The Catholic ladies kensington met yesterday afternoon with Miss Josephine Gehling at her home on South Stone St. A large crowd were present. Katherine Mulligan and Mrs. Frank Smith assisted the hostess in serving.

Supt. W. J. O'Brien, in charge of the state fish car, arrived in Tecumseh last Thursday and planted about 3,000 channel cat and bull heads in the Nemaha above the mill dam, also furnishing something like 400 of the finney tribe to Roy L. Stewart to be placed in his lake. The fish car makes two trips each year to the rivers and lakes of the state with a view to increasing the number of fish therein.—Tecumseh Journal.

The Oklahoma Indians engaged in deadly warfare with the Colts yesterday afternoon, and got beautifully trimmed to the tune of 20 to 1, their lone tally being made by Pappoose, who was some Indian, all right, to do a trick like that. "Bull" Durham winged a good game for the redskins, but his support was sadly deficient. "Lefty Doran," for the Colts, had the game well in hand throughout, and never was in danger. Barring the one-sidedness, it was a good game. The Indians play at Salem this afternoon.

The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crook was the scene of one of the most elaborate social functions of the week. The event was a reception for Mr. and Mrs. Guy Crook, who were married at Tecumseh some two weeks ago.

The home was a scene or artistic beauty, the rooms throughout being most beautifully decorated with cut flowers, palms, and potted plants.

About 130 guests were present, most of them being young people of this community.

On the first floor the evening was spent in social conversation; on the second a jolly company enjoyed whist and somerset and on the third floor an elegant room with waxed floor had been beautifully decorated and prepared for dancing. On this floor punch was served during the evening by Misses Susane Brecht and Eliza Crook. The former was beautifully gowned in pink and the latter in blue. Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Hurst and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Crook were in the receiving line and made each and every guest feel the hearty welcome that always awaits the guests at the Crook home.

The music was furnished by the Falls City orchestra and proved a delight to all. They were first stationed on the first floor in a corner embanked with palms and ferns. Later they went to the third floor and furnished music for dancing. Lunch, consisting of coffee, cake and ices, was served by maids in the dining room.

Mrs. Guy Crook, the guest of honor, was beautifully gowned light blue messline, with a long train and wore blue satin shoes. The evening dresses worn by the many society ladies were both costly and beautiful, and added much to the scene of the party.

Tonight the second of the series will be given when many out-of-town guests are expected.

Now is the time to get rid of your rheumatism. You will find Chamberlain's Liniment wonderfully effective. One application will convince you of its merits. Try it. For sale by all dealers.

A little son arrived yesterday to gladden the hearts of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Oliver; but after a few hours the little one passed away.

To the young parents whose very hearts ache with sorrow over the death of their babe, we extend sympathy. The little body was tenderly laid to rest in Steele cemetery.

Is there anything in all this world that is of more importance to you than good digestion? Food must be eaten to sustain life and must be digested and converted into blood. When the digestion fails the whole body suffers. Chamberlain's Tablets are a rational and reliable cure for indigestion. They increase the flow of bile, purify the blood, strengthen the stomach, and tone up the whole digestive apparatus to a natural and healthy action. For sale by all dealers.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Foster are planning for a visit from their daughter, Mrs. Thomas Snyder of Indianapolis, Ind.

J. M. Howell, a popular druggist of Greensburg, Ky., says, "We use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our own household and know it is excellent." For sale by all dealers.

Robert Heck, Chester Lippold, George Apel, Walter Hahn, and James Hutchings went to Tarkio, Mo. yesterday and today will take part in the field meet at that place. A number of track teams were unable to attend, some having a siege of the measles. Prof. E. K. Hurst accompanied the team.

Sick headache results from a disordered condition of the stomach, and can be cured by the use of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Try it. For sale by all dealers.

Mrs. Ida Noonan Hart came up from Missouri to visit old friends in this city.

For soreness of the muscles whether induced by violent exercise or injury, Chamberlain's Liniment is excellent. This liniment is also highly esteemed for the relief it affords in cases of rheumatism. Sold by all dealers.

Wm. Langford, charged with stealing suit cases and clothes at the City Hotel, was examined before Judge Spragins yesterday evening and bound over to the district court, bond being fixed at $500.00 in each of two counts—grand larceny and burglary.

A medical sharp says that smoking before meals renders the buccal bucosa insensitive to alimentary stimulation and neutralizes the olfactogustatory reflex. Let's quit.—Cleveland Leader.

Last night was certainly a beautiful one, many of our people attended the Crook reception; many enjoyed the evening at the park, while others went to the picture shows; some were out driving, but in general people enjoyed the evening. Today the weather has turned cold, and we may have another touch of "winter."

The editor acknowledges receipt of a copy of "The National Post," a new fortnightly magazine put out by the publishers of that popular monthly, "Success."

The Post bids fair to equal Success Magazine, being well filled with interesting matter and special articles by noted men and women. An article of special note is "LaFollette To-Day," giving a new estimate of the noted republican insurgent leader.

Hiram paused at the door and holding up a steel trap, said: "Mariar, when you see this trap again it will have a skunk in it." Fifteen minutes later he reappeared. "Mariar," he yelled, "you come here and loosen me from this all fired trap." And then he got mad at "Mariar" because she laughed.

The school exhibit displayed at the Central building was fine and all parents who attended speak in the highest terms of the work being accomplished by the pupils. The teachers have labored diligently for the success of the exhibit.

In the evening the various grades gave a program at the city auditorium, when a large crowd gave their undivided attention to the children. The children sang, spoke and gave drills in a manner that was a credit to themselves and their teachers.

Prof. E. L. Rouse, dean of the Peru Normal gave an address on "Medical Inspection of the Schools," which was decidedly interesting. At the close of the address the pupils of the sixth, seventh and eighth grades furnished several numbers and the High school glee club sang.

The second of the series of receptions was given last night at the W. H. Crook residence in honor of Guy Crook and his bride.

The decorations throughout the house were the same as on the evening before, and on this occasion about 150 were present and were the older people. The evening was spent in various games and the old fashioned dances, such as the "Virginia Reel, Shottisch" etc., and were enjoyed by everyone.

Much credit is due the hostess, Mrs. W. H. Crook, who is responsible for the planning and executing of the delightful functions tendered her son Guy Crook and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eversole of Elk Creek were among the out-of-town guests.

"Why is the British Unionist who opposes home rule like the congressional insurgent here?" "I don't know. Why?" "Because they can't stand Pat."—Baltimore American.

The Tragic Difference

William was lying on his bed, face downward, sobbing desolately. His mother took him in her arms, the whole eight years of him. In a few minutes she learned all. It was a girl, and she had sent him a note.

It read:

"Dere Willyum:

"I luv yu the best But Henery gives me the most kandy."

Isabel.

At the Lunch Counter

Said a bald-headed man to a waitress bold:

"See here, young woman, my cocoa's cold!"

She scornfully answered: "I can't help that."

If the blamed thing's chilly, put on your hat!"—[From "Success Magazine."]
