

THE LAST APPEAL!

IT'S FOR YOUR GOOD!

FALLS CITY CHAUTAUQUA

August 6th to 14th, 1910

PROF. GILLAN

Just get a program and look it over. You know you can't afford to miss a single day

If you want something to make you laugh
If you are seeking useful information
If you want to be entertained
If you want a delightful rest
If you want a pleasant time and place to visit

In fact, if you want to spend a week replete with all that makes life worth while, you'll find no better time or place than at the Falls City Chautauqua.

RENO B. WELBOURN

BE SURE TO GET A PROGRAM

MUSIC

Otterbein Male Quartette and Bell Ringers, Aug. 6th and 7th.
MAUPIN'S BAND AND ORCHESTRA, August 8th to 13th.
Tyrolean Alpine Yodlers, Aug. 8-9.
Columbian Tennesseans (colored), August 13th and 14th.
Humboldt Orchestra, Aug. 7th & 14th

LECTURES

George R. Stuart, than whom none better exists, August 7th.
Gov. R. B. Glenn, of North Carolina, August 8th.
Col. Bob Seeds, the Hundred Point Man, August 8th.

MRS. BIRDIE MAUPIN

LECTURES

Dr. James S. Meyers, Platform Manager, Lectures, August 9th.
Col. G. A. Gearhart, "A lecture worth $50 to anyone," Aug 10th.
Clinton N. Howard, "A home record unexcelled," August 11th.
John Temple Graves, "The most eloquent Southerner," August 11th.
H. W. (Taffy) Sears, August 12th.
Reno B. Welbourn, "Better than sleight of hand, August 12th.
Dr. J. L. Gillan, August 14th.
Dr. Henry Clay Risner "A Power from Texas," August 14th.
Dr. Edward A. Steiner, "A Man with a Message For America."

MRS. JENNIE BARLOW, Domestic Science

Entertainment

Mrs. Birdie Maupin, in Story and Song for the Children, August 8th to 13th.

MASCOT, The Educated Horse, a feature you cannot afford to miss, Aug. 13.

MRS. JENNIE BARLOW.

Entertainment

Ellsworth Plumstead, Wednesday, August 10th

Excelsior Entertainers August 11th and 12th

These features will please all.

DON'T FORGET THE DATES

August 6th to 14th, 1910

FOR INFORMATION SEE OR ADDRESS

E. K. HURST, Secretary, Falls City, Neb.