Living to Ourselves

"No man liveth to himself," simply because he cannot. He has it in his power (moved by selfishness) to refuse help to the other man, while at the same time he must depend on him or he cannot himself exist. In proportion as the spirit of co-operation is practiced, the community grows and prospers. This bank cannot exist except for the co-operation of the people who dwell here, nor can any other business institution. Should all the people here decide to patronize mail order banks and catalog houses, all the banks and business houses here would have to "shut up shop," and then how quickly real estate values hereabouts would imitate the walls of Jericho and "come tumbling down." These are truths every man should think about when he contemplates either of the things named above. This bank solicits no business to the detriment of the customer. When you can get better service, higher rate of interest, more courteous treatment in some distant city bank than we offer you, we shall not question your right to give them your business, but until that time (and thereafter also) protection for your own interests should prompt you to keep your money at home.

Nebraska Women Have the Choice of the Finest Flour In the World

NO FLOUR that you can buy makes more loaves of bread per sack—by actual baking tests—and better, whiter, lighter loaves than Nebraska's Quality Flour—

PURITAN. Bread made from average flour is part waste, part impure, and only part food. Bread made from Puritan Flour is every ounce good pure, bread-making food—because Puritan Flour is made from the choicest hard wheat—selected and cleaned—actually steamed, scoured and scrubbed, till not an atom of dirt remains in the crease of the kernel. We use not only the best wheat but only the best part of that wheat—the really nutritious, hunger-satisfying elements. After grinding, we separate our flour into twenty different "stocks" or streams, then blend it to get in every sack the scientifically right combination of nutritious bread-making qualities. This is done by actual chemical and baking tests—part of our unexcelled milling system. Your baking can't fail with Puritan Flour for it is the product of the finest wheat grown, the best milling machinery, most skilled millers and the most scientific milling methods known.
