

Weeping Water

The Lions Club held their regular meeting and luncheon Wednesday at the Laurel Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Fitzgerald of Lincoln were visitors at the Frank Ronne home Monday evening between trains.

Mrs. O. C. Hinds is hostess to the Idle-a-Wile Bridge club this afternoon at her home. Twelve guests are present.

Mrs. Robert Moore (nee Clara Johnson) and small son of Friend are visiting her mother, Mrs. Oscar Johnson, this week.

Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Peterson and son Norman left Saturday for a visit of a week's duration with relatives at Tyler, Minnesota.

Frank Wood was a visitor in Nehawka last Monday where he was meeting with George C. Sheldon on some business matters.

Mrs. W. H. Tuck was hostess to the Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist church at her home Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Frank Domingo is entertaining her bridge club, the Thursday Afternoon club, at her home this (Thursday) afternoon.

F. L. Bailey and his sister, Mrs. Mary Dummeyer enjoyed a visit from their nephew, Lewis Bailey, of Tulsa, Oklahoma, Friday and Saturday.

The Dorcas Circle of the Christian church are meeting this afternoon in the basement of the church, with Mrs. L. R. Lane and Mrs. Verne Barton as hostesses.

Mrs. Nettie Amick left Sunday for Omaha, where she will spend the coming month caring for the home of a friend while they are on an extended southern trip.

Mrs. Ray Norris attended the Otoe county Woman's club convention at Nebraska City Tuesday, when she spoke on the subject of "Rural Clubs and Rural Life."

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Oldham were in Omaha Tuesday when Mr. Oldham attended the Feed Dealers meeting at the Allied Mills, with a steak dinner at the Live Stock Grain Exchange.

The Virgil Sudduth family of near Murray were guests for the day last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Askew, Mrs. Sudduth being daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Askew.

Lieutenant R. L. Dudley and wife and son Dick left today for a month's leave of absence. They expect to spend most of the time with relatives and friends in Missouri.

Mesdames J. C. Lehman, Irl Markland and Jeanette Young were over near Nehawka last Tuesday afternoon to attend the funeral and burial services of the late John G. Wunderlich.

J. L. Clizbe, of Wagner, Oklahoma, arrived Wednesday for a visit with his sister, Miss Edith Clizbe. He remained until Monday, when he went to Valentine to visit his brother, George Clizbe.

The Ladies Welfare club held their first meeting for the autumn season Monday at the M. E. church. A luncheon at one o'clock preceded the business session, after which the afternoon was spent working quilts.

Fifteen young people belonging to Mrs. Frank Marshall's class in the Congregational Sunday school were entertained at the Marshall home Wednesday evening. These young people are all in high school and enjoyed a fine time together.

S. Ray Smith took his son Milford to Kansas City Friday to enter the Mortuary institute there for a year's training. En route they stopped at Peru to attend the football game between Peru and Doane, of which contest Dale Reed was one of the players for Peru.

Mrs. Robert Moore and little daughter of Lincoln, Mrs. Moore being the former Miss Clara Johnson, of Friend were visiting in Weeping Water for the past week and departed for home last Tuesday, accompanying her brother, C. Wally Johnson of Friend who was visiting in Weeping Water for the day Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Robinson were most happily surprised Thursday evening when a group of their new neighbors arrived at their home for a surprise house warming. The Robinsons only recently moved into their new home on the south side of town and their new neighbors took this way of welcoming them into their neighborhood.

Death of Fred Dudley
Word was received Monday morning that Frank Dudley of Lincoln had passed away during the night. Mr. Dudley had been in poor health for the past two years and grew steadily weaker until the end. Miss Mabel Dudley went to Lincoln Saturday to assist in caring for her brother, Mrs. Edna Shannon went to Lincoln Tuesday.

Celebrated Birthdays Together
The birthdays of Mrs. O. K. Cromwell and Miss Margaret Ranney fall on the same day and for several years they have had their birthday dinner together. Saturday evening Mrs. J. M. Ranney and Miss Margaret were invited to the home of Mrs. Cromwell, where they partook of a fine dinner and enjoyed the evening together. Mrs. Cromwell expects to leave soon for Broken Bow, where she will spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Davis and Mr. Davis.

Guests of New Louisville Club
Five members of the Weeping Water Lions club were guests of the newly organized Lions club at Louisville Friday at a dinner. This was the second meeting of this new club, which was sponsored by the Weeping Water organization. Those who went to Louisville were C. H. Gibson, O. C. Hinds, Dr. L. C. Kunkel, Robert Gray and G. R. Binger.

First Meeting of Fall Season
The Jolly Mixers held their first meeting for this season Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Frank Wood, when plans were made for the coming season. The Jolly Mixers are what their name implies—a group of women who meet each month for a jolly social evening together, and once a month they entertain their husbands, usually at a covered dish dinner.

Surprise Birthday Party
A jolly crowd of young people went to the home of Miss Eileen Stubbendick Saturday evening and took her completely by surprise. As it was her birthday, her Sunday school class at the M. E. church decided that something must be done about celebrating the day, so they invited a few more young ladies and proceeded to her home, where they enjoyed a most delightful evening. It took Eileen a short time to recover from the surprise, but she made a most gracious hostess and the evening passed all too quickly.

Broke the Other Arm
Mrs. William Jameson was again unfortunate last week when she fell and broke her left arm. She fell when on the back steps of her home. We say that she was again unfortunate for she broke the right arm in almost the same kind of an accident about a year ago. This fact makes this injury doubly hard to combat.

Death of Michael O'Leary
It was with saddened hearts that friends here learned of the death of Michael O'Leary of Omaha last Saturday while listening to a radio broadcast of the Nebraska-Indiana football game. Born at Manley, Michael attended Weeping Water high school and made many warm friends here. After attending Weeping Water high school, he went to St. Marys, Kansas, where he attended college. Mr. O'Leary served in the World War, as sergeant in the ammunition corps of the Rainbow division in France.

After leaving Manley, he was with the South Omaha stockyards for several years. He was a man who made friends readily and retained warm friendship throughout the years since leaving here. The sympathy of the entire community goes out to the bereaved relatives.

Cascade Chorty Club Meets.
One of the most active organizations among the women of this community is the Cascade Chorty club, an organization of women south of town and all from the Cascade school district.

For a period of several years, these women have met once a month and sewed for children of an orphan home. They make children's clothing and from the scraps left after cutting these garments, they fashion quilt blocks and make comforters, which are also donated to the home.

The material used in all of this work is donated by one woman, Mrs. John Rugh, who attends all of their meetings.

Twenty women, all members of this club, gathered at the home of Mrs. Homer Jameson Wednesday afternoon and spent a busy afternoon sewing, with a fine lunch served by the hostess late in the afternoon.

Sang at Ashland Club Meeting
Mrs. Earl Oldham, Mrs. C. C. Ralston, Mrs. Ray Norris, Mrs. Henry Rugh, Mrs. Carl Hansen and Mrs. Walter Bickford were in Ashland Friday with the County Rural Woman's chorus, who sang at the opening meeting of the Ashland Woman's club. On Thursday of this week the chorus will sing at the county meeting of Federated Women's clubs at Murdock and on October 17 they will sing at the state Federated club meeting at Lincoln.

County Meeting of Auxiliary
The fall county meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary will be held at Nehawka Tuesday, Oct. 10. A large attendance is expected. The meeting opens with a covered dish luncheon at noon. A varied menu will be provided. The host unit is furnishing the rolls and butter, also coffee. Their members will also provide the pies, leaving the meat dish, potatoes, vegetable and salad to the visitors from the other four units of the county. Weeping Water unit, which is to be host unit to the district convention later in the fall, will probably send a large delegation to the county meeting.

County Bankers to Meet Here
The Cass County Bankers association will meet in Weeping Water Thursday, October 21, when members of the association and their wives will assemble in the Odd Fellow hall for the opening of the meeting, after which the ladies will be entertained at a matinee at the Chief theatre, and then go to the home of Mrs. Frank Domingo for a social hour before they again join their husbands for the evening banquet in the basement of the Congregational church. Preparations are being made for a fine program, and visitors are expected from other counties.

And a Good Time Had by All
The girls of the eighth grade at school decided to have a weiner roast all by themselves Thursday evening, so, accompanied by their teachers, Miss Brown and Miss Kincaid, they climbed to the top of the big hill east of town, near the Frank Ronne home and were having a fine time when the boys of the class spied them and soon got a supply of weiners and other foods and joined them. The result was a "grand good time," as one who was there expressed his pleasure.

Cleverly Planned Surprise
Mrs. Thomas Murty was sitting and reading on Wednesday evening, when there was a knock at her door. As she opened the door, the yard seemed to be filled with women. They proved to be the members of the Cheer-a-Bit club, who had decided to give her a housewarming, as she had recently moved into a home of her own after having made her home in the Olsen Apartments for the past three years. They had brought well filled baskets which produced a delicious luncheon, and a merry evening was spent.

It has always been said that a woman could not keep a secret, but the secret of their coming had been so well planned that the hostess was completely taken unawares.

Injured Men Arrive Home.
Messrs. Louis DeVall and Claude Landes, who were injured during the King Korn Carnival as they were coming out of Plattsmouth and who were taken to an Omaha hospital where they were kept under treatment until last Monday when they were brought home. While much improved they are still feeling the effects of the accident. The boys are pleased that they were able to come home and it is hoped they may soon be in their usual health again.

Injured in Severe Fall.
Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Findley live over the store of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Gibson, and when last Monday Mrs. Findley was attempting to come down to their store which is a little ways west of the Gibson store, the stairway being steep and narrow she slipped and tumbled down the long flight of steps, bruising herself badly and fracturing one of the bones in her finger. Mr. Gibson who was passing looked in at the entrance of the stairway and when he saw the plight of Mrs. Findley assisted her to the street and seated her on a seat in front of the store. After treatment by the family physician Mrs. Findley, while still very sore, is feeling much improved.

Hears Sister Had Died.
John Wishart received word last week of the passing of his sister, Mrs. Charles Werneke at Longmont, Colorado. The sister was 79 years of age and has been trouble with a cancer for some time. The funeral was held Sunday, October 1st, the patient passing away Thursday, September 27th. When hearing of the serious condition Mr. Wishart called via telephone and conversed with the home, and was informed that she was not conscious and so Mr. Wishart concluded that he could not arrive in time and that if he did the sister would not know him and he would only see a sister unable to recognize him so he did not make the trip. The funeral of the sister was held at Longmont, and the burial made there.

Masons Receive Examinations.
Raymond C. Cook of Plattsmouth, grand deputy custodian of the grand lodge of Nebraska was in Weeping Water last Tuesday afternoon and evening giving examinations of the secret work to the members of the community, as she formerly lived eight miles east of Weeping Water, and was formerly Miss Maureen Cisney.

Visiting With Relatives Here.
Mr. and Mrs. Glen Cole of Chester, Illinois, where Mr. Cole is a representative of the Union Pacific, were taking a week's vacation and drove to Weeping Water last Monday where they visited at the home of Mr. Cole's mother, Mrs. A. M. Cole, and where last Monday evening the family gathered to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Glen Cole. Those present for the occasion were: the mother, Roy Cole and family of Plattsmouth, Floyd Cole and family, Dan Sudduth and wife, Earl Cole and family, Earl Embury and family and Paul Everett and family.

A most enjoyable gathering was had. The following morning the visitors departed for Lincoln and later for Denver and other points in Colorado and were able to get back to their home at the week end.

Celebrated 30th Anniversary.
Last Friday afternoon and night Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Gibson and Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Johnson, the latter couple were celebrating their 30th wedding anniversary, for thirty years ago on September 29, 1909 when the two couples were wedded in a double ceremony. The brides were Misses Myrtle Hiatt, becoming Mrs. C. H. Gibson and Miss Nellie Hiatt becoming Mrs. S. A. Johnson. The wedding thirty years ago was held at Rising City.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Gibson last Friday drove to Lincoln where they and Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Johnson enjoyed the evening together with a very fine supper and a visit for the evening. We are extending to both couples the wish for many more years of happiness and success.

Pussy Wants a Corner.
A series of movings occurred last week, when George live and wife moved from the place where they have been residing to the residence where Mr. and Mrs. John Robinson formerly lived, while Mr. and Mrs. Robinson moved to the late residence of Mr. and Mrs. Troy L. Davis on the south side and Mr. and Mrs. Davis moved to their new home which has just recently been completed. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson have purchased the former home of Mr. and Mrs. Davis while the home where Mr. and Mrs. Olive are to reside belongs to Ben Olive, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Olive.

Held Annual Picnic in Lincoln.
Mr. and Mrs. George Olive moved into their new home east of the Congregational church last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wood were in Lincoln Sunday attending a picnic at Pioneer park which has become an annual affair, and is always held the first Sunday in October. The guests are old friends. Nine of the ladies are graduate nurses, who were friends while in Nurses' training school and they have always retained a warm friendship and enjoy these days together. Those present this year were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Young, Nehawka; Mr. and Mrs. Dent Holcomb, Grand Island; Mrs. Marie Gering and daughter, Helen, Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Middlekauff, Lincoln; Mr. and Mrs. Alex Lock and family, Lincoln; Mr. and Mrs. Rich Beryman, Lincoln; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Sturm, Lincoln; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Young, Otoe; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Anderson, Lincoln; Mrs. Lottie Hickman, Hickman; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wood, Weeping Water. Miss Helen Gehring of Omaha is a junior in Nurses' training at the Immanuel hospital—the first one of the second generation to study to take up the profession of their mothers.

Last Community Program Given
The last community program sponsored by the business men of Weeping Water was given on the street Saturday evening. In spite of the cold weather, there was a good attendance and everyone was good natured. They came wearing heavy coats and prepared to enjoy this last evening's visit together for this summer. Shrauger's Pharmacy, Stock's Filling Station and Johnson's Cafe were responsible for the program. Among the other good things presented, was a surprise when Tommy Watson, of the KMMJ radio station at Grand Island, was introduced and delighted the audience with his banjo and with his violin later when there were dancing numbers on the program. Mrs. Watson accompanied him and sang one number, accompanying herself on the guitar, with Mr. Watson playing the violin. Requests were made for Mr. Watson to sing one number, which he responded to most graciously. Both were given a big ovation and it is to be hoped they will visit Weeping Water again soon. Mrs. Watson is well known in this lodge here that all may have the work correctly. A large number of the membership here took the examination and received approval of their knowledge of the work of the order. Sure there was something to eat and a general good time was had.

Guests of Wayne Feeds.
Mr. and Mrs. Earl Oldham who handle the Wayne feeds received an invitation to be guests at a convention of dealers and also to be present at a banquet Tuesday afternoon and evening of this week, at Omaha. They enjoyed the visit very much. While they were away the business was looked after by Chris Rasmussen.

New Flood Lights at Park.
The city of Weeping Water has placed flood lights at the ball park in the northwest part of town and now there is an opportunity to witness both football and soft ball at night and much playing is expected.

Conducted an Examination
The regular meeting of the Masonic lodge was held Monday evening with routine business occupying the attention of the members. On Tuesday evening a special meeting was held, when Deputy Custodian Raymond Cook, of Plattsmouth, was present and conducted an examination of the work of the lodge for the award of a certificate for proficiency. Out of town visitors were Wayne Bennett, of Plattsmouth, George Sheldon, John Madsen, Lester Shradler, Nehawka.

Annual Red Cross Meeting
The local Red Cross held their annual meeting Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Earl Oldham. Letters from county officers were read asking that a production chairman be appointed for work this coming winter. Owing to the fact that our present chairman, Mrs. Earl Oldham, feels that she will be unable to carry on with the greater work and responsibility this winter, she presented her resignation.

Sterling Amick was elected as secretary-treasurer, and the meeting was adjourned until Friday evening when the chapter's business will be completed.

State President Guest at Tea
The Weeping Water Woman's club held their annual Reassembling Tea Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. F. Marshall, with Mrs. Walter Kiechel, state president, was guest of honor, and she spoke on General Federation Club work and especially about the golden jubilee program for this year.

The Weeping Water "Zetetic Club" was organized June 14, 1884, and was the first Woman's club in Nebraska to join the national federation, sending three delegates to the First Biennial meeting at Chicago, May 11, 12 and 13, 1892. The delegates attending that meeting were Mrs. I. N. (Laura M.) Woodford, Mrs. Frank M. Wolcott and Mrs. James B. Hungate. For that reason, our club is especially interested in this jubilee celebration.

Mrs. Beatrice Softly, of Avoca, another guest of honor, gave a most interesting account of her trip to the World's Fair at New York City. Special music was furnished by Mrs. William Joyce on her violin accompanied by Mrs. Harold Harmon at the piano.

At the close of the program, the guests were invited to the dining room where tea was poured at a table having a centerpiece of African violets with white tapers in crystal candle holders at each end, and the club colors carried out in the yellow of the cakes and mints which were served. Tea was poured by Mrs. Emmor Marshall and Mrs. Frank Marshall, assisted by Mrs. L. H. Behrends, Mrs. Neil Robinson, Mrs. Joe Bender, Mrs. Floyd Hite and Mrs. James Kivett.

Delegate to the state convention is Mrs. Frank Marshall, and the alternate, Mrs. Clair Wolfe. Delegate to the county convention, Mrs. C. E. Pool.

"Message of John the Baptist"
John the Baptist has glory all his own. John did not just happen; the blood of fifteen centuries of priests coursed through his arteries. His father was the faithful Zacharias, accustomed to handling the holy things of Israel. From the building of the tabernacle before Mount Sinai down, his ancestors had been conspicuous in the service of Jehovah. The Jews had believed that Elijah was to revisit them. Elijah and John were so much alike that when John came the people who heard him said, "Elijah hath returned." But John was content to be just himself. He was "the voice in the wilderness."

The mothers of John and Jesus were cousins. We know nothing of John's childhood. He appears on the scene full-grown, strong, ready, clothed with the habiliments of a robust manhood. Luke makes the only statement we have concerning him prior to this time. Luke 1:80: "And the child grew and waxed strong in spirit and was in the deserts till the day of his showing unto Israel."

He came not only into the wilderness of Judea physically, but he found the world a wilderness religiously. It is thought he began his ministry at a point on the River Jordan where the caravans crossed, as this would be more attractive, and from the passing caravans he would draw audiences and they would carry the news to Jerusalem and the surrounding country.

Jesus walked sixty miles from his home in Nazaret to the wilderness where John was preaching. Our Lord was then thirty years old. The time had come for Him to enter upon His ministry. From the carpenter shop He came, the spotless son of Mary, and from the waters. He was raised and recognized as the only begotten Son of God.

John knew Jesus to be a great character, a spotless man, and because of His goodness felt inferior to Him and considered himself unworthy to administer baptism to Him. John was told that on whomsoever he would see the Holy Spirit descending as a dove, that individual is the

Christ of God. John may have had reason to believe that Jesus was that individual before he baptized Him; but after the baptism he knew it positively, for the Holy Spirit descended and God spoke, saying, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased." The next day John pointed to Jesus, saying, "Behold the Lamb of God that taketh away the sins of the world."

Jesus was not baptized because He was sinful. He simply submitted to the plan of God, saying, "Thus it becometh us to fulfill all righteousness."

Jesus' baptism was deferred until the age of thirty because this new regime was not in order until this time. It was the beginning of baptism. Furthermore, in the old order, the priests did not enter upon their ministry until they were thirty years of age. Jesus, now being thirty, was inducted into His office.

John's baptism was in vogue from this time until the beginning of the Christian dispensation on the first Pentecost after the resurrection of Jesus. From that time on we have Christian baptism, which is the burial in water of a penitent believer in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins.

That John's baptism was not to be accepted after the beginning of the church in Jerusalem, is clearly shown in the nineteenth chapter of the Acts of the Apostles, where it is recorded that Paul reimmersed twelve men, in the city of Ephesus, who had been baptized by Apollous according to John's baptism.

This incident also gives weight to baptism; makes it more than simply a form. It is a form of the death, the burial and the resurrection of Jesus. But it is more than that; it is the meeting of our Lord where He promised to meet us and in this obedience, prompted by faith and preceded by repentance, we receive the remission of sins; and having been begotten of the Holy Spirit through the teaching of the Word, and being born of the water, we become new creatures and are heirs of God and joint heirs with Jesus Christ.

John knew Jesus to be a great character, a spotless man, and because of His goodness felt inferior to Him and considered himself unworthy to administer baptism to Him. John was told that on whomsoever he would see the Holy Spirit descending as a dove, that individual is the

Christ of God. John may have had reason to believe that Jesus was that individual before he baptized Him; but after the baptism he knew it positively, for the Holy Spirit descended and God spoke, saying, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased."
