

LOOKED DEATH IN THE FACE

Mr. C. J. Brown, the gentleman at St. Derion, who was so badly wounded with dynamite last fall was in this city last Saturday and while here made this office a call. Mr. Brown had quite an experience at the time and one which he does not care to have repeated. After the fuse was lighted and he was about to throw the stick of dynamite into the river he found that his whole body was paralyzed except his neck and that he could not only throw the stick but could not even put it out of his hand, and in this condition his mind was as active as it ever was. He realized his condition, and also realized the fact that he was standing on the boundary line between this life, and the life eternal, and in this condition commending his soul to the loving care of the Master, and with a thought of wife and children he turned his head, closed his eyes and awaited the explosion which was sure to come. And it came but instead of being blown to pieces as he expected, he was not mortally wounded, but after all these months he is able to get around, although minus an arm, and with crippled limbs, which will never more respond to the call of an active, energetic man.

It was a narrow escape from death and Mr. Brown attributes it alone to the overruling providence of a loving God who chose this manner to bring him, an unruly child back to love and serve Him. And may be it is, for "God moves in a mysterious way, His wonders to perform," not only is this case more mysterious than when "He plants His footsteps in the sea and rides upon the storm." Whatever it was Mr. Brown is now able to get about, and as he says, to live a better life in the future than in the past.—Shubert Citizen.

Does Advertising Pay

Occasionally there arises from the prehistoric past some fossilized and ancient habit of mind declaring that "advertising does not pay."

Should you meet anyone making such a statement ask him these questions:

If advertising does not pay how does a manufacturer, thousands of miles away make somebody go into the grocer's or druggist's store in your block and buy his goods?

If advertising does not pay, how does a big mail-order house reach out and life business practically from the next door neighbor of the county storekeeper?

If advertising does not pay, why do the greatest department stores in the world run page after page, day in, day out, at enormous cost, in big newspapers, and pay large sums to the men who write and illustrate their announcements?

If advertising does not pay, why do you see small merchants in every city in the land starting to use small space in the newspapers and then rapidly increase the amount of space they use?

If advertising does not pay why does anybody advertise?

The question as to whether or not advertising pays has long been definitely settled. Advertising always pays if it is handled the right way.

The merchant who would get the maximum results from his business must advertise. The difficulty which confronts him is to decide where to advertise, how much to spend and how to get the greatest good from his expenditure.—Newspaperdom

The Tribune as one of the largest paid-up subscription lists in the county, and will give space to the Merchants at a nominal rate. "It pays to advertise in the Tribune."

Clarence E. Smith has just received one of the finest lines of Pianos ever brought to Falls City. The fine Circassian Walnut, Baby Grand, was the instrument on exhibition at the Coliseum in Chicago during the Great National Piano Dealers Convention, June 3 to 10. Mr. Smith has a number of high grade pianos in the polished and art finishes, different woods, also one of the finest Inner Player pianos on the market today. If you enjoy looking over some of the finest pianos that were ever in the city, call and examine them thoroughly. He will be pleased to show them to you at his residence opposite the Court House.

OWEN BUCHANAN DEAD

With the booming of the sunrise guns ushering in the dawn of independence the spirit of Owen Buchanan wended its flight to join the ranks of his veteran comrades beyond the river. He had been so many years a helpless invalid that he was remembered only by his family and the few pioneer neighbors to whom the news of his death brought pangs of sorrow.

After doing three years of active service in the battles for the union in the civil war as a member of the 6th Missouri cavalry, he came to Nebraska and settled on the farm adjoining his brother-in-law, the late Alfred Page, and it is sad to relate that in the death of Mr. Buchanan, the last of the sturdy race of old settlers who early inhabited the country between the two Neunahas, will have disappeared. Their places will no doubt be filled by a generation of equally enterprising citizens, but never by a set of truer hearted men and women.

From wounds and disease contracted in his country's service, Mr. Buchanan was badly handicapped in the after battle for an honest living, and owing to his many infirmities it is not to his discredit that he did not bequeath an estate to his children worth exciting the greed of avaricious lawyers; but what is better and more enduring, he leaves behind him an unsullied reputation for patriotism, honor, honesty and loyal devotion to country, family and friends.

Owen Buchanan was born in Clay county, Missouri, in the year 1840 and soon after coming to Nebraska was united in marriage to Miss Sophia Chaffin, who, with two daughters, survive a loving husband and father.

Runaway

While coming from Humboldt last Tuesday evening the team Lee Price was driving become frightened and ran from the north end of town down to Riley's Park doing great damage along the way. The lamp post in front of Riley's drug store was entirely wiped out of existence. Mr. Price was thrown out, near the depot and was unconscious when found. He received several serious injuries, two ribs broken, his collar bone broken and his lung injured. Nick Thilman who was with Mr. Price escaped with only a few scratches and bruises.—Dawson Dispatch.

Horse Badly Cut.

As Mike Clancy of Dawson was driving into Salem last Tuesday afternoon and when just west of town his horse shied and ran into a wire fence, knocking it down and cutting the horse quite badly. It is thought it will recover without any lasting injury.

FORT BERTHOLD RESERVATION OPEN TO SETTLERS

HOMES FOR 2,000 FARMERS

Special to the Tribune. Minot, N. D., July 13, 1911.—President Taft has issued a proclamation throwing open to settlement the Fort Berthold Indian Reservation in North Dakota. Registration will commence August 14th. Principal point of registration is Minot, North Dakota.

The land subject to homestead entry will approximate 342,000 acres. It will be subject to settlement under United States Homestead Laws.

The land has been appraised at prices ranging from $1.50 to $6.00 per acre. Any American citizen or alien who has declared his intention of becoming such and who has not already exercised his homestead right or who is not already the owner of more than 160 acres of land, is eligible to register for a homestead at this opening.

The land located in this reservation is some of the choicest land in North Dakota, located in the northwestern part of McLean County just south of the Great Northern Railway's transcontinental line. The larger portion of it is a dark brown in color, the top soil being an alluvial deposit capable of producing all kinds of cereals and vegetables. It is underlaid with a clay sub-soil. The larger portion is practically free from stone and may be easily worked.

The method of the opening will be by registering and drawing.

In addition to the usual homestead filing fees, the homesteader will have to pay the appraised value of the tract which he picks out which may be anywhere from $1.50 to $6.00 per acre.

A New York couple have sued each other for divorce on the grounds of being too cold and distant. They ought to come to Falls City a little while during this hot spell and warm up a bit.
