Kelley-Eggeling Wedding—
Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Lillie announce the recent marriage of their son, Harvey Eggeling to Miss Martha Kelley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Kelley of San Francisco, California. The young couple were married at Long Beach on Monday, September 18. Mr. and Mrs. Eggeling reside at 333 1/2 Maine avenue, Long Beach, California.

Mr. Eggeling is very well known in Plattsmouth as he had lived and received his education here. A graduate of the Plattsmouth high school in the class of 1936, he entered the United States navy that same year. At the present time he is the signal man on the U. S. S. Arizona.

Celebrate Joint Birthdays—
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Krejci entertained at a dinner party yesterday, having as guests a group of relatives. It was in this manner that Mrs. Ed Robbins of Louisville and Mrs. Frank Krejci of this city celebrated their joint birthdays. The two ladies are sisters and the occasion also served as a farewell dinner for their father, John True, of Cedar Creek, who leaves soon for Sidney, Nebraska, to visit his daughter for several months. Present at the dinner party were: Mr. and Mrs. Ed Robbins and two children, Eddie and Gary Robbins, Mr. Fritz True and Miss Maybelle Edwards of Louisville, John True of Cedar Creek and the Frank Krejci family.

Honored on Anniversary—
Saturday evening a group of neighbors and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rhoades gathered at their home on Wintersteen hill to honor them on their 26th wedding anniversary. The party came as a complete surprise to both Mr. and Mrs. Rhoades. The evening was spent in playing pinochle, Bingo and Chinese checkers, prizes being awarded to the winners. Many lovely gifts were received by Mr. and Mrs. Rhoades. At a suitable hour lunch was prepared by the hostesses, Mrs. O. E. Finnefrack and Mrs. Fred Vincent and served by Miss Verna Cadwell, Mrs. Gomer Warthen, and Mrs. Jack Reno. At a late hour the guests departed wishing Mr. and Mrs. Rhoades many more happy returns of the day.

The guests of the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Burcham and Howard and Shirley, Mr. and Mrs. Arley Lester and George, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Finnefrack, Carol Lou, Ina Mae, Doris, Uretta and Byron, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Brittain, Billy, Lorraine, and Edith Mae, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Markham, Jimmy and Evelyn, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Vincent, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Warthen, Mrs. Wm. Carr, Miss Verna Cadwell, Forest Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Gomer Warthen, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Lushinsky and Rosie, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Chandler and Earle, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Reno and Jackie Mae and Doug, Misses Florence and Gladys Fae Rhoades and the guests of honor, Mr. and Mrs. Rhoades.

From Tuesday's Daily—
Entertains Pinochle Club—
Mrs. Henrietta Oie was hostess on Monday afternoon to the members of her pinochle club at her home on North 4th street. The ladies enjoyed a very delightful time at the cards and the first honors were won by Miss Minnie Guthmann and the consolation by Mrs. W. H. Puls. At a suitable hour Mrs. Oie served a very dainty and much appreciated luncheon.

School Dance Held—
The first dance of the school year was held yesterday afternoon at the Plattsmouth high school gymnasium. A dance that was very well attended, the music box supplied the entertainment for the dancers. Piano numbers were also special features of the dancing party. Dancing hours were from 4 to 6.

Junior Women's Club—
Miss Florence Smith of the Home Economics department of the University of Nebraska addressed the Junior Women's club on the topic "The Gracious Hostess." This meeting was held at Hotel Plattsmouth last evening. Misses Alice Hiatt and Catherine Anthes were in charge of the program. Mr. David Fowler favored the group with a vocal number. Mrs. Fowler served as his accompanist. Miss Florence Leamy served as accompanist for the group singing.

The business for the evening consisted of the election of delegates to the state convention to be held in Lincoln next Tuesday and Wednesday, October 17 and 18. Miss Wilhelmina Henriksen and Her Majesty Miss Gertrude Vallery were chosen to represent the Plattsmouth Junior club.

The next meeting will be a Halloween party on October 23.

Surprised on Birthday—
Monday was the anniversary of the 23rd birthday of Charles H. Walden, and in honor of the event Mrs. Walden entertained a group of the friends in their honor. The members of the party spent the evening at pinochle and Chinese checkers which served to pass the time most delightfully. In the pinochle games Mrs. Leslie Hutchison was the winner of high score and Chinese checkers Robert Vallery was the winner. The guest of honor received remembrances of the birthday that will long be cherished. At the conclusion of the evening Mrs. Walden served a very much enjoyed luncheon that featured the traditional birthday cake. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Hutchison, Robert Vallery, June Sumner, Juanita Walden, Glen Kohrell, Gertrude Vallery, Richard Spangler.

Enjoy Waffle Supper—
Four Plattsmouth young people drove to Nebraska City Sunday and were entertained at a very delightful waffle supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Morley. The occasion was held Sunday evening and was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Merle Meisinger, Don Ricketts, and Marion Speck of Plattsmouth, Mr. and Mrs. Zaida Hawthorne, Misses Florence Erhart, and June Tourville of Nebraska City. The remainder of the evening was spent in visiting. Mrs. Morley is a sister of Don Ricketts.

From Wednesday's Daily—
Celebrates Sixth Birthday—
Mrs. J. C. Lowson entertained at a birthday party yesterday afternoon in honor of her daughter, Miss Aileen Lowson whose sixth birthday occurred yesterday. Guests present at the birthday party included: Clementine Woster, Marilyn Bourck, Betty Jean Howland, Larry Robinson, Patty Sylvester, Jaunita Sloan, Blanche Hughes, Ellen Ubben. The Halloween colors served as the decorative motif of the table. Following the games the guest of honor's mother served a luncheon.

Tendered Farewell Party—
The Women's Benefit association tendered a farewell party last evening at the Emmons Ptak home in honor of Mrs. Joseph H. McMaken, who is leaving the latter part of this week for Wymore to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. Sherman Taylor. A charter member of this organization, Mrs. McMaken was presented with a gift from the society.

The evening was spent in playing bridge, pinochle, and Chinese checkers. Prize winners included Mrs. Robert Sedlak, Mrs. Lillian Livingston, and Mrs. Fred Sharpnack. A luncheon concluded the evening's farewell party.

Shuffle and Deal Club—
The members of the Shuffle and Deal club were entertained on Tuesday evening at the home of George Jaeger in the Coronado apartments. In the card games Dr. L. S. Pudelik and Dr. W. V. Ryan were the most successful. Mr. Jaeger served a much enjoyed lunch at an appropriate hour.

Mrs. Peter Goos Feted—
Mrs. Peter F. Goos' three daughters—Mrs. Ed N. Barker, Mrs. John A. Libershal, and Mrs. George E. Weidman—tendered her a birthday dinner Sunday, October 8 at the latter's home. The occasion was given in observance of the passing of her 82nd birthday.
