

The County in General

The "Doings" of our Country Friends and Neighbors.

STELLA.

A. J. Baldwin was an Omaha visitor Monday.

Mrs. Fred Stringfield of Verdon was visiting Stella friends last week.

Charles Allor of Kansas City visited his parents the latter part of the week.

A. J. Baldwin transacted business in Lincoln the latter part of last week.

Miss Lissa Colglazier spent part of last week with Mrs. John Jenkins in the country.

A daughter, weighing eight pounds, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Curtis, Saturday, June 18.

Mrs. Jas. Houghton of Carneyville Wyoming is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Chaney.

Mrs. E. Wheeler spent last week in the country with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Slocum.

Mr. and Mrs. Hughes of Humboldt attended the funeral of their sister-in-law at Stella Saturday.

Wm. Fritts and wife and Mrs. L. G. Cifers and Teddie Rush were in Falls City Saturday on business.

Jess Brown and family of Falls City were here Saturday to attend the funeral of Mr. Brown's sister.

J. M. Goodloe and family visited Sunday at Verdon with Mrs. Goodloe's brother, Robt. Goelsby and family.

Rev. Hinkle's mother, who had been visiting him for the past month, left Tuesday for her home at Genoa.

Mrs. Angeline Raper spent several days the first of the week with her son, Charles and family, at Verdon.

J. M. Goodloe was called to Humboldt Tuesday to meet his brother-in-law, Charles Sloan, of Norcatur, Kas.

Mrs. Wm. Sloan and two children of Verdon visited the first of the week with her sister, Mrs. E. Withee.

Mrs. J. R. Cain and little daughters and Mrs. Caroline Haggard returned from a three weeks' visit in Kansas.

Mrs. Ed Gebhard of Verdon visited at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Helmick the first of the week.

Mrs. George Mitchel and daughter, Bertha went to Barada Saturday to spend a couple of weeks with relatives.

M.H. Vandeventer and wife attended the funeral of the latter's cousin, Mr. Fisher, near Nemaha Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Carmetta Allor returned to the home of her grandparents last Friday after a visit with her parents in Kansas City.

Mrs. G. M. Andrews and two little daughters of Kansas City came up Saturday for a visit with the doctor and Stella friends.

Tombstones were placed in the Stella cemetery to mark the graves of John Jenkins, Perry Montgomery and little Irene Reimers.

Children's Day was observed at the Lutheran church last Sunday. A very appropriate program was well rendered by the little folks.

Elmer Mason came down from Omaha Monday. He reports his son Merle as getting along nicely, but another operation for appendicitis will be necessary.

Miss Blanch Monette left Wednesday for Trinidad, Colorado to attend a convention, having been elected delegate from Midland college before returning home.

Miss Mable Culp, who has been visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lyanna, was called to the country Monday to take care of her aunt, Miss Louise Lyanna, who is quite sick with kidney trouble.

Jacob Swihart and wife returned last week after a two months visit with their children in Colorado. Mrs. Swihart had quite a severe attack of rheumatism while away and for a few days was unable to walk.

Tuesday afternoon about three o'clock our quiet little town was aroused from its afternoon nap by a cloud of dust from the east. It soon proved to be the approach of the Humboldt Boosters, coming to invite us over to the celebration the fourth of July. They had their band with them, and gave us some lively music that wakened us for the rest of the day. Also left a few souvenirs, but had used all advertising matter between stations. However, they were welcome and invited to come again.

Mr. Richardson, who had been visiting for several days at the home of Mrs. Mattie Hodge left Monday afternoon for Denver, but not until he had induced her daughter, Miss Grace, to accompany him. They will go to the home of his parents, where on next Saturday they will be united in marriage by the groom's father, who is a Baptist minister. This will be the fiftieth wedding anniversary of the groom's parents. They will visit in Denver a couple of weeks and then return here for a short visit, after which they will go to Hanley, Missouri to live. The best wishes of a host of friends goes with them.

Mrs. Dora McDougal died at her home in Humboldt Friday morning, June 17, of ptomaine poisoning. She was the wife of Wm. McDougal and a daughter of Mrs. Wm. Brown. The remains were brought to Stella Saturday afternoon and the funeral preached at the Christian church by Rev. Adams of Humboldt. The body was laid to rest in the Stella cemetery beside her father and infant son. She leaves a husband, an infant daughter, mother, one sister, four brothers and a host of friends. She was twenty-eight years old. She had been married seven years and most of her life had been spent in Stella.

BARADA.

Jerry Richards was up from the county seat this week.

Dr. S. A. Van Osdel was a Shubert visitor Sunday evening.

Dr. and Mrs. Andrews entertained at dinner Sunday Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Martin.

Miss Lizzie Zubrick of Verdon visited this week with her aunt, Mrs. E. E. Butler.

Conrad Gedres and family were the guests of R. H. Dunn and family Sunday.

L. H. Morehead and wife are in Vesta this week visiting their son, J. W. Morehead.

R. N. Williamson and W. C. Bridgeman and their families spent Sunday at Barbour's lake.

J. A. Martin, Dr. S. A. Van Osdel and Harley Butler were business visitors in Falls City Monday.

Walter and Floyd Orr have each secured lots and expect to erect dwelling houses in the near future.

Miss Kittie Butler left Monday for York where she goes as a delegate to the Sunday School and Christian Endeavor convention of the Evangelical church.

Quarterly conference at the Evangelical church next Saturday and Sunday. Presiding Elder Dillow will preach Saturday afternoon and evening and Sunday morning. C. E. in the evening, led by Lela Butler.

TRADE MORAL—Nobody would have known the Good Samaritan's kind act were it not for our Saviour's parable. Be the home folks' Good Samaritan, Mr. Merchant; make this paper your commercial bible; write your own parable and put it in our advertising columns.

RULO.

Nellie Shaffer is now assistant in the post office.

Tom Brinegar visited with his family for a few days.

Henry Smith of Wymore was a Rulo visitor Friday.

Emma Grant returned from Falls City Monday morning.

F. E. Kulp of Wymore was a Rulo visitor one day last week.

L. B. Lyman of Wymore was a Rulo visitor one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lytle are the proud parents of a little son.

Dr. J. W. Layton of Leavenworth was a Rulo visitor Thursday.

H. F. Edgecomb was a Falls City visitor the first of the week.

Will Davis returned the first of the week from a trip to Oklahoma.

Frank Blair of Highland, Kas., visited relatives in Rulo last week.

Mrs. Ryan came over from Kansas to meet her son, Lewis, Monday.

Mrs. Will Cunningham returned on Sunday from San Jose, California.

Alice Tilton came down from Falls City last week to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gilbert are the happy parents of a little daughter.

Alta Gilbert is spending this week in the country with her brother, Ed.

Roy Williams visited with his mother at Fortoscue the first of the week.

Mrs. Claude Asbury came up from St. Joe Monday night to visit her parents.

Mary Boehme is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Frank Costello of Atchison.

Mr. Henniger of St. Joe was a business visitor in Rulo one day last week.

Mrs. Moore of Lee's Summit was visiting with friends in Rulo last week.

Miss Leah Potec of Falls City visited with relatives in Rulo one day last week.

Floyd and Vearls True came down from Salem Saturday to spend Sunday at home.

Maggie Mooney returned last week from a visit from her sister at Effingham, Kas.

School closed at the convent last Tuesday with an interesting program and a picnic.

Phil Horan, wife and son spent Sunday with Mrs. Horan's parents north of town.

Claude Yocam of Fairview, Kas., was in Rulo visiting relatives the first of the week.

Misses Lena and Josie Murphy and Josie Mahan were Falls City visitors Friday and Saturday.

Sophia Pierce, who has been attending school at Peru, is quite sick at her home in this city.

John Hopkins and family left on Thursday of last week for a visit to relatives at Creston, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. McNutt spent Saturday and Sunday in Rulo the guests of Jeff Gilbert and family.

Clarence McWain came down from Falls City Saturday evening for a short visit with Rulo relatives.

Mrs. W. Cook and two children left Monday evening for Independence, Mo. to make their future home.

Mrs. Rolly Harrison and daughter, May, left Tuesday for DuBois to visit with her sister, Mrs. Frank.

Mrs. Teft of Waterloo, Iowa is visiting friends in Rulo this week. She was formerly Mrs. Belpier of this place.

Bessie Anderson came home from Peru and spent Sunday. Her sister, Pearl, returned with her to Peru to spend a week.

Rev. A. E. Wachtel returned Tuesday of last week, much improved in health but not able to yet take up all of his regular work.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brinegar attended the funeral of Frederic Nietzsche Thursday of last week. The deceased was Mrs. Brinegar's grandfather.

John Mooney's horse fell down the dump near the elevator Monday evening and rolled over on him causing some painful bruises. But on the whole it was a lucky escape for John.

Grandma True returned to her home in Union, Neb., Saturday after a three months visit with her son, Will. She was accompanied by her granddaughter, who will spend her vacation with relatives here.

Mrs. George Ward gave a party in the afternoon of June 16 in honor of her little daughter, Emma's fourth birthday. The company numbered eight little folks, four boys and four girls. Every thing was done by the hostess to make the afternoon pleasant for the little ones and her efforts were fully appreciated by the little guests. All kinds of children's games were played. Nice refreshments were served. Emma received several nice gifts, and when the little ones left for home, thought it was very nice to have a birthday.

WILLIAMSVILLE.

G. W. Duerfeldt shelled corn Monday.

Miss Katie Reinke spent Sunday at the home of Jacob Weissinger.

Anna Rienke spent a few days with her sister, Mrs. Joseph Bauman.

Rev. A. Essley and wife spent last Thursday night at I. A. Dunn's.

Jacob Weissinger and daughter, Ella, were Falls City visitors Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Arnold spent Sunday at the home of Jacob Arnold.

Mrs. I. A. Dunn and daughter, Carrie, were Falls City visitors last Friday.

Clifford Fink, who has been very sick is improving under the care of Dr. Leneker.

R. J. Dunn and wife took a trip to Auburn one day last week with Omer Sailors in his auto.

OHIO.

Jake Gibble and family of near Verdon spent Sunday with P. Shaffer and family.

Jim Gilmore enjoyed a visit from his home last week.

Lydia Dowty was the guest of Lola Sturms Sunday.

Allen Gilmore spent last week near Preston with his aunt.

A Dowty and wife visited with P. Fisher and family Sunday.

Jim Hurt and children visited with Lewis Hurt and family Sunday.

Elizabeth Faunn was a guest of her friend, Edna Shaffer Sunday.

Joan Rains and family spent Sunday with Guss Strauss and family.

Wes Nedrow and family spent Sunday with Norman Forney and family.

Ed Kimmel and family spent last Sunday with Mrs. A. Elshire and family.

Stella Meyers of Morrill is visiting H. Beechy and other friends this week.

S. H. Knisely, wife and daughter were guests of Mrs. Noah Peck last Sunday.

A. Knisely and wife visited one day recently with the former's brother, Lloyd Peck.

Mrs. George Peck and daughters visited with the former's son, E. T. Peck and family.

H. J. Pritchard and Fred Whitrock went to Omaha last week and returned with several autos.

Lola Sturms returned home Wednesday after a few weeks spent with relatives near Omaha.

Francis Stump and wife were called to Omaha last week by the serious illness of their daughter-in-law.

Mrs. F. S. Lichty and Mrs. Chester Stump spent a portion of last week in Kansas City the guests of Mrs. Edith Yellton.

Frank Lichty and Wm. Huettner of this place were Atchison visitors on Friday. They returned with a fine new auto for the Whitrock sisters.

James Gilmore has accepted a position in the Farmers elevator at Wilbur and will go there about July 1. John Dietrich will take Mr. Gilmore's place in the Straussville elevator.

There will be services at the Silver Creek church Thursday and Friday evening of this week and on Saturday evening the Love Feast and communion will be observed. All are cordially invited.

Mrs. Bartlett was called to Omaha Thursday by the serious illness of her daughter, Mrs. Charles P. Stump, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis and other ailments. At last reports she was doing nicely.

Mrs. Noah Peck and daughter spent last week near Atchison visiting relatives. While there they attended the golden wedding of an aunt and uncle of Mrs. Peck's. They were accompanied by John Yocam and daughter, Myrtle, of Falls City.

HUMBOLDT.

Ralph Hummel has a new touring car.

Dr. J. L. Gandy was in Falls City Wednesday.

Riley Weaver of Elk Creek was in the city Saturday.

W. Bryant of Table Rock was here the last of the week.

L. S. Hackett was in St. Joe the middle of the week.

Rudolph Porak was a business visitor in St. Joe Tuesday.

Hamon Loennis was a passenger to Falls City Wednesday.

Robert Carpenter is visiting relatives in Auburn this week.

Elmer Woods and family of Table Rock spent Sunday in this city.

Little John William Waggoner is a victim of the measles this week.

Miss Etta Lipp of Dawson spent a short time in Humboldt this week.

J. C. Vaughn of Pawnee City was a business visitor in Humboldt Saturday.

Mrs. Walter Legg was hostess to the Presbyterian Kensington Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Nellie Rist spent part of this week with her sister, Mrs. Billings in Table Rock.

Mrs. Frank Mullen returned Sunday from St. Joe where she had been visiting friends.

Bert Morehart and family of Red Cloud are guests of Humboldt relatives and friends.

Roy Bain and family of Table Rock spent several days with Humboldt friends this week.

Misses Roxie Wells and Lulu Ross left Tuesday for Canada where they will spend the summer.

Carrie Cooper, Guy Cooper, Ambrose Buerstetta and Ralph Philpot visited Auburn Monday.

Chas. Shoup of Pawnee City was a guest at the home of Norris Aylor a short time this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bounds returned on Wednesday from Lincoln, where they had been visiting relatives.

Mrs. Will Clift and baby of Havenfold are visiting friends and relatives in this city this week.

Miss Edna Scott came to this city Saturday from Beatrice and is visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary Scott.

Miss Anna McDonald returned to her home in Table Rock after spending several weeks in this vicinity.

Mrs. Faulk and daughter, Edna, returned to this city Friday, after an extended visit at Washington, Kas.

Mrs. Walter Legg and children returned Saturday from Pawnee City, where they had been visiting friends.

James Hinzda and daughter, Miss Rose, accompanied by Bertie Bantz and Bessie Little drove to Dawson on Sunday.

Miss Maybelle Davis, who is attending summer school in Lincoln, spent Sunday with her parents, S. E. Davis and wife.

Mrs. Robert Traverse and little son, Frank, returned Saturday from Lincoln where they had been visiting relatives.

Mrs. Jule Ruegge, who has been spending several days with C. C. Unland and family, returned to her home in Falls City Sunday.

W. H. Huff, editor of the Steinauer Star, accompanied by his wife and Frank Steinauer and wife were in Humboldt Monday forenoon.

Master B. Guy Wheeler is spending the week with friends in Table Rock and his sister, Miss Aurrey, is visiting her aunt in Lewiston.

Mrs. Frank Powers and children of Rosalia, Kas., who are visiting in this city, left Tuesday to spend a short time with Table Rock friends.

Miss Florence Hummel, who has been attending the University at Lincoln, returned home Saturday to spend the summer at her home in this city.

John Cornelius, a prosperous farmer, who for many years has resided on his farm northeast of this city, has retired from active farm life and is now a resident of Humboldt.

Mrs. J. L. Gandy accompanied by her granddaughter, Dorothy Dorland, went to Table Rock Saturday to meet the latter's sister, Drusilla, who had been visiting in Lincoln.

The marriage of Harvey Grines and Mable Barnes occurred in Table Rock Wednesday. Mr. Grines will be remembered as a former operator at the local Burlington station.

The autos of Humboldt, after meeting the Lincoln Commercial club that visited this city Tuesday, left for a tour of the surrounding towns. Seventeen machines were highly decorated in the National colors, advertising the Humboldt Fourth of July celebration.

Benjamin King, a retired farmer, who recently moved to this city was taken sick the latter part of the week with typhoid pneumonia, which resulted in his death Tuesday afternoon. The deceased was well known in this community and was most highly respected.

To Mark the Day
you call her thine, the handsomest engagement ring you can afford is none too good. Come here and we'll help you choose wisely and according to your means

For the Eastertide Wedding
it will be just as well to secure the ring now. That will give us plenty of time to attend to the engraving all wedding rings should bear.

R. B. Simpson
North Window Kerr's Pharmacy

Landrigan, of Course

For Furniture and Undertaking

I will save anyone money if they purchase Furniture from me. Call and look our stock over, and you will find our prices are right. Don't forget the place—west of court house. Calls answered day or night.

E. LANDRIGAN
Day Phone 422
Night Phone 381
Falls City, Neb.

We Make A Specialty

of attending to business entrusted to us in such a way that our customers will appreciate the fact that we consider their interests and ours identical.

Farmers State Bank

PRESTON, NEBRASKA

A Fading Beauty

is often no more than a poor set of teeth, which renders the whole face unattractive.

ATTENTION TO THE TEETH
will often restore an attractiveness that was considered lost. Our dental skill is equal to the task of restoring your teeth, no matter how defective they may be. What we cannot repair we replace and no one would know the teeth we insert were not of natural growth.

DR. YUTZY
Falls City, Nebraska

Nothing Equals Old Dutch Cleanser For Cleaning Milk Pails and Pans
Cream Separators, Kitchen and Cooking Utensils

"Wet the article, sprinkle with Old Dutch Cleanser, wash thoroughly with a cloth or brush. Rinse well in clean water and wipe or let stand to dry. This removes discoloration, corrosion, spots and grease, such as ordinary cleansers will not remove and does it quicker and easier."

Cleans, Scrubs, Scours, Polishes
It is the best all-round cleanser ever discovered and is perfectly harmless. It keeps everything about the farm house spick and span and saves a lot of labor, time, expense.

Old Dutch Cleanser
Chases Dirt
10¢ For Large Sifter Can