With Queen Mary He Will Attend the Coronation Dunbar at Delhi, on December 12.

London, Mar. 23.—King George officially gave his approval of details for his coronation. The king conferred with the privy council when the plans were gone over and ratified. It was decided that the coronation Dunbar at Delhi, India, should be held on December 12 next, when King George and Queen Mary will be present. Both will sail for India in the middle of November.

Only Errors in Methods.
Springfield, Mo., Mar. 23.—A formal report of the accountants who have been examining the books of the county offices and officers has been submitted to the Greene county court. While discrepancies amounting to several thousand dollars were discovered it is believed by the examiners that these are merely errors in allowing deputy fees and not due to corruption.

Fire Attacks St. Joseph Mill.
St. Joseph, Mo., Mar. 23.—The plant of the R. H. Faucett Milling company in this city was almost totally destroyed by fire. The origin of the fire is unknown. On account of the difficulty experienced in getting to the flames the fire gained headway rapidly. The loss is estimated at close to $40,000.

ELECTRIC THEATRE

TO-NIGHT

"THE KEY OF LIFE"

A story of re-incarnation—"Mystical Comedy." This is a distinct departure from the usual photo plays—It is one of the Edison Co films—and will be quite a change from the ordinary motion pictures.

"THE MARKED TRAIN"

Western drama—A stirring story of the west excellently acted, superbly photographed. The plot is unique and intensely dramatic.

"THE SIGNET RING"

Or The Intrigue Against the Princess—staged in all the magnificence of medieval ages. The exteriors and all present actual castles and ruins of the old world.

"IN THE SPEEWALD"

This film is notable for superb photography. In this picture we visit a very pleasant part of Prussia.
