LIBERATE FEDERAL SOLDIERS

GEN. MADERO EXPECTS MANY TO JOIN HIS COMMAND.

Those Captured at Juarez Who Do Not Wish to Do so Will be Released.

El Paso, May 11.—Following the surrender of the federal garrison at Juarez Madero issued the following statement:

"The taking of Juarez is of great military and political importance for the revolution and assures our complete triumph in a short time. The forces which defended the town, fought valiantly. They owe their defeat to the fact that our forces were inspired in the fight by the spirit to win political liberty while the federal soldiers were in the ranks by yoke of discipline. The majority are in the army against their will.

"For this reason I wish to announce to all the soldiers that I will set them free as soon as I can find a way which will assure them some means of employment. Those who do not wish to incorporate themselves in our forces at present, I cannot set free as they have no means of subsistence. As far as I can observe now, the majority of them will augment my forces. Some of the officers may enter my army if they wish and the others who wish to remain loyal to the government of Porfirio Diaz will be exchanged for political and military prisoners."

It is unofficially stated in Juarez that a part of the rebel army will proceed south to meet Gen. Rabago. Later the advance will be made against Chihuahua.

TOUCH OF SUMMER HITS CONGRESS

And Senators Begin to Think of Adjournment.

QUICK ACTION THE BEST

It Would Unsettle Business Less to Do What is to Be Done and Adjourn Than to Prolong Session.

Washington, May 11.—Washington has had its first touch of summer. There was a suggestion of the swelter of early June in the atmosphere and the forecast of a long and heated summer.

The weather has had a distinct effect upon congressmen. Neither the senate nor the house were in session but the suggestions of the heat crept into the councils and the committee room and for the first time there is a movement among the senate leaders for expediting the public business for an early adjournment of the extra session.

There is no one statement of a general nature that is of greater interest to the business public of America than this. The prolongation of the extra session through a long summer in the daily discussions of tariff schedules and the reopening of the whole tariff question undoubtedly and always exercises a more or less depressing effect upon the business of the country.

Every business man believes that and because business is founded largely upon confidence and cheerfulness the tariff summer is not likely to be a particularly prosperous summer.

Of course this consideration is not sufficient in itself to deter the national legislature from enacting any necessary laws. But on the other hand the conception of this effect by intelligent representatives and senators in Washington should be a prompt inducement to stay here no longer than is absolutely necessary, and to make no obstacles that can be avoided to a speedy discussion and verdict upon the public question for which the extra session was called.

Senators in hearings before the different committees, the finance and others, have manifested a spirit of expedition that is both pleasing and promising toward the end of adjournment. Senator Stone of the finance committee, for instance, declined to have read the records of last session from the reciprocity debate on the ground that they could be found in the records and that the reading would waste time, and delay the conclusion of public business. Coming fresh from a conference with other senators looking to an earlier adjournment this action of Senator Stone will also give great encouragement to the business men who are anxious to see congress adjourn and the stirrings of economic legislation suspended for a time.

THE SONG WRITERS MAY WAIT

The Announcement of Winner of Missouri Contest May Not be Made Now.

Columbia, Mo., May 11.—The eager thousand or more composers, who are awaiting the award of the $1,000 prize for the best state song for Missouri, may know their fate next Friday, although the committee appointed for the purpose will meet then and possibly make a selection before night. It is the plan of Prof. W. H. Pommer, the chairman of the committee, to place the winning song and music in a sealed envelope and forward it to Gov. Hadley and allow the governor to make the announcement whenever he sees fit.

Although Prof. Pommer has not mentioned it to the governor yet, he believes that it would be an excellent idea to withhold the announcement of the winner until the commencement at the University of Missouri, when the song will be sung at a state event for the first time.

FARMERS OPPOSE AGREEMENT

Representative of Massachusetts State Grange Prefers Annexation to Reciprocity.

Washington, May 11.—Annexation of Canada instead of reciprocity with that country was advocated by George S. Ladd of the Massachusetts state grange, at the senate finance committee hearing on the Canadian reciprocity bill. Mr. Ladd argued against any trade agreement declaring if one were made it should be by annexation so Canada might share the burdens of the United States as well as enjoy its benefits.

A number of representatives of the farmers were heard in opposition to the agreement.

PLAN HELP FOR THE WOUNDED

WASHINGTON OFFICIALS SEND ASSISTANCE TO JUAREZ.

Capture of the Town by Insurrectos Has No Effect on Official Policy.

Washington, May 11.—The news of the capture of Juarez by the insurrectos of Mexico was followed by a meeting of the president with Secretary of State Knox and Secretary Dickinson of the war department, and Maj. Gen. Leonard A. Wood, chief of staff. All of these officials explained the meeting as having for its sole purpose plans for the assistance of the wounded who had been allowed to come across into American territory. Shortly after the conference the president communicated with the red cross and $1,000 was telegraphed for the care of the wounded on both sides.

In order to carry out the wishes of the war department Ernest P. Bicknell a national officer of the Red Cross left Washington for El Paso to organize a medical and nurse force.

Gen. Wood, secretary Dickinson and all concerned in the discussion in the fall of Juarez declare absolutely that the capture of the town has in no way affected the policies of the administration as frequently announced and emphasized.

The war department is of course interested in the reports that the federal forces in the north and east will retire towards the Mexican capital for its protection in view of a supposed plan of the insurrectos to march into the interior.

THEY ATE POISONED CANDY

Two Topeka People Were Made Sick by Candy Received by Mail.

Topeka, May 11.—Police and post-office inspectors investigating what is believed to have been an attempt to poison A. M. Winters, a young dentist, and his wife by means of poisoned candy sent through the mails.

Winters is now under a bond of $5,000 to appear in the federal court to answer a charge of sending an improper letter to a young woman in Topeka. H. J. Bone, United States district attorney, refuses to tell the name of the young woman.

The box of candy, bearing a Topeka postmark, was received at the Winters home, 700 Morris avenue. Mr. Winters and his wife ate some of it and immediately became ill. They were quite ill all night, but physicians said that they were out of danger.

Neither Mr. Winters nor Mrs. Winters can give any clue, they say, to the person who might have sent the candy.

Washington, May 11.—Jose Vasconcelos of the revolutionary junta received a long dispatch from Gen. Madero saying that Navarro has been driven out of Juarez and that the headquarters of the provisional government will be established in Juarez. Gen. Madero instructed Senor Vasconcelos to immediately make representations to the state department, looking toward the recognition of the belligerency of the provisional government by the United States. Vasconcelos will make an effort to present the matter to Secretary Knox.
