As a rule a woman who struts a breach of promise suit needs money more than she needs to have her wounded feelings soothed.

The crying need of the day is a reformer who can induce restaurant men to increase the homeopathic doses of butter they usually serve.

A man will get used to new shoes in a little while, but he requires a long time to get a diamond ring "broken in" so he won't notice it.

While a good many people continue to call a tornado a cyclone, there is only four or five thousand miles difference in the meaning of the words, so no objection should be raised.

Don't devote all your enthusiasm to telling about it.

Our idea of the acme of enthusiasm is that which induces a man to pay railway fare and admission fee to hear a lecture in a neighboring town.

It is easy for a boy hunter to become confused and mistake a tame duck for a wild duck.

MAGIC 15 PUZZLE Try This--It Can Be Done

A few years ago the 14-15 puzzle was occupying the minds of every one. It was generally admitted to be the hardest puzzle to solve ever invented—the inventor going crazy in trying to find a fixed rule for solving it. The "Magic 15" Puzzle is an outgrowth of that celebrated puzzle—it being discovered while trying to solve the 14-15 Master Puzzle.

Can You Solve This Puzzle? It Can Be Done

DIRECTIONS—Place any number from 1 to 9, inclusive, in the eight vacant circles on the above or any similarly arranged sheet of paper or other material in such a manner that any way the numbers are added, perpendicularly, horizontally and diagonally (including the number in center circle) the total will be 15. The same number cannot be used more than once. Few will get all 8 columns. Some will possibly get 6 columns. Write your name and address neatly, accurately and plainly on your answer and mail or deliver your solution before 6 p. m. Monday, May 15, 1911, to the Contest Department, Schmoller & Mueller, 135 South Eleventh street.

Only one member of a family may enter. Only one solution will be accepted from the same contestant.

No one connected with the music trade, nor first prize winners in previous contests may enter.

Neatness, besides the correctness of the reply sent us, will be taken into consideration in awarding the prizes.

Contest closes Monday, May 15, at 6 p. m. Try it now. Send in your replies as early as possible.

WINNERS WILL BE NOTIFIED BY MAIL.
