Some women after they have used a pattern just roll it up and tuck it away almost anywhere it happens, and when they want to use it next time it curls up and acts so that there is no doing anything with it. If they would just lay the patterns out flat and put them where they might stay that way, all this trouble would be avoided.
The Lincoln State Journal is certainly going after new business when it offers to send that big daily paper without Sunday from now until January 1, 1910 for only 50 cents, or with Sunday for 75 cents. Almost every family in the state will want to take advantage of this big cut in price in order to compare The Journal with any other daily they know about. This is just what the Journal folks want and why it makes such a cheap price. Its publishers feel that if a family get the Journal habit no other paper will ever fill the bill after that. The Journal not only is a great newspaper in a strict news sense, but stands for many of the principles that are being fought for by Nebraska. It's in the forefront of the battle against the saloon and refuses to print liquor or nasty medical advertising. Send in a half dollar and see what a lot you get for your money. They guarantee to stop the paper when the time is up.

For Sale.
Some choice Barred Plymouth Rock cockrels. Address Mrs. S. R. Ayers, Morrill, Kas. 42-5t

OUR MAYOR HONORED.

One of 385 Mayors to Be Entertained Royally at St. Louis.
Major Keeling was one among the 385 mayors of American cities who gathered under one roof and partook of the sumptuous luncheon at the Jefferson hotel at St. Louis on Oct. 4th. The St. Louis Republic, on the following day contained a splendid half-tone cut of the assembly, and Mayor Keeling's profile could be easily picked out.
The occasion of this gathering was to help celebrate the hundredth year of the incorporation of the city of St. Louis.
The town was thrown wide open to the mayors of America. A mayor's money was just the same as counterfeited during the Centennial week, Oct. 3d to 9th.
The Official Souvenir Program, gotten up in book form, contains a hundred years of progress, illustrated by over two hundred views, representative of the social and commercial interests of the city in 1909.
Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Danford of Joy, Ill., who visited last week with Mr. and Mrs. V. G. Lyford, left Monday for their home.
Here is a list of the complimentary passes which Mr. Keeling brought home to preserve as souvenirs of the occasion:
Western Union Telegraph Co.
Postal Telegraph & Cable Co.
Bell Telephone Co.
Kinloch Telephone Co.
Tickets to mayor's reviewing stand—good for all parades and reviews.
Seats on stage for Cook's Lecture—these seats sold for $5 each.
Ticket for Velled Prophets ball.
Book of tickets for street cars.
Tickets for concert and festival by German-American Alliance and the St. Louis Symphony orchestra.
Other Entertainments.
One person was detailed to care for each visiting mayor, and they attended to their duties faithfully. They were taken out to see the balloon races start—ten in number—and "it was a grand sight" says Mr. Keeling.
The cornerstone of the new court house was laid.
New City Buildings.
Bonds for three and one half million dollars have been voted and issued for building new city buildings and when completed will be grand. The mayor, Frederick H. Kreismann; Ex-Governor Francis, the president of the board of trade, and president of the Civic League, were untiring in their efforts to show their guests a good time.
P. M. Hanson, traffic manager of the National Enameling and Stamping Co., was detailed to care for the mayor of Falls City, and to use the woads of Mayor Keeling, "he was a grand man to be with."
There were some four hundred mayors, from over twenty states—from Ontario, Canada; Portland, Oregon; New Orleans and Jacksonville, Fla., in attendance.

—Wanted—A million bushels of apples at the Leo Cider & Vinegar Co's, new plant.
—That old suit, or garment of any kind, can be fixed up as good as new—see Stanley Stump. 38-tf
