Suit In Equity to Quiet Title To Real Estate

Elmer Hoselton, Plaintiff

vs.

Edward S. Pyle, Sarah L. Baker, Henry Reiger and Wirt Vensonhaler, Defendants.

To Edward S. Pyle, non-resident defendant.

You are hereby notified that the plaintiff, Elmer Hoselton, did on the 6th day of February, 1911, file his petition in the district court of Richardson County, State of Nebraska, against you and the other named defendants herein, the object and prayer of which is to quiet the title in him, to the following described real estate situated in Richardson County, State of Nebraska, to-wit: Commencing at the Northeast corner of the Northeast quarter (¼) of the Southeast quarter (¼) of Section Twenty (20), in Township one (1) Range seventeen (17) east, thence west forty-two (42) rods; thence south eighty (80) rods; thence east twenty-one and a half rods (21½) rods; thence north forty-six (46) rods; thence east twenty-two and ten-thirtieths rods to section line; thence north to the place of beginning, containing twelve acres; and to stop you from claiming or asserting titles to said land, and from taking advantage of any irregularity in the obtaining of a decree in the district court of Richardson county, Neb., in favor of Jennie R. Pyle your former wife, appropriating said land to the support of her and your two infant children, pronounced in a certain cause pending in said court in which the said Jennie R. Pyle was plaintiff and you Edward S. Pyle was defendant, which said decree was rendered on January 28th, 1909, and by a sale had thereunder this plaintiff became the purchaser.

And you are further notified that unless you plead, answer or demur to said petition on or before the 24th day of April, 1911, the same will be taken pro confesso, and a decree arguable to the prayer thereof will be entered accordingly.

This publication is made by order of said district court.
