

Henry C. Smith LANDS & LOANS

240 acres well improved, 1 1/2 miles from Depot in Kas. Good spring. Best of terms. Will take 40 acres as part payment, balance long time at low interest.

200 acres 1 1/2 miles from depot, Richardson county, Nebraska. Good buildings and land. Will take 40 or 80 acres as part payment.

150 acres upland, 1 mile from depot, Richardson county, Nebraska. $12,000.

160 acres Johnson county, Nebraska. 80 rods to church and school. Best of terms. Might rent.

197 acres near Brownville, Nebraska.

80 acres 1/4-mile from Falls City high school.

640 acres, $8,000 improvements. Also 640 acres adjoining. Will take 100 acres as part payment. Fine running water. A No. 1 opportunity.

Money to loan.

THE COMERS AND GOERS

HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST TO YOU AND ME.

What Your Friends and Their Friends Have Been Doing the Past Week.

—Eat Sowle's Candy.

—Dr. Wilson, Wahl's building.

—The Candy Kitchen for brick ice cream.

John Ryan was down from Dawson Sunday.

—Young's Pantorium cleans and presses ladies skirts. 44-ff

—Call on us for strawberry plants.

—Simanton & Pence. 7-ff.

—Watch for the opening of the New Shoe Store, Saturday, March 19.

George Cornford arrived Tuesday from Croston, Ia., to visit his parents.

Charlie Maze of Hardy, Neb., was a guest of Falls City friends over Sunday.

Miss Margaret O'Grady came down from Dawson on the early train on Wednesday.

—We have some fresh Red Seal flour in now. Come and get a sack. —C. A. Heck.

Mrs. John R. Rameel returned last Friday from a visit with her daughter in Burwell, Neb.

Miss Greenwald has been teaching for Miss Edna Brown during the illness of her father.

Miss May Maddox returned Wednesday from a weeks visit with her sister, Mrs. Dietsch, in Hastings.

Miss Louise Pluegge and mother returned Tuesday from an extended visit with relatives in Lebanon, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Elwell of Chester, Neb., are visiting his mother and other relatives in and near this city.

—160 acre farm for rent or sale will take some Falls City property. Close to church and school.—Henry C. Smith.

Miss Mary Wilton returned to her school work in Stella Monday morning, after spending Sunday with her parents here.

James Ramsey was called to St. Joseph Saturday by the illness of his sister. His little son, Jessie, accompanied him.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman B. Judd went to Pawnee City to visit over Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. George Crocker.

Mrs. J. D. Spragins returned Saturday from her visit in Morrill and Hiawatha, bringing with her a sister, Mrs. Bushman, of Milledgeville.

Herbert Howe and John H. Kearnes of the Auburn Republican were Falls City visitors Monday. They called at The Tribune office while here.

Jacob Nedrow and family took the night train out of Falls City Friday on their way to Washington, where they expect to make their future home.

The ladies of the Episcopal church will hold an exchange Saturday afternoon at the Electric theatre. Mrs. Himmelreich and Mrs. Hutchins will be in charge.

Dr. J. M. Houston returned Monday from a three weeks' stay at Lone Wolf, Ok., where he was called professionally. He also made quite a visit with relatives.

Mrs. W. A. Stockton and daughter, Gladys, of Tecumseh, who visited over Sunday with the family of J. A. Stockton, left Monday for Stanberry, Mo., for a visit.

The brethren who enjoyed the dinner given by the Ministerial Association Monday evening, at the European Cafe, wish to express their hearty appreciation of the very excellent service rendered by Mr. Hermes, the landlord.

CHESTER A. BRINK

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON

Consultations
Diseases of Women and Children
Chronic Diseases

X-Ray and Electrical Treatments, calls answered night or day in city or country.

PHONES Office 439
Residence 471

Office Over Falls City State Bank

Say,
Do you know where to get good seed potatoes?
I have 'em.
The Early Six-Weeks beats them all.
Call at State Bank or telephone 39. 6-ff
FRANK GIST.

At its meeting Monday night the city council decided to order a large water meter at a cost of $350.00. The water committee was instructed to proceed with the purchase of a new boiler and the necessary fixtures and also to erect a building at the wells for the new steam plant. The cost is estimated at $2,000.

Mrs. Rev. Brooks and children went to Pawnee City Saturday to spend Sunday with her parents. Monday Rev. Brooks was notified that their little girl was quite sick and he immediately took the Tuesday morning train for Pawnee. He returned again Tuesday afternoon and reports the little one much better.

W. R. Cade of Osborn, Kansas, who has been in town visiting his mother, left Friday for his home. Mr. Cade thinks the wheat in his section of the state to be in fair condition, although he regards some of it damaged by the sleet and ice.

John Sims of Dawson was in town the first of the week, looking for a suitable property on which to locate. Mr. Sims has sold his farm south of Dawson and will move to Falls City in the near future.

—Don't be satisfied with results in baking until you try a sack of Gold Coin Flour. You will be pleased with results and be a friend to Gold Coin. Ask your grocer for it.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Casey and daughter, Mable, who visited Mrs. Clem Firebaugh and other relatives last week, returned Sunday to their home at Missouri Valley.

The supper given by the ladies of the Presbyterian church last Friday evening at Sowles' candy store was a decided success. They realized $46 from the event.

Mrs. Abner McKee who has spent the past two months with her mother, Mrs. J. R. Wilhite, and other relatives, left Monday for her home in Paonia, Colo.

Mrs. Thomas Palmer and little son, who had been visiting relatives here for the past month, left Monday for their home in Shickley, Neb.

Mrs. M. C. Brooks and children went to Pawnee City Saturday with her mother, Mrs. Kemper, who has been visiting her.

—It's the talk of the town—about the New Shoe Store. Don't forget the date of its opening, Saturday, March 19th.

Misses Rhoda Weddle and Nellie Zoellers were Preston shoppers here between trains last Saturday.

Sheriff W. T. Fenton left Monday on a business trip to Effingham, Kas., where he has land interests.

James Mendenhall came all the way from Beatrice to see the I. O. O. F. goat work last Friday night.

Simon Beachy went to Dawson on last Thursday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Jerry Fenton.

J. E. Leyda returned Thursday from a visit to his brother, John, at Plattsmouth.

W. D. Kasley was down from Lincoln Friday to attend the big I. O. O. F. meeting.

—Our new machinery is now installed and ready for work.—H. M. Jenne Shoe Store.

Miss Lydia Peck went to her home near Morrill Saturday, for a short visit.

Miss Mable Trusser of Plattsmouth was the guest of Mrs. Dr. Greene.

We have 100,000 strawberry plants for sale.—Simanton & Pence. 7-ff.

Mrs. M. Doerner returned Friday from a visit with Rulo relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Ole Olson were in Hiawatha Sunday, with friends.

E. O. Lewis returned Saturday from his western trip.

W. A. Greenwald and wife spent Sunday in Verdon.

S. A. Little left Monday for Chicago to buy goods.

Dr. George Gandy was down from Humboldt Monday.

Judge Kelly of Dawson was on the streets Friday.

E. E. James was in St. Louis this week.

Manley Edgcomb of Rulo was a visitor here Monday.

John Lichty was in Hiawatha on business last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Mahan of Rulo were in town last Saturday.

Mrs. J. S. Kelley and daughter were down from Salem Monday.

Delos Graham was down from near Dawson between trains Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Story of Rulo were shoppers here last Saturday.

Gurley Alexander and wife went to Omaha Saturday to spend Sunday.

Mrs. Lydia Southard of Frisco was in the city for several days this week.

Fred Sebald was down from Omaha over Sunday, for a visit with friends.

Ray Zimmerman of Hiawatha spent Sunday with the family of W. L. White.

Mr. and Mrs. Kessler of Hamlin, Kas., visited over Sunday with Isaac Louks.

Dick Coupe and Neal Thornton left Sunday for Muskogee, Ok., on a business trip.

Miss Mohler of Shubert was a week-end guest of Misses Mattie and Stella Schock.

Sig Fuller and wife were down from Verdon Monday, trading with our merchants.

Misses Louise Werner, Mary Faller and Eliza Constantine spent Sunday with Preston friends.

Misses Amelia and Mary Gehling left Monday morning for Excelsior Springs, Mo., for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. George Jennings and Clyde Campbell and wife were guests of Stella relatives over Sunday.

For Sale.
One good heavy boned mammoth Jack, weighing about 1,100 pounds. Eight years old. Sure breeder.—J. F. Scarlett. 5-ff

Bert Baker went to Stella Friday to assist in the bank during the illness of the little son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Cain, jr., which necessitated Mr. Cain's absence from his place of business.

Mrs. I. C. Maust returned Friday from Table Rock, where she visited relatives and attended the celebration of the marriage of her uncle, J. C. Norris and wife.

T. L. Himmelreich went to Omaha on the early morning train Monday, where he met some Eastern travelers and bought some fine novelties for the Dittmar firm.

Mrs. W. A. Stockton and little son and daughter, Miss Gladys, came down from Tecumseh Saturday to spend Sunday with the family of J. A. Stockton.

Mrs. Lloyd Gianni and son, Neal, returned the latter part of last week from a visit with relatives in Newkirk and Oklahoma City, Ok.

Mrs. Bert Wright came up from Kansas City the latter part of last week for a visit with her mother, Mrs. Mattie Stoughton.

Mrs. Nelson left Friday for her home in Denver, after spending the winter with her sister, Mrs. William Thompson.

Miss Catherine Seible came down from Salem to spend Sunday at the home of her uncle, W. H. Putnam, and family.

—Rock for sale at Heck's feed store. 10-2t

Ed Dowty was up from Preston on Monday.

Dr. Wilson had a call from Verdon Saturday.

A new line of 10 cent glassware at Rick's.

—Did you see the new machinery at Jenne's shoe store.

James Margrave and wife were up from Preston Tuesday.

Rev. Reichel preached in Stella Sunday, returning Tuesday.

Miss Grace Cronin of Rulo spent Saturday with relatives here.

—Leave your orders with Simanton & Pence for strawberry plants.

A baby girl arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Crouse, Sunday.

Clyde Campbell went to Geneva on Tuesday to look after some business.

Rev. Bailey went to Lincoln Monday on business, returning Tuesday.

Henry C. Smith was attending to business in Cass county the past week.

Call and see our line of perfumes and toilet articles for 10 cents —Rick's.

Henry Wolfe and wife were down from Omaha over Sunday visiting relatives.

Mrs. Gus Kaiser and daughter, Lillie, were Preston shoppers here on Tuesday.

Frank Reavis was in Pawnee City this week, looking after some legal matters.

Frank Pecht of Fairbury is in the city visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Pecht.

Miss Hulda Werner went to Kansas City Monday for an extended visit with relatives.

Harry Clark stopped off in our city Tuesday on his way from Kansas City to Stella.

Mrs. Bradley of Humboldt came down Sunday for a visit to her mother, Mrs. Schlereth.

County Superintendent Oliver is paying his regular visit to the county schools this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McCool of Salem spent the first of the week with Mr. and Mrs. Josh Lord.

Claude Roe is now working for R. A. Dittmar, having taken up the work since quitting the postoffice.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Simons were up from Rulo to see the Phantom Detective last Thursday night.

H. S. Norton of Hiawatha expects to migrate to Falls City in the near future, to make his home here.

Miss Mary Wertz returned last Saturday from Marysville, Mo., where she was called by her mother's death.

Mrs. M. Sullivan returned Monday to her home in Effingham, Kas., after a visit of ten days with relatives in this city.

Miss Maude Graham returned Tuesday from a three weeks visit with friends in Lincoln, Omaha and Council Bluffs.

J. F. Morehead came down from Barada Wednesday, spending the day with his brother, J. H. Morehead, of this city.

Rev. J. F. Watson will preach at the Preston Brethren church next Sunday afternoon at three o'clock. All are invited.

Henry C. Smith received a nice box of oranges and grape fruit from Florida this week. They were sent by his cousin, Mr. Orendorff.

Jean Cain and sister, Miss Nellie, went to Stella Sunday to attend the funeral of J. R. Cain's little son.

Mrs. Murt Sullivan of Effingham, Kas., arrived last Friday for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Vogel.

Mrs. J. R. Cain went to Stella Friday, called there by the death of the little son of J. R. Cain, jr.

Miss Ethel Parchen went to Verdon Friday to visit friends and attend a big party in the evening.

Mrs. J. L. Mead returned Friday from a visit to Omaha with her daughter, Mrs. Yates.

Elmer Kanaly and wife were up from Preston Saturday.

Sam Heysler was calling upon old friends here Friday.

Charles McCool of Salem was a visitor here Saturday.

—For Sale—100 tons of hay cheap.—H. I. Hunt.

L. D. McCumber was up from Preston Friday.

Henry Reiger was up from Preston Saturday.

Henry C. Smith and T.J. Gist were showing H. B. Howe and J. W. Kern of Auburn our growing city last Tuesday in Gist's auto. The Vinegar factory and the division yard of the Missouri Pacific were surprises to the gentlemen.

Miss Elizabeth Wolfe came up from St. Joe to visit her mother before going to Hamburg, Iowa to trim in a millinery store this season. She was accompanied by a friend, Miss Sarah Stetler of Clearmont, Mo.

The ladies of the Episcopal church will hold their exchange at the Electric theater Saturday afternoon, March 12. Mrs. Himmelreich and Miss Nan Hutchings in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Humphrey came down from Verdon Saturday and remained over Sunday with Mrs. Humphrey's parents, George Abbott and wife.

Mrs. Jay Tipton and children stopped over last Saturday on their way from Shubert to Albany, Mo., and visited the family of H. C. Davis.

Mrs. Harriette Hart, who has spent the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Arthur J. Weaver, left Tuesday for her home in White Pigeon, Mich.

Jerry Elwell and wife arrived the first of the week to visit his mother, Mrs. Martha Elwell and his sister, Mrs. Pittock.

Warren Wixen arrived last Saturday from Clay Center, Kas., and will work for J. C. Tanner in the hardware store.

Miss Plaum, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Fred Schock, returned to her home in Nebraska City on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Beachy were over Friday from Morrill and spent the day with S. M. Beachy and wife.

Mrs. L. C. Edwards is in Nebraska City visiting her mother and sister, Mrs. Reed and Mrs. Max Werner.

Uncle Charles McCool was down from Salem Wednesday, the guest of his daughter, Mrs. R. R. Rule.

James Whitney was down from Salem Monday in his auto, bringing with him a party of friends.

Mrs. W. C. Sloan and two sons visited over Sunday with her parents, John Hossack and wife.

Misses Rosa Wolf, Gertrude Lippold and Bessie Stumbo spent Sunday with Rulo friends.

Mary Grace Jenkins was up from Rulo over Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Todge McKiever.

J. H. Fritz went to St. Joe Monday with a car load of logs that were top notchers in price.

Miss Ruby Hart was over from Reserve visiting and shopping here the first of the week.

Fred DeWald has been confined to his home most of this week on account of rheumatism.

—Good variety of sweet peas, nasturtiums and other flower seeds at the green house.

Misses VanDusen and Casey, who have been visiting in St. Joe, returned Tuesday.

Mrs. John Stockton will go to Stanberry, Mo., today for a short visit with relatives.

Miss Debora Mower, who has been nursing in St. Joseph, came home Monday.

Mrs. W. H. Kerr has been very sick since returning from her southern trip.

Mrs. Fred Schock went to Nebraska City Monday for a visit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Koso were over from Hiawatha Tuesday.

Rev. Reichel returned Monday from a stay of a few days in Stella.

Charles D. Nixon and family were down from Auburn Tuesday.

Miss Grace Oberholtz of Omaha is visiting her sister, Mrs. Raker.

Supt. Hoff of the Humboldt schools, was in the city Wednesday.

Martin Werner went to Kansas City the first of the week.

Guy Kleckinger was up from Rulo to spend Sunday.

Al Pyle and wife were up from Preston Tuesday.

Henry Pribbeno of Preston was in town Monday.

Joe Parsons was down from Verdon Monday.

John Hall was down from Verdon Monday.

Mrs. Jake Bloom is reported very sick.

The World's Greatest Singers
Are at Your Service
Victor
Talking Machines
Edison
Phonographs
Brings them to Your Fireside
DELIGHTFUL ENTERTAINMENT
AT A MODERATE EXPENDITURE
A Complete Line of Edison Phonographs and Records. Come in and let us demonstrate their musical powers to you.
DAVIES & OWENS
JEWELERS AND OPTICIANS FALLS CITY, NEBRASKA

Will Zentner and wife were down from Verdon Saturday.

Mrs. Frank Mason who has been visiting her parents, Frank Judy and wife, returned to her home in St. Joe.

Mrs. W. H. Kerr returned Monday from a month's visit with her son, Dr. C. C. Kerr, and family in New Orleans.

—If you value money attend the opening of the New Shoe Store. The opening day will be a gala day—Saturday, March 19th.

Judge Spragins stepped on a nail one day last week and because of it he is wearing one shoe of convenient cut and is walking with a cane.

Mrs. Sue DeWald returned Friday from Omaha. She has spent several weeks there, having her eyes treated and feels very much encouraged at the result.

—Ladies. Save money! Make finest of perfumes at home for one-fifth what you are now paying. Ten guaranteed recipes for 50c. Home Supply Co., Princeton, Indiana.

—Something new, Favorite Pruning Saw. Trim your trees from the ground. Six reasons why it is the best in the market. Write J. A. Schroer & Co., Fruit Packers and dealers for circulars and prices, St. Joseph, Mo. 10-5t.

—A new Shoe Store will be opened by J. Lansky, second door north of M. Seff's clothing store, Falls City, on Saturday, March 19th.

Miss Maybell Potecet went to Peru Saturday morning, where she visited over Sunday with Miss Bessie Curran.

Jean Cain and sister, Miss Nellie, went to Stella Sunday to attend the funeral of J. R. Cain's little son.

Mrs. Murt Sullivan of Effingham, Kas., arrived last Friday for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Vogel.

Mrs. J. R. Cain went to Stella Friday, called there by the death of the little son of J. R. Cain, jr.

Miss Ethel Parchen went to Verdon Friday to visit friends and attend a big party in the evening.

Mrs. J. L. Mead returned Friday from a visit to Omaha with her daughter, Mrs. Yates.

Elmer Kanaly and wife were up from Preston Saturday.

Sam Heysler was calling upon old friends here Friday.

Charles McCool of Salem was a visitor here Saturday.

—For Sale—100 tons of hay cheap.—H. I. Hunt.

L. D. McCumber was up from Preston Friday.

Henry Reiger was up from Preston Saturday.