THE WEEK'S SOCIAL EVENTS

AS 'TAS TOLD TO OUR SOCIETY EDITOR

Various Kinds of Entertainment by Individuals, Lodges, Clubs, Churches, Etc.

The Sophomores tendered a reception to the Freshmen last Friday evening at the High School building. The new teachers were also included in the initiation ceremonies and the ordeals the candidates were put thru were sometimes startling. But all took the jokes goodnaturedly and all went well until the refreshments were disturbed by outsiders. This was a joke of another color and came near ending seriously. But all passed over and the Sophomores proved what excellent entertainers they were.

Mrs. Clara Neal, entertained the L. B. T. club last Friday, at her home on North Stone Street. The living room and dining room were artistically decorated with goldenrod and yellow and white asters. The ladies passed the time with dainty needlework, and at six o'clock an excellent dinner was served at small tables, the color scheme of yellow and white being carried out through the several courses.

The ladies lingered until late in the evening and every minute was filled with pleasure.

Reavis Gist entertained quite a large party of friends last Friday evening in a very enjoyable manner. After all the young people had arrived at the Gist home they were taken for a hay-rack ride and a happier, jollier party would have been hard to find. They stopped at the home of W. E. Dorrington upon their return and were served with ice cream and cake.

Returning to the Gist home the remainder of the evening was passed in a variety of interesting ways. It was an exceptionally pleasant evening, thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

Miss Seamann of Hiawatha was among the guests and favored them with singing.

The approaching wedding of Miss Dorothea White and Mr. J. V. Hill of Sioux City, was announced last Saturday afternoon, when Miss Dorothea entertained her club, the Five W's and a few other friends.

The guests were received by Miss Dorothea and shown to one of the upper chambers where Mrs. White presented each guest with a heart upon which Cupids were painted. On one side was written, Dorothea White, Judson V. Hill, October 7, 1910.

Cards were given upon which to write the supposed date of the wedding, altho the real day was not announced.

Another guessing contest was to guess the names of forty familiar lovers and sweethearts in history and fiction, from illustrations. Several guessed all correctly and were given bouquets of white asters and carnations.

Music was furnished by several of the young ladies for the pleasure of all present.

The contents of the dower chest was displayed for the friends and they saw a quantity of hand painted china, silver, embroidered linen fancy work of all kinds, table linen and bedding as well as the larger part of the bride's trousseau.

Anticipating the announcement, the guests went prepared to give Miss White a handkerchief show and many beautiful kerchiefs were presented to her.

Dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. White and her daughters. The icecream was moulded heart shape with a red heart in the center. Cakes were cut in shape of hearts and heart shaped mints were served.

The afternoon was filled with pleasure for all and when the guests left for their homes, many hearty good wishes for a bright and happy future remained with Miss White.

Beckenhauer — Daeschner

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Beckenhauer, West Point, Nebr., on Wednesday morning, Sept. 7, 1910 at 11:40 a pretty but very quiet wedding was solemnized, when their daughter Elma L. was married to Mr. Richard T. Daeschner of Preston, Nebr.

Only a few of the immediate families were present to witness the ceremony. The bride and groom marched unattended into the parlor to the Strains of Lohen grin's Wedding march played by Miss Sadie Daeschner, where the ceremony was performed by Rev. Harry Graunke of Lincoln.

The bride wore a white batiste dress trimmed in Irish point lace, and carried a bouquet of brides roses. The groom wore the conventional black. After the ceremony a sumptuous three course dinner was served by the bride's sisters.

Mrs. Daeschner is a graduate of the Conservatory of music at North Western College, Naperville, Ill. Mr. Daeschner is a graduate of the same institution, having received the degree of Ph. B.

Mr. and Mrs. Daeschner left on the afternoon train for an extended honeymoon trip thru the western and northern states. They will be at home to their friends after Oct. 20, 1910 at Preston, Nebr.

W. C. T. U.

Members of the union are invited to the annual meeting for the election of officers to be held in the Brethren church this Friday afternoon at half past two.

It is likely that plans will be discussed for aiding in the defeat of the brewers' ticket, which is boldly declaring they will try to rule Nebraska.

In the next six weeks, meetings should not only be held in the towns, but in every school house in the state. Come to the Friday afternoon meeting.

A Long Trip

Lloyd Grush and family returned recently from a visit with relatives in Polo, Ills. They made the trip overseas in their auto. On their return they were accompanied by Mrs. M. J. Ayres, who is past 76 years of age. She will visit the families of her son and daughter, S. R. Ayres and Mrs. Grush. A week was spent on the trip from Polo, the party stopping in Iowa with relatives a couple of days. They left Polo August 21.

A Liberal Offer

T. F. Stroud & Co., manufacturers of Dirt Moving Tools, 20th & Ames Ave., Omaha, Nebr., have on hand a full set of road making tools to loan, free of charge, to any county or township who will obligate themselves to use them every day while in their possession, returning them in as good condition as when taken from the factory.

THE H. M. JENNE SHOE STORE

The H. M. Jenne Shoe Store was established in this city August 1, 1906. It is located one door south of the post-office and is the largest store dealing exclusively in shoes in southeastern Nebraska. Here nothing is carried but foot-wear and customers may be fitted in all sizes and widths from the finest to the more ordinary for general wear and hard service. The store is well furnished and presents an attractive appearance at all times.

Mr. Jenne is one of the younger of Falls City's business men, nevertheless he has already won for himself an enviable reputation among business men because of his up-to-date methods and square dealing. His is strictly a one price store. Every one is treated with equal courtesy and deference. This accounts for the large patronage and the general popularity of the Jenne Shoe Store with all classes of people.

An up-to-date repair shop is operated in connection with the store. Here all the work is done quickly and accurately on the most modern shoe-repair machinery. The work is far superior to the old way of cobbling in finish and wear, and is always guaranteed. One operator can do the work of several men working by hand.

A visit to the store for the first time impresses one with the fact that its size and beauty are unusual for a city the size of Falls City and would do credit to a much larger town.

GERMAN DAY

Large Crowd. Varied Program

The fourth annual celebration of German Day was held last Thursday. Altho the weather was threatening in the morning, the day turned out fine and a big crowd gathered from the surrounding country and neighboring towns. The merchants began early to decorate and succeeded in giving Falls City a gala appearance, and from the extent of their business one is safe in concluding that there were some hungry people in town.

The parade was held up for some time awaiting the arrival of the Missouri Pacific train from the north upon which Mayor Dahman was scheduled to arrive.

German Knights carrying the German and American flags headed the parade. The marshals of the day, Peter Kaiser and Fritz Herbster preceded the Shetland pony brigade. The little carts and phaetons were lavishly decorated with flowers.

Young ladies on horseback and a company of infantry composed of resident Germans who had seen service in the old country. The Dawson band following.

One float represented the Goddess of Liberty with her maids of honor and another, Germania with her ladies in waiting, and the German ladies Kaffee Klatch of this city. A typical German on horse back represented the R. A. Dittmar firm. Wright's Lumber Co. and Benschoter's Livery were also represented. A number of decorated autos were also in line.

After the parade the crowd gathered at the park where the different bands gave a short entertainment. Mayor Dahman, who was the guest of honor gave the address of the day. Representative and other prominent politicians spoke briefly. In the evening the bands gave concerts followed by fireworks.

His Auto Burned.

Wm Tiehen living south west of Salem was the victim of a serious accident to himself as well as the loss of his auto last Monday night. Will McDougal was going home from Salem and at the foot of the hill near Tiehens the gasoline gave out in the auto. He asked Mr. Tiehen for a supply which he had to draw from the Tiehen car. As it was dark they took a lighted lantern with them and Tiehen crawled under the car with a teakettle to hold the gasoline. When it was full he called to McDougal who instead of turning the lever put his finger in for a plug. This spattered the gasoline and it fell on the lantern it ignited and a big blaze followed. When McDougal withdrew his finger the gasoline continued to flow and soon Tiehens clothing was on fire. McDougal dragged Tiehen from under the car and with his hands fought out the fire on him. Altho Tiehen was badly burned, the two ran the car out of the garage into the open, as there was no way of stopping the fire as long as the Gasoline lasted. All the woodwork and upholstery was burned the machinery will be sent to Council Bluffs where Mr. Tiehen thinks it can be made over for between $400.00 and $500.00.

Mr. Tiehen's face and hands and arms were badly burned but he was able to be in town next day. Mr. McDougal burned his hands while fighting the fire on Mr. Tiehen.
