

Greenwood

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Peters were visiting in Omaha last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Skinner of Alvo visited Sunday at the Robert Burks home.

Miss Esther Hansen of Omaha visited Mrs. Louise Hansen on Saturday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Koehler of Lincoln visited at the Glenn Peters home on Thursday evening.

Little Joan, Janice and Dale Peters spent Saturday afternoon and evening with Mrs. Elton Keller.

Guild was entertained by Mrs. Dr. Talcott and Grace McGille at the M. E. church on Tuesday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Tilton Keller and children were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Keller of Alvo.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Casey attended a Hallowe'en party at the Nichols home in Waverly Monday evening.

Lois Cope, who is working in Lincoln, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Cope, over the week end.

Ludd Gustavson was taken to a Lincoln hospital last week. He is suffering from ulcers of the stomach.

Mrs. Mary Hughes and Beverly of Springfield visited from Friday until Saturday morning with Mrs. Joe Kyles.

Miss Elva Coleman was taken suddenly ill at her home Monday morning and was taken to a Lincoln hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stradley drove to Hampton, Neb., Friday to visit Mrs. Stradley's mother, Mrs. Rose Curtis.

Arthur Stewart passed away at his home in Oregon. The body is being shipped back to Greenwood for burial.

The Dorcas Society met Friday, October 27, at the Christian church. Hostesses were Mrs. Elsie Kelly and Mrs. Lunciford.

Margaret Greer returned to her home last week from a trip to Ireland. She had been gone all summer visiting relatives.

The funeral of Mrs. George McNurlin was held Tuesday at the M. E. church. Her home was at Broadwater, but she formerly resided in Greenwood. Burial was in the local cemetery.

The American Legion Auxiliary met at the hall October 18 for their regular meeting. After the business meeting a delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Mabel Petersen and Mrs. Emily Collins. On October 25, ten of the ladies met and cleaned the Legion hall.

Leo Peters was surprised with a birthday party at his home Monday evening. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Bronkow, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Grey, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kyles and Mr. and Mrs. James Strahn and children. The evening was spent playing pinocle.

The community was shocked to learn of the death of Phil Hall at the Veterans' hospital in Lincoln last Thursday night, although it was known that his condition had been serious for some time. A more detailed account of his life is found elsewhere in your Semi-Weekly Journal today.

Cass county has no bonded indebtedness, as, like the state, we have paid cash for our hard surfaced roads and other improvements as we went.

PHONE 16

FOR RELIABLE INFORMATION ABOUT ANY INSURANCE MATTER

INSURE FOR SAFETY

WITH

INSURANCE AND BONDS
DUXBURY & DAVIS
PHONE 16
PLATTSMOUTH

MURDOCK ITEMS

John Gakemeier and Paul Stock hunted pheasants at Wakefield last week and were able to get their limit of these birds.

Fred Wilken started installing the furnace and plumbing in the Evangelical parsonage. L. Neitzel has the contract for the job.

Charles Nelson of Elmwood was in Murdock last Wednesday, consulting with W. T. Weddell, manager of the lumber yard.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman R. Schmidt were guests last Sunday at the country home of their daughter, Mrs. Gust Straich and family.

Mrs. A. J. Tool was a guest for several days during the past week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Work, in Omaha.

Miss Fern Buck, student in an Omaha beauty college, visited over the week end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Buck.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Brockmueller, of near Waverly, were Sunday visitors in Murdock, guests at the home of Mr. Brockmueller's sister, Mrs. J. H. Buck.

The Johnson Cafe has been given a bit of improvement by the placing of some new floor covering and addition of new furniture, as well as by the use of paint.

The Royal Neighbors of America met at the hall last Tuesday evening, where a nice program had been arranged and all enjoyed their annual Hallowe'en party.

Sheriff Joe Mrasek was a visitor in Murdock last Tuesday, having some business of a legal nature to transact, and while here was also visiting with some of his friends.

Henry E. Carson, manager of the Murdock elevator, has been on the sick list and unable to look after the business, which is being cared for during his absence by Otto Miller.

Rev. Harvey A. Schwab, pastor of the Murdock church, was at Holstein, Neb., during the past week, assisting with the conduct of a revival meeting being carried on by the Evangelical church at that place.

An operetta was given last week at the Murdock high school after a number of weeks' rehearsal. Credit is due the pupils for their fine work. The revenue derived will be used for the purchase of equipment needed in the school.

Mrs. Martin Bohlsen and children of Omaha visited with the parents of Mrs. Bohlsen, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kupke, last week, returning to their home Sunday. Paul Kupke, a brother, took them home, and enjoyed a visit with the Bohlsen family.

W. O. Schewe had business matters to transact in Plattsmouth Wednesday of last week and while there paid his taxes, getting them out of the way for another year. The following day he made a trip to Lincoln on business, driving in both cases.

Mrs. Henry A. Tool accompanied by Mrs. Joseph A. Knecht of South Bend were in Weeping Water Wednesday afternoon of last week, looking after business matters pertaining to the American Red Cross roll call, which is slated to open Armistice day.

Homer H. Lawton, who recently moved to Lincoln to engage in the painting and decorating business, was a visitor in Murdock last Monday and enjoyed meeting many of his old friends here. Mr. Lawton says employment is plentiful in this line in Lincoln just now.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Zabel and Clarence Emmens were in Lincoln last Sunday, where they went to visit Uncle Robert Emmens, who has been in the hospital there for some time, but was recently allowed to return to his home in the capital city, being considerably improved.

L. Neitzel had a day off from his routine of teaching and preaching, spending last Sunday with his daughter, Mrs. Meta MacDiarmid, in Omaha, where he attended the first M. E. church and enjoyed the sermon by Dr. A. A. Brooks on "Making the Best Out of Life." The service and visit were greatly enjoyed, it being a perfect day.

Chester Elsemann, a member of the Murdock volunteer fire department has been drawn for jury duty, but expects to stand on his rights that include freedom from paying poll tax and jury service, so that he may be in position to complete the numerous bits of work which he has contracted about town. He is a painter and paper hanger and business in that line is good just now.

Young People Give Program
The Young People of the Murdock Evangelical church were giving a program and service at the church for the home and foreign missionary society, with an entertainment to secure funds for their missionary projects. They also put on a play called "Lydia." This play was laid in Macedonia, Lydia being the first Christian convert in Europe, at the time St. Paul first made his visit at Phillippi, in Macedonia.

Makes Pleasant Trip
W. O. Gillespie was visiting at Tobias with the Dr. Blattspeiler family for a day or so and from there went to Harvard to visit at the McNamara home and on to North Loup to visit at the home of his son Harry Gillespie and wife before returning home.

Ladies Entertain Altar Society
Mesdames Una McHugh and Formanack were hostesses last Wednesday at a meeting of the Altar Society of the Catholic church of Elmwood, and very pleasantly entertained the ladies during the afternoon, providing a nice luncheon at the close of the afternoon's gathering.

Visited Relatives Here
Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Westbrick of Newton, Iowa, arrived in Murdock early last week and were visiting here for a number of days, being guests at the homes of Henry A. Tool, Hannah McDonald and son Bryan and wife and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Besack. Mrs. Westbrick is a cousin of Mesdames Tool, McDonald and Besack.

Suffers Knee Injury
Edward Ganaway, the shoe repairman, has been having some trouble with one of his knees, which was injured recently, and fears are entertained that he will have to go to a hospital for treatment of the injured member.

AVOCA NEWS

Mrs. Edwin Terrell is improving from the injuries to her back sustained in a recent fall.

William Sporer of Murray was a guest of his friend, Dr. J. W. Brendel Tuesday afternoon.

Albert L. Cooper, wife and children of Omaha were guests Sunday at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Brendel.

Earl Freeman, wife and small son were at Nebraska City last Tuesday, transacting business and visiting friends.

Avoca teachers all attended the state teachers' meeting last week, but were back ready for the re-opening of school Monday.

Wm. Grauf, Robert Herman, Edward Nelson and Harry Herman hunted pheasants near Alliance last Sunday, bagging the limit.

Fred Marquardt had a number of truck loads of hogs on the Nebraska City market last week, receiving a very satisfactory price for them.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dehning of Weeping Water were guests at the home of Mrs. Dehning's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Corbin, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dean and children of Elmwood were visiting in Avoca last Sunday and with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Corbin were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Terrell.

Dr. J. W. Brendel and Gust Ruhge were on the market with a consignment of hogs, which they had fed for some time. The hogs were trucked to market by Marius Nelson and the Smith Transfer company.

Edward Freeman, of Weeping Water, recently returned from the hospital, where he underwent an operation, was able to come here one day last week to visit his son, Earl Freeman and family.

The Womans club of Avoca met with Miss Anna Marie Salling last Monday evening, when an interesting program and social hour was enjoyed. They also arranged to pay an early group visit to Memorial hall in Lincoln.

Last Tuesday Claude Hollenberger drove the auto of Postmaster W. H. Bogaard to Shenandoah and brought the granddaughters of Mr. Bogaard to Avoca for a visit. The following Sunday Mr. and Mrs. A. Z. Thomas came to Avoca to take the young ladies back home with them so they could resume school Monday morning after a brief vacation.

Edward Morley, who has been in the west for some three weeks, arrived home one day last week. He called on his brother, Wm. Morley at Los Angeles and also attended the World's fair at San Francisco.

Stuart Maseman and his friend, Robert Glen, arrived from Bertrand last week and were guests for a few days at the home of Stuart's parents, John Maseman, who is employed in Lincoln, was also over and visited with the parents over Sunday. The Henry Maseman family and guests were dinner guests Sunday at the home of Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Kokjer.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Corbin, of Bowling Green, Ohio, niece and nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Corbin, were visiting for a few days in Avoca, guests of their uncle and aunt. They had driven from their home in east, enjoying the trip and the opportunity of visiting with the relatives here.

Word was received of the death of a former Avoca citizen and business man, Ernest Nutzman, who will be recalled as manager of the lumber yard here years ago. He died at his late home in Shelly, Idaho, at the age of 63 years. Mr. Nutzman and family have been in the west for many years. Funeral services and burial took place there.

MANLEY NEWS

Misses Catherine Reinke and Honora Malone and Mr. Bob Malone of Falmyra attended the supper in the hall Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. James Carper of Lincoln and Mrs. John Carper of Denver visited at the John Carper home one day last week.

Mrs. Edward Murphy, son Wayne and Mr. and Mrs. James Carper of Lincoln were in Manley Sunday evening attending the dinner given by the ladies of St. Patrick's church.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Riestler, Mrs. Kenneth Roeber, Mrs. Walter Mockenhaupt and Miss Irene Riestler drove to Omaha Thursday, where Miss Irene attended the Teachers' convention.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rohrdanz were guests for the day and a very fine dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. August Krecklow last Sunday. Mrs. Rohrdanz and Mr. Krecklow are brother and sister.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Rauth and Mr. and Mrs. William Sheehan, Sr., were among those going to Plattsmouth last Thursday. While the men attended the Taxpayers' meeting, the ladies visited with friends.

Forty Hours Devotion opened Sunday, November 5, in St. Patrick's church. The pastor, Rev. James Hennessy, is being assisted by neighboring priests. The choir, under the direction of George Rau, rendered special music.

For the first time in many months August Krecklow was over to Omaha with a load of stock for some farmers, this time taking stock for Roy Steinkamp and Wm. Rohrdanz. Mr. Krecklow is feeling much better than he was but not yet back to his usual health.

Mrs. Henry Hohman was pleasantly surprised one evening last week on the occasion of her birthday.

Sixteen friends from Plattsmouth arrived to spend the evening at cards. They also brought home made ice cream, cake and coffee to round out the evening's pleasure.

The Neighborhood club met Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wiles for an evening session at pinocle. The following were present: Messrs. and Mesdames Amos Bates, Sterling Wiles, Harold Wiles, Harry O'Brien, DeForest Ward and Robert Wiles. Refreshments were served by the hostesses at the conclusion of the playing.

Both Theo. Harms and Harry Haws have arranged to heat their homes with gas, which will make the homes more convenient to keep to same uniform temperature, and be so that the matter of getting in fuel and out ashes will be eliminated. The change will sure be more pleasant and comfortable, and as to the cost, it is not expected to be much more than the ordinary way of heating.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Rauth were host and hostess at their home one day last week when they entertained a number of friends from Omaha for the day and a very delightful dinner at the noon hour. Those present were: Miss Rena Christensen, sister of Mrs. Rauth, Mrs. Nelle Zwerlein and mother, Mrs. Peter Christensen, Miss Hedwig Sorenson and Miss Elsie Larson. The visitors after a very pleasant day's visit returned to their homes in Omaha.

Elmwood News

Raymond Kuntz was in Omaha last Friday looking after business matters for a short time.

Henry Crozier of Weeping Water was a visitor in Elmwood last Tuesday looking after some business matters.

Sheriff Joe Mrasek and Deputy Emery Doody were called to Elmwood last week to serve some papers and look after other legal matters.

In a game of football played between Elmwood and Alvo at Elmwood last Friday the home team won over the visitors by a score of 26 to 12.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Grant, the latter a sister of Charles West and Henry Randall, all of Beatrice, were dinner guests at the home of Charles West and wife Sunday.

Morris Penterman and Charles Nelson with the pheasants they had bagged over near Decatur with their wives entertained at a supper last Tuesday, Mr. and Mrs. Hobe Hansen.

B. I. Clements who was feeling so poorly last week from a sudden attack was much improved early this week and able to be about again looking after the work incident to his business.

The telephone building at Elmwood of the Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph company were having the storm windows and storm doors placed in position and fitted snugly by Mr. Nelson, the company carpenter.

Jacob Sterner, chief of police and Lester Christian, the genial and effective police who watch after the welfare of the city of Elmwood made preparations for looking after the safety from Hallowe'en pranks, and were very successful in their endeavors.

Walter D. Southerland who has been making his home in Brit, Colorado arrived in Elmwood last Saturday with some three hundred sheep and lambs for Guy Clements which he delivered. Following a very fine visit with his mother, Mrs. Laura Southerland, he has been busy seeking to make the purchase of corn to ship to Colorado.

Flemming Robb went to Murdock to make the examination required by law of the Murdock Co-operative Credit association, or in other words the Murdock bank. Mrs. Robb accompanied him as far as Elmwood and visited for the day with her mother, Mrs. L. A. Tyson. The following day Mrs. Tyson went to Murray where she visited the remainder of the week at the home of her son, Dr. R. W. Tyson and family.

Improve Community Building.
The Elmwood Community building which has been in such a way that it was difficult to get the fuel used for heating in without soiling the floor, is now having a coal room built next to the furnace room, and will do away with the necessity of getting the rest of the building dirty when coal is unloaded. Mr. Acton has charge of the changes being made.

Entertained Their Friends.
Mr. and Mrs. Morris Penterman were host and hostess at their home in Elmwood last Tuesday evening at a pheasant dinner. They had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Charles Glee J. Webb, Lula Kammer and Hulda Stansky. The pheasants for the dinner were the birds Mr. Penterman and Chas. Nelson got while hunting in the north two days before.

Master Robert Hall Arrives.
Master Robert Hall, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. George Hall as well as of Dr. and Mrs. Liston, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Teddy Hall, arrived in Lincoln Thursday, October 26th and has been remaining there with the mother, they both doing nicely, until such a time as they decide to come to Elmwood to make their home. The event has brought much happiness to all of the family circle.

Sister Visited Here.
Todd and Shorty, that is Kenneth and Claude West, with Ernest Brockman and Eldrow Patton went to Coleridge where they hunted the second time and were able to get their quota of pheasants, and when they returned home Mrs. Charles Melvin, aunt of the West boys accompanied them and visited here for a short time. After a very pleasant visit here Mr. Charles West drove them to their home at Coleridge, Mrs. Charles West accompanying them.

Celebrated 76th Birthday.
Mrs. H. P. Dehning was born on October 16th, 1861 in Germany and when she was sixteen years of age came to America and located in Cass county, Nebraska. Last Thursday she had lived in Nebraska 65 years. When she was coming to America on a sailing vessel a fire broke out which required much hard fighting to extinguish and caused many passengers to become panicky.

H. P. Dehning was born a year later, and when nine years of age came to America, they later meeting and after some years were united in marriage and have made their home here since. Eleven children, six sons and five daughters came to bless the home, a son and a daughter dying in infancy while the remainder of the family remain to honor the parents who some time ago celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. They have many friends in Elmwood and vicinity who love and honor this, excellent couple.

Loses 22 Sheep and Lambs.
Guy Clements who is a fancier and feeder of sheep has had a few hundred in his feed lots southwest of town, and as the wire fence along the right-of-way of the Missouri Pacific railway was built many years ago the sheep were not kept within the pasture, and a night train coming along, 22 of the sheep were killed. A special claim agent of the company was in Elmwood to settle the death loss.

Bridge Players Mix Again.
This time the games and the splendid evening was staged at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Schlictemeier. Messrs. Schlictemeier and Orley D. Clements had high score. The score at present stands, M. I. B. C. club 26,682, while the W. B. B. P. has 24,469, the former leading by a score of 2,159. No one can guess how the score will stand for this week. Mr. and Mrs. Bud Clements will entertain the players this week, which is this evening.

Albert Theil Very Sick.
Uncle Albert Theil who has been farming and batching, doing his own cooking, was taken with a very severe illness last Saturday and was brought to town and given to the care of his daughter, Mrs. Hattie Rosenow, who is caring for him. Mr. Theil is near 80 years of age and the illness is very severe on him. He still remains poorly at the home of the daughter.

Work in the West.
A party of three young men left last summer for the west and found employment at Idaho Falls where they have worked until just recently, when they concluded to return home. They were Dale Wilson, Tom Taylor and Albert Dill. They arrived there on June 4th and arrived home late last week, they being away approximately five months. Dale Wilson and Albert Hill arrived home last week while Tom Taylor accepted a place picking corn near Thurston.

Visited Plattsmouth Eastern Star.
A large number of the members of the Elmwood chapter of the Order of Eastern Star were over to Plattsmouth Tuesday evening of last week where they were guests at a special meeting of the Plattsmouth lodge. A number of the ladies of the Elmwood lodge were selected to assist in conferring the degree work. Among those selected for the occasion were Mesdames Sylvia Penterman, Lillian Munchau, Elizabeth Bauer, Mrs. C. T. Edwards and Marjory Bornemeler.

Entertained Royal Neighbors.
Mrs. Viola Long who some time ago moved to Lincoln to make her home, but still retaining her membership with the Royal Neighbors of America here, entertained the members of the order at her home one day last week at a noonday dinner, where some twelve of the membership of the Elmwood lodge were present to enjoy the hospitality of Mrs. Long. A most delightful visit was reported.

Dockage facilities make Plattsmouth an ideal factory site. Welcome and a splendid opportunity to expand should be an inducement to those contemplating a change in location from the more thickly populated centers and flood areas of the east

Rubber Stamps, large or small, at right prices at the Journal.

FOR SALE

Improved 10 Acres for $1,000

Pay Down $100 and the Balance Like Rent

SEE

PHONE 16
SEARL'S DAVIS