This should be a banner year for Falls City and with the spirit of a true booster for your home town you can accomplish wonders. At present there is not a vacant room or house in the city, and many places are tenanted that have been abandoned for a number of years. Cottages for rent, are in great demand and with the coming of spring they cannot be erected fast enough to supply the demand. Here is an opportunity to invest your surplus to good advantage.
Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Slocum and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jenne left Monday for the south where they will remain until spring. They will return to this city for a short visit before going to their new home in Wichita, Kas.
A young man working for Herman Beachy met with quite an accident Tuesday and feels thankful he got off so easily. His work jacket caught in the cogs of the corn shredder and he was drawn down, a deep cut being made in his neck. He was immediately brought to this city, where Dr. Houston found it necessary to take several stitches. An inch higher and the cut would have been serious, if not fatal.

Referee's Sale.
RICHARDSON COUNTY DISTRICT COURT.
Jennie R. Pyle, Plaintiff, vs. Edward S. Pyle, Defendant.
By virtue of a decree of the District Court of Richardson County, Nebraska, rendered in the above entitled cause at the October term thereof 1909, in which decree the undersigned was appointed referee to make sale of real estate hereinafter described, I will as such referee at the hour of 1:00 o'clock p. m. on the 5th day of February, 1910, offer at public sale in front of the west door of the court house in Falls City, in Richardson County, Nebraska, the following described real estate, to-wit: Twelve acres in the west half of the northeast quarter of the southeast quarter of Section 20, Township 1, Range 17, East, in Richardson County, State of Nebraska, and more particularly described by metes and bounds, as follows: Beginning at a stake on the south line of said NE 1/4 of SE 1/4 S 20—Township 1, Range 17, East N. 79 degrees 30 minutes E. 14.60 rods from said line southwest corner of said N. East 1/4 of SE 1/4, thence as the magnetic needle now points July 30th, 1884 N. 79 degrees 30 minutes E. 28.28 rods to a stone in said south line, thence N. 10 degrees, W. 3.43 rods to center of R. R. and in the south line of right of way, thence S. 72 degrees 20 minutes, W. 28.50 (28.50) rods to a stone, thence south 10 degrees, E. 66.30 (66.30) rods to place of beginning, containing 12 acres. This tract of land was the homestead of the parties to the above entitled cause, who were husband and wife, but the court having found in said cause that the defendant had deserted his wife and family and is now in parts unknown, the interest of the said defendant in said homestead was decreed by the court to be sold for the benefit of his family; the interest of the plaintiff, Mrs. Jennie R. Pyle, will be sold at the same time, she consenting thereto in writing as provided in the decree aforesaid, which fact will be made known to bidders on the day of sale. Terms of sale cash.

UNIQUE PRESENT.
Uncle George Abbott Received a Beautiful Christmas Gift.
Uncle George Abbott received a unique present from his daughter, Mrs. Mable Robbins, and he is justly proud of it. It is a little leather-covered booklet, made by her own hands, containing choice clippings from the pen of Walt Mason. The first of the lot, however, is this beautifully-lettered and well written verse of prose poetry, by Mrs. Robbins:
"Are you sad and life so dreary, are you weighted down with care? Do the things that nag and weary seem to linger everywhere? Or are you happy and light-hearted—all good things just come your way—all your sorrows long departed—joys grow greater day by day? Are you so blest with fault blindness, is your heart so big and great, you would treat with loving kindness, every friend and foe you meet? Have you moments of endeavor, longing somehow to do good? You will find Walt Mason ever a good friend for every mood."
The decorations of this little booklet is by the hand of Charles Robbins and certainly shows much artistic taste.
Revival Meetings
The special revival meetings at the Christian church are growing in attendance and interest every night. Sunday was a splendid day all around—large attendance at bible school; church packed at evening service; the chorus, led by Prof. Jones, furnished a splendid musical program; at the close of the pastor's address three united with the church. Monday evening the church was well filled and a young man confessed his faith in Christ.
The meetings will continue every night—7:00—come.
Sunday, January 16, at 3:00 p. m., a great mass meeting for women only, subject, "A Mother's Prayer." Every lady in Falls City and vicinity have a special invitation to come and bring a lady friend.—F. Ellsworth Day, Pastor.

Alabama Display.
Our friend, Herman Koehler, who left this county two years ago for Baldwin County, Alabama, sends us a fine display of the various cereals grown upon his farm there the past year. We also have a picture showing his display at the county fair, where he captured a majority of the premiums. These will be of interest to his numerous friends here, and may be seen at this office. His daughter, who is spending the winter with relatives here, tells us that they are well pleased with the south and are getting along nicely. The day is at hand when it is hard to keep a good farmer down, no matter where you locate him, and Mr. Koehler is classed among the best of them.

Dissolution Notice.
Notice is hereby given that Thomas Winterbottom has sold his interest in the firm of Wirth & Winterbottom to L. P. Wirth, and the business will hereafter be conducted by Mr. Wirth. All accounts payable to L. P. Wirth, and all liabilities will be paid by L. P. Wirth.
L. P. WIRTH,
THOMAS WINTERBOTTOM.

Kills His Sister.
On Monday the two little children of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Rottinghaus of Seneca, obtained a loaded rifle and were playing with it when the little girl placed the muzzle in her mouth and her little brother pulled the trigger. The bullet entered the brain causing instant death. The little girl was five and her little brother was three.

Poisoning Dogs.
The Salem Index says someone in their town is maliciously poisoning dogs. Four died from the effects of poison last Thursday.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gossett and son came up the latter part of last week from Horton to visit relatives. Frank returned home Monday, but Mrs. Gossett will remain for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Snyder.
—Call on C. A. Heck for coal and wood.

STRANGE ACTION OF MEMORY.
Scenes of Other Days, Thought Forgotten, Are Suddenly Flashing Into the Mind.
Often suggestions out of all keeping with the surroundings come, and it may be asked, "What made you think of that?" Frequently we are positive that no conscious train of thought has brought up the idea. These memories, out of all rhyme and reason with our atmosphere and conscious occupation, pop into the mind and surprise us with their incongruity. Are these spontaneously originated as they seem to be, or have we merely forgotten the connecting train of ideas, as is often contended? The author but recently, while looking at some dill pickles, had flash upon his mind the image of a Southern California beach and an incident associated with the scene. The memory came so suddenly and the connecting link was sought for so immediately that a dropping out of a segment of consciousness is altogether improbable, yet he felt that there was a connection somewhere, if it could but be found. And it was found after a little thought. Where the brine on the pickles had dried, there were left fine, white salt crystals just as he had seen on kelp and sea mosses that he had gathered on that beach. The memory in the stream of consciousness was spontaneous, and yet we see how it may come under our law, at least in its physiological version.—From the Mental Man.

THOMAS WINTERBOTTOM.

True Friendship.
True friends are never judged by one another. For that "something" between them is too sacred and treasured to be marred by judgment; for there is that abiding faith that holds them together like rings of steel.

Eternal Feminine.
Mrs. Ben Davis, who has been away two months, returned home on Saturday night. Before she came, Ben cleaned up, hiring a colored woman to assist him. On Monday morning, while Ben was finishing his breakfast, his wife appeared from the kitchen, pinning on a big apron. "Well," she said, "I must give this house a good cleaning."—Atchison Globe.

Watch it Grow
Advertising is the fertilizer of dull business. Its work is magic. Thin, weakened trade becomes a thing of power when its roots feel the healthy sunlight of publicity.
