BARADA

Wm. Raines has returned from Fairmont, Nebraska to make his home here.

Mrs. Susie Williamson is on the sick list.

Robert Williamson and family arrived overland Friday last from Cambridge, Nebr., where they have made their home for the past four years. They are at present visiting Mr. Williamson's mother, but expect to soon move on the Gandy farm north-east of Barada, which place they have rented.

Mrs. T. C. Rog of Falls City spent several days last week with her sister, Mrs. Susie Williamson. Mrs. Eliza Thompson was up from the city Monday.

C. F. Kuker and family of Fall City were in attendance at the funeral Monday.

R. H. Dunn and J. A. Martin were city visitors on Tuesday.

Mrs. Laura Kilgore of Omaha is visiting her sister Mrs. Elmer Rowell.

Florence Hull and mother of Verdon were over Monday to attend the funeral of their relative R. M. Williamson.

Willie Williamson of McFall, Mo., was in Barada the first of the week to attend the funeral of his uncle.

Died

Richard M. Williamson was born in Brown county, Illinois December 21, 1842, and died at Barada, Nebr., May 6, 1911, aged 68 years, 4 months and 15 days. He was one of twelve brothers and sisters, two of whom survive him. Mrs. Sarah Thompson of Falls City, and Mrs. Susan Ransome of Versailles, Illinois.

During the civil war he enlisted in behalf of his country in Company A, 119th Infantry Volunteer Illinois Regiment.

In 1884 he came West to make his home, settling in Richardson county where he has ever since resided. In 1885 he was married to Belle Palmer who with three children, Richard Nie, Roy, and Mrs. Delta Vassar, all of Barada, survive him, one son, L. G. having preceded him to the better land.

Three children of a former marriage also survive him, but living at great distances were unable to be present at the funeral.

"Uncle Dick", as he was familiarly known to his many friends and neighbors, had been in feeble health for many weeks, but it was not generally known that his condition was serious until the end was near. And when at noon on May 6, he quietly and peacefully passed away his death came, none the less as a shock to loving relatives and friends.

Funeral services were conducted from the Evangelical church by Rev. Essley. Beautiful floral emblems were evidence of the loving tribute of friends. He was laid to rest in Harris cemetery followed by a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends. Our sympathy is extended to the bereaved one in this hour of gloom.

Local Happenings

From Wednesday's Daily.

Miss Rebecca Dodge is in the city shopping today.

Arthur Johnson and Ralph Jenne went to St. Joe yesterday.

Mrs. Will Cunningham and daughter Alice were down from Rulo this morning.

Mr. Berger and daughter from Reserve are doing trading in town today.

Mr. and Mrs. Sig Fuller are down from Verdon, trading today.

Mr. John Carpenter and Miss Jane Prater of Brideway, Mo., are to be the guests of Miss Geneva Prater for a few days.

Mrs. Fred Thompson of Craig, Mo., is visiting with Mrs. Charles Carr.

C. R. Chandler of Hiawatha was in town on business yesterday.

Judging from the music emanating from Goddard's Music Store of a morning we should say that some of our baseball boys are pretty good musicians.

There has been some talk of having band concerts here this summer, but so far nothing has materialized. In our opinion a few dollars invested in band music either in the way of a concert at the park or merely with a band stand on the street would do more toward bringing the outsiders into our city than almost anything we could do at this time.

Wm. Prater of Fargo was in town today, being a witness before the insanity board.

Ex-sheriff Fred Rohrs of Auburn was in the city today on business.

Worthy people blunder into so many things; including jail, and matrimony.

Mrs. Henry Majerus and Miss Ruth Kanaly were in from Rulo shopping this afternoon.

W. C. Fixler was called to Hiawatha this morning by the sad news that his mother had just died. She was troubled with heart trouble and was found dead in bed this morning. Mrs. Fixler was quite advanced in years. No arrangements for the funeral have been made so far.

Mrs. Eliza Thompson of Fargo was taken before the Insanity board today, on a warrant charging her with being insane. After due consideration of the evidence, and examination of the accused, the board decided that she was in her right mind, and was discharged from custody.

En-Route to Kansas City on Tour of Inspection.

President Bush of the Missouri Pacific, together with a number of the road's officials, arrived in Falls City at 12:40 this noon in four special cars. They stopped here but 20 minutes, and then proceeded on their way to Atchison, St. Joe and Kansas City.

Among the railroad officials who accompanied Mr. Bush were J. W. Higgins, A. De Bernarbi, G. W. Smith and W. J. McKee.

Quite a number of our citizens and city officials were on hand to greet the railroad president, and it was hoped he would make a speech telling all about what the road was going to do for Falls City and what a fine depot they would soon erect, but as the time was short, Mr. Bush contented himself with attending to the business that brought him here, and then proceeded on his way.

WOMAN'S CLUB MEETING.

The Woman's club met at the home of Mrs. W. H. Crook Tuesday, May 9, when a very entertaining program was given. The following papers were read: Characteristics of writers—by Mrs. W. S. White and read by Miss Hazel White, was a most excellent paper and well rendered. Miss Tillie Uhlig gave a sketch of Enoch Mills of Long Pine, Colo., author of "Wild Life of the Rockies." Mr. Mills, who is a personal friend of Mr. Harry Pence, of this city, is now pre-

Wild Birds of Nebraska—by Mrs. E. E. Marr, was entertaining and instructive.

Jane Adams in settlement work, written by Mrs. Briggs and read by Mrs. Wanner, was a very interesting and instructive paper.

Miss Floy Gunstead then favored the club with a reading, entitled, "Vashti," which was greatly appreciated by those present.

The guests present were: Mrs. Eversole of Elk Creek, Mesdames Mosier and Wilhite.

Mrs. Arthur Weaver, Mrs. J. Wilson and Mrs. Mosier were elected members of the club. At the close of the meeting refreshments of punch and wafers were served. The next meeting, which will be the last of the season, will be held with Mrs. R. A. Dittmar, on May 16.

That the University of Nebraska has one of the very best registration systems in use in any of the large universities in America, is the statement of Dean Hughes of Miami university, who has been inspecting the operation of the Nebraska system. Dean Hughes has been granted a leave of absence in which he is authorized to inspect administrative and registration schemes all over the country. So far he has visited about fifty schools, and he puts Nebraska at the top of the list. Registrar P. J. Harrison has received an invitation to present one of three papers before the national convention of college registrars, to be held in Boston August 7, 1911. All of the large universities and colleges of the country are to be represented at the Boston meeting.

The Excuse He Made.

Robert L. Hoagland, ticket agent for the Pennsylvania Railroad in New Brunswick, N. J., who is in Washington on his honeymoon, was unable to attend the dinner of the board of fire engineers, so he sent this message: "Regret absence, Luke xiv., 29."

The firemen did not have a Bible at the dinner, but one of them looked up the Scripture quotation and found it read: "And another said, I have married wife and therefore I cannot come."
