

CORRESPONDANCE

HUMBOLDT

Lillith Waggener and Wana Zimmerman were visitors in Falls City Saturday.

Prof. Hoff accompanied by the High School debating team returned from Wymore Saturday.

L. F. Marburger was detained from the store the last of the week by an attack of the grip.

Florence, the little six year old daughter, and only child of Ray E. Linn and wife, died at the home of her parents in Cheyenne, Wyoming. Her death was due to a complication of measles and pneumonia. Mr. Linn and wife are former residents of this city. The body of their little one was brought here Sunday and funeral services held at the residence of C. M. Linn, conducted by Rev. Bert Wilson of Lincoln, a friend and former pastor of the bereaved parents. The little body was laid to rest in the city cemetery.

Harry Hollinsworth and wife of Lincoln arrived Sunday to attend the funeral of Florence Linn.

Nina Snow came up from Dawson Saturday and remained over Sunday.

George Chinaloveck of Falls City spent Sunday with Humboldt friends. Gene Howel and family moved this week to Pawnee County where they have rented a farm belonging to I. E. Smith.

Christ Rist consigned cattle to St. Joseph markets Monday.

Miss Laura Waller came up from Dawson Wednesday for a visit with relatives.

Mrs. A. G. Warner and sister, Miss Helen Wilson arrived here Wednesday from Benedict.

The Linger Longer club met with Mrs. S. M. Philpot Wednesday afternoon.

Oleta Youngman won first place in the declamatory contest and will represent the school at the Nebraska City contest.

Mesdames James Atwood, H. E. Boyd, W. Bahl and Horace Bement entertained the Presbyterian Kensington at the church parlors Tuesday.

Earl Butterfield and wife left Friday for Garden City, Kansas and will make that place their future home.

Wm. Fellers of Table Rock was a guest of relatives in this city on Saturday.

Lewis Edwards of Falls City was a business visitor in this city the last of the week.

Clyde Butler and wife left Friday for Kansas where they will make their home.

H. P. Marble and wife returned to this city Friday after an absence of several months at the Santee Indian agency.

J. K. Liggett came over from Pawnee City Saturday. He was accompanied on his return Sunday by Mrs. Liggett.

Herb Dorland was on the sick list Mrs. E. A. Litchfield is under Mrs. E. A. Litchfield as under the doctor's care this week.

Rev. J. K. Cardy and Horace Bement attended services at the Presbyterian church in Pawnee City on Sunday evening.

Mrs. N. C. Campbell left Thursday for Denver to visit her brother, Courtland Fellers, who died before she reached his bedside.

Tom Mann, who is employed by the B. and M. at Table Rock spent Sunday in this city.

H. E. Boyd was numbered with the sick several days last week.

Frances Willard Memorial services were held at the M. E. church Sunday evening.

The Methodist Circle met with Mrs. R. E. Watzke Thursday afternoon.

Bert Marshall and wife arrived at this place from McCook for a visit with the former's father, Frank Marshall and family.

Frank Porak, Sr., and wife and son, R. P. O. Porak and wife visited with friends in DuBois Wednesday.

BARADA

J. W. Warre arrived from Faragut, Iowa on Tuesday evening and is now established in his barber shop in the Martin building.

The C. E. Society held the second of the series of College socials at the home of the president, Mrs. J. A. Martin on Friday evening. While the entrance examinations were rather difficult none failed entirely and even the Freshmen were not disheartened when they found Miss Hansen among their number.

Richard Slagle returned from Hubbell on Saturday.

Mrs. Emery M. Howe came in from Brownville Friday evening to join her husband and visit relatives here.

Mr. Roasch hurt one of his limbs last Sunday which resulted in a severe laceration of the ligaments of the ankle joint. After a careful examination it was discovered that one of the bones near the ankle had been cracked.

Dr. Reneker, wife and baby were guests at the home of Jacob Peters Sunday.

Mrs. H. H. Woodring and daughter Priscilla were guests of Barada relatives and friends Sunday.

Chris Bleiholder was in Barada Friday to have his hand treated for blood poisoning, the result of a wire scratch.

Jesse Cox was down from Peru and spent a few days at home.

Misses Ella and Louise Kuhlman, Lulu Laukemper and Emma Duerfeldt took the teachers examination in Falls City last week.

Lizzie Buchholz is nursing a broken finger, the result of a basketball. Her friends are sorry for it. She miss her music as she is the pianist.

S. S. Orr of Sidney, Iowa was in town over Sunday. He preached at Bethel church Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Lola Bridgeman fell Monday spraining both ankles severely and was unable to be on her feet for several days.

Dr. S. A. VanOsdal was in Kansas City several days last week attending a physicians convention.

Harry Hendricks is visiting relatives at Gilliam, Mo.

The five year old son of Otto Hershberger, who was threatened with typhoid fever is improving nicely.

J. F. Sallors was a visitor in Falls City Monday.

P. D. Gushard was up from Falls City Monday.

Mrs. R. M. Williamson was in Falls City for a few days the first of the week, being called there by the death of her cousin, Samuel Edgar.

L. H. Morehead and wife were in Falls City on Saturday.

The baby daughter of Charles Hait is quite ill.

Preaching at Evangelical church on Sunday morning.

Don't fail to hear the well known temperance lecture on March 30 at the Christian church and on March 31 at the Evangelical church. Special music, etc., in connection with the lecture.

GLOBE SIGHTS

Surprising how many people stand ready to help you when you don't need help.

A lot of persons are convicted on circumstantial evidence without going into court.

Persons seeking some light form of exercise are advised to run on the prohibition ticket.

People always welcome the break-in up of a hard winter and the basket ball season.

It is about as safe to roast a woman's church in her presence as to slam her favorite poet.

An election isn't exciting unless there is abuse.

New blood doesn't do as much for a town as new money.

Those who have competition don't consider it the life of trade.

People are such hypocrites that any motion to make it unanimous will carry.

It can be said of women that she doesn't use a cane unless she is lame.

Pitching base ball isn't the only field of endeavor where good control is needed.

It is every man's private belief that his wife wouldn't clean house so often if she thought he enjoyed it.

The man who smokes without smoking too much doesn't get much satisfaction out of the habit.

If a negro had the making of the immigration laws he probably would begin by shutting out the Greeks.

The only time a boy's personal appearance attracts attention is the first time he appears in long pants.

When a man likes cove opsters better than fresh opsters, he is apt to have poor taste in other matters.

Don't try to judge a man's batting average by the dope he gives out before the spring election begins.

Some women's idea of an unparadonable offense is for their husbands to sit in a chair tilted back against the wall.

malguate the Spencerian system.

A lone bandid is usually described as a small man, probably because his victims compare him with the apparent size of the gun he flourishes.

There are few men as important as a traveling man seems to be the small town boy who gazes in awe at the knights of the grip gathered in front of the Commercial hotel.

You can learn to like garlic, just as you can learn to like beer, but neither course of instruction is intended to add greatly to your standing in the estimation of the neighbors.

Is there any such thing as an unprejudiced opinion? And we agree with you pretty well on that, too.

What has become of the old-fashioned boy who used his father's old sack coat for an overcoat?

Some men are a long time getting anywhere, no matter where.

Actors are like other people in this respect. Most of them believe they could have made more money in some other line.

Once in a while you will find a woman who gets in sly digs at the husband by praising the good qualities of her son-in-law.

Examination day in school is a bad time to attempt to convince a boy that he is apt to have worse troubles in his after life.

It is with some difficulty that a busy man refrains from screaming when he hears of a college boy coming home to "rest up."

Very few women succeed in lifting the mortgage from the Old Home by learning to produce a superior article in hand painted china.

When some women begin getting ready to bake a cake they make as much clatter as a junk dealer dumping out a lot of old iron.

We claim to be different from other men in this respect: Fashions in women's clothes don't worry us any, if the women are satisfied.

What has become of the old-fashioned copybook which was supposed to mould character as well as prose. Somehow, it isn't possible for a covered wagon to look very prosperous.

There are too many Ben Davises and not enough Jonathans in this world.

About the only way some men can make a living is by arousing sympathy.

The only thing a sober man enjoys about a drunk is seeing him sent to jail.

When people are struggling to keep up appearances everyone knows about it.

You can always rely on a jealous woman finding something to work on.

Why is it that a man with a red beard is most likely to let it grow.

"I confess," said a frank Atchison woman today, "that I like the rich." Count McGowan went into a grocery store today and asked for concentrated cream.

Joe McGee keeps a shot gun, a revolver, a loaded club and a flashlight within his reach every night.

Duck hunters are the kind of men who would do something equally as foolish if they didn't hunt ducks.

It is easy enough to hurry yourself; it is trying to make some one else hurry which wrecks the nervous system.

An Atchison man is entertaining a suspicion that he got the butcher's cut the last time he ordered spring lamb.

A hostery display in a Commercial street window comes very near constituting a disturbance of the peace.

The Globe isn't going to count too much on spring until the old reliable uns out his peanut wagon.

Between the shovel and the lawn-mower, the good citizen doesn't have a great deal of chance to suffer from ennui.

Breaks Thumb

Plattsmouth, March 18—Jacob H. Meisiger had his thumb broken while helping grub stumps on the farm of his son near Cedar yesterday. Although he is a man of advanced age, he went out yesterday to his son's farm where he went to work helping to grub stumps. When he released the lever, which is used on the sweep which is blow on the capstan, he received a blow from the recoil that broke his thumb.

Found Dead in His Room

Beatrice, March 18—D. D. Bacon, who for many years conducted a harness shop at Wymore was found dead late yesterday afternoon in his rooms above the harness shop. Mrs. Bacon had been spending the day with friends at Barneston. Upon returning home in the evening she found the door locked from the inside. Failing to secure an answer to her knocking for admittance, she called assistance, and the door was broken in. Mr. Bacon was found lying behind a couch in the living room dead.

Lecture At The Court House

The court house was well filled last night to hear the lecture by Father Carey on "St. Patrick." People from different parts of the county were present to hear the good father give his address. The following musical numbers were also given: A vocal solo by Mrs. W. T. Fenton, a vocal duet by Mrs. Wirth and Miss Maurer, a vocal solo by day Gage on a piano solo by Mrs. E. Guy Simpson.

Father Korful also gave a lecture, which was well received as it was of a humorous nature and seemed to please all present. He will be remembered by many Falls City people as he had charge of the services at the Catholic church last spring when Father Bex went south for his health.

Will Build New House

Mr. and Mrs. John Olson are building a new house just north of where they now live, to help accommodate our new citizens. It is to be a five room cottage and strictly modern in every respect. Mr. Olson expects to build the house.

W. R. C. Supper

The W. R. C. gave a supper at the G. A. R. hall last night. A large crowd was present to enjoy the good things the ladies had provided. A little over $20 was realized.

Resigns Her Position

Miss Margaret McKiever has resigned her position as pianist at the Grand Theater. She is a musician of high class, and the theatergoers, who have greatly enjoyed her music will miss her.

"THE THIRD DEGREE"

Next Attraction At The Gehling—The Manager Speaks Very Highly Of It

"The Third Degree" is the name of the next show to appear at the Gehling Theater here, and Mr. Gehling speaks very highly of it. He is in receipt of letters from managers of the different houses where it has appeared, who endorse it very strongly. Some of them are even asking for a return date this season, which is the strongest endorsement they could give it.

BROKE HIS ARM AT SCHOOL

The Little Son of Conrad Buchholz, Who Broke His Arm Is Getting Along Nicely

Special from Barada.

The eight year old son of Conrad Buchholz, while playing at school on Monday, fell and broke his arm at the elbow and dislocated one bone. He was taken to Barada where he was given medical attention and is getting along nicely now.

Wedding at Christian Church

Harry Brackhahn and Miss Ruby Hart of Reserve were united in marriage by Rev. F. E. Day in the pastor's study at the Christian church. There were present as witnesses a brother and sister of the groom, Robert and Miss Louise Brackhahn. The young couple will make their future home in Falls City, where they have a host of friends.

Principal at Auburn Hurt

Auburn, March 19—Professor Boles, principal of the high school of this city, was badly hurt last evening by being thrown from an auto driven at a high rate of speed. He was still unconscious at last reports, though it is apparent that his head was not fractured.

Cold, damp weather is bad for those subject to Rheumatism. It chills the blood and brings on an attack. Use

Ballard's Snow Liniment

It is a Powerful Preventive, as Well as a Speedy Cure

Rub it in on the parts affected whenever the conditions seem to indicate a spell of this painful ailment; it will warm the joints and ward off the trouble. If the disorder has already commenced, the treatment is the same, the rubbing helps the liniment to penetrate to the seat of pain. The relief is prompt and very satisfying; the aching joints are relieved, the muscles relaxed so that the sufferer feels again the strength and suppleness of youth.

For flesh wounds of all kinds, it is a wonderful remedy. Try it for cuts, burns, bruises, sores, galls, chafed spots, barbed wire cuts, sprains, swellings, frost bites. It cures quickly and completely.

Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per Bottle.

JAMES F. BALLARD PROPRIETOR ST. LOUIS, MO.

To cure Stinging Eruptions, Sore Eyes or Weak Sight, use Stephens Eye Salve.

AND RECOMMENDED BY

THE THIRD DEGREE

JOHN OMEARA AS CAPTAIN CLINTON THE POLICE CAPTAIN SUBJECTING THE SUSPECT (RALPH RAMSEY) TO THE THIRD DEGREE.

MISS SARAH PADDEN

MR. RALPH RAMSEY