THE WEEK'S SOCIAL EVENTS

AS 'TAS TOLD TO OUR SOCIETY EDITOR

Various Kinds of Entertainment by Individuals, Lodges, Clubs, Churches, Etc.

Mrs. R. A. Dittmar entertained the Bridge Club last Wednesday afternoon and made the occasion an unusually pleasant one for her guests.

Partners for the afternoon were chosen by matching flowers, a pretty assortment being arranged. The time allotted to the game passed all too quickly, and the honors for the afternoon were well distributed.

Lovely refreshments were served consisting of icecream in watermelon, cake, lemonade and confections.

Mrs. Lucus of Minneapolis was present.

Misses Stella and Mattie Schock entertained friends last Tuesday evening for their guest, Miss Corinne Henry of Frankfort Ky. Son'erset and Royalty were played, guests for six tables being present. The contest was spirited and great interest was manifested. The rooms were beautified by the use of an abundance of cut flowers, the dining room where a supper of two courses was served, at eleven o'clock, being exceptionally pretty. The occasion was very enjoyable, the hostesses proving themselves delightful entertainers.

Mrs. Peter Resterer was hostess to the L. B. T. Club on Wednesday afternoon and entertained them royally. There was a large attendance of club members and each one seemed bent on pleasure. At six o'clock a delicious dinner was served such as Mrs. Resterer is famous for preparing. It was late before the guests adjourned, having spent a most delightful afternoon.

A very enjoyable kensington was given last Tuesday afternoon by Miss Myrtle Ramel for about twenty lady friends. A bright sunny day added to the cheerfulness of the guests and the spirit of pleasure prevailed. At five o'clock refreshments were served in two courses. The guests lingered long loath to abandon the pleasures of the afternoon.

Mrs. Harry Jenne entertained the Kaffee Klatch Tuesday afternoon of this week. There was a large attendance of the club members and all enjoyed the afternoon thoroughly. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess at half after five o'clock.

The first meeting of Sorosis will be next Wednesday afternoon, October 5, at the home of Mrs. Kate D. Steele.

Miss Oddie Lapp and Miss Stella Knickerbocker are entertaining friends at dinner this afternoon complimentary to Miss Corinne Henry of Frankfort, Ky.

Mistaken Impression.

Some rough looking customers were hanging around Thomas J. Whitaker's grocery store Saturday and their actions aroused Billy Casey's suspicion. He finally saw them leave the store and after going a short distance one turned and ran back hurriedly and was soon followed by the others. His real errand was to buy a dozen bannanas, but Billy's suspicion was up and he phoned in a hurry up call, saying Whitaker's store was being held up. Sheriff Fenton and the way form the show grounds only to find Thomas sitting very quietly reading a paper. He was just a little startled when the officers yelled "hands up."

Miles Will Case Settled.

The long drawn out Miles will case came to an end last Monday when the supreme court affirmed the decision of Judge Raper in the district court of this county holding that the Rulo will made in 1888 by Stephen Boyd Miles was, legally his last will and testament in as much as the evidence was insufficient to show that a later will was made, signed, or signed by witnesses. The case has been in litigation since 1899 and has attracted attention all over the country. The original estate was valued at $1,000,000 although it is now believed to be worth $1,500,000.

INTO SERIOUS TROUBLE.

Trades Love Of Woman For $650 Charge.

The following, taken from the Omaha News may interest Falls City people to some extent as it relates to parties who held forth in this city some two years ago:

"That he might have, unchallenged, the affections of Mrs. Catherine Patterson for himself, Gates Parker is alleged to have turned over to E. C. Woddell, formerly of Omaha, but now of Des Moines, $150 worth of jewels and a $500 check, though the former possessor of the woman's charms now says the check was a forgery and is prosecuting his rival.

"Woddell until recently lived in Omaha and Parker lived at Guide Rock. When the alleged barter of affection for money took place all the parties were in Omaha.

"County Attorney English, on Woddell's representations of forgery, sent Detective Devereese to Denver to get Parker. Devereese has returned empty handed, with a story of how the man, in his resistance to extradition, showed that he had money in the Guide Rock bank, which his divorced wife had so entangled that his check drawn in good faith was not honored.

"Mrs. Patterson, according to Denver advices, declared that Woddell had repented of his bargain to give her up for a financial consideration and brought the action through jealousy.

"Parker's hearing at Denver disclosed the rivalry of the two men for the affections of the woman. Mrs. Patterson stated on the witness stand that she had posed for three years in Omaha as Woddell's wife. She said they had lived in Kountze place.

"I can show a letter from Woddell saying all he wants is to get hold of me again," said Mrs. Patterson testified, "but he won't, not a little bit."

The 101 Ranch Show.

There was a big crowd in town Saturday for the 101 Ranch show. Our merchants speak of having a big trade. But there was an unusually rough element as well, and the police were kept busy with minor offenses but there was no serious trouble. The show was good from the standpoint of a Wild West show and was well patronized at both performances.

2ND ANNUAL HORSE SHOW

A FINE DISPLAY OF HORSE FLESH.

Big Crowd Enjoys the Splendid Exhibit—The Show Pronounced a Success.

The second annual exhibit of the Richardson County Horse Show Association was held in this city Wednesday of this week. It drew a very large crowd of interested spectators from all over the county.

The show was in every way superior to that of last year. There was greater interest manifested by the public, there was a much larger exhibit, the animals exhibited generally were of better stock and more classes were represented.

The show opened at 9:30 a. m. and the ring was kept lively until noon, always something to see. A recess was taken until 1:30 p. m., when the program was again taken up and continued until 4:00 p. m., followed by a parade of prize winners. The First Regiment band of Hiawatha, which furnished music during the day, was at the head of the procession.

Mr. Howard J. Gramlich of South Omaha was the judge of the day. He is a gentleman of wide experience in this line and several years of his life has been devoted to this work. He is a graduate of our state agricultural school and holds the record of second place in the United States International judging contest held in Chicago and first place on our state team. He spent the past summer in Scotland taking a post graduate course in his line of work.

The general points observed in his decisions were good blood-life, action, general symmetry, gait, style, color, condition, temper, general usefulness. It was often necessary to go into finer points in making a decision, and Mr. Gramlich said often he felt he would like to put a red ribbon on two horses.

He spoke in most favorable terms of the horses and mules of all ages that were exhibited and pays a great compliment to our county.

It is hoped that our Horse Show is an assured thing. It has a real meaning to breeders of horse flesh and to those who admire a good animal from a disinterested standpoint. It meant a splendid day for our merchants and pleasure for everybody. Another year perhaps it can be arranged to show the animals to greater advantage and comfort to the public. No effort will be spared next year to make it even a greater success.

Edith May Domer.

Edith May Domer was born May 2, 1910 and died September 22, 1910, being four months and twenty days old. She was sick but three days. Her illness started with teething and ended in inflammation of bowels and liver.

She was a loving child just opening its petals into the sunlight of love, sending forth a fragrance of the sweetest odor. She was with us only long enough to grieve dear to us and then she was taken away to a brighter and better world. The treasure of earth has become the asset in heaven.

The funeral services were from the residence of Prof. and Mrs. D. S. Domer Saturday at 2:30 p. m., Rev. Day of Falls City being in charge of the services. The floral tributes were elaborate, as the little casket was buried in folwers at the grave. The ninth grade pupils of the Salem high school remembered the bereaved family with a beautiful wreath of ferns and roses. After the services the little body was laid to rest in the Maple Grove cemetery.

"There is a Reaper whose name is Death. And with his sickle keen Cuts down the bearded grain at a berath. And the flowers that grow between."

Death of Charles Bliss.

Charles Bliss died at his home in this city Wednesday morning at the age of thirty-five years, four months and eleven days. He leaves a wife and two children to mourn his death.

The funeral was held Thursday at 2:30 p. m. conducted by Rev. Bailey and the W. O. W. The interment was made in Steele cemetery.

MINK LEAGUE TO CONTINUE

DIRECTORS PLEASD WITH FINANCIAL SHOWING.

Meeting in Falls City Wednesday Shows Good Standing—Falls City Leads in Attendance.

At a meeting of the directors of the Mink League the continuation for next year was assured. The chief object of this meeting was to examine the financial standing of the league in order to make a report to the National Association and assure the Mink's position for next year.

The treasurer's report showed a balance of $407.78 after all debts had been paid and above the $300 guarantee from each town at the beginning of the season. Of this balance, $50.00 was voted to President Wilson to reimburse him for any traveling expense he might have incurred, and $30 was reserved for any little bill that might be left unpaid because of not being presented in due form. The balance was pro-rated to the six towns of the league. A number of players were reserved by the several clubs to protect themselves with the National association. This simply means that the clubs reserving these men have first right to them for next year, that the men cannot play elsewhere unless released by the Mink club reserving them. But it does not mean the Mink clubs must keep them next year. They may release them if they choose. Although many of the Falls City colts were reserved, Manager Annis was not.

Falls City is particularly proud of her standing in the league. She won the pennant against great odds. She leads all the Mink towns in attendance and we also believe in enthusiasm. In her home county and among her neighbors she stood absolutely alone, but won out with fine showing. You cannot down a live town.

The attendance at the six towns during the season was as follows:
Falls City... 14,205
Nebraska City... 13,111
Clarinda... 12,736
Shenandoah... 12,599
Auburn... 10,722
Maryville... 8,349

M. E. Conference News.

Rev. Brooks returned Tuesday from York, Neb., where he attended the annual South Platte conference. He has been returned to this city, a fact that is accepted with pleasure by his congregation. The services at the M. E. church will be the same as usual next Sunday.

Among the changes made in our neighboring towns at the conference held at York were the removal of Rev. Wachtel from Rulo to Vesta, with the former parish unsupplied. W. O. Harrel was sent to Salem and Stella. We have not learned where Rev. Severence of Salem will be located.

W. C. T. U. Notes.

On a "wet" petition to re-open in Washington court house, Ohio, there were 720 signers. Of these only eighty-three were tax payers, and of these, nineteen paid taxes only on dogs. The total tax-paying "wets" who signed the petition paid only one per cent of the taxes. Last, but not least, ten men with penitentiary records.—The Union Worker.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schulenburg were down from Barada for the circus last Saturday.
