A Joplin, Mo., horse valued at $1,000 swallowed a diamond worth $750. It is a question now of horse or diamond—which?

The strike situation in Philadelphia continues. Before the difficulty is settled and the strike called off, labor unions in different parts of the country are in danger of being drawn into the unhappy controversy.

A saloonkeeper at McCook persisted in keeping his son, under eighteen years of age, in the business. The city council as a consequence has revoked his license. It is known that this law is being violated in Falls City; when will our council get busy?

The Business Men's Association of Diller, Neb., is offering cash prizes for good roads in the vicinity of the town. The conditions upon which the prizes will be awarded are such as to necessitate the building of not less than fourteen miles of good roads in order to win them all. Will the Falls City Commercial club make a memoranda of this?

Hiawatha is talking about putting a rest room in one of the rooms of the new Life-Annuity building now nearing completion. This is an advanced idea, in the west. Falls City can afford to give this matter attention also. It is only a question of time when every town will provide accommodations for the comfort of people while doing business there. Who shall be first.

Legal Notice.

In the Richardson County District Court, State of Nebraska.

Peter Frederick Sr., plaintiff, vs. Charles McMahan, Anna McMahan, his wife, Frank Gilliland and Emma E. Gilliland, his wife, defendants.

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of an order of sale issued out of the District Court of Richardson county, state of Nebraska, and to me directed as sheriff of said county, bearing date on the 7th day of March, 1910, I will offer at public sale at the west door of the court house in Falls City, in said county, on the 18th day of April, 1910, at the hour of 1 o'clock p. m. of said day, the following described real estate, situated in Richardson county, state of Nebraska, to-wit: The E. 1/2 of the E. 1/2 of the S. E. Quarter of the N. W. 1/4 of Section 16, Township 3 N. in Range 17, East of the 6th P. M.

This sale is made in pursuance of the decree of foreclosure of two mortgages held by said Peter Frederick Sr., severally executed to him by Charles McMahan and Anna McMahan on the property above described and which was by them sold to defendants, Frank Gilliland and Emma E. Gilliland, his wife, who also executed a subsequent mortgage to plaintiff on the same premises, the said Frank L. Gilliland and his wife, Emma E. Gilliland, and the same is seized and will be sold as above stated to satisfy the decree and costs foreclosing both mortgages above described. Terms of sale cash.
