Money To Loan on Improved Farms

A large per cent of our wealthy citizens can trace their financial success to borrowed capital. Many a man is kept from enjoying this valuable asset to business life because of the embarrassment in arranging for a loan of this kind among home folks, where one's business is everybody's business and the knowledge of such a transaction is liable to injure one's credit. To avoid such unpleasantness, I shall be pleased to place my funds at your disposal at a reasonable rate of interest. The same will apply if you wish to renew a loan. We can do the business quickly and safely through the mails if inconvenient to call at my office. Address
