Means Much

To the level-headed young man, a bank account, added to the determination to make it larger, means much. The names of many such are on our books.

Young man, young woman, if your name is not on the list would it not be wise to open an account at once and keep adding to it? It's the right thing to do. The amount may be small at first—but all things must have a beginning.

Horses and Mules

I WILL BE AT
Falls City, Neb., Saturday, Jan. 1
(AT CHAPMAN'S SALE PAVILION)
Humboldt, Neb., Monday, Jan. 3

I will be there for the purpose of buying Horses and Mules from 3-year-olds up, that are broke. I want three car loads of good-shaped Chunks, and single or matched pairs of Southerners from 900 to 1,200 pounds--(they may be branded but must be gentle and broke). I will also buy aged, blemished, heavy or windy geldings or mares that are in good market condition, (but no plug mules). I also want one car of tasty wagon or express horses or mares, from 1,200 pounds up to 1,400 pounds.

SPECIAL I have contracted, for the year 1910, with a New York Teaming SPECIAL concern, one of the largest in the United States, to supply them with all their Horses, direct from the country, and I will pay more than any other buyer for Horses or Mares that will go in on this order. They must be as follows: Nothing under 4 years old, from that to 9; must be double broke; need not be fat but must be rugged, drafty kind, with plenty of bone; they should weigh from 1,400 pounds up. Lead in this kind and get the top price.

I have no agents or partners, and personally do my own buying. Anyone using my name, or claiming to be buying for me, will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.
