THE WEEK'S SOCIAL EVENTS

AS 'TAS TOLD TO OUR SOCIETY EDITOR

Various Kinds of Entertainment by Individuals, Lodges, Clubs, Churches, Etc.

Mrs. W. S. Leyda entertained about forty lady friends Tuesday afternoon at a kensington. Beside the needle work in evidence, two very entertaining guessing contests furnished considerable amusement during the afternoon; one a poem, each line ending with the name of a book, the other was a floral love story. An elaborate supper was served at five o'clock, in which the hostess was assisted by her daughters, Mrs. Whetstine, Camille and Lucille Leyda. The afternoon was made a most enjoyable one.

Mrs. John Cox and Mrs. Fred Chesley planned and executed a very enjoyable surprise Friday evening in honor of Mr. Chesley's birthday. Mr. and Mrs. Chesley were entertaining the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Burk in the evening, when a sound was heard at the door. Mr. Chesley opened the door and to his surprise forty-nine masked men and women walked in. The surprise was complete. The evening was very pleasantly passed with games and social conversation. The guests were mostly members of the K. L. of S., and Mr. Chesley being a member, they gave him a post card shower. At a late hour nice refreshments were served.

Miss Maude Graham entertained with a Somerset party last Tuesday evening for her friend, Mrs. N. A. Heath of Hebron, Neb. Eight tables were arranged for the game and great interest shown in the contest all during the evening. Mrs. John Oswald carried off the honors for winning the most games. Lovely refreshments were served at eleven o'clock. Visiting continued until the approach of the midnight hour induced the guests to take their departure. Miss Graham is a charming hostess and her friends were delighted with the opportunity of meeting her guest.

The Young Ladies kensington of the Brethren Church gave a farewell meeting for Mrs. Teeter and her daughters at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Sperry Friday afternoon. A large number of ladies were present and enjoyed the afternoon, and at five o'clock a splendid lunch was served. Mrs. Teeter and daughters will be greatly missed by these young people, but they all joined in wishing them joy and happiness in their new home.

Fred Graham entertained the members of the University Sorority at his home last Saturday evening for Miss Salsbury, Miss Tongen and Mr. Martin Greene of Lincoln, who were visiting college friends here during the Thanksgiving vacation. Three tables were placed for whist, which was enjoyed until a late hour. Lovely refreshments were served by Mrs. Graham and her daughter, Miss Maude.

Reavis Gist entertained the members of the graduating class of '09, last Friday evening in honor of his cousin, Miss Opal Connor of Lincoln, who was a guest at the Gist home during the Thanksgiving vacation. Somerset was the chief amusement of the evening; and with class songs and music by several present, Mrs. Gist, assisted by her daughters served dainty refreshments at eleven o'clock.

The Daughters of Isabella gave a most enjoyable dance at their hall Thanksgiving night, for which about two hundred invitations were issued. Werner's orchestra was in attendance, and the evening program opened with the grand march, in which Peter Kaiser and Miss Gagnon lead the dancers. The dancing continued until the wee hours arrived and all during the evening most tempting refreshments were served in the banquet room.

Mrs. W. S. Leyda gave a second party during the week on Wednesday afternoon. Guests for nine tables were present and enjoyed a delightful afternoon playing Somerset. Eight games were played, and the honors were well distributed. An elegant supper was served in five courses at five o'clock. Hacks called for the ladies at six o'clock and they adjourned to their homes, after spending a delightful afternoon.

Misses May and Grace Maddox will entertain a few friends with a Somerset party Friday evening.

Miss Floy Grinstead gave a very enjoyable Somerset party last Tuesday evening, entertaining sixteen guests. Much interest was shown during the evening. Mrs. I. C. Maust carrying off the honors for the most games. Dainty refreshments were served at eleven o'clock. Miss Floy having the assistance of her sister, Mrs. Gilligan in serving.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed King, living south of town, celebrated their thirtieth wedding anniversary last Sunday by entertaining a large party of friends at dinner. A meal fit for a king was served, and fully enjoyed by all the guests present. Mr. and Mrs. King were presented with many beautiful gifts as tokens of esteem from their friends who wish them many more happy anniversaries.

Sorosis met with Mrs. Holland on Wednesday afternoon. There was an interesting and instructive program given. The subject "Coleridge, man and poet" was ably presented by Mrs. Jacquet. "Public and Private Hygiene" as set forth in a most comprehensive manner by Mrs. Morsman, clearly defines the duty of every citizen in the endeavor to promote the health of the home and the community at large. During the social half hour refreshments were served. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Banks on December 15th.

THANKSGIVING SERVICE.

A Large Crowd Attended the Services at The Baptist Church

The Thanksgiving services were held in the Baptist Church, and proved the experiment of having such services in the evening, a success, as many were turned away, unable to get in.

The program in its entirety was interesting, beginning with "The Pilgrims Chorus" on the organ, by Miss Banks.

The invocation by Rev. Reichel followed; when the men's double quartet, composed of leading singers from the different churches, gave a very appropriate song of praise. It is to be regretted that our men do not come together oftener and exercise their talent for the pleasure of the public.

The scripture reading was given by Mrs. L. C. Mauger of the Methodist Church.

The Women's Chorus was then heard in the 5th Psalm "Hear, O Lord"—the music of which is the exact music of Chopin's 13th prelude. The music is exquisite in itself, having an obligato that is sung in such a manner as to seem to come from a distance, a veritable cry to the Lord, while the body of the chorus keep calling upon the Lord to hear their cry.

The prayer of the evening was made by Rev. R. Cooper Bailey, and the offertory was a violin solo by Miss Alice Cleaver.

The sermon by Rev. Nanninga was thoroughly appreciated. It was a plain, simple, straightforward talk on the uses and abuses of Thanksgiving services, and was listened to with devout attention. After a second praise song by the quartet, the benediction was pronounced by Mrs. F. Ellsworth Day of the Christian Church, closing an unusual but helpful service.

A NOTABLE "SPREAD."

Elaborate Thanksgiving Dinner at The New National.

Landlord Spence, of the New National, certainly made a reputation for his hostelry last Thursday, in the way he served his guests at Thanksgiving dinner.

The menu for the occasion would compare favorably with a like occasion at any metropolitan hotel, and those who were fortunate enough to partake of Landlord Spence's fare upon that occasion, were loud in their praise of the feast.

From the traveling men, as well as the "home folks" came many compliments that caused the chef, the waiters, and Mr. Spence to smile with satisfaction.

LONG SOUGHT MAN FOUND

WAS UNDER COUCH AT FRANK CAMBLIN'S RESIDENCE

Was Caught and Bound Over—A Real Case of "Man Under the Bed" At Last.

Frank Camblin, nightwatch, and his brother, "Doc," were visiting with the former's family at his home Saturday evening, and while engaged in conversation Mrs. Camblin heard a noise in the front room. She was so persistent in her belief that someone was in there that Frank and his brother went in to investigate. After looking around the room they casually looked beneath the couch and there they saw a man stretched out. Mr. Camblin held the fellow a prison with a revolver, while his brother pulled the couch away.

He was handcuffed and taken to jail, refusing to talk or give his name. When taken before Judge Spragins for a hearing Wednesday he said his name was Frank Howe. He was bound over to the district court.

Henry Gatz Injured.

Dr. Boose was called to the home of D. W. Gatz, the latter part of the week. His son Henry was unloading corn and in some manner sustained a broken arm. The injured member was dressed and Henry is getting along remarkably well.

FOR A GREATER FALLS CITY

December 14th the voters of Falls City will cast their ballots for or against the issuance of bonds, in the sum of $12,500, this amount being pledged by the citizens of Falls City last July, as a bonus to the Missouri Pacific railway company, it being stipulated that said amount was to be used in the purchasing of land for railway yardage.

In the interim the Missouri Pacific people have not been idle—they have made good. Thousands of dollars have been spent in grading and in perfecting railroad yards that scarcely have an equal in the state, both from point of size and the substantial character.

The ties are being placed, the steel laid, and the work upon the round-house is soon to commence—the M. P. company has made good; it is now up to the voters of Falls City to do likewise—vote the bonds—to vote "for" with the same enthusiasm that was displayed last July, when scarcely a dissenting voice was heard against the proposition.

Being made a division point is a great acquisition for Falls City—the one thing that most of our business men and property owners would have chosen as a means toward the upbuilding of the town and increasing the value of property.

Let's vote the bonds in an emphatic manner. Let's vote as we talked last July—LET'S MAKE GOOD.

FIRE AT BARADA.

Several Persons Lose Property As a Result of The Fire.

Special from Barada.

About one o'clock the morning of the twenty-sixth of November, the citizens of Barada were aroused by the fire alarm. ## THE WEEK'S DEATH RECORD

MRS. ELLEN MCCARTHY PASSED AWAY SATURDAY.

Death of Morris Joy Tuesday Morning—Former Resident Dies at Denver, Colorado.

At twelve o'clock Saturday night, November 27, 1909, at her home in Falls City, Neb., the spirit of Mrs. Ellen McCarthy passed from its frail tenement of clay into that fuller life among the immortals. She was seventy years of age, and died from paralysis.

She has stood on the pier and watched so many of her loved ones depart alone on the silent voyage into the infinite, that her heart had long been in attune, and her ear attentive for the final summons.

She united with the Catholic church in her girlhood days and was ever faithful, and a living example of what Christ's religion means to the life which has come under its influence and guidance. Even up to her last days, when the infirmities of age had settled upon her frail form her heart ever kept in full measure of the Divine love.

Ellen Smith was born in Mitcheltown, Ireland. At the age of three years, with her parents, she removed to Canada. Fifty-three years ago she was married to Mr. McCarthy. To them were born five children; one died at Davenport, Iowa, at two years of age, and a married daughter died some thirteen years ago. The living ones are Dennis and John of this city and Mrs. Mary Kennedy of Shubert. She also leaves a husband and several grand children.

The funeral was held from the Catholic church Tuesday morning.

Joy.

Morris Joy died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Dick Jones early Tuesday morning, at the age of thirty-six years. For some time he has been a sufferer from tuberculosis and an operation recently performed gave only temporary relief.

Mr. Joy was born at Rulo, but the most of his life has been spent in and near Falls City. He leaves to mourn, his mother, four children, Morris, Jr., Maude, Julia and Raymond; four sisters, Mrs. G. W. Inskip and Mrs. Nora Copely of Chicago, Mrs. Benj. Poteet and Mrs. Dick Jones of this city, and two brothers, Reuben Joy of Margrave's ranch and John Joy of Houston, Tex. The funeral services were held from the funeral services were held at the Catholic church Wednesday morning and the burial was made in the Steele cemetery.

Benjamin Wiser Dead.

Benjamin Wiser, after years of poor health and suffering, died at the home of his son, Dr. B. Frank Wiser, in Denver, Colo., the latter part of last week.

Mr. Wiser has a host of friends in this county who will be grieved to learn of his death. He made this county his home for more than thirty years, residing most of that time in and near Verdon. A few years ago he and his wife went to Arizona to spend a few months, and while there Mrs. Wiser died. Since that time Mr. Wiser has made his home with his son.

It was distinctively a great affair. The assemblage was addressed by Gen. Chas. F. Manderson, Hon. John L. Webster and Rev. Frank L. Loveland. Nothing like it has ever been held in the state. Mrs. Gist has recently been enrolled a Daughter of the Revolution, and there are several other ladies in Falls City who are eligible for that honor, and will shortly receive it.
