is in time of sudden mishap or accident that Chamberlain's Liniment can be relied upon to take the place of the family doctor, who cannot always be found at the moment. Then it is that Chamberlain's Liniment is never found wanting. In cases of sprains, cuts, wounds and bruises Chamberlain's Liniment takes out the soreness and drives away the pain. Sold by all druggists.

Judge Travis was down from Plattsmouth Tuesday.

Mrs. George Morris and son went to Humboldt last Thursday to attend the horse show and to visit relatives.

If you hoe your own row with diligence you will have little leisure to note how your neighbor is hoeing his.

Judge Kelligar of Auburn was looking after legal business in this city Monday.

District court convenes next Monday with Judge Raper on the bench. The docket is the largest for many years.

Nebraska's choicest corn and alfalfa lands for sale from $75 to $85 per acre. Send for free list—Nider & Henrichs, Fairbury, Neb.

John Kloepfel and wife returned this week from a few weeks visit their daughter, Mrs. Robert Paul at Abilene, Kas. They visited at St. Joe on their way home.

We have rich and fertile agricultural lands within 20 miles of Denver at from $10 to $15 per acre. Easy terms, investigate, do it now.—S. D. Forsythe, 1734 Welton St., Denver, Col., with Colorado Land Headquarters. 41-31.

FOR SALE—A nice five room cottage, lights, water, cement walks, cellar, barn, coal house, and three lots. Located one block from court house and in splendid shape, a model house. Price $2,500. Inquire at this office. 41-1f Ernest Miller left Monday for his home in Pennsylvania, having stopped a couple of days with his cousins, A. R. Keim and two sisters, on his way east from Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ross of Sparta, Wis., arrived Saturday for a visit to the latter's parents, W. E. Dorrington and wife, and other relatives.

Mrs. P. H. Jussen went to Kansas City Thursday for a short visit. Her little granddaughter, Katherine Stewart, will accompany her home.

I. M. Rick and family arrived from Atchison Friday and are arranging their new 10 cent store for the big opening October 22.

Byron Clark of Plattsmouth, the Burlington attorney, was looking after legal interests for that corporation in this city Monday.