According to the Tecumseh Chieftain a farmer over at Brock marketed a bunch of well-fed porkers for $8.00 per hundred-weight. There were forty-two head in the herd and the average price was $30 per hoglet.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will give a tea at the home of P. S. Heacock Thursday, January 13, 1910. Everybody invited.

P. C. O'Brien came down from Wymore Saturday, and with his daughter visited the family of Morris Sheehan. He returned home Sunday.

Mrs. G. V. Stumbo and little daughter, Jennie Pearl, returned Friday to their home in Lincoln, after a ten days visit with her parents, Samuel Prater and wife.

Misses Emma and Anna Zentner, who have been spending the holidays here with their parents returned on Tuesday to Tarkio, Mo., where they have a millinery store.

The Burlington contemplates some great improvements in the yards at Table Rock during the coming season. The company expects to erect a five-stall round house, build a modern coal chute, raise the side tracks to the level of the main tracks, and will greatly extend the side trackage; a system of electric crossing warnings will also be installed. These improvements will be commenced as soon as the weather becomes settled in the spring.

If a man or two men come to your farm and represent themselves to be agents sent out by the government to sell trees for wild breaks, shoot them. Men who represent themselves as agents for the government selling trees are grafters of the worst stripe. The government is not in the tree selling business and does not hire men for that purpose. In the past several weeks several men have been going through the country trying to sell trees to farmers on the strength that the government is trying to establish wind breaks all over the land and they are furnishing government nursery stock for this purpose at a little over the cost of production.—Auburn Republican.

The busiest and mightiest little thing that ever was made is Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They do the work whenever you require their aid. These tablets change weakness into strength, listlessness into energy, gloominess into joyousness. Their action is so gentle one doesn't realize they have taken a purgative. Sold by all druggists.

Christmas being the seventy-fifth birthday of Mrs. Sperry. William Pecht's mother, her sons and daughters gathered in for a good old-time Christmas greeting. They were Mrs. W. D. Warfel, husband and five children of Sabetha, Kas.; Mrs. Kyle and six children of Oneida. The sons were Alfred of Fairbury, Walter and wife of Sabetha, James, wife and children of Falls City, Nebraska, and several other relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Funkehouer of Goffs, Kas., Geo. Kyle and wife of Oneida and Mr. McClanahan and daughter of near Sabetha. A sumptuous dinner was served after which many handsome presents were presented to Mrs. Sperry, including a handsome Morris rocker. A splendid time was enjoyed by all. They left for their respective homes Monday, wishing their mother many more happy and prosperous birthdays.—Morrill Weekly News.

James Mauck of Oregon, an uncle of Mrs. Samuel Marts, died at his home in that city Monday night. He was eighty-nine years of age and had been a resident of Oregon, Mo., for the past fifty years. He leaves a wife, five daughters and a son to mourn his death. All but the son were present at the funeral, which occurred on Tuesday at two o'clock. Two weeks ago his home and contents were consumed by fire and this loss at his age may have hastened his death. On account of sickness Mrs. Marts was unable to attend the funeral.

D. P. DeYoung, who was the guest of William Boose and family during the holidays left today for Washington, D. C. Mr. De Young was formerly Acting U. S. Consul to Santop, Brazil, where he was also in charge of the affairs of Cuba and Panama, but was recently transferred to the U. S. consulate at Amsterdam, Holland. The consul will be in Washington a few days, after which he will sail for his new post.

If you have not been attending church you have missed a rare treat. Of late Dr. R. Cooper Bailey has been touching on leading questions of the day, and handling the same without gloves. He is a forceful speaker and you will enjoy the services held just now in the theater building. You are missing a rare treat in the solos, anthems and song service which is carefully prepared for each service. Try and attend once and see if we are not right.

Jake F. Mack sold a bunch of hogs to Maust Bros., this week that were tops. The eight months old pigs averaged 250 pounds and he had a hog in the bunch, less than two years old that tipped the beam at 750 pounds. Jake knows how to get the high dollars out of a herd of hogs.

Mrs. C. L. Marts and son, Glen, spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Marts, the past week, returning to their home in Wymore Tuesday.

MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION.

Organization Effected By The Ministers of The County.

At the invitation of the ministers of Falls City some of the ministers of the county met in Falls City on the afternoon of January 3d, in the Brethren church for the purpose of organizing a county Ministers' Association. The devotional service was led by J. R. Nanninga. This was followed by an enthusiastic address on "The Why of the Meeting," by P. E. Day. The meeting was then open for general discussion. Very encouraging expressions came from all present and the matter of organization was taken up immediately. Committees on nomination and constitution were appointed and their reports were accepted.

President, F. E. Day; vice-president K. J. Cardy; secretary and treasurer, G. F. Reichel. J. R. Nanninga and R. Cooper Bailey, with the officers, constitute the executive committee.

CONSTITUTION.

Name.

The name of this body shall be the Richardson County Ministers' Association.

Purpose.

The purpose of this organization shall be to promote all movements that look toward the establishment of the kingdom of our Saviour in the county, and giving special emphasis to more efficient Sunday School work to civic righteousness, and the more general bringing together of ministers and churches in co-operation for evangelistic effort.

Officers.

1. The officers shall be a president, vice-president and secretary-treasurer, and these with two others shall be the executive committee and will prepare the necessary programs.

2. The term of office shall be for one year.

Meetings.

1. Meetings shall be held the first Monday in January, and of every second month following thereafter.

2. Place of meeting to be determined by the executive committee.

The meeting then adjourned to meet in the parlors of the Union hotel at 5:45. Plans were then made to begin active work at once. After this all enjoyed the sumptuous spread in the dining room. The visiting pastors desire to take this opportunity to express their hearty appreciation of the hospitality of the Falls City pastors. The next meeting will be held the first Monday in March. The place and program to be arranged by the executive committee.

Secretary.

An Unusual Play.

"A Royal Slave" is an unusual drama, full of strong situations, fun and human interest. In fact, it is one of the best.

Miss May Crawford is at home after spending the holidays with relatives in Oklahoma City.

Mrs. Jule Schoenheit came up from Kansas City Sunday for a short visit with relatives.

Miss Mable Bridges of Sterling was visiting Mrs. John Hutchings last week.

Mrs. L. C. Edwards returned on Tuesday from Nebraska City.

Answer to Auburn Herald.

To The Tribune: The Auburn Herald of last week says that the Auburn High school extended a very pressing invitation to Falls City High school for a game of basket ball. The invitation was received on December 25th and was for December 29. The Falls City basket ball team had just returned from a trip and the boys were tired. Then, also, we had rented out our gym and had no place in which to practice, and I knew well that it would be difficult to defeat the Auburn High School, with one of our best men off the team, and we would have to have some practice.

For these above reasons, and these only, did I refuse to play Auburn. Not once did the question of a "square deal" enter my head, for the manager of the Auburn High School basket ball teams had promised us all of our expenses and to get an outsider to act as referee. I also know that all of the hard feeling, between Auburn and Falls City, was not hard feeling between the Falls City High School and the Auburn High School, but between the Auburn Herald and others outside of the High School.

If the Herald stops its roasting, and all else goes well, the Auburn people will see the Falls City basket ball team on Auburn's court, Saturday, January 15, with A. J. Ludden as referee, and ready for a good clean game of basket ball.

Yours truly, JEAN CAIN,

Manager F. C. H. S. B. B. Team.

Referee's Sale.

RICHARDSON COUNTY DISTRICT COURT.

Jennie R. Pyle, Plaintiff,

Edward S. Pyle, Defendant.

By virtue of a decree of the District Court of Richardson County, Nebraska, rendered in the above entitled cause at the October term thereof 1909, in which decree the undersigned was appointed referee to make sale of real estate hereinafter described, I will as such referee at the hour of 1:00 o'clock p. m. on the 5th day of February, 1910, offer at public sale in front of the west door of the court house in Falls City, in Richardson County, Nebraska, the following described real estate, to-wit: Twelve acres in the west half of the northeast quarter of the southeast quarter of Section 20, Township 1, Range 17, East, in Richardson County, State of Nebraska, and more particularly described by meets and bounds, as follows: Beginning at a stake on the south line of said NE 1/4 of SE 1/4 S. 20—Township 1, Range 17, East N. 79 degrees 30 minutes E. 14.60 rods from said line southwest corner of said N. East 1/4 of SE 1/4, thence as the magnetic needle now points July 30th, 1884 N. 79 degrees 30 minutes E. 28.28 rods to a stone in said south line, thence N. 10 degrees, W. 3.43 rods to center of R. R. and in the south line of right of way, thence S. 72 degrees 29 minutes, W. 28.50 (28.50) rods to a stone, thence south 10 degrees, E. 66.30 (66.30) rods to place of beginning, containing 12 acres. This tract of land was the homestead of the parties to the above entitled cause, who were husband and wife, but the court having found in said cause that the defendant had deserted his wife and family and is now in parts unknown, the interest of the said defendant in said homestead was decreed by the court to be sold for the benefit of the interest of the plaintiff, Mrs. Jennie R. Pyle, will be sold at the same time, she consenting thereto in writing as provided in the decree aforesaid, which fact will be made known to bidders on the day of sale. Terms of sale cash.

THE WEEK'S SOCIAL EVENTS

Mrs. Thomas Jenkins gave a dinner party in honor of Mr. Jenkin's fiftieth birthday. Only members of the family were invited. A dinner fit for a king was served, and the day passed with a quiet, enjoyable family visit, with many hearty wishes for many happy returns of the day.

Sorosis met with Mrs. Charles M. Wilson Wednesday afternoon, the annual election of officers being held. The following were elected: President, Mrs. E. Falloon; vice-president, Mrs. J. H. Morehead; secretary, Mrs. A. Morsman; treasurer, Mrs. Jennie Ewalt; auditor, Mrs. Kate Steele. Mrs. Wilson arranged a fine musical which was greatly enjoyed by the club. Refreshments were served by the hostess during the social half-hour. Mrs. McMillan and the Misses Spurlock were guests of the club. Club adjourned to meet with Mrs. G. W. Reneker, January 19th.

The City Federation met in the club rooms Monday afternoon, with only a fair attendance. There was plenty of business to occupy the entire afternoon. It was found impossible to heat the club rooms during the severe weather, and it was decided to meet at private houses until spring. A committee was appointed to meet with the county board and see if it is not possible and practical to have a heating plant put in at the county farm. The pure food department had a committee appointed to visit each of the grocers and confectioners and see if they could not be quietly prevailed upon to keep their wares under cover and vegetables and fruits off of floors. The meeting developed many interesting subjects and was a very beneficial one. Adjournment was taken until the first Monday in February.

The Tournament Whist club met with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Maust last Thursday evening. The event was the opening of their new and magnificent home, and was a very pleasant social affair. Ned Towle and Mrs. Harry Jenne carried off the honors of the evening.

The Highlanders gave one of their successful dances Tuesday night. Installation was the order of the evening made purely a social one, but was postponed and the banquet room during the evening.
