

The County in General

The "Doings" of our Country Friends and Neighbors.

VERDON.

Mrs. Joe Smith is very ill at this writing.

M. Meliza was a Falls City visitor recently.

O. Fuller is very ill at his home in this city.

Grandma Seldon is improving at this writing.

W. F. Veach was a county seat visitor Friday.

Dr. Shook was on our streets one day last week.

Walter Veach received a car load of automobiles.

Thomas McDonald was up from the county seat recently.

P. S. Heacock of Falls City was a visitor here Friday.

Mrs. Walter Veach visited in Salem one day the past week.

Miss Anna Frauenfelder was a Stella visitor Saturday.

Miss Jennie Stump is clerking in O'camp & Stach's store.

Scott Saylor came up from Falls City on business Wednesday.

Cyrus Fisher and family were visitors in Falls City Wednesday.

Frank Waggoner and son, Jess, made a trip to Salem Tuesday.

Dan Fisher returned Monday after spending a few days in Nims City.

Mable Beller arrived from Falls City for a short stay with her mother.

Miss Carrie Gebhart returned Sunday from a visit to her sister at Stella.

James Ayers has taken charge of the telephone office and will also be lineman.

Mrs. Oden Saylor returned from a visit to her sister, Mrs. John Walker, in Falls City.

Ed Fuller of western Nebraska was called here by the serious condition of his father.

Walter McCullough returned home Thursday from a few weeks spent near Dawson.

Charles Wear has accepted a position as assistant cashier in the Verdon State Bank.

Orlando P. Veal came down from Stella last week for a short visit with his brother.

Millard Weaver shipped a car load of cattle to Kansas City the first of the week.

Joe Parsons had the misfortune to fall one day last week and sustain a very badly sprained ankle.

Ora Marsh left Saturday afternoon for his home in western Kansas. He was accompanied by his mother.

Several from here attended the funeral of John Kentopp at the Lutheran church south of town last week.

Mrs. F. Waggoner and daughter, Emma, and Mrs. Bertha Weddle were calling on friends in Stella Wednesday.

Robert Murphy and wife returned home Tuesday afternoon after a short visit with friends in Oklahoma City.

Mrs. Fred Hoffman and little daughter, Ruth, have returned to their home in Council Grove, Kas., after a very pleasant visit with the former's father and sister.

Word was received here that C. C. Simmons was very ill at his home in Denver, Col., with cancer of the stomach. His many friends here are sorry to learn of his serious condition.

BARADA.

Mrs. Dan Terrill was on the sick list this week.

C. H. Martin was in Shubert one day last week.

M. M. Hendricks was in the city one day last week.

J. H. Langdon carried the mail on Route 1 Tuesday.

Matt Shulenberg and John Oslin were in town Monday.

J. C. Wileman is in St. Paul looking after business interests.

J. A. Martin and Otis Spickler and wife were in Falls City Monday.

Mrs. H. S. Andrews is again able to be out after a rather serious illness.

E. E. Butler and wife entertained at dinner Sunday Misses Riggs, Lilly and Dodds and J. A. Martin and wife.

Revival services still continue under the direction of Rev. Essley and wife and much interest is being manifested.

J. I. Martin left Tuesday for a visit with his brother, E. Martin, at Dunbar, Neb. From there he will go into Iowa for a visit with relatives.

STELLA.

S. H. Bailey has been quite sick this week.

Mrs. A. Tynan is having the grip this week.

Miss Grace Curtis was an Auburn visitor Saturday.

Mrs. Jacob Hinkle Sr. has been ill during the past ten days.

P. M. Monette is confined to his bed this week with the grip.

Stella high school enjoyed a lively evening at the skating rink Tuesday.

Perry Montgomery, living three miles north of town, is reported very sick.

Mrs. E. Wheeler has almost entirely recovered from her recent illness.

Andy Curtis had a public sale last week and will leave in a few weeks for Sidney.

Frank Reavis of Falls City was a Stella visitor Tuesday. He came on legal business.

Misses Florence and Mable Culp returned from a two weeks visit with a cousin in Kansas City Sunday.

Mrs. Mattie Hodge moved from her farm last week and is now occupying Mrs. Lydia Pugh's house.

Mr. and Mrs. Mort Gilbert and son Fred were called to Illinois last week by the serious illness of Mrs. Gilbert's brother.

E. Monod sold his business in Omaha last week and returned to Stella. Mr. Monod purchased the business only a week ago.

George Wixon went as far as Omaha with Frank Weaver last Thursday. He returned Friday, but Mr. Weaver and his car were still in Omaha.

The icy roads have made so much work for J. M. Goodloe that he has employed John Tolly and Elmer Pugh to assist him in the blacksmith shop.

A. B. Edwards of Omaha has rented the Overman hotel and will take possession at once. Mr. Reynolds the retiring proprietor, is at present undecided where he will go.

Mrs. L. G. Cliphers was taken suddenly sick last Thursday with neuralgia of the heart. Dr. Shook of Shubert was called in consultation with Dr. Andrews. At this writing she is very little better.

Frank Weaver and wife left on Thursday of last week for a new home in Montana. They will be greatly missed in this community as both have lived here the greater part of their lives. We wish them abundant success.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is not a common, every-day cough mixture. It is a meritorious remedy for all the troublesome and dangerous complications resulting from cold in the head, throat, chest or lungs. Sold by all druggists.

RULO.

Holly Rector was a Rulo visitor one day last week.

Mrs. John Hopkins was an Atchison visitor Monday.

Herman Kloepfel came in from Colorado for a visit.

J. A. Osborne spent several days in Kansas City last week.

F. E. Kulp of Wymore was a Rulo visitor Tuesday morning.

George Oldfield made a business trip to Auburn Tuesday.

Herman Boehme was a Falls City visitor one day last week.

Tomy Asher of White Cloud, Kas., was a Rulo visitor Saturday.

J. A. Pope was a business visitor to Falls City one day last week.

George Peabody was transacting business in Falls City last week.

Riley Simmons of Kansas was a Rulo visitor one day last week.

H. B. Hinton of Omaha was transacting business in Rulo Monday.

L. B. Lyman of Wymore was a Rulo visitor the last of the week.

Mrs. W. A. True, Veal and Hya arrived from Manitou Sunday morning.

Dave Young of the "Y" spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives in Rulo.

Dr. R. G. Henderson purchased the property sold at sheriff's sale last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Best were Falls City visitors the first of the week.

The Misses Vollmer of Craig, Mo., visited with Mr. and Mrs. Larabee last week.

Mrs. Burgett returned last week from a visit with her daughter at Humboldt.

A. E. Bowers of Hiawatha was a business visitor here one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Castle of Robison, Kas., were Rulo visitors one day last week.

Cecil Kanaly came down from Salem Monday to be present at her sister's wedding.

Frank Martinosky and family of Reserve, Kas., visited with his mother here last week.

A dance was given last Friday night at the Hosford hall. A good time is reported by those present.

Mrs. Ella Dowty of Topeka, Kas., who has been visiting with relatives here returned to her home last week.

Thomas Darnell of Lincoln gave an interesting lecture on "County Option" at the M. E. Church last Sunday night. A large and attentive audience greeted the speaker.

Lee McVey was hurt Saturday while working across the river with Gus Johnson's gang, by being struck in the back of the head with a wagon tongue. He was brought home and his injuries were attended to. He is getting along nicely.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy never disappoints those who use it for obstinate coughs, colds and irritations of the throat and lungs. It stands unrivalled as a remedy for all throat and lung diseases. Sold by all druggists.

SHUBERT.

F. M. Kinton was a Barada visitor on Sunday.

J. C. Shulenberg went down to Falls City Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Harper of Auburn are the guests of friends here.

Frank Shubert purchased the building occupied by the Shafer restaurant.

The seniors met Monday night and selected their class colors and their motto.

Harry Kimmel of Nemaha came down Friday night to attend the lecture.

Frank Stowell of Garden City was a business visitor here the first of the week.

Clifford Vanlandingham of Falls City is now visiting his brother and family here.

The members of the W. R. C. entertained the members of the G. A. R. at a dinner Tuesday.

Mrs. Roy Edwards and daughter, Lucille, spent a part of last week in Stella with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Shubert left during the week for week for an extended visit at Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. Branum are enjoying a visit from their son, who has made his home in Kansas for some time.

The Nemaha Dramatic Co., played "Away Down East" at this place on Tuesday evening. They were greeted by a large house.

The fourth number of the lecture course was given Friday night by Mrs. English. The audience was well pleased with the entertainment and the lecturer was greeted by a large house.

The Womans Literary club met Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fishburn, and a most delightful time was had by all present. The hostess served her guests with dainty refreshments.

Mrs. English, who gave a fine lecture Friday evening at the opera house, also visited our school and gave a very interesting talk and rendered some fine music, which was greatly enjoyed by all.

Fred Stotts and wife left Monday for Anglin, Wash., where they expect to make their future home. Mr. and Mrs. Stotts have many friends here who regret to lose them, but wish them success in their new home.

The W. R. C. and G. A. R. lodges held a joint installation on Tuesday evening. A general good supper was served, after which three members were initiated, then the officers were installed. An interesting program was rendered and those present spent a pleasant and profitable evening.

The busiest and mightiest little thing that ever was made is Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They do the work whenever you require their aid. These tablets change weakness into strength, listlessness into energy, gloominess into joyousness. Their action is so gentle one doesn't realize they have taken a purgative. Sold by all druggists.

WILLIAMSVILLE.

John Slater was in Barada Saturday.

L. A. Dunn was a Falls City visitor Saturday.

Nick Arnold was a Falls City visitor Monday.

Ernest Michaels was in Barada on business Friday.

John Slater spent Sunday with Charles Siemering.

Wendell and Ida Gerweck spent Saturday in Falls City.

Smil Luhn spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Karsts.

Fred Rockwell spent Sunday with his friend, John Feicht.

Mr. Willie Ruch returned from a visit to his brother last week.

A surprise party was tendered Mrs. Scholl Sunday evening. The affair was in honor of her birthday. There was a large crowd of neighbors and friends present.

A company of friends gathered at the home of John Fink Saturday evening to spend a few hours. The evening was pleasantly passed playing cards and dancing. Those who were there report a pleasant time.

HUMBOLDT.

Carl Mann was in Dawson the middle of the week.

Roy Reid made a business visit to Falls City Monday.

Gus McDougal is visiting his brother in Salem this week.

Lee Marburger was on the sick list the first of the week.

John Reynolds of Beaver City is visiting relatives here this week.

Mrs. Frank Butterfield entertained at a trail party Monday evening.

O. E. Hall of Pawnee City transacted business in Humboldt Tuesday.

A. Sippley and wife of Dawson are visiting relatives here this week.

Bert Marshall of McCook spent Sunday in Humboldt with relatives.

A. D. Thompson recently visited Gail Thompson and family in Auburn.

Mrs. John Fryberger and children visited in Falls City the last of the week.

Mrs. J. C. Herwig left Monday for Kansas City, where she visited with friends.

Ralph Philpot and wife returned Monday from a few days spent in Lincoln.

Mrs. J. K. Liggett returned Saturday from a visit with her brother, Fred Cole, in Omaha.

Beulah, the daughter of Henry McConnell and wife, is suffering from a severely sprained ankle.

Miss Emma Frank and little niece, Ruth Tanner of Lincoln, are guests at the home of Dr. E. E. Meyers.

Elmer Smith returned Sunday from a trip to New Mexico, where he had been looking after land interest.

Miss Iva Creed, after a visit with her brother, Ben Creed and family, returned to her home the last of the week.

Mrs. W. B. Alexander and little daughter were up from Dawson the first of the week visiting Dr. Morris and family.

Carey Cooper and wife entertained a company of friends Wednesday evening. Whist was the amusement of the evening.

John Hobbs, who has been sick for several days at the Central hotel, was removed Saturday to the county farm.

J. K. Liggett, who recently returned to this city from Burchard, has accepted a position as cashier of the National bank.

Mrs. Ida Wittwer returned from Kansas City Tuesday after spending a few days with her husband, Dr. Ed Wittwer, at that city.

Otis Unkefer, wife and little son, Linn, returned Monday from Lincoln, where they had been visiting Mrs. Unkefer's sister, Mrs. Perrin.

O. A. Cooper and wife were in Omaha the first of the week attending the Millers' Association, and visiting friends in Omaha and Council Bluffs.

Bernie Cooper came in from Beaver City Tuesday with a car load of horses. He will remain in the city a short time with his brothers, O. A. and William.

Mr. Waffles, who has leased the Charles Atwood farm, and came the last of the week to make arrangements to locate, was joined by his family Monday.

Mrs. H. L. Hackett entertained a company of friends Tuesday afternoon complimentary to Mrs. Veits and daughter, Mrs. Winn, who are visiting Frank Butterfield and family.

Jack Walsh and son have purchased the business of the Farmers' & Merchants' Loan & Trust Co., and have opened an office in the south room of the Kentner building.

Workmen were engaged the first of the week in laying a foundation for a residence for Frank Moritz, on his farm adjoining town, which he recently purchased of Henry Kuper.

Walter Billings and family of Alliance, Neb., visited Humboldt friends the first of the week. They were enroute to South Omaha, where they have made arrangements to locate.

Frank Hynek, the genial clerk in N. C. Campbell's grocery store, and Miss Ella Hanna of Table Rock went to Falls City Wednesday of last week, and returned as husband and wife. They have gone to house-keeping in the groom's cottage on Nemaha street.

Notice.

To Whom It May Concern: All persons knowing themselves indebted to me please call and settle, either by cash or note. Respectfully,
J. C. TANNER.

GRADE MORAL—Trying to win a girl's love by taking her aunt buggy riding is like an attempt to do business without advertising. The aunt enjoys the buggy ride, but it doesn't help your cause with the girl. The merchant who wants to win the home folks' trade will win if he plugs persistently through these columns.

OHIO.

Vera Shaffer spent Sunday in Falls City with the former's sister.

Mahlon Peck was a guest of relatives in Morrill over Sunday.

H. A. Burk and family spent Sunday with the former's parents.

Mrs. Chester Stump spent Monday afternoon with Mrs. D. Spickler.

Lloyd Knisely and wife visited Sunday with Anson Knisely and wife.

Charles Stump of Falls City visited with his sister and family Sunday.

Mrs. Rittamel of Staple Hurst, Neb., is visiting her sister, Mrs. John Fritz.

Guy Lichty and wife visited with D. Spickler and wife one day last week.

Wes Nedrow, wife and two children spent Sunday with F. M. Shaffer and family.

Mrs. N. Peck and two children were guests of Mrs. F. M. Shaffer Sunday.

Jim Gilmore and Frank Shaffer were Lincoln visitors the first of the week.

Mr. Franklin and family spent Sunday evening with Chester Stump and family.

H. Beachy and wife were guests of Wes Nedrow and family one evening last week.

Ivan Keller and John Hutchinson spent a few days at Morrill, Kas., the first of the week.

Earl Ankney and family of Peru were guests of Perry Shaffer and family last Thursday.

P. E. Shaffer, wife and little daughter, were guests of Rev. Blough and family Saturday evening.

Mr. Harrison of near Shubert and H. Beachy and wife visited with D. Spickler and wife Sunday.

F. M. Shaffer, wife and son and Mr. Lutz visited with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Heineman in Falls City last week.

Mrs. Heineman and two children were guests of Mrs. F. M. Shaffer and her mother, one day last week.

Mrs. Dan Wamsley returned to her home Sunday after spending a few days with her sister who has been sick.

John Yoder and wife went to Sabetha Monday after a several days visit with the latter's sister, Mrs. A. Knisely.

Benj. Stump and wife left for their home at Burwell, Neb., last Saturday, after visiting with their many relatives at Verdon and this vicinity.

Mrs. John Lichty and Marie of Falls City, Frank Lichty and family and Chester Stump and family all spent Sunday with Guy Lichty and wife.

Sophia Brandt of Columbus, Neb., is visiting her many friends here. On Monday evening she was given a surprise party at Mr. Huebners. A large crowd was present and a fine time is reported.

The Woman's Fault.
"You told me," she sadly said, "when you persuaded me to clope with you that you would never permit anything to come between us—that you would cherish my love all your days and that I should never have cause to regret for a moment that I had placed my happiness in your keeping."
"Oh, well, confound it," he replied, "what's the use of harping on that now? If you hadn't kept a lot of your faults hidden from me I'd never have fallen in love with you or wanted you to clope, so you have only yourself to blame."

Composition Extraordinary.
In E. V. Lucas' volume on letter writing an Indian babu is quoted to this effect: "Honourable Sir: Kindly excuse this poor thy servant from attending on your Honour's office this day, as I am suffering from the well-known disease commonly called ache of the interior economy, and I shall ever pray. Your ever painful, Itam Chunder. P. S.—Oh death, where is thy sting?"

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a very valuable medicine for throat and lung troubles, quickly relieves and cures painful breathing and a dangerous sounding cough which indicates congested lungs. Sold by all druggists.

WE HAVE

- Sweet Oranges
- Nice Bananas
- Fancy Grapes
- Fine Lemons
- Table Raisins
- Imported Figs
- California Figs
- Fresh Dates
- Seeded Raisins
- All Kinds New Nuts
- Come in and See

D. W. SOWLES

BANANAS
You eat them, but do you know of the enormous profits in growing them? We have an organization in which investors cannot lose their money. Our stock is guaranteed. Our profits are sure. Write for full information. It will interest you. The Mexican Banana Co., Box 117 Bis, Mexico City, Mexico.

ELDER HENRY CUNNINGHAM

Recommends

Vinol

For Weak, Run-Down People.

"I was run down and weak from indigestion and general debility, also suffered from vertigo. I saw a cod liver preparation called Vinol advertised and decided to give it a trial, and the results were most gratifying. After taking two bottles I regained my strength, and am now feeling unusually well." — HENRY CUNNINGHAM, Elder Baptist Church, Kinston, N.C.

Vinol contains the two most world-famed tonics—the medicinal, strengthening, body-building elements of Cod Liver Oil and Tonic Iron. Vinol contains no oil, and is by far the Best Strengthening Tonic obtainable. We return your money without question if Vinol does not accomplish all we claim for it.

A. G. WANNER, Druggist, Falls City.

Passenger Trains Burlington Route

West Bound

No. 13—Denver Exp. 1:10 a. m.

No. 15—Denver Exp. (Local) 1:40 p. m.

No. 43—Portland Exp. 10:17 p. m.

No. 41—Portland Exp. 2:25 p. m.

No. 121—Lincoln Loc. via Nebraska City 5:00 a. m.

East Bound

No. 14—St. J., K. C. & St. L. 7:38 a. m.

No. 44—St. J., K. C. & St. L. (Local) 4:22 p. m.

No. 16—St. J., K. C. & St. L. 6:52 p. m.

No. 42—St. J., K. C. & St. L. 8:45 p. m.

No. 122—From Lincoln, via Nebraska City 8:45 p. m.

E. G. WHITFIELD, Agent.

—Nebraska's choicest corn and alfalfa lands for sale from $75 to $85 per acre. Send for free list—Nider & Henrichs, Fairbury, Neb.