

UNION ITEMS.

James Roddy has been quite poorly on account of an abscess in his side.

Mrs. D. Ray Frans was ill several days last week, but is improving, and able to be up and about.

Corra Carper of Denver arrived in Union last week and will visit for the winter with her sister, Mrs. Henry Ruhman.

Mr. and Mrs. John Chase and two daughters of South Omaha were Sunday guests at the home of Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor.

Phillip F. Rihn was taken sick last Sunday and was kept in his bed during the day as well as the greater part of Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Reynolds were in Omaha Friday of last week, where they attended the concert given by Jessica Dragonette.

Helen, Mary and Doris Merideth have had their tonsils removed during the past week. All are getting along very nicely.

Don Wolfe has been taken to the Orthopedic hospital in Lincoln for a clinical check-up of his condition, as he has not been well for some time.

Leo Roddy has been feeling quite poorly the last few months and has not been able to pick his corn, having to hire help to get the work done.

Victor Clarence installed a reading light at the home of Mrs. Fannie Eikenberry, which is so arranged that she can lie in bed and read with ease.

Mrs. A. L. Becker, Mrs. Otto Ehlers and daughter Evelyn and Mary Decker attended a show at the Overland theatre at Nebraska City last Saturday night.

Reuben D. Stine and son George were in Weeping Water on business Saturday, where Mr. Stine concluded some arrangements connected with his wheat allotment.

A. G. Cisney, who lives northwest of Nehawka, was looking after business matters in Union last Monday, calling on his friend, Gilbert Edmunds, the garageman.

Earl Upton had a very sick horse. The animal was in such shape that it could not get up and had to be moved with a block and tackle in order to treat it effectively.

Donald Hoback, who is now enrolled in the U. S. navy, has completed his inoculations and vaccinations and now able to take up his regular work as a naval trainee.

Frank and Anna Bauer were among the guests at the Bell home last Sunday. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bauer and John Chase and wife, Mary and Nidra Chase.

Mr. and Mrs. Moss G. McCarroll were in Omaha on last Wednesday, where they visited for the day and enjoyed a very fine dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Henderson.

Rev. Stephens of South Omaha was in Union Sunday and conducted services at the Baptist church. He was greeted by a large congregation who appreciated very much the fine discourse he gave.

Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Gilmore of Murray were guests Monday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Ray Frans at Union, while the doctor was calling on some friends down that way.

Charles Land has completed the gathering of his corn and reports a yield of about 27 bushels to the acre. He has been farming on the place formerly owned by E. E. Leach during the past two years.

Mrs. Minnie (Grandmother) Anderson was taken very ill last week and was taken to the home of her son, Frank L. Anderson, where she is receiving treatment. All hope she may enjoy a speedy recovery.

Hugh Warden was looking after business in Weeping Water, Murray and Plattsmouth last Saturday. He has been suffering from rheumatism for some time and it is quite difficult for him to get around a great deal.

Glen Todd, a farmer living near Murray, was transacting business at the Union elevator with Manager George A. Stites last Monday afternoon. He was able to meet a number of old friends during his brief stay here.

Mrs. W. L. Taylor, better known to many as "Aunt Vina," and her son, Garrett Taylor, of Omaha, were guests of relatives and friends in Union, visiting at the homes of A. L. Becker, Joe Banning and W. H. Porter during their stay.

Frank Schlegel of Lincoln, brother-in-law of Edward Midkiff, has been a guest the greater part of the last week at the Midkiff home here. He formerly resided near Union and was married to a sister of Mr. Midkiff, who passed away about a year ago.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Martin, who were here when the town of Union was first organized, but who have

A crew of telephone linemen out of Lincoln has been here doing some work on the lines and switchboard, something in the nature of a check-up to get the lines and equipment in the best of condition to withstand the coming winter with its storm and sleet.

Mrs. E. B. Chapman, who was injured when she fell, striking a beam, has been taken to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Willis, where it is hoped her recovery will be more speedy. She is suffering from a chest bruise as a result of striking a timber in her fall.

Rev. McLaughney and wife attended the Otoe county Bible school convention at Unadilla last Tuesday. Rev. McLaughney is pastor of the Wyoming church (which is in Otoe county) as well as the one here, and so is much interested in the doings in that county.

Mrs. W. N. Barritt was in Omaha last Friday night, where she visited her sister, Mrs. Bryan. The latter is still feeling poorly following the injury she sustained about a year ago, when she slipped on a rug and fractured her hip. Mrs. Bryan is desirous of coming to Union for a visit, but the doctor forbids.

Charles Land has taken advantage of the good weather and has his corn crop all harvested and in the crib. While the yield has not been good enough to brag about, he is satisfied with the results of his summer's work as compared with points farther west where the crop was a complete failure again this year.

Miss Pearl Banning accompanied her nephew, Hallas Banning, on his return to Lincoln to resume his work after a vacation visit, and remained there a few days until met by her brother, John Banning and wife, whom she accompanied to their home at Alvo and remained there until Sunday when other members of the family gathered at the John Banning home for a reunion dinner.

Henry Becker who hunted with much success at Hartington on the opening day of the pheasant season, accompanied by Otto Ehlers, Donald Becker and Elmer Withrow, returned to that vicinity again last Saturday night and hunted there Sunday. They found plenty of birds, but a great deal wilder than the week before, as well they might be, with the droves of Omaha hunters who spread out over the territory bent on killing them. They were able to do very well, however, and arrived home at midnight Sunday night.

Attended Star Meeting
Mesdames Minnie Rihn, Mary H. Becker, M. M. Barritt, Eva Becker, Minnie Banning and Elsie Porter made up a merry party that attended the O. E. S. meeting at Plattsmouth Tuesday evening of this week.

Treatment in Denver Hospital
Herbert Roddy, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Roddy, living east of Union, who has been in poor health at his home in Denver for some time, entered a Denver hospital last Friday and on Tuesday of this week underwent an operation for strangulated hernia. Nothing has been heard about his condition since the operation.

Baptist Church Redecorated
The Baptist church building is being repainted and redecorated, inside and out. The work is being done by John Frans and M. G. Churchill, who will be at it for some little time before they complete their contract.

Too Close to Buzz Saw
Tuggles Withrow got one of his fingers too close to the buzz saw that was being used to cut stovewood and before he could remove it from the danger zone a slice had been removed. It was fortunate the loss was not greater.

Had to Meet Elsewhere
As the Baptist church is being repainted and redecorated, the regular meeting of the Ladies Aid was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Becker on Tuesday of this week. Besides discussing their winter's work program, the ladies put on a quilt and worked like Trojans getting it tied.

Enjoyed Family Dinner
A number of relatives were gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Banning at Alvo Sunday, for a sumptuous dinner and reunion. Those present included Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Banning, Miss Pearl Banning and Joe Banning, wife and son of this vicinity and Mrs. Carl Peters of near Nebraska City. Mr. Peters was called upon to serve as pallbearer at the funeral of a neighbor and was unable to attend.

Lived Here Over 50 Years Ago
Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Martin, who were here when the town of Union was first organized, but who have been away for the past 53 years, enjoyed a visit here last week as guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Madsen. Mrs. Martin was formerly Mary Cacy and visited their old home now occupied by Frank Boggs, a house which was built by them and is now owned by Joe Dare.

At U. S. Veterans' Hospital
Charles Atteberry took Jay Austin to Lincoln Monday, where he entered the U. S. Veterans' hospital for treatment and a possible operation. Jay is a world war veteran and member of the American Legion. He has been in poor health for some time.

Without Even a Ripple
Last Thursday, October 26, marked the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Morris, both of whom passed the day in their usual manner without even giving a thought to the day and its significance until it was past. We join their friends in extending congratulations.

Will Hold Annual Supper
The ladies of the Union Methodist church are making preparations for the giving of a pre-Armistice day supper, which they have arranged to have on November 9th, where they will serve their annual supper and get-together. Everybody invited.

Home from the West
John Fitzpatrick and wife, who left here almost a month ago, on October 8, arrived home Friday night about midnight, from a trip that took them over 5,000 miles of highway and provided them with many interesting sights. From here they went to Denver, thence to Phoenix, Arizona, and on to Los Angeles and Long Beach, where they spent some time as well as making a trip to Catalina Island. Then they went up to San Francisco and took in the World's Fair.

Returning home they came the southern route through New Mexico and Texas. Their last overnight stop was at Amarillo, Texas, which is 800 miles south of Union. Up early Friday morning and on the road by break of day, they made it into Union that same night, well tired out and glad to get home.

Otto J. Schacht Obituary
Word has come from Texas of the death of Otto J. Schacht, at his home at Lockney on Saturday, October 14, at the age of 81 years. He died from a heart attack which came upon him as he was doing his chores.

Mr. Schacht came to the United States in the spring of 1883 and settled near Nehawka, where he was united in marriage to Margaret M. Schomaker on February 19, 1890. In the spring of 1914 Mr. Schacht purchased one of the first irrigated farms in Floyd county, Texas, and moved the family there in the fall of that same year. They have made their home there since then.

Surviving him are his wife and the following children: C. H. John, Henry and Anna Schacht of Lockney, Kansas. The latter and his wife were visiting at the parents' home at the time of his father's death. He also leaves one grandson, Henry Neal Schacht.

The deceased was baptised as an infant and became a member of the Evangelical Lutheran church at the age of fifteen. He was born in Eutin, Holstein Province, Germany, Sept. 11, 1858. The pallbearers were H. Boutke, K. W. Stephan of Plainview, Texas; J. M. Pinkerton, of Kismet, Kansas; W. D. Colson, Buck Sanis and Ray Bowman, all of Lockney.

The honorary pall bearers were W. W. Cooper, J. R. Bowman, J. J. Harris, W. E. Taack, John Hodel, George Dunneim, Chas. Zimmermann, Fritz Langfeldt, Albert Bertelson and Edwin Kokel.

Those who attended the funeral from Nebraska were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schomaker and son Harold, of Union; Mr. and Mrs. George Schomaker, of Weeping Water, and Edwin Schomaker of Nehawka. The deceased was an uncle of these folks.

Out of town friends who came to be with the Schacht family during their bereavement were Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Pinkerton, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Warden and Gary and Mrs. J. R. Morris, all of Liberal, Kansas.

Interment was in the Lockney cemetery. Rev. C. A. Gaertner, pastor of St. Paul Lutheran church, officiated at the services.

The Schomaker families returned to their homes in Cass county Friday, October 20.

The golden gates were opened wide a gentle voice said "Come". An angel from the other side welcomed our loved one home.

Rubber Stamps, prompt delivery, lowest prices. All sizes at the Journal office.

EAGLE NEWS ITEMS

Mrs. Linnie Deles Denier visited Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Horn last week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Latrom of Lincoln visited relatives in Eagle last Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Deason of Lincoln visited Mr. and Mrs. William Hudson last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Trimble and Miss Merna Stradley spent Sunday in Palmyra with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Miller and daughter Sylvia spent the week end in Brock with relatives.

The Trinity Lutheran Aid society held a very successful bazaar at the fire house last Saturday.

Mrs. Floyd Dysart visited her mother, Mrs. Cline, near Murray, the first part of last week.

Mrs. Arthur Thomson and sons of Palmyra spent Thursday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Wall.

Mrs. Milford Axe and children of Lincoln visited with Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Piersol from Thursday until Sunday.

Mrs. Etta Trunkenholz came from Lincoln last Friday evening and spent Saturday with relatives and friends here.

Mrs. Sarah Keil and Dorothea were entertained at dinner last Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Nelson.

The E. H. May family moved from the telephone building into the Methodist parsonage on Friday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Kaatz of Lincoln called at the home of Mrs. S. E. Allen on Wednesday afternoon of last week.

The members of the Epworth League enjoyed a Halloween party at the basement of the Methodist church last Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Mick of Lincoln were entertained at a pheasant dinner last Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Wright.

Mrs. Jim Simmons of Lincoln and grandson, Jules Busker, of Sioux City, Iowa, visited Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Adams on Wednesday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stoner and son of Leavenworth, Kansas, have spent the past week with Mrs. Stoner's mother, Mrs. Enline Umland and other relatives.

Mrs. Houston Weldon of Rockport, Missouri, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Price and family and grandmother, Mrs. Snyder several days last week.

Mrs. Slosson's Sunday school class enjoyed a Halloween party last Monday evening in the parlors of the Methodist church. The decorations were in keeping with the season.

Miss Edith Robertson, who is teaching at Orleans, attended the teachers' convention in Lincoln and spent the remainder of the week end with her mother, Mrs. Myrtle Robertson and family.

Mrs. Lydia Williams was brought home from the St. Elizabeth hospital in Lincoln last Sunday, where she has been receiving special care for the past several weeks. Her condition is slightly improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Burton moved their household goods from Palmyra to Eagle on Saturday. They will live in the telephone building and Mr. Burton will serve the Eagle Telephone company as manager.

Miss Rachel Gonzales, Miss Phyllis Rudolph, Alvin Wevers and Ormond May, all of whom attend school at Peru, spent a very enjoyable vacation last week with home folks. They returned to Peru last Sunday afternoon.

District Meeting of Red Cross
A district meeting of the American Red Cross was held at Beatrice on October 23rd. There are fourteen counties in this district and Cass county had the largest delegation there.

Mrs. Bert Lytle was the Eagle representative and reports a very interesting meeting.

Mr. Munson, one of the speakers on the program, told a personal experience of how he had overcome a great handicap—the loss of an arm and a leg as a result of a boyhood accident—by being determined to grow up to be a worth-while citizen. Although he could not qualify, he offered his services to his country during the World war. Later he was called by the American Red Cross to cheer the unfortunate victims of the war. This was just another phase of the work this organization has done and the speakers paid the Red Cross a great tribute.

Mrs. Lytle wishes every one might have had the opportunity to have heard Mr. Munson's speech. Each one may help the Red Cross to be ready to meet all emergencies by becoming a member.

Phone Printing orders to No. 6

Murray

Mr. and Mrs. Elton Duerr attended the show at the Cass theatre in Plattsmouth Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. William Spangler of Weeping Water were guests of the C. D. Spangler family Sunday.

William Sporer was looking after business matters at Weeping Water, Elmwood and Avoca Tuesday.

Mrs. L. A. Tyson, of Elmwood, is a guest at the home of her son, Dr. R. W. Tyson and family here.

Mrs. Margaret Brendel and Mrs. William Seybolt were doing some shopping in Plattsmouth Monday.

The old wood stove that served the post office for a number of years has been replaced with a new oil heater.

Sam Brooks of Plattsmouth is assisting with the picking of corn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Troop.

Mrs. O. A. Davis was shopping and visiting in Omaha Friday of last week, as was also her sister, Mrs. Addie Perry.

Mrs. Harry McCulloch was in Omaha over Sunday, where she was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Custer Allen.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Christian church met Wednesday afternoon with a large attendance and an interesting letter.

Lucaer Carper and family visited in Nehawka last Sunday, guests at the home of Mr. Carper's mother, Mrs. Gertrude Carper.

Miss Rachel Boardman, student at Nebraska City high school, is ill of pneumonia at the farm home of her parents south of Union.

Mr. and Mrs. George Troop and daughters Annette and Mary were guests last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Troop.

Mrs. Evelyn Morris was substituting Monday and Tuesday for Miss Dvorak who was called home by the death of her grandmother.

John Frans and M. G. Churchill have been busy repainting the Baptist church at Union, inside and out. They will be busy some time before completing the contract.

J. D. Lewis visited at the home of his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Merritt last Monday. All attended a picture show at Plattsmouth during the evening.

Lester Shrader is having another well sunk on the farm, as the present one has not been meeting the requirements of late. Marlon Hobson and Al Jones are doing the work.

Rev. H. B. Hutchman arrived in Murray last week where he and Mrs. Hutchman are making their home for the present. Mrs. Hutchman having been living here for the past few weeks.

Sterling Ingwerson, who lives west of Plattsmouth, was a brief business visitor in Murray Monday forenoon, going from here to Nehawka, where he also had business matters to look after.

Lloyd Lewis, Fred Campbell and Dee Hostetter went to Wausa Saturday night, where they hunted pheasants Sunday. They were able to get their limit by noon, but did not arrive home until late that night.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Spangler were among the thousands of spectators at the state corn husking contest near Fremont Tuesday and report a very lively and exciting contest in which the young man from Washington county was the winner.

Clarke Churchill, who is a student in the Murray schools, spent his three day vacation last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wetenkamp, where he assisted with the work of picking corn. He returned to school again Monday morning.

M. G. Churchill and Harrison L. Gayer went to Tekamah last Sunday to do some hunting. They had been able to bag their limit of pheasants on a former trip up there, but this time found the birds scarce and only got one.

The young folks returned to school Monday morning full of pep after their short vacation last week when the teachers were in attendance at the convention in Omaha. The pupils are hard at work on their play, which was given Friday evening.

Victor Wehrlein and William Gorder hunted pheasants out state last week and on their return home with a goodly supply of the birds, a very appetizing pheasant dinner was arranged, with a number of friends as guests. Tommy Troop was up from his country home to enjoy the feast.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Davis and little daughter of Plattsmouth were visiting with Grandmother Catherine Perry Sunday afternoon as were Rev. and Mrs. Lawson of the Plattsmouth M. E. church, a few days previously. Mrs. W. A. Cook of Elmwood was also visiting her mother Sunday evening.

All of these calls were greatly appreciated.

Frank Smith and wife, of Ong, who came to stay with W. S. Smith during the winter and assist in the store, took their sister, Mrs. Mary Johnson, who had been here for some time keeping house for Mr. Smith, to her home at Ong last week. On their return, Mrs. Frank Smith has taken over the housekeeping duties, and they will also help with the work at the store.

Found Way to Spare Tree
A large maple tree in front of the old Tommy Fulton place on highway number one, along the route of the new rural electrification line and the first thought of the workmen was to chop it down, but Troy L. Davis, who owns the place, asked that it not be molested until W. O. Troop was consulted, as his mother, the late Mrs. William Troop had planted the tree there more than 55 years ago and although it had a hard time getting started, it finally began to grow and matured into a large and beautiful tree.

In response to the request, a way was found to get the wires through the branches with a minimum of trimming and so the old tree still stands.

Entertained Guests Sunday
Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Brubacher entertained relatives of Mrs. Brubacher at their home here last Sunday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Lash of Auburn, parents of Mrs. Brubacher, and Prof. and Mrs. Leo Hauptman and child of Lincoln. Mesdames Hauptman and Brubacher are sisters. A most enjoyable day was spent.

Business Trip to Denver
W. G. Boedeker, president of the Murray State Bank, went to Litchfield last Saturday, where he joined Charles Givin and they went on to Denver, where they expected to buy some range cattle to be placed in the feed lots of both gentlemen.

Work Progressing Nicely
Good progress is being made with the construction of the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Boedeker. The structure is up and boxed on the outside and the roof is on, putting it in shape so that if the weather should become bad, the work can proceed on the interior. It is the intention to have the new home completed and ready for occupancy by the middle of December, as the Boedekers are planning on spending Christmas in their new home.

Guests of Relatives Here
John Lloyd and wife of Council Bluffs, accompanied by Mrs. Elizabeth Curran, of Cole Valley, Illinois, arrived in Murray this week and have been visiting relatives and friends here for a few days. They are staying at the home of Mrs. Cassie Lloyd, mother of John, while here. They also visited in Plattsmouth at the C. R. Troop and W. O. Troop homes, and in the country at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Anderson Lloyd.

Know Your Neighbors Club
Members of the "Know Your Neighbors" club met last Friday at the home of one of the neighbors, Mrs. Minnie Troop, where they were entertained in most delightful manner. Social hour was featured with a tea. Flowers and gardens were the principal matters discussed.

Hunted at Fairfield
After closing time at the barber shop Saturday night, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Merritt started out on a pheasant hunting trip. They had intended to go to Brewster, where an aunt of Mrs. Merritt, Mrs. E. H. Riggs, resides, but on arrival at Lincoln concluded the distance would be too great and headed for Fairfield, where an uncle of Mrs. Merritt, Frank Lewis, lives. They arrived at Fairfield in the small hours of the morning while it was still dark, and had some difficulty locating the Lewis home. Earl enjoyed some very successful hunting there and they returned home in the afternoon, feeling that was better than being on the road the greater part of two nights, as would have been the case had they gone to Brewster.

Will Give Program.
The pupils of Murray high school are preparing a program to be given Friday evening, November 3rd. One of the interesting parts of the program will be a Question and Answer, based upon the idea of so many popular radio programs of today.

Dockage facilities make Plattsmouth an ideal factory site. Welcome and a splendid opportunity to expand should be an inducement to those contemplating a change in location from the more thickly populated centers and flood areas of the east.

Nehawka

Sterling Ingwerson of near Plattsmouth was visiting friends here and looking after business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbie Kuntz were business callers at Nebraska City for a short time Monday.

Mrs. W. H. Kruger, who has been home from the hospital for a couple of weeks, is getting along very well and is able to be up and around some of the time.

Miss Lotus Thorpe of Los Angeles has been visiting relatives here, among them her grandmother, Mrs. Chambers and her great-grandmother, Mrs. Elizabeth Gregg, also other members of the Gregg family.

Quinton Palmer and wife, who make their home in Lincoln, were home for the day last Sunday, and were joined by Miss Ruth Palmer, who is the teacher in the schools at Talmage, and rejoiced the parents with their presence.

Henry A. Schwartz and George Lopp are hustling after water in a new well which they are sinking at the farm home of Henry Sturm, as the old one has been showing signs of not providing sufficient water for the use on the farm.

Henry Stoll was shelling and delivering his last year's corn crop to the Nehawka elevator, which was being cared for by J. M. Palmer who was looking after the business in the absence of J. J. Pollard, who conducts the elevator regularly.

Daniel Anderson and family enjoyed a visit last Sunday at the home of the father of Mrs. Anderson, Ernest Ahrends. The Andersons will make their home on this farm during the coming summer, farming the place and keeping house for Uncle Ernest.

Says Pays to Raise the Best
Melvin Sturm, who has been doing some experimenting with the different types of seed corn, particularly as between the open pollinated and hybrid varieties. As he is now concluding the work of picking his crop, after careful check he has come to the conclusion it pays to use a good grade of hybrid seed. His yield from the open pollinated field has been in the neighborhood of 30 bushels to the acre, while the hybrids have run around 50 bushels to the acre and stood up better.

Most Enjoyable Pheasant Feed
Granville Heebner, Don Philpot and Fred Hansen recently brought back a number of fine pheasant from a hunting trip out state, and these were the source of a pheasant supper last Saturday evening at the Philpot home in Weeping Water. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Philpot as host and hostess, those present were Granville Heebner and wife, Fred Kehne and wife, Dale Philpot, E. L. McCarty, and Miss Agatha Colbert as the guests. They all were loud in their acclaim of the excellent time and the very fine supper which was served.

Dog with Bequest is Gone
The noted dog with a $15,000 bequest from its deceased owner for its care, which was here for a time, has been taken to Palmyra, Mo., by those having charge of it.

Employing Many Men
The Tobin Quarries are keeping a large number of men busy even at this late season in the year when ordinarily most work of this nature is shut down. They have a large demand for stone and have some 75 men on their payroll at present, getting out stone, to say nothing of those engaged in hauling the stone to its destination and those engaged in working with it at the other end of the haul. The work is furnishing a nice payroll for local workmen that is finding its way into the cash registers of the stores and proving a general stimulant to business.

Subscribe for the Journal.

BUY A HOME

Five room Partly Modern House in Good Condition

$1,200

Pay down $120—balance at $10 per month, just like rent.

Have Other Houses—Let Me Show You!

PHONE #9

SEARL'S DAVIS