The Ministerial Association

The regular monthly meeting of the ministers of the city was held in the Christian Church last Monday night. Arrangements were made to invite all the ministers of the county to meet with us on December 3d, for the purpose of organizing a county ministers association to meet once a month, also to have institutes and to work generally for the cause of the Master in our county, for ministerial fellowship and culture.

In this meeting also a committee consisting of one member from each church was appointed to look after the needs of the poor in our city. They are as follows: Chairman, Ed Daeschner, German Evangelical; Wm. Shilling, Baptist; Wm. Redwood, Christian; Samuel Kimmel, Brethren; D. W. Sowles, Presbyterian; A. D. Cameron, Methodist. Let everyone who has anything to give to the poor see that it passes through the hands of one of this committee. The Thanksgiving offering from the union service has been placed at their disposal, and it is the duty of the more fortunate to help the needy we believe, especially now that this arrangement has been made to that end. Let us see that these men have our hearty support and that we give liberally to them of our substance for distribution. Also notify them of families who are in need.

G. F. REICHELE, Secretary.

GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY.

Jerome Wiltse and Wife Celebrate Occasion Tuesday, Dec. 7, '09.

Jerome Wiltse and his wife, Mary L. Wiltse enjoyed the golden anniversary of their wedding Tuesday.

The members of the family sought to surprise their parents. The vigorous pioneers were not taken by surprise, but were overjoyed to meet their stalwart sons and beautiful daughters-in-law, to meet and cheer them on the fiftieth anniversary of their wedded life. Mr. Wiltse is in his seventy-fifth year and Mrs. Wiltse is in her seventieth year.

The members of the G. A. R. were represented, but the happy parents were left mostly to the quiet enjoyment of a visit with the members of the family, believing it not to be best to disturb and tire the parents with the usual formalities.

Those of the family who were present were C. P. Wiltse and wife of New Port, Neb., Dr. E. W. Wiltse and wife of Modale, Iowa, G. W. Wiltse of Dawson, Neb., C. H. Wiltse and wife of Preston, Neb., John Wiltse of this city, James Wiltse of Rulo, Neb., and Miss Mary Wiltse of Stella, Neb.

Of the members of the family living, there are eight sons and one daughter and eighteen grand children.

Jerome Wiltse, who reached his 75th birthday on the 13th day of October last, was raised on a farm in Erie County, New York. He was educated in the public schools of that state; also attended Shrader's Commercial College and Genesee Wesleyan College at Lima, New York.

He was married to Miss Mary Lena Wahl, December 7, 1859 and moved to Waukasha County, Wisconsin, and after farming there a year, moved to Rulo, Nebraska, in 1861. His old homestead, where he has seen Nebraska grow from a desert inhabited by the buffalo, Indian and grasshopper, to the wealthiest commonwealth in the Union.

In 1864 he volunteered, joining the Union army, Co. K, 48 Mo. Inf., of Captain Grigsby's Regiment of Volunteers which was in the campaign against Hood.

At different times he has been offered the presidency of Genesee College; the appointment of captain in his regiment in the regular army; superintendent of schools (territorial); and surveyor generalship of the state of Nebraska; all of which he respectfully declined.

His success in life has been greatly augmented by his noble wife. Aside from an injury to the knee, which was caused by an accident, he is still as active as an ordinary man of middle life. His eyesight is still perfect.
