$1000

"I wouldn't take a thousand dollars for the good VINOL has done me. I was told that Cod Liver Oil was the medicine I needed for my weakened condition and poor blood. I could not take the greasy mixture, and when our druggist told me that VINOL contained not only tonic iron but all the medicinal properties of Cod Liver Oil without the grease or oil or bad taste, I made up my mind that was the medicine for me. I tried it and to-day am strong and well."

Mrs. J. T. SNYDER,
Greensboro, N. C.

We guarantee the genuineness of the above testimonial.

We sell VINOL with the understanding that if it does not give the purchaser perfect satisfaction, we return his money without question.

Will you try a bottle under these conditions?

A. G. WANNER, Druggist,

Here and There.

If God ask a sacrifice, He will also make you able to offer it.

Make it your habit not to be critical about small things.—Ep. Phillip Brooks.

The secret of success in life is to be ready for his opportunity when it comes.—Disraeli.

Great opportunities come to all, but many do not know they have met them. The only preparation to take advantage of them is simple fidelity to what each day brings.—Dunning.

The best men are not those who have waited for chances, but who have taken them; besieged the chance conquered the chance, and made chance the seivitor.—Chapin.

I like to hear one pronounce the name of God with a subdued awe and to see the cast of thought overspread the features when eternal things are named. I like to see a delicate and quiet handling of sacred truths—as you speak the name of your mother in heaven.—T. T. Munger.

Blessed is the man who has the gift of making friends, for it is one of God's best gifts. It involves many things, but above all is the power of going out of one's self and seeing and appreciating whatever is noble and loving in another man.—Thomas Hughes.

When you have a cold get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will soon fix you all right and will ward off any tendency toward pneumonia. This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a baby as to a nadult. Sold by all druggists.

Abraham Lincoln said: "For thirty years I have been a temperance man Had it not been for my total-abstinence principles in the early days of my temptation, I should probably gone the same way that so many of my companions went who lived drunkards' lives and are filling drunkards' graves."

THE COMING YEAR.

This is the fifth year The State Journal makes its Bargain week offer to accept subscriptions for the whole of 1911 for only $3 without Sunday, or $4 with Sunday. This offer not good after the week of December 21 to 28 as after that date the regular prices of $4 and $5 will be charged. This year the legislative sessions will make The Journal especially interesting and people who have never before read the paper will be anxious to get it to watch the doings of the legislature, because The Journal is not afraid to print all that happens. The paper stops when the time is up. It prints more state telegraph than any other Nebraska paper; has a vigorous Washington department and is independent of factions. Its especially attractive to people who want to know what is really going on. If you should send in your remittance at once the paper will be sent from now until January 1, 1912, at this cut price. Address State Journal, Lincoln, Neb.

A Typewriter Test That Means Something

Blindfold yourself. Have ten typewriters of different make placed in a row—a Monarch somewhere among them. Try each keyboard in turn. The machine with the lightest touch will be the

and you can locate it every time no matter how its position be changed.

Just as the proper tools produce the best work, so does a responsive key action increase the efficiency of a stenographer. It saves her strength. Therefore, she has a better grip on her work, is more accurate, more rapid, gets a greater quantity of work done. There is no "three-o'clock fatigue" where the Monarch is used, and a few days' trial will convince you of this fact.
