From Monday's Daily—

Here for Birthday—

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kirker and children, Eugene and Bernice of near Greenwood and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Long of Pacific Junction, were here Sunday to spend the day. The event was honoring the birthday anniversary of Mr. Kirker and Mrs. Long, mother of Mr. Kirker and Mrs. Long. Others of the family group to enjoy the birthday anniversary were Mrs. Nellie Shea and Miss Ila Kirker, also daughters of the guest of honor.

Guests at Mauzy Home—

Mr. and Mrs. James G. Mauzy and Mrs. J. H. Hallstrom had as their guests Sunday at a dinner party, Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Reed, of Denver and their son, Warren, freshman at Creighton university, Omaha. Mr. and Mrs. Reed are delighted with their new home at Denver and enjoy very much the attractive Colorado city. While here they also visited at Omaha for the Saturday holiday with their son.

Guests at Robertson Home—

The home of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Robertson, on North Sixth street, was the scene of a very charming party over the week end, relatives and old friends being here for the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Murphy and daughter, Vesta Lee and Miss Rachel Robertson, student at the University of Nebraska, were here from Lincoln. Mr. and Mrs. Gerald W. French of Muscel Shell, Montana, old school friends of Mr. and Mrs. Robertson, were also here for the day.

Ray Bryants Entertain—

Members of the Sunday evening bridge club—Mr. and Mrs. Ray Herring, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Long, Mrs. Marie Richards, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tritesch, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Beverage, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sharpnack, and the Ray Bryants—were entertained last evening at the latter's home. Unable to be present at last evening's session were Mr. and Mrs. Beverage and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sharpnack.

Two tables of bridge were played

Stop Star Boarders

In years past, farmers fed their chickens thru winter and got only enough eggs for their own use, while storage eggs commanded exorbitant prices. Things have changed, however, and the day of free board for poultry flocks is out. Laying mash has done a lot toward stabilizing egg production, and farmers who use it regularly, find themselves with almost as many eggs to sell in winter as in summer seasons.

From Tuesday's Daily—

Guest at Kieck Home—
Mrs. A. Weaver of Beatrice, Nebr., arrived Friday to spend the week with her niece, Mrs. Lora Kieck. She will spend part of the time in Omaha with relatives.

Nickles Entertain—

Miss Etta Nickles and her brother, Lee Nickles entertained at a small dinner party at their home Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Tutt of Murray. Following the dinner party the group indulged in a game of cards for the remainder of the evening.

Have Birthday Dinner—

Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Beesley and children, Joyce Ellen and Richard, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Saylor and daughter, Shiren, of Lincoln and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sedlak and children, Franklin, Betty Lou, Rosemary and Jo Ann of Sedalia, Mo., were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Max Valley. This was the first visit of baby Richard Beesley and the rest of the family, having the pleasure of meeting him. On Sunday a dinner was given in the honor of Frank Sedlak and daughter Rosemary, Janet Carol Janda, Joyce Ellen Beesley and Robert Ulstrup, whose birthdays were from the 8th to the 17th of October. Each had a lovely birthday cake with candles. The day was spent in visiting.

Reeder Twins Observe Birthday—

Janet Mary and Janice Ann, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J. Russell Reeder, observed the passing of their second birthday yesterday. Their mother entertained at a small dinner party in their honor last evening, members of the immediate family being guests. The dinner was served at 6 o'clock.

Guests of the evening included Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Williams, grandparents of the guests of honor, Mrs. Karl Schneider, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Langhorst and daughter, Ethel of Elmwood; Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Moore and daughter, Dorothy of Omaha. Evening callers at the Reeder home were Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Hiatt, who came to extend their congratulations to the little two-year-olds.

From Wednesday's Daily—

Louis Egenberger Entertains—
Members of the Shuffle & Deal card club—Dr. W. V. Ryan, George J. Jaeger, Dr. L. S. Pucelik, Herbert Schuetz, Carl Ofc, E. H. Bernhard, and Louis Egenberger—were entertained at the latter's home last evening. Herbert Schuetz and Carl Ofc were absent at last night's session and the club had two guests. Following the party the host served a banquet-luncheon.

Birthday Club Meets—

Members of the Birthday club of the city were guests recently of Mrs. John H. Palecek at her home in Omaha. The ladies motored to Omaha and were guests at a very much enjoyed 1 o'clock luncheon and served as the prelude to an afternoon of visiting and renewal of old times among the members. Those from this city to enjoy the occasion were Mrs. James Rishel, Mrs. Florence Coleman, Mrs. Raymond J. Larson, Mrs. Harry White, Mrs. Hallie Perry and Mrs. Fred Kaffenberger.

ELIZABETH KRAEGER ILL

At the Kraeger home at 715 Oak street, Miss Elizabeth Kraeger is showing improvement following her sudden and severe illness caused by constant hemorrhages. Miss Kraeger had been listening to the radio Friday evening when an attack came on her suddenly. Following that period she suffered another attack Saturday and two Monday morning. Her sister, Miss Sophie Kraeger is caring for her.

MRS. SVOBODA QUITE LOW

Relatives and friends here of Mrs. Thomas Svoboda, who has been bedfast at the Douglas County hospital for the past eight months, were informed that she is quite low at the hospital at Omaha and her illness is just a matter of time. Mrs. Svoboda suffered a severe fall in February in Omaha and, with a small tumor inflicted on her brain, has made her condition almost hopeless.

CANOPY ERECTED AT HORTON'S

Recent addition to the Horton funeral home situated at Seventh and Oak streets is the canopy, which was constructed on the east side of the home. The canopy will serve as a protection against any rainstorm, snowstorm, hail, or sleet while the coffin is being removed from the home to the hearse.

VISITS RELATIVES HERE

Miss Jessie M. Robertson, of Lincoln, was here over the week end to visit with her mother, Mrs. James M. Robertson and at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. R. P. Westover and family.
