

JAQUET'S

XMAS POINTERS FOR SHOPPERS

Every year styles seem to improve and every time the Christmas season rolls around we can say with all honesty that our stock is more attractive than the year before.

The following are a few pointers that will help decide the puzzling question of WHAT TO GIVE.

Watches

The gift of gifts, that will delight any member of the family. Our extensive knowledge of watches makes us leaders, not only in repairing, but also in selling watches. A full line of Elgin, Waltham, Hamilton and Howard Watches, with only the best gold-filled and solid gold cases always on hand.

Fobs

For those who have a watch a Fob is a very acceptable gift. We have them in a great variety.

Rings

Nothing adds more beauty to a man's or woman's hand than a beautiful signet or set ring. Jaquet's rings are all solid gold, 10k, 14k and 18k.

Jewelry

One of the most staple articles of jewelry appropriate for a Christmas gift, is a brooch, either gold filled or solid gold.

Scarf Pins

Are always admired and are much worn by men. We have them with large and small stones and without sets, in gold filled or solid gold.

Hat Pins

That will hold any hat on a woman's head—every one a beauty and a credit to the giver.

Neck Chains

and Locketts. The desire for Neck Ornaments is increasing. To supply this demand we have chains, for all, from the baby to the middle-aged lady, with lockets to suit the most exacting taste.

Cuff Links

For men and women, in the newest designs, best quality and lowest prices, to suit every individual taste and pocketbook.

Back Combs

Will be worn very extensively the coming season. Would be an acceptable gift for any woman.

Purses

Mesh Bags, large and small, and other purses in our stock, make ideal gifts.

Toilet Articles

A combination of utility and beauty can be found in Jaquet's Toilet Sets, and other articles necessary in the daily toilet.

Cut Glass

Rich American Cut Glass is unsurpassed as a gift for the home. It would pay you to see our line of cut glass before buying.

A. E. JAQUET

The Old Reliable
Opposite Postoffice

THE COMERS AND GOERS

HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST TO YOU AND ME.

What Your Friends and Their Friends Have Been Doing the Past Week.

—Eat Sowler's Candy.
—Dr. Wilson, Wahl's building.
—See Clarence Heck for oil meal.
—The Candy Kitchen for brick ice cream.

Mrs. Joe Cullen—was down from Verdon Friday.

See Clarence Heck for your coal this fall. Phone 101.

—Young's Pantorium cleans and presses ladies skirts. 44-tf
Ben and Fred Allison were down from Verdon Sunday.

E. F. Harbaugh, from near Dawson, had business here Friday.

—Get your chickens some poultry shells at Heck's feed store. 43-tf

Dr. Hannah C. Moran went to Omaha last Friday to visit her sister.

Mrs. Murt McGuire went to Morrill Friday to visit for a short time.

George Hummel went to Lincoln Friday to attend a University fraternity banquet.

Mrs. J. C. Yutzy left Monday for Lincoln where she will spend a week with friends.

What makes a gift so acceptable as richly executed hand engraving? You can get it at Jaquet's.

Mrs. W. J. Alden of Seattle, Wash., who was the guest a part of last week of her cousin, Mrs. H. D. Burchard, left Friday for her home.

Uncle William Rieschek has on display at Hancock & Son's office a fine writing desk. It is all his own handiwork, and it is well worth your while to examine the convenience and finish of this handsome piece of furniture. It is for sale.

In becoming Christians, though we love some persons more than we did, let us love none less. Let us glory in the happy tide of Christmas cheer. That noble Christianity which is always true to the promptings of the heart. Ever responsible to the charity that suffereth long and is kind.

John Bailey, who with his wife, are spending the winter with their son, Rev. R. Cooper Bailey and family in this city, has been quite ill the past week. The Tribune has missed the pleasant smile of the esteemed gentleman and we hope that he may soon be able to resume his calls.

When a cold becomes settled in the system, it will take several days' treatment to cure it, and the best remedy to use is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will cure quicker than any other, and also leaves the system in a natural and healthy condition. Sold by all druggists.

BARADA.

Miss Riggs spent Sunday at home. Al Gushard was in Falls City one day last week.

Rev. A. Essley will preach next Sunday evening.

C. E. Burgess was in Falls City one day last week.

Hazel Dunn spent several days at the farm last week.

E. E. Butler and wife attended services at Maple Grove Sunday.

Flossie Wamsley visited Tuesday with Mrs. R. N. Williamson.

Miss Loretta Kelly of Bancroft is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. A. Cox.

Conrad Gerdes and wife spent Sunday with Henry Siemering, Jr., and wife.

Levi Tillman moved onto the Wilman farm this week, where he is employed.

Mrs. Laura Mitchell spent last week with her daughter, Mrs. Nellie Peters.

C. H. Martin had the misfortune to fall from the hay-loft, fracturing a couple of ribs.

Mr. and Mrs. George Frazier visited Monday with their daughter, Mrs. Mary Bollman.

Leon Vassar left Wednesday for Abilene, Kas., to visit his father, George Vasser.

The Woodmen of the World will give an oyster supper at their hall Christmas night.

The Patterson school expects to have a tree and Christmas exercises on Christmas night.

Z. S. Bridgman and family this week moved from Verdon onto their farm east of Barada.

Christmas exercises and a tree will be held on Christmas eve by the Evangelical Sunday school.

Rev. J. Lehman and wife of Murdock, Neb., visited several days with E. E. Butler, and other friends.

Miss Dodds expects to give a picnic social at her school house two miles south of Barada on Saturday evening, December 18th.

Karl and Matilda Kammerer, who have been visiting at the home of their uncle, Wm. Eble, returned last Thursday to their home at Stafford, Mo.

Miss Lilly spent the week end at her home near Verdon. She attended the box supper at the Parson school-house, where Jesse Cox teaches this year.

Notice.
As I have bought out Miss Brebeck's winter hats, I will have a thirty days sale, beginning December 8th, on all my winter hats to clean up the stock and make room for new spring goods. I have the finest and largest line of trimmed hats in the city and they all go at a great sacrifice. I also have a nice assortment of Holiday goods, which will go at a very low price. Come early and avoid the rush at the Bon Ton, or the Brebeck building.
MISS H. C. ANDERSON,
Proprietress.

Louie Wise's picture appeared in last Friday's Denver Post as their boss news boy in this city. He was highly complimented on the success he made in selling papers here. Then, too, Louie sent some very complimentary reports of our pretty little city to the Post, and we all feel proud of the compliment paid our town.

Miss Frances Ramsey returned last Friday from St. Joseph, where she was compelled to prolong her visit because of a fall which resulted in breaking a bone in her arm. She still carries the injured member in a sling.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Knickerbocker went to Sabetha, Kas., Tuesday, where they spent a couple of days with Mrs. Knickerbocker's sister, Mrs. Douglas, who was with a theatrical company, playing in Sabetha.

Postmaster Crook says we can have mail carrier service in Falls City just as soon as the city council gets busy and has all the houses properly numbered. That is all that is now necessary.

The approach of the holidays, that brings with it a world of planning, shopping, and work has somewhat checked the social mind, and in a social way our city is a little dull at this time.

Charles Tangney has accepted a position with Maust Bros., and will move his family from Rulo soon. They will reside during the winter with the family of his father, John Tangney.

Mr. Anderson, boss groceryman of Humboldt was down inquiring for a business room Tuesday, but we are informed he failed to find a suitable location.

H. C. Andrews, of the Andrews Music Co., and Frank Moore were over from Hiawatha looking after interests here the latter part of the week.

There will be three horse buyers in Falls City, Saturday, December 25th. You farmers ought to get what they are worth. Bring in your fat ones.

Mrs. Mattie May, who has been very sick for the past two weeks is reported better, and a rapid recovery is hoped for.

Mrs. Wm. Crouch was a Verdon shopper here Tuesday. She visited her brother, Chas. Heineman, while in the city.

Misses Catherine Meliza and Meta Heineman of Verdon visited Miss Anita Wilson a few days the last of the week.

Mrs. Sam Stewart returned Friday to her home near Reserve, after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim DeWald.

Miss Catherine Maddox, who has been visiting relatives here for the past six weeks, left Sunday for Denver, Col.

Mrs. C. N. Allison and baby returned Friday from a three weeks' visit with relatives in Manhattan, Kas.

The early buyers buy best. Make an early selection at Jaquet's and your gift is bound to please.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Shaffer of Shubert were in town Tuesday. They were on their way to St. Joseph.

Quality counts at Jaquet's—it is given first consideration. This is your protection in gift-buying.

Basil Boyle of St. Louis was in the city a few days this week visiting his mother, Mrs. J. C. Yutzy.

Mrs. I. M. Houston and daughter, Rill, went to Kansas City, to do some shopping Tuesday.

Will Gilman was in the city Friday the guest of his sister, Miss Nellie Gilman.

Miss Mina Carey of Hiawatha visited Miss Minnie Albright over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fleming Robb of Verdon spend Monday in our city.

Ike Lyons made a business trip to Kimball, Neb., Friday.

Mrs. Will Boyd was a Monday shopper here from Salem.

Charles Able and wife were down from Arago Saturday.

L. M. Dowell was down from Salem on business Sunday.

Fred Hartman went to Omaha Tuesday afternoon.

J. R. Cain made a business trip to Hiawatha Monday.

Hon. H. Belden was down from Dawson Friday.

Mrs. Ray Huston was down from Salem Monday.

Elmer Auxier was down from Salem Saturday.

John Hall was a Verdon visitor here Monday.

Bert McCool was down from Salem Friday.

A Christmas Gift

that is both useful and ornamental, can easily be selected from our stock of Fancy China, Cut Glass, Lamps or Dinnerware.

We carry the largest stock in the county and are better prepared than ever before to supply your wants, and at prices that suit all purses. We would be pleased to show you the stock. Don't forget the Cut Glass and

Hand Painted Plate Samples. Special prices at

Chas. M. Wilson's

It's Summertime All the Time

In California Old Mexico and Southern and Cuban Resorts

Cold, biting winds, snow, sleet and zero weather are unknown. You can purchase winter tourist tickets, with long limit, at low cost, and escape all the discomforts of a northern winter.

Better write or talk to me about trains and fares.

E. G. WHITFORD, Ticket Agent, Falls City, Neb.
L. M. WAKELEY, G. P. A., Omaha, Neb.
P. S. There will also be some special round trip rates to Denver, January 8, 9 and 10, for the Western Stock Show.

White's

Is one of the stores that you should visit when selecting

Your Christmas Presents

A Picture is one of the most appropriate tokens one can give

CHRISTMAS IS HARDLY COMPLETE WITHOUT A TRIP TO WHITES' STORE

If you have pictures to frame we'll give it prompt attention

OPPOSITE OPERA HOUSE

WE ARE NOW PREPARED

To quote you the best possible prices and show you the biggest and best line of monuments in Southeastern Nebraska.

Your Satisfaction is Our Success

It is our constant aim. Our reputation for QUALITY insures your getting the best. Don't depend altogether upon what you are told, but make an investigation.

Falls City Marble Works

Established 1881. F. A. & R. A. NEITZEL, Mgrs.