

Henry C. Smith LANDS & LOANS

240 acres well improved, 1 1/4 miles from Depot in Kas. Good spring. Best of terms. Will take 40 acres as part payment, balance long time at low interest.
200 acres 1 1/2 miles from depot, Richardson county, Nebraska. Good buildings and land. Will take 40 or 80 acres as part payment.
160 acres upland, 1 mile from depot, Richardson county, Nebraska. $12,000.
160 acres Johnson county, Nebraska. 80 rods to church and school. Best of terms. Might rent.
107 acres near Brownville, Nebraska.
80 acres 1/4-mile from Falls City high school.
640 acres, $8,000 improvements. Also 640 acres adjoining. Will take 160 acres as part payment. Fine running water. A No. 1 opportunity.
Money to loan.

The County in General

The "Doings" of our Country Friends and Neighbors.

RULO.

Lena Harrison spent Sunday with Rulo friends.
Mrs. Belpier was a Falls City visitor last week.
Dr. H. G. Herring left last week for Sparks, Kas.
Anna Davis visited in St. Joseph a part of last week.
Bill Brainard of Missouri was a Rulo visitor Sunday.
Miss Bertha Kernon was a Falls City visitor Saturday.
Mose Brinegar of Fargo was a Rulo visitor last week.
Harry Bryant of Missouri was a Rulo visitor Monday.
James Sells was a Rulo visitor the last of the week.
U. T. Duncan of Fort. Hazel was a Rulo visitor Monday.
F. E. Culp of Wymore was a business visitor in Rulo Tuesday.
Garnet Wilson of Preston was a Rulo visitor one day last week.
Earnest Zimmerman was a Rulo visitor one day last week.
Jess Zeigler of Blue Hill, Neb., spent Sunday with home folks.
Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Osborne were St. Joseph visitors Wednesday.
Fred Brown of Falls City visited with relatives in Rulo last week.
J. W. Santo was transacting business in Rulo one day last week.
Sam Ward spent last week with his brother, Ewing, at Watson, Mo.
John Gristafson of Wymore was a Rulo visitor one day last week.
Annel Larabee and wife of Preston visited Rulo relatives last week.
The Holiness people are holding a revival at their church this week.
Mr. and Mrs. Bobst of Duflois visited with Mrs. Aikman last week.
Jack Goolsby of Missouri was a Rulo visitor the first of the week.
Olney Zeigler of Tecumseh recently made the home folks a short visit.
Cecil Kanaly came down from Salem and spent Sunday with her parents.
Alice Hall of White Cloud visited with Rulo friends the last of the week.
Will King of Forest City visited with relatives in this vicinity last week.
Mr. Ross of Wymore is visiting his brother Charles, and family this week.
Mrs. John Miller visited with relatives at Independence, Kas., last week.
Gus Johnson left Saturday for a short visit with his family in Nebraska City.
Dr. Layton of Leavenworth, Kas., was a business visitor in Rulo last Tuesday.
Steve Cunningham shipped a car load of hogs to St. Joseph one night last week.
Dr. Nye loaded his household goods Tuesday and moved to Brown county, Nebraska.
The Rulo friends of Mrs. Susan Boles, will be sorry to learn that she has been suffering from a severe attack of the grip.
Charles Threlkel returned last week to his home at Riverton, Ill.

after a three months' visit with Dr. Shepherd and family.
Will True returned Wednesday of last week from a month's trip through Colorado and Wyoming.
Rev. Gillman Walden of Forest City is in Rulo this week helping with the protracted meetings.
Tom Bean and family arrived from Oklahoma, Monday. Tom says old Richardson county will be good enough for him in the future.
George Jarrott, who has spent several months in Montana and Utah, stopped in Rulo for a few days visit with his parents last week. He was on his way to his home in St. Joseph.
On Saturday evening at eight o'clock Rev. Wachtel spoke the words which united Grace Harding of Rulo and Mr. Wayne O'Miller of Morrill, Kas., for life. Friends wish them happiness and prosperity.
About thirty of our young people chartered a bob-sled and attended the box social at the Fitchens school house one night last week. They report a royal welcome and a very pleasant evening. Miss Clara Aikman of Rulo is teaching the school.

OHIO.

Wilma Nedrow was on the sick list last week.
Myrtle Smith visited with Lydia Dowty recently.
Mrs. D. Spiekler was a guest of Mrs. Guy Lichty Monday.
Mrs. Essley visited Monday with Miss Minnie Allison.
Mrs. Ivan Keller was a guest of Mrs. Noah Peck Thursday.
Frank Beaver of Atwood, Kas., is visiting relatives in this vicinity.
George Sturms, wife and son spent Sunday with H. Fritz and wife.
Jim Gilmore and son were guests of H. Fritz and family Sunday.
Henry Zorn and family were guests of J. Reischick and family Sunday.
Rebecca Strauss and Lola Sturms were guests of Emma Last Sunday.
Vera Shaffer spent one day last week in Falls City with her sister, Edna.
Martha Nolte and family spent Sunday with Wm. Haettner and family.
Bishop Heil preached two very good sermons at Maple Grove last Sunday.
The quarantine was taken off of the Drago family last week for scarlet fever.
Chester Stump and wife entertained Mrs. Elshie and family at their home Sunday.
Rev. Lehman and wife of Murdock, Neb., spent several days with friends here recently.
Frank and Guy Lichty and their families spent Sunday with Chester Stump and family.
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harkendorf were visitors at their daughters', Mrs. Fred Wittrock one day last week.
Mrs. Thomas Keckler came Friday from Manley, to spend a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Earl Shaffer.
Perry Shaffer and family drove up to Jake Gible's near Verdon Saturday night and visited until Sunday evening.

Rev. Essley was called to Blue Springs Monday to preach the funeral of a young man, who died very suddenly.
Elmer Butler and wife of Barada attended the services at Maple Grove Sunday. In the afternoon they were entertained at the Zubrick home.
While returning from Falls City Monday, Mrs. Coon Fehr's horse became frightened and ran away. She was unharmed and no serious damage was done to the buggy.
Herman Huettner and Fred Wenz were victims of a runaway Saturday evening as they were coming home from Falls City. Neither of the men were hurt, but one horse was badly injured.

VERDON.

Mrs. Julia Hall is slowly improving.
Earl Orcutt was on the sick list this week.
Sam Cox of Barada spent Sunday with friends here.
Van Sailor is under the care of Dr. I. M. Houston.
Mr. Motsinger of Shubert was in town on business Thursday.
Norman Heinzelman made a business trip to Howe Tuesday.
John Shrader returned home from Kansas City Friday morning.
Frank Dietrich, Jr., left Friday for a business trip to Emporia, Kas.
Evan Owens was a pleasant visitor in St. Joe a few days last week.
Mrs. John Weaver returned from a visit with relatives in Falls City.
Will Fehr, wife and little daughter of Stella were in the city Monday.
Vivian Mayfield moved last week to John Shrader's farm near Stella.
Misses Chloe and Verna Wilkinson were shopping in Falls City Friday.
Ed E. Ewing was transacting business in Emporia, Kas., this week.
Fred Heineman and son, German, drove to Falls City the first of the week.
Walter Veach was called to Strausville Saturday to repair a gasoline engine.
John Bauer of Ohio Township was transacting business here one day last week.
Miss Armbruster made a trip to Falls City Saturday, returning Sunday afternoon.
Miss Roxie McCullough arrived Sunday after a two weeks visit with Mrs. Rowen near Dawson.
Mrs. Lavina Fogle returned Sunday from a weeks visit with relatives in the western part of the state.
Lena Shubert came down from Stella the first of the week for a visit with Miss Zeldia Waggoner.
Mrs. Ed Fraunfelder returned last Wednesday from Falls City where she visited her sister, Mrs. F. W. Pachen.
Mrs. Belle T. Webster came up from Emporia, Kas., on business one day last week. She returned Thursday.
Mrs. Harrison and children came down from Stella Saturday afternoon for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Heinzelman.
Miss Helen Stowle came up from Garden City, Kas., for a few weeks' visit with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Robison.
The play in Hall's opera house on Friday evening entitled, "Eli and Jane," was well attended and all present were well pleased.
Mr. and Mrs. Chase are having the pleasure of entertaining their daughter and son-in-law, who came down from Nemaha City last week.
Mrs. Merle Helmick and little son left Monday for Trenton, Neb., where she will visit relatives a few weeks. Her father accompanied her as far as Falls City.
James Well was called Monday to the home of his parents three miles east of town, by the serious illness of his father, who is suffering from heart trouble.
Mrs. Wilbur Henderson and children of Council Grove, Kas., arrived Wednesday afternoon for a few weeks visit with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Griffith.
Mrs. Eliza Goolsby left Monday for Trenton, Neb., where she will visit her sister for a few days. From there she will go to Laird, Col., to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Rowin Veal and family. She was accompanied as far as Falls City by Joe Veal.

HUMBOLDT.

Dr. J. L. Gandy was in Falls City this week.
Henry Seeley of Lincoln visited friends here this week.
The W. C. T. U. met with Mrs. G. W. Butterfield Tuesday.
J. Curtis and wife of Stella visited Humboldt relatives Monday.
James Hnizda was a passenger to Table Rock the middle of the week.
Dr. J. A. Waggener was a passenger to St. Joe the middle of the week.
Mrs. Mary Stone of Fargo, S. D., is visiting her parents, Frank Porak and wife.
Mrs. J. F. Walsh entertained the ladies of Macabee lodge at a Kensington Wednesday.
Lee Wittwer of Missouri visited the family of Claud Linn and wife the last of the week.
Mrs. William Fisher of Washington, Kas., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Tom Smith this week.
Mrs. J. E. Cornell of Saratoga, Wyo., is a guest at the home of Frank Snetthen and family.
Mrs. Charles Sharts of Falls City has recently been a visitor at the home of her mother, Mrs. S. Sanson.
George Alberts and wife went to St. Joseph the last of the week, where the latter received medical treatment.
Harry Mann and little son, Herbert, returned the middle of the week from a visit with friends at Long Island, Kas.
H. P. Marble, who has been spending some time in Macey, Neb., returned the last of the week for a visit with his family.
Frank Sherman, formerly of this place, but now proprietor of a barber shop in Table Rock, was on our streets Monday.
Mrs. Minnie Beurstetta of Tecumseh visited at the home of her brother Ambrose Beurstetta and family, the last of the week.
Mrs. Norman Bullis and daughter, Mildred, after a visit with Humboldt relatives, returned to their home in Kansas City this week.
Eben Peake, son of W. J. Peake, formerly of Humboldt, was married at Larned, Kas., to Miss Ethel Spurgin, who formerly lived on the Miles ranch.

SHUBERT.

Miss Lena Weick is visiting relatives in Falls City.
Louis Shufenberg was a business visitor here Tuesday.
George Ritter spent several days last week at Nebraska City.
Jud Arnold of Barada visited with Earnest Harding and wife, who were recently married in Dawson, have gone to house-keeping in the groom's cottage in the west part of town.
Mrs. A. D. Gise came from Salt Lake City last week. She will remain several weeks with her parents, G. W. Butterfield and wife. She will then go to her new home at Springfield, Mo.
Rev. Jos. Adams of Bethany has been called to preach in the Christian church of this place. The ladies of this congregation have recently purchased a new piano, and the church seems to be in a prosperous condition.
L. J. Segrist has commenced the erection of a lumber shed, to be added to the west of the building already used by him in his lumber business. He will remove the material from the corner lot, opposite his place of business, and in this place a large garage will be built by a stock company.
Mrs. O. T. Little received word that her nephew, Will Raney, a student of Hastings college had successfully passed the examination to secure a Cecil Rhodes scholarship, being the only one of seven to reach the required grade. The applicants for the honor represented five colleges.
A pre-nuptial shower was given Miss Rose Oberly at the home of Sarah Edle, Friday evening. Those receiving invitations were asked to draw a number, representing a room of a house. The article given by them to the bride, being something appropriate for the room indicated by the number drawn.

STELLA.

Prof. Eastwood is enjoying a visit from his niece this week.
Mrs. Thomas Mason is seriously ill at her home south of town.
Miss Neva Cornell visited her sister, Mrs. Awe, at Howe, Saturday and Sunday.
Rev. Hinkle drove to Howe Sunday morning to preach at the M. E. church.
Wm. Veal and wife were guests at the home of M. H. Vandevanter on Sunday.
Dr. Osborne, an osteopath, from

Auburn was here last week looking for a location.
A son was born to Robert Scott and wife, living south of town, Monday of last week.
Miss Ninon Gentry is assisting in the store of M. Barstler and son, during the holiday trade.
"Cap" Evans and wife left Tuesday for a holiday visit with their children in Oklahoma.
Joseph Curtis moved his family to the country Monday. They will farm his father's place, north of town, the coming year.
John Winfrey and wife, who have been visiting relatives and friends in this community for several weeks, left this week for their home in Hobart, Oklahoma.
Miss Olive Harris went to Omaha last Thursday. After a short visit there she will visit her sister, Miss Lucille Harris, who is attending the State University.

Fred Boatman and family Thursday. Mr. Richardson of Cottage Grove made this a place of business Monday.
Clem Gates and wife of near Verdon visited friends here one day last week.
Frank Watton of Arago visited with relatives here the latter part of last week.
William Harris of Reserve, Kas., was a business visitor at this place last week.
Ed Ahern and wife of North Dakota are here to spend the winter with home folks.
Miss Dora Fishburn spent a few days last week with her friend, Miss Ethel Goolsby at Barada.
John Cummings and wife returned home the latter part of last week from a month's stay with relatives in Oklahoma.
—Buy rock salt, barrel and sack salt at C. A. Heck's. 43-4f

WILLIAMSVILLE.

John Flecht was in Falls City Wednesday.
William Goetz has purchased a fine new automobile.
Mrs. I. A. Dunn was in Barada consulting Dr. Andrews Tuesday.
Wendell Gerwick was a business visitor in Falls City Tuesday.
Joe Gerwick spent Sunday with his brother-in-law, Clifford Fink.
Richard Slagle spent Sunday afternoon with Henry and Ralph Butler.
Mrs. Ida Bauman spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Renke.
A little daughter was born to Rudolph Voegel and wife last Thursday night.
A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schuetz and wife, Thursday, December 9th.
I. A. Dunn and family went to Falls City Saturday to do their Christmas shopping.
All the ponds in this vicinity are frozen over, and there have been several skating parties this week.
The German Lutheran church of this place will give their Christmas entertainment Friday evening, December 24th.
Grandpa Duerfeldt celebrated his eighty-third birthday last Saturday. His friends gave him a post card shower. He received over one hundred cards.
—Watertown Wisconsin Rye flour flour of C. A. Heck.

WANTED!

Horses and Mules

From 4 to 20 years old- I want them fat and broke to work. I will buy any kind, big or little- Don't sell them until you see me. If you have got a big, fat horse of any kind I can give you more than you can get in any market anywhere. We have got a good place to ship to and can pay you the price if you have good horses that are too high for other buyers. Fetch them to me- I will buy them. Price cuts no figure on a good one.

I will be in Falls City, Saturday, Dec. 25

Christmas Day, at Chapman's Feed Yard

Reserve, Friday, Dec. 24

Hamlin, Kas., Thursday, Dec. 23

Remember the dates. Come in. Tell your neighbors.

Jester & McDaniels

LANCASTER, PENN.

YOU WILL SHARE OUR PRIDE in dental work if you have need of our services and avail yourself of our skill, experience and facilities. We don't do half way work—it's all or nothing with us, as many people know to their own great gratification. Note, please, that we make no charge for expert examination.

DR. YUTZY

BERT WINDLE, D. D. S., Assistant
Falls City, Nebraska

The only baking powder from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar—made from Grapes—
Makes Finest, Purest Food
Royal Baking Powder
Absolutely Pure

—Get your wood and coal of C. A. Heck. 43-4f