Just You Try It

Report of Committee.

To the Honorable Mayor and Council, Falls City, Nebraska.

Gentlemen—I the chair man of the committee to distribute the money contributed to the men who fought the Wahl fire, December 5th, 1910, beg leave to make the following report.

On account of the fact that the remaining members of the committee were among the most prominent men in the fire fight and therefore were more or less sensitive about acting in the matter, I have assumed the entire responsibility. I ask everyone to feel that I have tried to make an equitable division. It is, of course, somewhat inaccurate. If anyone has been omitted that should have been included the matter can be taken up hereafter. I will keep the balance of the money until after January 1st for that purpose. After that time I will turn it over to the new fire company for any disposition it may see fit to make.

In consequence of the growing demand for religious books in the library some of this nature was included in every book list.

Two have recently been put into circulation will be enjoyed by many who are interested in missions. Mr. Claud Field in "Heroes of Missionary Enterprise" tells of the work in various parts of the world. He begins in our own land with a chapter on John Elliot, also touching upon the lives of other heroes and the Jesuit missions here. The life and work of Hans Egede in Greenland occupies one chapter. The careers of Dr. Judson of Burnah, John Williams, Livingstone and many others are most graphically told. The work is too brief to permit exhaustive biographies but the book is instructive and inspiring reading.

Another book, "Winners of The World During Twenty Centuries" is a short account of the spread of the Christian religion from the time of St. Paul down to the present generation. The principle aim of this little book is to interest children in missions and it is well arranged for use in the Sunday School. Mary Hutchings, Librarian.
