

VERDON

Ed. Frauenfelder made a trip to Peru Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Draper of Dawson were shopping here last Thursday. John Bauer was on the Kansas City market with a car of cattle Monday. Scott Hinkle returned last Saturday afternoon from a short stay with his brother at Falls City. Clarence Clark of Kansas City was on our streets the first of the week. Vivian Mayfield delivered hogs to Veach & Son one day last week. Will Carter from near Stella was a pleasant caller here Tuesday evening. Charley Halterman and family left Wednesday for Falls City, returning home Sunday. Rev. Esley of Ohio township was the guest of Rev. Gearries here Monday morning. John Patterson visited his daughter, Mrs. Belle Cornell at Peru last week. Misses Amelia Schrader and Edith Shoemaker were passengers to Stella Wednesday. Miss Roxie McCullough came down from Howe and spent the Fourth with homefolks. Miss Hael Veal was quite sick the past week, but is better at this writing. E. M. Bauer was on the market at Kansas City with a car of fine cattle Monday morning. The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Arnold is very ill at this writing. Grandpa Sailors came up from the county seat Wednesday last. Miss Blanche Houst returned to Peru Wednesday after a short visit with homefolks. Miss Gladys West of Howe visited friends here a few days ago. Emmerson Bauer shipped six car loads of cattle to Kansas City the past week. Gorman Heineremann made a pleasant trip to Salem recently. Orlanda Veal and daughter were Stella visitors between trains Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Stump left Wednesday for St. Joseph for a short stay with the latter's sister, Miss Pearl Cunningham. Messrs. M. Murphy and Alfred Ramsey shipped a car of cattle to Kansas City Wednesday evening. The Misses Cora and Nellie Randall left Tuesday afternoon for a month's visit with relatives at Cregg, Mo. Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Humphrey spent a portion of last week with relatives at Falls City. August 23rd and 24. are the dates set for the Pioneer picnic. Charley Wear is enjoying a visit from his brother John, who recently arrived from Gage county, Neb. Mrs. Claud Sailors is entertaining a cousin who arrived the latter part of the week from Peru. Will Otto is the possessor of a fine milk cow which he purchased from grandpa Snell last week. Mrs. Cora Andrews and her niece passed through here Friday afternoon from Stella enroute for Sabetha, Kans. Thomas Salloway arrived last week from Texas for an extended visit with relatives here. Will Otto left for Omaha Friday morning returning home Saturday. Clarence Hart, Rex Birely, John Conover and Sherm. Birely went to Peru Thursday morning to see the ball game. Miss Anna Franklin of Ohio township, is the guest of her brother, Rolland Franklin and family. Quinton Stump and wife returned home Friday from a recent visit with relatives at St. Joseph. Rev. A. R. Jones of Ohio conducted services at the Congregational church last Sunday morning and evening. E. Rumbaugh and wife, Mr. Kimball and little son of Nemaha City were in town in the former's auto last Saturday. Miss Edith Cullon spent a portion of last week at Salem the guest of Miss Flossie James. W. McCullough left Tuesday afternoon for Howe where he visited his sons George and Will until Wednesday evening. Miss Dorris Corn came up from Falls City last week for a brief visit with her uncle Henry Corn and wife. James Simpson and family spent Sunday in town the guests of the former's parents, Jerome Simpson and wife. Henry Fisher returned to Atchison the first of the week after visiting with his family here. Mrs. John Leafers is enjoying a visit from her sister Miss Anna Fastenaw of Nebraska City. Messrs. and Mesdames C. M. and A. J. Heinzelmenn spent Sunday in the country the guests of John Bauer and wife. Miss Edith Cullon is enjoying a visit from Miss Wauneta and Master Rex Gage of Howe and Miss Alta Corn of Falls City. Mrs. Dr. Thomas had the pleasure of entertaining her grandfather, the Anderson Miller of Falls City Friday last. C. M. and A. J. Heinzelmenn, Walter Clark and Norman Heinzelmenn made a trip to the county seat in the formers' auto last Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Ed. Frauenfelder took the afternoon train Thursday for St. Joseph to be at the bedside of her mother-in-law who is dangerously ill. Thomas Dietrich left Sunday morning for El Dorado Springs, Mo., where he expects to remain until the first of August. From there he will go to Reading, Pa. where he will make his future home. Abe Steward was dangerously ill the past week. He was assisting Charlie Raper threshing last Tuesday when he became effected from the heat and was in a very critical condition for a time, but is better at this writing. Mr. Smith has returned to his home at Brunswick, Neb. after a brief visit here with his brother Joe and family; he was accompanied home by his nephew, Harry who will remain the rest of the summer in that vicinity. The Misses Myrtle and Elma Dillon returned Monday from a week's visit with relatives in Kansas. Mrs. Sam Weddle went to Omaha Saturday afternoon. She Friday morning returning. Mrs. James Russel assisted Mrs. Will Richards with household duties last week. Little Basil Boyle was quite sick last week, but is now somewhat better. Ed. Pool moved his household goods from Will Steward's property to the Heinzelmenn and Pason property in the southwestern part of town, the first of the week. Scott Hinkle spent Monday in the country with his brother Will and family.

SHUBERT NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Spiekler have now rented the E. King property on Elm St. Frank Watten and family of Falls City, and J. C. Schulenberg and wife were the guests of Chas. Schulenberg and family Sunday. Mrs. M. Weick and little daughter Clara were entertained by relatives and friends at Falls City a few days last week. Miss Blanche Armbruster came down from Peru Friday evening to spend Sunday with homefolks. E. E. King of Lincoln was a business visitor here a few days last week. Mrs. Baker and daughter of California who have been visiting relatives here for some time, spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives near Stella. Miss Hattie Lilly was the guest of Mrs. Martin of Barada a few days last week. Mr. Burns has arrived home from Beatrice where he has been enjoying a visit with his son, Chas. and wife. Jno. Weddle has now moved his household goods to Stella. Mr. and Mrs. M. Weick entertained a few friends one evening last week. Miss Laura Mitchel is now at the home of J. J. Parsons near Verdon. Miss Jennie Brown, one of our most intelligent young ladies, has been chosen teacher of the Me. Candless school. We have no doubt but that Miss Brown will teach a very successful term as she is a very bright young lady, and is loved by all who know her on account of her kind and loving disposition. The Missionary society met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Joe Harper. Mrs. Frank Parrott has been enjoying a visit from her sister, Miss Louisa Peterson of Falls City. Miss Peterson is enjoying a vacation from her duties as clerk in Lyford's store. And where's the red plush lounge that you used to sink into during the day and lie awake on at night when company came and crowded you out of your bed? And say, didn't there used to be, in the days of long ago, a great big family Bible around the house? Now what's become of that?

HUMBOLDT

J. K. Liggett came over from Pawnee City, and spent Sunday in this city. Wayne Coons came over from Auburn the latter part of the week and is now the guest at the home of O. L. Bantz and wife. Rose Hnizda visited with relatives in Table Rock part of this week. Miss Bessie Kovanda of Kansas visited relatives here for a short time this week. Dr. C. E. Novak left Wednesday for Chicago where he will take a post graduate course in eye and ear diseases. S. M. Philpot and wife left this week for Colorado, where they will spend the remainder of the summer. Dudley Schaffer of near Pawnee City was visiting with relatives here the first of the week. Miss Emma Ramoe of Kansas City is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Norman Bullis. Miss Ruth Hosford of Pawnee City is a guest of friends here this week. Mrs. J. R. Boyd returned to her home at Byron, Neb., Wednesday, after a visit with Mrs. Frank Hynek. Miss Stasia O'Grady of Dawson spent a few days with her friend Miss Wanna Zimmermann. The different churches of the city held a union meeting in the Methodist church Sunday evening. Mrs. Molly Bradley was called to Dawson Wednesday by the death of a relative. Invitations are out announcing the marriage of B. H. Mickey of Lincoln to Miss Mary Han-in Wilbur, Saturday. The remains were brought to this city Monday and interred in the city cemetery. Will Boyd and family of Salem were visiting H. E. Boyd and family the last of the week. BARADA Dr. H. S. Andrews reports the birth of an eight-pound son at the home of Artemus Vice on July 3, and an eleven-pound son at the home of George Kirken-dall on July 7. H. G. Duerfeldt, who has been the guest of his father, Gust. Duerfeldt for the past few weeks departed Tuesday enroute for his home at Spokane, Washington. R. H. Dunn and family were the guests at the home of C. H. Martin on Sunday. Miss Ada Mitchell spent Sunday with her cousin Mildred Peters. W. E. Slagle and sons Richard and Glen were in Shubert Saturday. D. E. Spiekler was a Shubert visitor Saturday. C. V. Cox and family were guests at the home of R. W. Williamson Sunday. Walter Whitten and bride were in town Saturday eve, Mrs. Whitten who has been our popular telephone girl for more than two years, was receiving the felicitations of her many friends. Dr. Andrews reports the arrival of a girl at the home of Henry Weick on Monday, July 10. A very interesting and helpful series of meetings have continued throughout the week at the Evangelical church. Rev.

in honor of their son Eddie, it being his birthday; however the surprise was not complete as the young man surmised there was something going on, but nevertheless a good time was reported by all. Refreshments consisting of ice cream and cake were served. F. S. Lichty and Guy Lichty and their respective families spent Sunday in Falls City the guests of John Lichty and wife. John Lundy was a guest of John Hutchison Sunday. Misses Wanda Shaffer and Wilma Nedrow were guests of Ethel Peck, Sunday. Will Moore of Peru is visiting at the home of F. M. Shaffer. Lewis Hurt spent a portion of this week in and around Hamlin, Kans. H. Beechy and wife went to Kansas City Tuesday morning and will be gone for a few days. They were accompanied by Miss Grace Finley of Falls City. Mrs. O. B. Prichard entertained a cousin from the west at her home last week. Merle and Frank Stump of Hastings, Neb., are here visiting with relatives and friends and later on their parents Chester Stump and wife will join them here and will visit a while. Mrs. Noah Peck entertained friends at her home a portion of last week. RULO Mrs. Mary Moore of Lee Summit is spending the week with friends in Rulo. Mrs. John Pope returned last Tuesday from a week's visit with relatives at Guide Rock, Neb. L. B. Lyman was a business visitor in Rulo the last of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Anderson went to Kansas City Friday evening, where an operation was performed on the latter, Saturday, which was successful and she is getting along finely. Her daughter Pearl went down Monday morning to stay with her mother; Mr. Anderson coming home Monday night. Floyd Long of Kansas spent Sunday with relatives in this city. Johnnie Kanaly is spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Majerus in Kansas. John McClellan and wife are now at home to their friends in the telephone building. Mrs. Jelison and son of Waco, Texas arrived Saturday night to attend the funeral of her brother, Henry Caverzagie. Eunice Randolph of Kansas City came Wednesday for a visit with relatives and friends. Wednesday evening the I. O. O. F. lodge installed their officers. After the ceremony which was conducted by Deputy Smith of Table Rock, the families of the members were served with ice cream and cake. Mr. and Mrs. Sarage left last Thursday for Chester, where he will work as telegraph operator. Frank Anderson returned Tuesday from a vacation trip through Texas and other points. Agnes Kanaly returned to her school work at Peru Thursday, after a few days with homefolks. Mrs. Claud Seley and little son left Saturday for their home at Thompson, Neb., after visiting here for a week. Mr. and Mrs. Oss Daniels and little son are spending the week with relatives at Westboro, Quintanan and other points in Missouri. Mr. Chestnut and family returned Saturday from a month's stay with relatives in Kansas. Mr. Stiekrod of Rock Port, Mo. came the last of the week to attend the funeral of Henry Caverzagie, which took place Monday. Mrs. Rawley returned to her home in Falls City Monday, after spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. Phil. Horan. Mrs. Teft, formerly of this city, is visiting with relatives and friends here. Mrs. Harry Huber of Waterloo, Iowa, came last week for a visit with relatives. Frank Dempsey of Preston was a Rulo visitor Tuesday evening. James Haler and family spent several days last week with relatives at Humboldt and Salem. Mrs. Robert Paul of Abilene, Kans., is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. James Hosford. George Seley returned to his work at Quincy, Ill. Tuesday, after a few days visit with homefolks. Mrs. Hosford arrived from California Thursday afternoon. She was delayed on the way and was unable to be here in time to attend the funeral of her sister, Mrs. Edgecomb. The funeral was postponed a day in the hopes that she could finish the journey in time, but she was still many miles away at the time appointed, and it was impossible to keep back the remains any longer. Mrs. Wilcox of Spanks, Kas., is spending the week with relatives in this city. Charlie Belpier of Waterloo, Iowa, is spending his vacation with relatives in this vicinity. Miss Alice Cunningham left Wednesday for her home in California, after a visit extending over several months with her brothers here. Mrs. Mary Simmons has been quite sick for several days. The Rulo ball team crossed bats with the Robison, Kas. boys Sunday. The score resulted in Rulo being the victors, 19 to 2. Mr. and Mrs. Green Goolsby are the parents of a baby boy. J. A. Osborne and family, A. J. Hart and wife drove to Falls City in their automobile Tuesday evening. Ruth Harris of Kansas City came Wednesday for a visit with Rulo relatives and friends. Will Wetzel and Clyde Hart left for Thompson Wednesday to resume their work with the paint gang, after a few days vacation spent with homefolks. Mrs. J. A. Osborne received a telegram Saturday saying that her father was critically ill. She left for Dorchester that evening, but he had passed away before she arrived. Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hall were Salem visitors a few days last week. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Asbury of St. Joseph are visiting with relatives in Rulo. A number of wagon loads of gypsies were in town last week, and were more or less a burden to some of our citizens. Mrs. Bessie Dallman of Kansas City spent last week with relatives here. Mrs. Wm. Ginguch and children left Wednesday to visit relatives in Missouri before returning to their home. Mrs. Ada Mahan and children spent last week with relatives in Kansas City. George Phinney and wife of Reserve attended the funeral of Henry Caverzagie, Monday. Miss Edith Brinegar spent Sunday with friends in the country. A very light rain fell Sunday morning, but is hot and dry as ever at this writing. Rev. A. E. Weichel returned to University Place Thursday, after spending a few days with Rulo friends. WILLIAMSVILLE Miss Luella Rea and Miss Mary Rea returned to Denver last Monday. Miss Bertha Goetz sold her fine lot of hogs last week. Schoetz Bros. threshed a few jobs here last week. They left for Kansas last Tuesday. R. J. Dunn and family spent Sunday in Barada. Mrs. I. A. Dunn was in Falls City Monday. G. W. Duerfeldt and family spent Sunday with B. C. Duerfeldt in Barada. R. J. Dunn sold his hogs last Tuesday. Jacob Arnold and wife spent Sunday with B. C. Duerfeldt in Barada. Mrs. I. A. Dunn returned last week from Adams and Lincoln, Neb., where she has been visiting her two sons Byron and Jesse Dunn. Ella Wissinger was on the sick-list last week. Mrs. Ed. Ege is still very low at this writing. Ed. Ege threshed Tuesday. George Parchens were callers at the Ed. Ege home Tuesday morning. An Italian, not an American, has invented a syllable typewriter. There are some clever people, now and then one, who do not float the American flag. Subscribe for the Tribune.

July Clearing Sale AT THE Home Shoe Store During the month of July we are going to clean up all the Summer Shoes if LOW PRICES can remove them. We are calling your special attention to our White Pumps at $1.50 and White Button Shoes in Sea Island Duck of the best kind at $2.50. The Home Shoe Store Four Doors South Richardson County Bank na of Wood Lake, Neb. This event will take place at the home of the bride, July 19, Mr. Mickey was one of our High school teachers last term. Mrs. H. V. Dorland attended the funeral of a near relative in Dawson, Thursday. George Seabury returned to his home in Kansas City, Wednesday after a few days visit with relatives here. Mrs. Seabury and little daughter remained for a longer visit. Mrs. May Mullen was a Falls City visitor Wednesday and Thursday. Mrs. Emma Cowman visited friends in Table Rock, Thursday. Frank Dorland and family, after a few days visit in this city left for Peru, Neb., where they will again reside. Misses Frances Hynek, Rose Wazab, and Frances Klosner returned to Peru, Wednesday to again take up work in the Peru Normal. Chas. Goddard came over from Falls City and spent Sunday with his family. Miss Edith Stout returned to her home in Beatrice, Monday, after a pleasant visit with her friend, Miss Gail Parsons. Mrs. Fred Fridley died Saturday evening in one of the St. Joseph hospitals. She is about sixty years of age, and for many years has lived near Humboldt. Dr. W. R. Waggener is walking with a cane this week. The result of a strain caused by lifting a heavy weight. Humboldt is threatened with a water famine. The water in the city well being very low and of poor quality. Plans are being made for a better water supply. The little child of Frank Kozler and wife, formerly of this place, died at the family home

Williamson is a forceful and efficient speaker. Quarterly conference on Saturday and Sunday July 15 and 16. John Sauto came in from Phelps county last week to visit his niece, Mrs. Ed. Ege who is very ill. Rev. Gardener of Odessa, Mo. preached at the Christian church both morning and evening last Sunday. Small pox is raging in Southeast Barada precinct; there has only been one serious case, however, that of George Weisenstein who was the first victim, having contracted the disease while in Chase county, and he is now recovered. Luis Kuker who has been ill for a long time was taken to the hospital in St. Joseph for treatment, the first of the week. Mrs. Harry Bridgeman is quite ill at this writing. Dr. Fordyce and wife passed through town Monday morning enroute for the city, having spent the previous day and night camping at the Indian cave. OHIO ITEMS P. E. Shaffer has been entertaining a friend at his home for the past few days. Mrs. Buchholtz and Mrs. Lea Case went to Shubert Sunday to visit friends. L. S. Nedrow went to Kansas City Monday night for a short stay. E. M. Kimmel and family were guests of relatives in Falls City Sunday. Mrs. Guy Lichty is enjoying a visit from her brother, Wm. Gildensleeve of Kansas City, Mo. About fifty invited guests assembled at the home of Allison Dowty and wife last Saturday evening. It was a surprise party

A FLYER AT ADVERTISING IN THIS PAPER IS NOT AN AEROPLANE EXPERIMENT Our rates are right—they let people know your goods and prices are right. Run a series of ads. in this paper. If results show, other conditions being equal, speak to us about a year's contract at a MERCHANT ONE PENNY THAT PLAN NEVER LOST A MERCHANT ONE PENNY