Sidney Spence invited the A. B. Whist club to help surprise his wife the afternoon Mr. Spence had arranged delicious refreshments for ning of the club season. It was a very delightful afternoon and fully en- about the liveliest crowd out. joyed by the ladies. Mrs. Hargrave and Mrs. John Powell were guests of the club.

The Friends in Council met last Friday evening in regular session with Miss Jennie Keim as hostess. The fore part of the session was given over to general business and plans for an entertainment to begin in the near future. When all business had been disposed of tables were arranged and Som'erset enjoyed until a late hour. Light refreshments were served after which the club adjourned to meet with Miss McDonald, January 24th.

A meeting of the Shakespeare club was held January 7th, at the home of Mrs. Isham Reavis. The meeting was well attended, the lesson being the first one on "The Winter's Tale." A letter of greeting from Mrs. Lindsay, vice-president of this district, was read. The club made some changes in its by-laws at this meeting." The next meeting will be held January 14th, with Mrs. Rule,

Then they went to the home of Marion Simanton, where Som'r'set and cards were enjoyed for quite a while, and before leaving a delicious oyster supper was served. The ride was resumed and the young people left at their own door. The night was a fine one and altogether this proved one of the jolliest sleighing parties of the week.

Mrs. M. L. Wilson entertained the A. B. whist club Tuesday afternoon in her usual charming manner. The usual interest was shown in the game which was enjoyed until five o'clock. Mrs. Spence scored the honors of the afternoon, winning seven games Dainty and tempting refreshments were served, after which the customary solid silver fork was presented the hostess.
