The card only said "We are on our way to the west and are traveling through Colorado now."

The members of the Ladies' Aid of the Baptist church met last Thursday, being entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Garrison. Mesdames Clifton Garrison and Charles Garrison were the co-hostesses. The ladies enjoyed a very fine afternoon and did much good work for the church in planning for their wall and winter work.

On the trip Mrs. Cogdill was returned to her home as she had been visiting for a number of days at the home of Mrs. Jennie Frans. She makes her home with her daughter, Mrs. Perry Nickles east of Murray.

Enjoyed Fine Show.
The fire department of Union, a lively set last week gave a show filled with jokes and much mirth, known as the "Womanless Wedding" which kept the house in a fit of uproarious laughter during the entire evening. Now they had some cause to laugh outside the show, for when the name of the show was told to the reporter and writer, we understood the name was "A Woman Swearing" and so we reported it. But to and behold, we misunderstood and a joke on us. However they had a good show just the same.

Added Many Bushels to Capacity.
For some time past it has been realized by George A. Stites that he was needing more space in his elevator, for even in lean years it was a problem just how to handle the business which comes to the elevator. Some time ago he began a bit of work on the enlargement of the elevator and increasing the capacity of the plant for caring for the grain. The increase in capacity which the change has brought about is about 12,000 bushels. This has been entirely taken by the storage of government sealed corn. The addition just completed measures 18 by 24 feet and is 28 feet high which makes a very liberal amount of space extra for grain.

Well Pleased With Change.
Dr. John Gilmore, son of Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Gilmore, who departed for Victoria, B. C., where he was to serve his internship and with the incapacity of a young doctor who was an interne at Fresno, California, he had to give up his position and sought the assistance of the dean of the medical department of the University of Nebraska. A change was effected where by Dr. John Gilmore was able to go to Fresno which he liked very much better as the European war is on and Canada in the war it was not very pleasant to remain in Canada.

Played Football Last Friday.
The football team of the Union high school which is considered pretty fast at the game, played Alvo in Union last Friday with the result that when the game was over the Union boys had won 37 to 0.

Included Union People.
In a show which incorporated an airplane ride, which was at a Nebraska City theatre, was the picture of three Union young people, they being Ivan Hoback, Eugene Martin and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Crunk, showing where the plane containing these three landed. This show is attracting much interest on account of the local people.

To the Cass County Chapter American Red Cross.
The need is greater than ever before, since our own war days, for the Cass County Chapter to raise its membership to 1000 members. Nebraska is the lowest of any surrounding state, let us do our part for larger membership this year, to maintain our own local work, in life saving service, first aid, home service in our own country and for the national work of the American Red Cross, in time of peace and war. The national Red Cross has authorized 21 of the larger chapters to purchase 500,000 yards of gauze to work up into surgical dressings for war torn Europe. At all times these chapters are doing work for hospitals over the land.

The Los Angeles chapter had orders for three units, A, B, C of 3000 dressings each. The first unit was finished in one week. It has been my privilege to work as a volunteer with the L. A. chapter on these dressings. How well we remember our work over the county in World war days. Especially do we of Liberty precinct know the hours spent at the Presbyterian church as our Dr. headquarters. Though we do not expect such again, all chapters have been authorized to organize for production work if the need arises. The Cass county chapter officers, Mrs. Henry A. Tool, secretary-treasurer, Elmer Sundstrom, vice chairman, Dr. Talcott, roll director, Judge Duxbury, chairman home service, Mrs. R. E. Norris, chairman life saving and first aid, and Mrs. F. J. Knecht, chairman production will cooperate with the branches in establishing this service. But this takes funds to carry on. The Red Cross of 62 nations work together for victims of war regardless of color, race or creed.

I was interested in talking with a young woman (by the way she was from Kansas, living on highway 75) working at the Red Cross chapter here, a member of the emergency first aid. Dressed in the regular uniform of service, there is a unit here that goes out in volunteer service to football games, forest fires, any place where first aid might be useful. She has been doing this work for three years here. Took her training in Kansas and keeps it renewed in all kinds of service, life saving and first aid. I urge our boys and girls who have taken this training to be ever ready.

The roll call for Liberty precinct will be in charge of Opal Griffin and Mary Becker. To those who have so loyally supported the annual membership, I earnestly seek your renewal and trust there may be many more in Union to join this year and assist the girls in interesting others to become members. I should like to be with you.

Most sincerely yours for service in the Red Cross, and my very best wishes to you all.
C. AUGUSTA ROBB.

Spicily rich is this SURPRISE CAKE

Says Dorothy Greig
THERE are really two schools of cake eaters: Those who dote on the actual cake itself; and those who regard cake as just an excuse for a luscious filling and icing. I am not telling which one I favor. This Surprise Cake, however, makes both happy. The cake itself is dark and fragrant, spicily with cinnamon and cloves and nutmeg and sprinkled through with chopped nut meats. The icing is thick, smooth and creamy, delicately quickened with lemon.

Surprise Cake
6 tablespoons shortening
1 cup sugar
1 can condensed tomato soup
1/2 cup flour (sifted)
2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon soda
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon cloves
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
1 cup nut meats, (chopped)
Sift the flour, then measure, add baking powder, baking soda, cinnamon, cloves, and nutmeg, and sift again.
Cream the shortening thoroughly, add the sugar gradually, and cream together until light and fluffy. Add flour mixture, alternately with the tomato soup, a small amount at a time. Add nutmeats and stir until smooth. Bake in a greased pan (9 x 9 x 2 inches) in a 350° oven for 45 minutes.
Lemon Cream Cheese Icing:
1 package cream cheese
1/2 cups sugar (XXXXX)
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1/2 teaspoon salt
Cream the cheese thoroughly. Then stir in the sugar, gradually. Add the lemon juice and salt. Spread on the cake.

Harry Fisher was appointed to make out a year's program of work. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Carolyn Wenzel on Friday, November 10.

FUNERAL OF JOHN MARQUETTE

Mr. and Mrs. S. Ray Smith of Weeping Water and Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, of this city, were called to Lincoln the first of the week by the death of John Marquette, 65, and whose funeral services are being held today in that city, an uncle of the two men.

Mr. Marquette had gone to a hospital for treatment two weeks ago and had undergone an operation for hernia. He had apparently been getting along fine and he was being prepared to leave the hospital when death came. He was sitting on the side of the bed and suddenly gasped and fell over, dying almost instantly. It was a great shock to the relatives and particularly to Mrs. Marquette who was at the hospital to take her husband home when he died.

In addition to his wife, Alice Smith Marquette, he is survived by one sister, Mrs. Gertrude McAfee, both of Lincoln.

DEATH OF FORMER RESIDENT

Relatives here received a message Tuesday of the death of Mrs. Hazel Fullerton, 38, which had occurred on Monday night at the tubercular hospital at Kearney, Nebraska, where she has been since the first of the year under treatment.

Mrs. Fullerton was formerly Miss Hazel Battman of this city, where she spent her younger years and was married here to Edward Fullerton, then engaged in the barber business in this city. Some ten years ago Mr. Fullerton was stricken with tuberculosis and from which he died in a short time. He was buried at Nebraska City and since that time the family have made their home here. The health of Mrs. Fullerton commenced failing a year ago but it was not until the first of the year that her condition became such that it was necessary to have her given hospitalization.

Mrs. Fullerton was well known here and had a large circle of friends who will regret to learn of her death and share with the family the sorrow of her passing.

The deceased is survived by the son, Edward, Jr., her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Battman of Nebraska City, three sisters, Mrs. Lilly Burrows, California; Mrs. LaVaugh Nikes, St. Joseph, Missouri; Mrs. Helen Tinnemeyer, St. Louis, and a brother, Monroe Lockwood, Hastings. Funeral services will be held on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Passbender funeral home at Nebraska City. Rev. Harry Markley, of the Presbyterian church officiating.

After having gone to the expense of digging a second well that the water supply might be sufficient for the needs of the town, it has been found necessary to pump water from the old well that plenty of water may be had for all purposes. The matter of water all over the country not alone in Nehawka and territory, is a very serious proposition. No wonder people are ardently wishing for rain.

Bible School Lesson Study!

Sunday, October 22nd By L. Neitzel, Mardock, Neb.

"The Citizens of the Kingdom" Matt. 5:1-16.

In this lesson, Jesus lays down the fundamental doctrines of his kingdom. Twelve disciples or apostles were in school with the Master, and received instructions for carrying on the work of teaching all the nations, after Jesus had gone back to the Father. He clothed the deep truths to be taught, in short, trite, crisp phrases, easy to be remembered. Some of these are a paradox—the poor—mourn—hungry. Speaking of Beatitudes—the word does not occur in the Bible; but the word which it represents, "Blessed," we find 208 times. "Blessed" differs from the word "Happy." Happiness comes from without—when something happens. Blessedness is an inward fountain of joy in the soul itself. The thunders of Sinai proclaiming the Decalogue form a striking contrast to the gentle voice of the Son of Man on the Mount of Beatitudes, proclaiming the religion of love. Blessedness consists in a right relation to God, and can be enjoyed even by those who are unhappy. This is also a paradox, which the world cannot understand. Jesus opened the blessed life to all.

The opening paragraph is very significant. "And he (Jesus) opened his mouth, and taught them." How often do preachers talk in a whisper at the beginning of their discourses, until they get "warmed up" and the people have no "beginning." The Lord did not want the apostles to lose one word. Teachers should do the same. The eight Beatitudes do not describe eight classes of people, but eight different elements of excellence which may all be combined in one individual. The sermon treats of the character and conduct of the members of the Messiah's kingdom.

"Blessed are the poor in spirit," who realize their deficiency in Godly qualities, they are aware of their condition and seek relief. Such seekers are not far from the kingdom—we may say it is theirs. Who comes to Jesus as a seeker, he will in no wise cast out. The mourner shall be comforted; Godly sorrow leads to repentance; who never felt a real sorrow for a mis-spent life and the grief he causes God, has not received the comfort of God's forgiveness. Weakness is a quality of character like humble, lonely, submissive, of gentle long-suffering disposition—they have the whole world to enjoy, they see God in it, they find a field of service, and the means of growing character. "But in the future, the kingdom of heaven will be a kingdom of the earth, and the meek accessible until the snows come, driving the deer to the lowlands. This deer which Mr. Hayes was able to bag, had to be dragged three miles down the mountainside as there was no way of getting a conveyance up to where the deer was killed. Mrs. Troop who visited there last summer says that this is a wonderful scenic place.

Making More Changes in Store.

Some time ago in the grocery department of the Sheldon department store there was inaugurated a change in the system of conducting the business which required the customers to serve themselves and then pay the bills at the counter. This has proven very satisfactory and now the dry goods department has adopted the same plan.

saints shall reign with the king, who is meek and lowly of heart."—Alexander Maclaren. The hungry and thirsty after righteousness, shall be filled. Hunger and thirst is a longing, craving—not a possession—that is called blessed. "It is the hungry soul that God fills with goodness, and it is the mouth that is opened wide for spiritual blessings that he has promised to make full."—Alfred Plummer.

The merciful shall obtain mercy. Mercy is more than meekness. That implied opposition and was largely negative. This does not regard the conduct of others at all, and is really love in exercise to the needy, especially the unworthy. Man can expect only mercy as he shows mercy to others. (See the story, Matt. 18:23-35). Blessed are the pure in heart, etc. This is the kernel or center of all Beatitudes. David gives us additional light. (Ps. 24:3-5). They not only see God in nature, the creation, they see God in his children, but the time comes when they shall stand in his presence. (See Job 19: 25, 26; Ps. 17:15; I Cor. 13:12; II Cor. 3:18; 4:6). Peacemakers become sons of God. They are like their Lord, who is our Peace, who is the Prince of peace, who reconciled the world to God, this peace he left with man; all may have it for the asking—it is the gift of God. Peace follows war. So in the individual—sweet peace the gift of God's love. The effect of Christian character upon the world. Salt and Light. The influence of the Christian acts as salt, in preserving and keeping from decay.

Take the Christians out of the world, and you will have Hell in all its destructive forces let loose. Take the church out of a community and it is going to its doom. The Christians are the Light to the world; a reflected light from Christ, who is the Light. What a responsibility rests upon the apostles and their successors. We repeat here the saying alleged to be Christ's and a saint: "Who will carry on the work when you leave?" My disciples, "But if they should fail thee?" "I have no other way."

A church which tolerates a corrupt ministry, or laxity of life among its members is not bearing witness to the world. Is the slow progress of the church to be laid at the door of the church? Is she keeping her lamp trimmed and full of oil? Is her light shining and upon the dark waters of unbelief and materialism? Awake, awake, put on thy strength, O Zion; put on thy beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the holy city!
