Living to Ourselves

"No man liveth to himself," simply because he cannot. He has it in his power (moved by selfishness) to refuse help to the other man, while at the same time he must depend on him or he cannot himself exist. In proportion as the spirit of co-operation is practiced, the community grows and prospers. This bank cannot exist except for the co-operation of the people who dwell here, nor can any other business institution. Should all the people here decide to patronize mail order banks and catalog houses, all the banks and business houses here would have to "shut up shop," and then how quickly real estate values hereabouts would imitate the walls of Jericho and "come tumbling down." These are truths every man should think about when he contemplates either of the things named above. This bank solicits no business to the detriment of the customer. When you can get better service, higher rate of interest, more courteous treatment in some distant city bank than we offer you, we shall not question your right to give them your business, but until that time (and thereafter also) protection for your own interests should prompt you to keep your money at home.

Every person is eligible—including Sewing Clubs—Societies and Charitable Organizations—a great opportunity for all families to get their winter supply of Puritan Flour Free. The fairest, swiftest, most entertaining and fun-making contest ever held in Nebraska. Everyone will enjoy making something from a Puritan Flour Sack—the prettiest of all flour sacks. You probably have one in the pantry now or your neighbor has one—you don't have to buy a new sack of flour to enter the contest—use the Puritan Sack you have. Clip the coupon, fill out and mail today for particulars. Awards will be made, and Prize Sacks delivered by your grocers not later than September 15th, 1916.

Because
PURITAN is made from the choicest hard wheat. When you buy the lowest priced flour you get the same number of pounds as when you pay for the best—but far less value. Bread made from average flour is part waste, part impurity and only part food. Bread made from Puritan Flour is every bit good, pure, blood-making food. And Puritan Flour makes lighter, whiter—tastier loaves by actual baking tests than any other flour you can buy. We separate our flour into twenty different "stocks" or streams, then blend it to get in every sack the scientifically right combination of nutritious bread-making qualities. This is done by actual chemical and baking tests—part of our milling system. Your baking, therefore, can't fail with the use of Puritan Flour.

Children's Puritan Doll

The little tots can't enjoy the Puritan Flour Sack Contest, so we have prepared a consolation prize for the children. In every sack of Puritan Flour is a coupon good on a Puritan Boy Doll, eighteen inches tall, with rosy cheeks and Puritan clothes. Mail the coupons you find in the flour sacks to us and we will send you back the doll. His name is Little Puritan Miller.
