When a cold becomes settled in the system, it will take several days' treatment to cure it and the best remedy to use is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will cure quicker than any other, and also leaves the system in a natural and healthy condition. Sold by all druggists.
A number of the scenes in "The Great John Ganton," which will be at the Gehling theatre Tuesday, December 14, are laid in the fashionable club houses in Chicago. In one scene a smart dinner is in progress, and the members of the company appear in gorgeous evening attire. The gowns worn by the ladies in this scene are Paris importations, secured by the Messrs. Shubert at great cost. During the engagement of the company at the Lyric Theatre, New York, the fashion columns of the daily papers devoted much space to descriptions of these gowns, and New York modistes besieged the dressing rooms, asking permission to examine the "creations" at closer range.
Dr. Foster came down from Seward the first of the week for a few days. He returned Wednesday, taking with him his little daughter, Helen, who has been visiting her auntie, Miss Oddie Lapp.

The only man who makes a success of a business is the one who builds it up and is vitally interested in it. Take away individual responsibility and you take no risk.

Croup is most prevalent during the dry cold weather of the early winter months. Parents of young children should be prepared for it. All that is needed is a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Many mothers are never without it in their homes and it has never disappointed them. Sold by all druggists.
Dr. Henderson closed up his business affairs here and shipped his household goods to Rulo last Thursday. He and his wife left for that place where they will make their future home, Falls City's loss is Rulo's gain, and they seem well pleased to have Dr. and Mrs. Henderson to make the change.
Misses Catherine and Anna McMahon from near Preston were up last Saturday. They had to go into Preston and come up on the train, as the river was out and the country roads almost impassable.
Most of the farmers from the surrounding country drove to the nearby towns last Saturday and took trains into Falls City, as it was impossible to cross the Nemaha and Muddy bottoms.
A tale for our grandchildren, "The flood and foot-deep mud in December, 1909." None of our ancestors can spring one like it in this country.

The Christmas spirit is in the air and it is doubtful if there is a city in the state that has made more elaborate preparations for the holidays than our own. The merchants have responded to the feeling of buoyancy that the season creates and they have loaded the shelves and tables and even the floor space of their stores with everything that the season demands. They have bought heavily of holiday goods and everyone of the establishments is a veritable exposition of things that are beautiful and sensible.
The Royal Neighbors conducted a very successful bazaar in White's store last Friday and Saturday, at which a nice sum was realized for the piano they are buying for their lodge room. All kinds of Christmas articles both useful and ornamental were sold.

The Candy Kitchen
Home of Pure Candies

is here and our stock of Toys and Holiday Goods is ready for your inspection. We are told that our stock is by far the largest in town, and we know that it is full of bargains and choice selections.

Our store arrangement this year is different. The five and ten cent goods are in the balcony. This is a little store of itself and the values that we show here will surprise you.

The twenty-five cent goods are in the north room and occupy 125 square feet of shelving.

The fifty cent goods occupy the second section of shelving in the main room, and the front section is devoted to higher priced articles. All over the store you will see droppings from Santa Claus' pack.

This arrangement will make it easy for you to shop here, and we have made the prices easy.
