Just two weeks until Easter. The

INSURGENTS NOT RECOGNIZED

THEY MUST ACT WITH REGULAR REPUBLICANS.

The New Rules Adopted Provide for Few Changes—Six Old Committees Abolished.

Washington, April 6.—The insurgents are still an integral part of the Republican party, at least in the opinion of the Democratic majority of the House. This fact was brought out in the fight over the adoption of new rules for the House. The insurgents asked the privilege of introducing amendments of their own, but were told any amendments they might have would have to be incorporated in those of the regular Republicans.
President Taft's message urging Canadian reciprocity was read in both houses. The fact that its contents were known in advance robbed it of any interest. The Senate adjourned as soon as the message was read and will "mark time" till the House does something.
The House took up at once the adoption of its new rules, limiting general debate to four hours, to be equally divided, and granting the privilege of offering only one substitute set of rules.
The insurgents pleaded for the privilege of separate amendments, but were told by the Democratic leaders that their amendments would have to be included in the proposed Republican substitute.
The rules offered by the Democrats, and which will be adopted, provide comparatively few changes. They provide for the election of committees instead of their appointment by the speaker, and enlarge the membership of several of the committees. Six old committees are abolished.
The principal change is a rule which permits germane legislation on an appropriation bill when it tends to retrench expenditures. The Democrats continue "calendar Wednesday," and enlarge the rule for the discharge of committees.

IOWA TEACHERS MEET IN KEOKUK

It is the Seventeenth Annual Gathering of the Southeastern Association—One Thousand Present.

Keokuk, Ia., April 6.—When President Frank L. Smart of Davenport called to order today the seventeenth annual meeting of the Southeastern Iowa Teachers' association more than a thousand members were present, the large attendance being due to the fact that most of the school boards had allowed the teachers to come here for the three days' convention without loss of salary. The program arranged includes lectures by John E. Gunkel of Toledo, "the newsboy's friend;" A.
M. DeVoe, state superintendent of Iowa; C. P. Cary, state superintendent of Wisconsin; Dr. W. C. Wilcox of the University of Iowa; Dr. A. E. Winship of Boston, and others.
An interesting feature of the meeting will be a trip over the construction plant of the Mississippi River Power company, which is building the greatest dam, water-power and electrical installation in the world. The teachers will be given explanatory lectures on the engineering, economic and sociological factors in this dam-ing of the Mississippi river at the foot of the Keokuk rapids.

Since telegraph operators have generally adopted the typewriter, the public has more time to devote to the picture puzzles and other guessing contests.

Every man who owns a bird dog likes to tell how his dog will not chase rabbits; it is as bad form for a bird dog to chase rabbits as it is for a count to work.

Merle Tyner, our hustling contestant at Salem is in town today.
He reports ten subscribers for The Tribune for yesterday. That's soliciting with a vengeance.

Mr. Plaunt, formerly a merchant of Rulo, and now a resident of the state of Oklahoma near Oklahoma City, is here looking after business.

W. P. Fergus was in the city today. He says he is certainly well pleased with his new home in Nemahia precinct. It will be remembered he purchased the Butler farm in that section a year ago. He also tells us that everything looks very flattering for a prosperous year for Richardson County farmers.

Show your colors. Attend the last number of School Entertainment course Saturday night. It will be more than interesting and the admission reasonable.

Miss Rill Houston is acting as pianist at the Grand. The young lady who has had charge of the music for some time left the first of the week and Miss Houston will play until they can secure some one to take the position permanently.

A crowded house should greet the company who present "Barriers Burned Away" at the Gehling on Friday night. It is a good play and like most of E. P. Roe's stories has a Christian moral. Don't fail to see it.

Look this over. Don't overlook this
