

THE COMERS AND GOERS

HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST TO YOU AND ME.

What Your Friends and Their Friends Have Been Doing the Past Week.

—Eat Sowler's Candy.
—Dr. Wilson, Wahl's building.
—See Clarence Heck for oil meal.
—The Candy Kitchen for brick ice cream.

Miss Anna Mason spent last Friday in Hiawatha.
Mrs. Conrad Fehl of Verdon was in the city Monday.

Mrs. J. H. Bauer of Verdon spent Saturday in this city.

See Clarence Heck for your coal this fall. Phone 101.

Miss Ida Pribbeno was up from Preston shopping Friday.

Mrs. Hayden Bowers of Verdon was shopping here Friday.

Miss Nola McCool of Salem visited Miss Louise Rule Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Spangler were over from Morrill Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Bowers of Verdon were in town Saturday.

Joe Miller and Miss Mary Miller were down from Dawson Saturday.

Will Quinlan and sister, Miss Maggie, were down from Dawson Friday.

Mark Williamson returned Saturday from a few days stay in Lincoln.

Miss Ruth Heacock came down from Lincoln Friday for the holiday vacation.

Mrs. Jesse Shrimpton and Miss Ollie Tilden of Salem were down Saturday.

Miss Louise Rule is assisting R. B. Simpson in the jewelry store during the holidays.

John Towle came down from Omaha Sunday on a combined business and pleasure trip.

Miss Katherine Maddox came down from University Place Thursday for the holiday vacation.

Ray Zimmerman was over from Hiawatha Sunday. He was a guest at the home of W. L. White.

Dean Fordyce of the State University was a guest over Sunday at the home of W. H. Maddox.

Ray Graham was among the University students who came down from Lincoln Friday night.

Chester McDowell and Miss Louise Rule drove to Salem Sunday to spend the day with Miss Nola McCool.

Reavis Gist came down from Lincoln Friday evening. He will spend his holiday vacation at his home in this city.

Bert Coleman arrived Saturday from Miles City, Mont., and will remain during the holidays with his wife and children.

Miss Francis Mosiman returned Sunday from Superior, where she has spent some time with her aunt, Mrs. Robert Johnson.

Mrs. Margaret Maddox returned Thursday from Hastings where she spent three weeks with her daughter, Mrs. George Dietsch.

Miss Alice Jaquet arrived Saturday from Galesburg, Ills., where she is attending school. She will enjoy a two weeks' vacation at home.

Miss Elizabeth Sanford came home Sunday from Superior, where she is in the millinery business. She will remain until after the holidays.

Carl Mason returned Friday night from Springfield, Mo., where he is attending school. He will spend the holidays with his mother in this city.

Mrs. J. G. Whitaker returned last Saturday from Washington, Kansas, where she was called by the illness of her mother, who died December 15th.

Mrs. Bruno Hanson returned last Saturday to her home in Omaha. She was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Daisy King, who will spend the week with her.

Miss Inez Wachtel returned home Saturday from the Peru Normal, because of illness, and was unable to remain until the school closed for the holiday vacation.

Mrs. Bert Wright came up from Kansas City Tuesday to visit during the holidays with her mother, Mrs. Mattie Stoughton. Mr. Wright and Ted will arrive today.

Mrs. M. Trippitt, of Warner, Idaho, and Mrs. T. J. Marion of Hiawatha arrived Wednesday for a short visit with the family of their brother and son, C. H. Marion. The former left Thursday for her Idaho home.

Manager Gehling will offer to his patrons on December 27th, one of the successful plays of the season, "The Girl From the U. S. A.," produced by the Harry Scott Co. According to newspaper clippings it is a new play with no other just like it. It takes a representative American girl—just such a bright and charming girl as you often meet in your every-day life—and places her in a strange land among strange people, in situations that call for the cleverest diplomacy to solve, and show how she can naturally and gaily save herself and her friends from impending ruin. Remember "The Girl From the U. S. A." will be at the Gehling December 27th.

The basement under Mr. Lyford's store will be the scene of much merriment and joy on Friday night. The Presbyterian Sunday School will have their Christmas tree and a real good time there that evening. Bring in your presents for friends or children Friday afternoon and they will care for them.

Neil McCool has sold the East Side Cafe and will leave soon for North Platte, Neb. Mr. McCool says he made some pretty good money while in the restaurant business, but didn't like it.

Wes. Livengood of Wymore spent a part of the week in this city at the home of his brother-in-law, John Hossack. He also visited relatives in Preston.

There will be three horse buyers in Falls City, Saturday, December 25th. You farmers ought to get what they are worth. Bring in your fat ones.

Lim Donald and wife of Kansas City arrived Wednesday to spend Christmas with his grandmother, Mrs. Fox, and Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Himmelreich.

Charles Sperry went to Mound City, Mo., last Friday to visit during the holidays with his grand-parents, Thomas Sare and wife.

Leon Norris left Monday with the basket ball boys for Tecumseh, and will make the rounds with them.

Miss Florence Judd goes to Auburn today to attend the wedding of her friend, Miss Lydia Barnes.

Miss Dorothy Morehead came down from Lincoln Friday to spend her holiday vacation at home.

Mrs. I. C. Maust returned last Thursday night from a visit with Mrs. Etta Schoenheit.

Misses Gertrude and Grace Lyford came home from Lincoln Friday to spend the holidays.

Mrs. Patrick Bourk was down from Dawson Monday to do some holiday shopping.

Miss Nina Mead is assisting at Wahl's store during the holiday season.

At times jealousy and animosity causes one to lose all their discretion.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schaible returned Friday from a trip to Kansas City.

Mrs. Ollie McLain went to Topeka today to spend Christmas.

James Coupe is planning to leave Saturday night for Denver.

Steve Miles made a business trip to Kansas City Monday.

Mrs. Thomas Greene was over from Reserve Saturday.

See Clarence Heck for your coal this fall. Phone 101.

Jim McKiever was down from Nebraska City Sunday.

A. Graham went to Lincoln on business Tuesday.

Neal Thornton was in Kansas City Monday.

—Get your chickens some poultry shells at Heck's feed store. 43-44

Uncle Silas Gist was down from Salem Monday.

Mrs. D. G. Griffiths and son, Heath, spent Saturday in Verdon.

Harry Cain came down from Lincoln Friday to spend the holidays.

Mrs. James Powell returned last Friday from a short visit to her mother at Seneca, Kansas.

Judge Gagnon married Mr. Albert Kammerer and Miss Nellie Little, both of Barada last Thursday afternoon.

Dr. Griffiths reports a baby boy at the home of Rev. Nanninga and wife, who came to gladden their home on Monday night.

G. W. Inskeep was in town for a few days this week. He was looking after business matters and calling on old friends.

A nine-pound boy was born to Otto Reiger and wife, who live on the Scholl place a mile north of town, last Friday.

Dr. Boose left a baby boy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Knepper, who live three miles south of town, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Sowler will come up from St. Joe this evening and remain until after Christmas with Mr. Sowler's parents.

Miss Myrtle Hoffmell of Abeline, Kas., will arrive today for a visit during the holidays with Miss Lela Powell and other friends.

Miss Leah Powell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ulla Powell, is in the city visiting the families of her uncles, John and James Powell.

Jean Cain is out with the basket ball team this week, having left on Monday for Tecumseh, where they played and won the first game.

The Keister Dressmaking school closed Thursday evening for a vacation until January 10th. The out-of-town students have all returned home.

—Do you know the story of the fourteen rejected books of the Old Testament of the Bible? Send 10c for it. Literary Curio Co., box 256, Pinceton, Indiana. 44-45

Mr. and Mrs. George Stumbo and little daughter, Jennie Pearl, came down from Lincoln Wednesday to spend the holidays with Mrs. Stumbo's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Prater.

J. A. Pollard, R. C. Brown, E. W. Dowell and D. S. Doomer of Salem attended Masonic lodge in Falls City Monday evening. Mr. Dowell's brother was being initiated into the Masonic order.

A splendid time is assured at the Brethren Church this Friday evening. Dr. Mathers has diligently trained the children for the Christmas exercises, both in music and recitations. Every Sunday School student may well expect a package of good things.

Father Hex has so far recovered from his recent illness as to be able to say mass at the Convent Wednesday morning, before school closed for the holidays. He will leave early in January for Florida to take a much needed rest.

A message was received last Saturday telling of the sudden death of Mrs. W. S. Leyda's mother, Mrs. McMillan, in Granger, Ohio. Mr. and Mrs. Leyda left immediately in order to be present for the funeral.

Dr. Chester Brink left Monday for Appleton, Ills., where he will spend the holidays with his wife and other relatives. Mrs. Brink will return with him.

Mrs. E. Mead left Wednesday for Kearney, Neb., where she will spend the remainder of the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Lillith Campbell.

Mable Beatty, who has been visiting relatives in and around Falls City for several months, left Tuesday for her home in Ottawa, Kas.

W. VanDoran, government supervisor, wife and daughter, Leona, of Otoka, Okla., were visiting Mrs. and Miss Brebeck Wednesday.

Bryan Gagnon, who is attending school in St. Marys, Kas., arrived this week to visit the family of his uncle, John Gagnon.

John Brannigan came down from Peru Wednesday to spend the holidays at the home of his aunt, Mrs. James Powell.

Mrs. Chas. Wyand of Somerset, Pa., arrived last night and with her husband will make this their future home.

Arthur Zook of Baker, Kas., was in the city the latter part of last week looking after business matters. Earl Ankney and wife of Somerset, Pa., are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Ankney in this city.

Mrs. Allie Watson and son, Otho, will go to Auburn Christmas morning to spend the day with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McGuire of Morrill visited last Sunday in this city with Murt McGuire and wife.

Mrs. Jane Kuntz of Kansas is visiting her uncle, G. J. Crook, and wife during the week.

Miss Minnie McDonald is spending her vacation with relatives in Council Bluffs and Beatrice.

Mrs. Flurry of Kansas City is in the city the guest of her daughter, Mrs. A. E. Jaquet.

Prof. Hurst accompanied the basket ball team to Tecumseh and Lincoln this week.

Miss Lookabill went to her home in Syracuse, Neb., Friday to spend her vacation.

Master Cecil Snyder is in Horton, Kas., visiting his sister, Mrs. Frank Gossett.

Miss Hand left Friday for Yankton, S. D., where she will spend the holidays.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

To My Friends and Future Patrons

The New Ready-to-Wear Store

Wishes You a Merry Christmas The Grand Opening to be

Saturday, January 8th, 1910

New Ready-to-Wear, New Prices, New Methods, Women's Ready-to-Wear, Furnishings and Notions

FRED E. SCHOCK

Maddox Block

Opp. Court House

Falls City, Neb.

GEHLING THEATRE

JOHN P. GEHLING, Manager

MONDAY NIGHT, DEC. 27

THE GIRL FROM U. S. A.

A Play that Every American Should See!
12 Big Singing and Dancing Numbers
Regiment Pretty Chorus Girls

A REAL QUARTETTE AND FUNNY COMEDIANS

35 People in the Cast 35

Prices, $1-75c-50c-35c

TO introduce fine materials, clean methods, scientific equipment into the making of soda crackers was one triumph—

To actually bake into them a subtle goodness, a real individuality, never before known, was another triumph—

But to effectually protect them so that the fullest benefit of these fine materials, this careful, cleanly baking, this unique goodness comes to you unaltered, was the crowning triumph that gave the world

Uneda Biscuit

5c

NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY