THREE OCTOBER WEDDINGS

THREE POPULAR COUPLES WED THE PAST WEEK

One Wedding Was Solemnized In St. Louis and the Others In This City

Leo-Marggraf.

Mr. Alex Robert Leo of this city and Miss Edith Marggraf of St. Louis were married October 6, 1910 at the Baptist parsonage by Rev. W. D. Bolton of the Savannah Ave. Baptist church.

The ceremony was witnessed by only a few close friends, Mrs. Beuefield, L. C. Edwards and Glen McMillan of this city being members of the wedding party.

Mrs. Leo is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marggraf of St. Louis, her father holding the position of traveling auditor of the Bell Telephone Co. She is a stranger to our people but is spoken of as a very charming and agreeable lady who is quite popular with all who know her.

Mr. Leo is at present manager of the Leo Cider & Vinegar plant and is a gentleman who is well thought of in business and social circles.

The entire wedding party returned to this city Thursday night and Friday Mr. Leo gave a luncheon at one o'clock in the private dining room of the National hotel. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Edwards, Miss Stella Shock and Mr. Glen McMillan. An excellent four course luncheon was served after which Mr. and Mrs. Leo entertained their guests during the afternoon in the private parlors of the hotel.

Many friends extend sincere congratulations and good wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Leo, who are now stopping at the National hotel, and wish them every future happiness.

Schaible-Werner.

Ray Schaible, son of M. J. Schaible and Miss Lydia Werner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Werner were married Thursday evening October 6, 1910, at the Methodist parsonage by Rev. M. C. Brooks. The marriage, so quietly celebrated, was quite a surprise to many of their friends.

Both the bride and groom are well known in this community having been born and reared here. They stand high in the estimation of all who know them and are very popular among their friends.

They went to Lincoln Thursday for a short visit and in the near future will go to house keeping on the M. J. Schaible farm north of town.

They have the best wishes of hosts of friends for a long life of happiness and prosperity.

Hill-White.

A very pretty home wedding was celebrated at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. White last Monday evening, October 10, 1910, when the eldest daughter, Miss Dorothea became the wife of Mr. J. V. Hill, of Sioux City, Iowa. The ceremony was witnessed by a few out of town relatives and close friends of the bride and the bridegroom.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Harmon of Lincoln assisted by Rev. Day of this city. Little Miss May Harmon acting as ring bearer.

The bride looked unusually charming in a gown of white Philippine tissue, hand embroidered, over white silk. She carried an arm full of bride's roses.

The little ring bearer looked dainty and sweet in a French dress of white embroidery.

After congratulations had been extended the Misses Hazel White Anna Mason and Lena Northdorf.

Miss White spent her girlhood in this city except the years at the University and the last year when she taught a most successful term of school at Pilger, Neb. She graduated from the High School with the class of '07, after which she spent two years at the University. She is a very bright and capable young lady of pleasing personality, a favorite with a large circle of friends.

Mr. Hill is manager of the department of musical merchandise of the Lincoln Furniture Co. of Sioux City and has made many friends here who congratulate him upon winning such an estimable wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Hill left on the night train for Lincoln where they will visit a short time before going to their home in Sioux City. They take with them the best wishes of their many friends for a happy and prosperous future.

The out of town guests present the marriage were Mrs. Eva Hill, mother of the groom and brother Mr. Otto Hill and wife of North Loupe Nebr. his uncle Mr. Davis and wife, Rev. Harmon and daughter of Lincoln, Mrs. Everson Alma Neb. Miss Cleveland Nebraska City, and Miss Meisenheimer of Hiawatha.

At six o'clock a dinner party was given at the White home for the bridal party and out of town guests.

State C. E. Convention

The Annual Convention of the Nebraska Christian Endeavor Union convenes at Aurora, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, October 21-23, 1910. Among the most noted speakers on the program are Francis E. Clark, D. D. founder of Christian Endeavor and President of the World's C. E. Union; Karl Lehman of Boston, Mass., Interstate Field Secretary; Dr. F. F. Tucker, of Pangkiahwang, China; Guy Martin Withers, of Kansas City and Prof. H. T. Sutton, the Bible-reader, of Chicago, Ills. More than 300 delegates have already registered, insuring an attendance of over 750 out-of-town Endeavorers.

Wolf.

Mrs. Herman Wolf died at her home in the northeast part of the city last Thursday night, October 6, 1910, at eleven o'clock. She had been extremely ill for two weeks and beside the little two weeks old baby she leaves her husband and four small children. Mrs. Wolf was but little past thirty-seven years of age and her death came as a shock to her large circle of friends. She has been a devoted wife and mother, a very estimable lady and a favorite among her friends. She has been loved for her many good qualities and will be sadly missed, not only in the home, but among the friends. The funeral services were held from the home last Sunday and the remains were taken to the Bowman cemetery northeast of town for burial. To the sorrowing ones is extended the profound sympathy of the community.

SHAFFER FAMILY REUNION

HELD AT THE OLD HOME FIVE MILES NORTH OF TOWN

The Family Of Francis Shaffer Met Friday and Held a Family Reunion

One of the most happy family gatherings of the week occurred last Friday at the old Shaffer homestead, five miles north of town when the family of Francis Shaffer met in reunion at the old home where many of the family were born and most of them grew to manhood and womanhood.

Over forty persons attended the reunion including Mr. Shaffer's family and a few close friends and relatives.

It was an ideal day for such an assembly and the delightful weather, the glorious autumn sunshine heightened the spirit of pleasure and enjoyment of all who were present and nothing was left undone that could add to the pleasure of the guests and make the day a memorable one.

At twelve o'clock a bountiful dinner was served, the long table fairly groaning with the abundance provided. From what we hear of the feast we venture to say that most likely most of the guests reached the groaning state also from the quantity and variety of the good things served.

The afternoon was a happy one all enjoying a real good, old fashioned visit with plenty of games and amusements for the children, and all who cared to participate.

It is over forty years since Mr. Shaffer, coming from Somerset county, Pa., settled on the old homestead, which is now occupied by his son, F. M. Shaffer. After his family had grown up and several married, Mr. Shaffer gave up the farm and moved to town to enjoy a well earned rest and the comforts that come from years of industry and frugality.

Mrs. Shaffer passed away several years ago and perhaps the only cloud over the happy day was the absence of the mother, who had made the old farm home one of the happiest memories of her children.

Six sons and one daughter, with eleven grand children and two great grand children were with Mr. Shaffer upon this day. They were: Dr. C. P. Shaffer and family, Reedley, Cal.; Perry Shaffer and family, J. A. Shaffer, Rico, Col.; Mrs. H. M. Steidly, Ft. Collins, Col.; F. M. Shaffer, Harry M. Shaffer and wife, Reedley, Cal.; and Lloyd Shaffer.

Among the other guests were Mr. Shaffer's only sister, Mrs. Charles Will, and the family of Ross Will, Harry Will and Mrs. D. Will and Will Stump, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Ankney, and Mr. and Mrs. Billman of Lebanon, Kans.

Moved to Denver.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sharts left Sunday for Denver, Col., where they expect to reside. If they decide to locate there permanently their household goods which are stored here, will be shipped later. Charles will work on the Denver News. They are leaving many friends here who wish them well and hope the change will be in every way beneficial.

Dr. Charles Shaffer and family left Saturday for Aberdeen, S. D. After a short visit they go to Spokane and Seattle for visits to relatives on their way to their home in Reedley, Cal.

THE WEEK'S SOCIAL EVENTS

AS 'T WAS TOLD TO OUR SOCIETY EDITOR

Various Kinds of Entertainment by Individuals, Lodges, Clubs, Churches, Etc.

The regular meeting of the Shakespeare club was held Oct. 7, at the City Federation rooms. The attendance was good, and the lesson, Scene I and II, Act III, Romeo and Juliet, was discussed with interest. Mrs. A. E. Hill was chosen delegate to the state federation and instructed to vote for Mrs. T. J. Gist for state president. The next meeting will be held October 21 with Mrs. Hargrave.

The Thimble club of the Christian church was entertained last Monday evening by Miss Iva Kent. The young ladies spent the time working on articles for the coming bazaar. Interesting games were provided and music was provided by several members of the club. Light refreshments were served by the hostess.

Around the World.

Among the pleasant events in church circles which also proved a social success was the trip around the world given by the Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. Church last Thursday evening. Four countries were visited and all that could be thought of was done for the pleasure of the travellers.

The Sunday School room of the Church was used for the Union Station and was fitted up with the customary lunch counter, newsstand, Miss Myrtle Ramel and Miss Florence Judd were the affable ticket agents, while Mrs. Gree proved a most efficient train dispatcher.

Many automobiles, carriages, and hayracks were provided for the transportation of the guests and they were kept busy until a late hour many of the belated travellers failing to reach Germany and others arriving in Japan after midnight.

Ireland was the first country and was illustrated at the home of D. Grush a mile west of town. An energetic Irish policeman in the person of Will Schmelzel met the guests, and after "suetting" to suit his office and dignity passed them on to the house which was made most attractive by the use of the Irish national colors thruout the rooms. Shamrock was to be seen on all sides and the famous Irish pig graced the parlour. Among the musical numbers Mrs. Kerr and Mrs. Stockton, in characteristic Irish costume sang sweetly "They Kept the Pig in the Parlor."

King George and Queen May of England were present in the persons of Mr. and Mrs. C. Davis to greet the travelers and assist their subjects in making their stay pleasant. Miss Maude Davis as the Irish washerwoman made the hit of the evening. Then the refreshments which consisted of Irish stew, sandwiches, pickles, tea and buttermilk. Music was furnished by Mrs. Tom Davies and Miss Anita Wilson.

The travelers next visited the country of France at the home of Mrs. Kate Shock east of town. A brilliantly lighted arch above the gate held a banner, "Republique Francaise." The house was beautified by the use of French flags, tiny ones being given as souvenirs. The reception committee was composed of Mrs. A. E. Jaquet, Mrs. T. J. Gist and Mrs. A. D. Cameron and they greeted the guests and presented them to President and Mrs. Falliers represented by Mr. James Jaquet and Miss Stella Shock, who received their guests while seated upon a throne.

Mrs. R. B. Simpson furnished music at intervals during the evening. In the dining room refreshments were served consisting of mock Rhinish wine (grape juice).

From France the tourist journeyed to Germany, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rieshick two miles east of town. About the house the German flags were displayed profusely. Miss Emma Spaitth as "Lorelei," seated upon the high rocks, made a very pretty picture. Mrs. Mauger, a typical German housefrau, dispensed the hospitality of her country and directed the pretty frauiliens in serving sauerkraut pretzels, an dutch cheese and rye bread. German folk songs were sung during the evening.

Japan, the last country visited was represented at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Reavis. Japanese decorations were used profusely and with good effect, making the scene very beautiful. Master John W. Holl and Lorraine Wood impersonating the Mikado and Empress of Japan welcomed the guests.

Mats were provided upon which the guests rested while they enjoyed the refreshments of tea and waffers served by Mrs. W. A. Crook and Mrs. Will Schmelzel, who were dressed in Japanese attire. Selections from "The Mikado," were sung during the evening by Misses Grace Reavis, Lucile and Camille Leyda.

It was a pleasant trip thruout and all who made the journey felt well repaid. It required no little effort on the part of the ladies to make the affair such a social success and it is to be hoped the financial end will be equally as satisfactory when all the bills are paid.

Odd Fellows Association.

The annual meeting of the Richardson county Odd Fellows Assn. was held at Dawson last Tuesday and was well represented by our local order.

The address of welcome was given by Dr. Hays at the afternoon session at the opera house. William A. Hayward of Nebraska City was present as the principal orator of the afternoon. The evening session was held in the lodge rooms where team work and the election of officers were in order.

The officers elected were, president Ward Knight, Falls City; Vice pres. D. C. Simmons, Salem; secretary, Otto Kutock, Humboldt; treasurer, George Smith, Dawson. A splendid banquet was served by a number of Dawson ladies, at seven o'clock.

Among those attending from this city were J. H. Morehead, C. C. Davis, Ward Knight, George Fallstead, A. E. Gant, J. S. Lord, Rev. Day and B. Simanton.

Frakes.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Frakes died Friday morning October 7, at three o'clock. The little one lived less than a week to gladden the hearts of its parents, who in their sorrow have the sympathy of friends. The body was taken to Salem for burial.

ERNST BRACKHAHN HURT

STRUCK BY BURLINGTON PASSENGER NO. 15.

Was Returning Home from Town Saturday When Struck—Condition is Serious.

Ernst Brackhahn, who for years has lived across the Nemaha, a short distance west of the old Exchange mill, was struck by Burlington passenger No. 15 last Saturday as he was returning home and is very seriously hurt. His ankle is crushed, his collar bone broken and it is feared he has internal injuries of a serious nature.

Mr. Brackhahn is used to traveling to and from town by the Exchange mill road; but the bridge being out he had to take the road farther west. He is not accustomed to going this road and knowing it was past train time, he paid less attention to the trains. A high hedge obscures an approaching train from the east and the team was upon the track before Mr. Brackhahn knew it was near. The frightened horses hesitated before dashing forward and the rear end of the buggy was struck and smashed into kindling wood. The horses escaped uninjured, while Mr. Brackhahn was thrown up in the air. The train was stopped at once and the conductor had an auto sent for to bring the injured man to town. Several persons saw the accident and hastened to his assistance. He was brought to the Moran hospital, by his request, and his injuries were dressed. He is still in a serious condition.

P. S. Heacock III.

The friends of P. S. Heacock were astounded to learn that he had been stricken with heart failure last Friday evening and that his condition was very serious. He has been a sufferer from diabetes and rheumatism, and has not been well for some time, though the first of the week he was considered better. His children were sent for immediately and a specialist, Dr. Bridges of Omaha, was called in consultation with Dr. Miner and Dr. Rencker. He remained until Monday. Mr. Heacock's condition remains very grave, even though he has gained considerably from the first attack. He is at least holding his own remarkably well and hopes are now entertained for his recovery. Miss Kate Heacock, who has been in Porto Rico, sailed by the grst boat last Wednesday and will soon be at home.

October Strawberries.

Mrs. Martha Jones, who lives north of the Mission in the Third ward, sent to this office last Monday a fine bunch of strawberries and they were of fine flavor, too. There were ripe red ones, good sized white ones, green ones and prettv white blossoms. The crop has blossomed and matured since the late August rains. Mrs. Jones has our thanks for the remembrance.

A Little Grand Daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Sowles are very proud of the fact that they are now grand parents. A little daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Hal Sowles of St. Joseph on Thursday, October 6, 1910 which was also the second anniversary of the marriage of her parents. There is great happiness over the arrival of the little lady.
