

Weeping Water

Theo Davis was a county seat visitor Monday, having some business matters to transact there.

Orell Burrill is entertaining the country Friendly Ladies organization at her country home. A program has been prepared for the occasion.

Harold Bauer and wife, who have been visiting in Iowa City and at other points in the tall corn state during the past week, arrived home Tuesday.

Mrs. L. N. Kunkel is hostess to the Idle-a-While club at her home today. Contract bridge and a luncheon will provide the members with amusement.

Mrs. L. V. Barton is hostess to the Dorcas Circle of the Christian church this (Thursday) afternoon, with Mrs. Mattus Breckenridge as assistant hostess.

Dr. W. H. Tuck, who has been at the University hospital in Omaha for the past two weeks, is greatly improved in health and expects to return home the latter part of this week.

Virgil Suduth and family of near Murray and Guy Buchanan and family of near Nehawka, were guests last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Astew, parents of the ladies.

Mrs. May Cheff, of Burlingame, Kansas, was visiting in Weeping Water several days during the past week, a guest at the homes of her brothers, A. I. Bickford and Walter Bickford.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Snipes were down from Lincoln Saturday evening. Mr. Snipes was having some dental work done and Mrs. Snipes visited with Mrs. A. O. Specht during the evening.

A meeting of the local Red Cross was called for last Friday evening by the chairman, Miss Mayme Michelson, when plans were made for the annual membership drive, which began Saturday, November 11.

Mr. and Mrs. Randall Oldham, of Santa Monica, California, will arrive here this week for a two weeks visit with Mr. Oldham's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Oldham, and with Mrs. Oldham's parents in Omaha.

A. W. W. Johnson is in a Chicago hospital recovering from an operation, which was performed last Friday. He is reported to be recovering rapidly and will return home about the latter part of next week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wiseman and Mrs. O. K. Cromwell motored to Broken Bow Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Wiseman returned home that evening, but Mrs. Cromwell will remain with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis, for the winter.

Mrs. H. Taylor Wilson left Thursday afternoon for Auburn to join Mr. Wilson, who has been there for the past two weeks. It is with regret that Weeping Water loses the Wilsons, who returned here last summer after an absence of several years, when Mr. Wilson came here as Missouri Pacific agent.

Ralph Binger of Lincoln drove to Weeping Water Sunday, picking up his mother, Mrs. G. R. Binger and sister, Mrs. Jack Bolz and husband and little daughter and all went to Falls City to see the oil well. From there they drove to Morrell, Kansas, taking advantage of the fine day to cover many miles before returning home in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lon Cone of Blackfoot, Idaho, are visiting Mr. Cone's aunts, Miss Lilla and Miss Ella Bates, this week. They are enroute home from Charleston, South Carolina, where Mr. Cone attended the national Royal Arch Masonic convention. From there they went to New York City to visit with relatives, stopping at other points of interest on their way west.

Campfire Girls Served
The Campfire Girls, under direction of their sponsor, Miss Mamie Michelson served the banquet at the Congregational church Wednesday evening to American Legion Auxiliary members attending the district convention here.

Will Supply Here.
Dr. Patterson of Lincoln, a minister noted for his excellent discourses was minister to the Congregational church in Weeping Water last Sunday and will continue to minister to the church here until a minister is secured to take the place of Rev. G. S. Hunt, who has gone to Ohio to a new charge.

Enjoying Furlough with Mother
Jack Clifford, who is a member of the United States navy, is enjoying a thirty day furlough and has been visiting here with his mother, Mrs. Ross Shields. His first enlistment period will expire early in 1940, and he is undecided just yet whether or not he will re-enlist. Previous to coming here, he visited relatives at Louisville, being brought to Weeping Water by his uncle, Chester Eager.

Spent Sunday at King Hill
Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Wiseman and the parents of Mr. Wiseman, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wiseman, took advantage of the fine weather last Sunday and drove to King Hill, highest point along the Missouri river in the state of Nebraska. Atop this stately hill, located near the ghost town of Rock Bluffs they enjoyed a picnic dinner, finding the temperature favorable to such outdoor sport, although we are well into the month of November.

On their way home they came by way of Nehawka and paid a brief visit to Mt. Pleasant cemetery, where rest a number of their relatives and friends.

Lions Club Charter Night
The Lions club, in existence here for some time, dwindled in size until it ceased to exist before the members realized what a fine force for good it had been in the community. So it was re-organized last spring and has a large and flourishing membership, meeting regularly and working in greatest harmony.

On Tuesday night they celebrated what in lodge parlance is known as Charter Night, with a dinner and a guest speaker. Besides the local membership, there were Lions club members here from Lincoln, Syracuse and Nebraska City, in which latter town a new club has just recently been organized. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed.

Grass Fires Dangerous
Owing to the extremely dry condition of grass and weeds, several fires have been started recently. Some of these might have proved to be serious if they had not been discovered in time. Great care should be taken about the disposition of matches or cigarettes during this dry period.

Firemen were called to Wolcott's Hill Saturday morning when fire was headed toward the Wolcott home and later in the afternoon when the fire again broke out and was headed toward other homes north of there.

Attended Meeting at Avoca
Twenty women from the Congregational church of Weeping Water attended a fellowship meeting of the women's organizations of the Syracuse, Paisley, Avoca and Weeping Water Congregational churches at Avoca last Thursday afternoon. The Weeping Water women were in charge of the program.

These meetings, under the direction of Mrs. Ole Olsen, district chairman, have proved to be of great benefit educationally and have become a meeting place where problems, if any, may be discussed, and there may be an interchanging of ideas, and plans made for the woman's work in the future.

Club Now Has 40 Members
The new Townsend club, of more than forty members, is becoming a thriving, wide-awake club. Their meeting last week was a covered dish dinner and a get acquainted evening, with speakers from out of town.

Owing to a misunderstanding on the part of many of the object of the Townsend clubs, various points have been cleared and a better understanding makes for better work. Some have caught the phrase, "Two hundred per month" and believe that to be the main objective of the Townsend Club, when in reality two hundred is only a maximum figure which perhaps never will be reached. They are hoping, however, for perhaps $50 per month at first, with the knowledge that that must all be spent during the month in which it is received.

Faith has been known to remove mountains and the faith of the members of the Townsend club is growing greater each year.

Married Last Tuesday
Mrs. Gladys Henegar Little and Lawrence Eidenmiller were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Henegar on Tuesday of last week. The marriage lines were read by Rev. W. D. Lenker, pastor of the Methodist church. A large number of friends and relatives were present to witness the ceremony and to extend congratulations and best wishes. The bride and groom are well known in society circles of Weeping Water and vicinity. They have a host of friends who are extending best wishes for their happiness, prosperity and good health. They will make their home near Nehawka on a farm.

Enjoyable P. E. O. Meeting
Chapter BT, P. E. O. met Friday afternoon at the home of Miss Edith Clizbe, with Miss Anna Hubbard as assistant hostess. Two guests were present from Omaha, Mrs. Jessie Hess, representing BK chapter, and Mrs. Ayres, superintendent of the Nurses' home at the M. E. hospital in Omaha, also a member of BK chapter.

Mrs. Hess gave a very interesting and inspiring report of the P. E. O. Supreme convention held at Houston, Texas, October 10 to 13.

Inter-Church Brotherhood Meets.
Last Monday, the second Monday of the month was held the regular meeting of the Brotherhood, composed of the men members of the churches of Weeping Water. As usual they had an excellent program and

Struck Down by Car in West
Mrs. May L. Towle, of Lincoln, met death early Wednesday in a traffic accident at Long Beach, California, when struck by an automobile driven by a Long Beach youth, who was exonerated of blame.

The deceased lady, who was 66, and the former wife of Sgt. Frank Towle of the Lincoln police force, had left Lincoln only a week ago by automobile for California to spend the winter with her sister, Mrs. George W. Towle and husband, who go there each winter from Weeping Water.

RUG FOR SALE
A good as new French Wilton rug, size 9x12, in excellent condition. Phone 44 for appointment to see it.

Jamesons to Return
The Cyrus Livingstons moved last Monday to their new home which they purchased last spring. It is the farm formerly owned by William Spangler, north of town. The farm home formerly occupied by the Livingstons will be remodeled and the owner, Bert Jameson and wife, of Omaha, have moved there. Weeping Water and vicinity will welcome the Jamesons back to our midst, as they lived here so long that they always seem to be a part of our community.

Jameson's to Return
The Cyrus Livingstons moved last Monday to their new home which they purchased last spring. It is the farm formerly owned by William Spangler, north of town. The farm home formerly occupied by the Livingstons will be remodeled and the owner, Bert Jameson and wife, of Omaha, have moved there. Weeping Water and vicinity will welcome the Jamesons back to our midst, as they lived here so long that they always seem to be a part of our community.

Jameson's to Return
The Cyrus Livingstons moved last Monday to their new home which they purchased last spring. It is the farm formerly owned by William Spangler, north of town. The farm home formerly occupied by the Livingstons will be remodeled and the owner, Bert Jameson and wife, of Omaha, have moved there. Weeping Water and vicinity will welcome the Jamesons back to our midst, as they lived here so long that they always seem to be a part of our community.

Jameson's to Return
The Cyrus Livingstons moved last Monday to their new home which they purchased last spring. It is the farm formerly owned by William Spangler, north of town. The farm home formerly occupied by the Livingstons will be remodeled and the owner, Bert Jameson and wife, of Omaha, have moved there. Weeping Water and vicinity will welcome the Jamesons back to our midst, as they lived here so long that they always seem to be a part of our community.

Jameson's to Return
The Cyrus Livingstons moved last Monday to their new home which they purchased last spring. It is the farm formerly owned by William Spangler, north of town. The farm home formerly occupied by the Livingstons will be remodeled and the owner, Bert Jameson and wife, of Omaha, have moved there. Weeping Water and vicinity will welcome the Jamesons back to our midst, as they lived here so long that they always seem to be a part of our community.

Jameson's to Return
The Cyrus Livingstons moved last Monday to their new home which they purchased last spring. It is the farm formerly owned by William Spangler, north of town. The farm home formerly occupied by the Livingstons will be remodeled and the owner, Bert Jameson and wife, of Omaha, have moved there. Weeping Water and vicinity will welcome the Jamesons back to our midst, as they lived here so long that they always seem to be a part of our community.

Jameson's to Return
The Cyrus Livingstons moved last Monday to their new home which they purchased last spring. It is the farm formerly owned by William Spangler, north of town. The farm home formerly occupied by the Livingstons will be remodeled and the owner, Bert Jameson and wife, of Omaha, have moved there. Weeping Water and vicinity will welcome the Jamesons back to our midst, as they lived here so long that they always seem to be a part of our community.

Jameson's to Return
The Cyrus Livingstons moved last Monday to their new home which they purchased last spring. It is the farm formerly owned by William Spangler, north of town. The farm home formerly occupied by the Livingstons will be remodeled and the owner, Bert Jameson and wife, of Omaha, have moved there. Weeping Water and vicinity will welcome the Jamesons back to our midst, as they lived here so long that they always seem to be a part of our community.

Jameson's to Return
The Cyrus Livingstons moved last Monday to their new home which they purchased last spring. It is the farm formerly owned by William Spangler, north of town. The farm home formerly occupied by the Livingstons will be remodeled and the owner, Bert Jameson and wife, of Omaha, have moved there. Weeping Water and vicinity will welcome the Jamesons back to our midst, as they lived here so long that they always seem to be a part of our community.

Jameson's to Return
The Cyrus Livingstons moved last Monday to their new home which they purchased last spring. It is the farm formerly owned by William Spangler, north of town. The farm home formerly occupied by the Livingstons will be remodeled and the owner, Bert Jameson and wife, of Omaha, have moved there. Weeping Water and vicinity will welcome the Jamesons back to our midst, as they lived here so long that they always seem to be a part of our community.

a very fine supper. The next meeting will be held at the Methodist church the second Monday in December, when they will have the members of the Weeping Water high school football team as guests. The meeting last Monday was held at the Congregational church. The new officers were installed, Fred Allen, president and A. J. Patterson, secretary.

Jamesons to Return
The Cyrus Livingstons moved last Monday to their new home which they purchased last spring. It is the farm formerly owned by William Spangler, north of town. The farm home formerly occupied by the Livingstons will be remodeled and the owner, Bert Jameson and wife, of Omaha, have moved there. Weeping Water and vicinity will welcome the Jamesons back to our midst, as they lived here so long that they always seem to be a part of our community.

Jameson's to Return
The Cyrus Livingstons moved last Monday to their new home which they purchased last spring. It is the farm formerly owned by William Spangler, north of town. The farm home formerly occupied by the Livingstons will be remodeled and the owner, Bert Jameson and wife, of Omaha, have moved there. Weeping Water and vicinity will welcome the Jamesons back to our midst, as they lived here so long that they always seem to be a part of our community.

Jameson's to Return
The Cyrus Livingstons moved last Monday to their new home which they purchased last spring. It is the farm formerly owned by William Spangler, north of town. The farm home formerly occupied by the Livingstons will be remodeled and the owner, Bert Jameson and wife, of Omaha, have moved there. Weeping Water and vicinity will welcome the Jamesons back to our midst, as they lived here so long that they always seem to be a part of our community.

Jameson's to Return
The Cyrus Livingstons moved last Monday to their new home which they purchased last spring. It is the farm formerly owned by William Spangler, north of town. The farm home formerly occupied by the Livingstons will be remodeled and the owner, Bert Jameson and wife, of Omaha, have moved there. Weeping Water and vicinity will welcome the Jamesons back to our midst, as they lived here so long that they always seem to be a part of our community.

Jameson's to Return
The Cyrus Livingstons moved last Monday to their new home which they purchased last spring. It is the farm formerly owned by William Spangler, north of town. The farm home formerly occupied by the Livingstons will be remodeled and the owner, Bert Jameson and wife, of Omaha, have moved there. Weeping Water and vicinity will welcome the Jamesons back to our midst, as they lived here so long that they always seem to be a part of our community.

Jameson's to Return
The Cyrus Livingstons moved last Monday to their new home which they purchased last spring. It is the farm formerly owned by William Spangler, north of town. The farm home formerly occupied by the Livingstons will be remodeled and the owner, Bert Jameson and wife, of Omaha, have moved there. Weeping Water and vicinity will welcome the Jamesons back to our midst, as they lived here so long that they always seem to be a part of our community.

Jameson's to Return
The Cyrus Livingstons moved last Monday to their new home which they purchased last spring. It is the farm formerly owned by William Spangler, north of town. The farm home formerly occupied by the Livingstons will be remodeled and the owner, Bert Jameson and wife, of Omaha, have moved there. Weeping Water and vicinity will welcome the Jamesons back to our midst, as they lived here so long that they always seem to be a part of our community.

Jameson's to Return
The Cyrus Livingstons moved last Monday to their new home which they purchased last spring. It is the farm formerly owned by William Spangler, north of town. The farm home formerly occupied by the Livingstons will be remodeled and the owner, Bert Jameson and wife, of Omaha, have moved there. Weeping Water and vicinity will welcome the Jamesons back to our midst, as they lived here so long that they always seem to be a part of our community.

Jameson's to Return
The Cyrus Livingstons moved last Monday to their new home which they purchased last spring. It is the farm formerly owned by William Spangler, north of town. The farm home formerly occupied by the Livingstons will be remodeled and the owner, Bert Jameson and wife, of Omaha, have moved there. Weeping Water and vicinity will welcome the Jamesons back to our midst, as they lived here so long that they always seem to be a part of our community.

Jameson's to Return
The Cyrus Livingstons moved last Monday to their new home which they purchased last spring. It is the farm formerly owned by William Spangler, north of town. The farm home formerly occupied by the Livingstons will be remodeled and the owner, Bert Jameson and wife, of Omaha, have moved there. Weeping Water and vicinity will welcome the Jamesons back to our midst, as they lived here so long that they always seem to be a part of our community.

Jameson's to Return
The Cyrus Livingstons moved last Monday to their new home which they purchased last spring. It is the farm formerly owned by William Spangler, north of town. The farm home formerly occupied by the Livingstons will be remodeled and the owner, Bert Jameson and wife, of Omaha, have moved there. Weeping Water and vicinity will welcome the Jamesons back to our midst, as they lived here so long that they always seem to be a part of our community.

Jameson's to Return
The Cyrus Livingstons moved last Monday to their new home which they purchased last spring. It is the farm formerly owned by William Spangler, north of town. The farm home formerly occupied by the Livingstons will be remodeled and the owner, Bert Jameson and wife, of Omaha, have moved there. Weeping Water and vicinity will welcome the Jamesons back to our midst, as they lived here so long that they always seem to be a part of our community.

Jameson's to Return
The Cyrus Livingstons moved last Monday to their new home which they purchased last spring. It is the farm formerly owned by William Spangler, north of town. The farm home formerly occupied by the Livingstons will be remodeled and the owner, Bert Jameson and wife, of Omaha, have moved there. Weeping Water and vicinity will welcome the Jamesons back to our midst, as they lived here so long that they always seem to be a part of our community.

Jameson's to Return
The Cyrus Livingstons moved last Monday to their new home which they purchased last spring. It is the farm formerly owned by William Spangler, north of town. The farm home formerly occupied by the Livingstons will be remodeled and the owner, Bert Jameson and wife, of Omaha, have moved there. Weeping Water and vicinity will welcome the Jamesons back to our midst, as they lived here so long that they always seem to be a part of our community.

Jameson's to Return
The Cyrus Livingstons moved last Monday to their new home which they purchased last spring. It is the farm formerly owned by William Spangler, north of town. The farm home formerly occupied by the Livingstons will be remodeled and the owner, Bert Jameson and wife, of Omaha, have moved there. Weeping Water and vicinity will welcome the Jamesons back to our midst, as they lived here so long that they always seem to be a part of our community.

Jameson's to Return
The Cyrus Livingstons moved last Monday to their new home which they purchased last spring. It is the farm formerly owned by William Spangler, north of town. The farm home formerly occupied by the Livingstons will be remodeled and the owner, Bert Jameson and wife, of Omaha, have moved there. Weeping Water and vicinity will welcome the Jamesons back to our midst, as they lived here so long that they always seem to be a part of our community.

Jameson's to Return
The Cyrus Livingstons moved last Monday to their new home which they purchased last spring. It is the farm formerly owned by William Spangler, north of town. The farm home formerly occupied by the Livingstons will be remodeled and the owner, Bert Jameson and wife, of Omaha, have moved there. Weeping Water and vicinity will welcome the Jamesons back to our midst, as they lived here so long that they always seem to be a part of our community.

Nehawka

Postmistress Luana McReynolds is enjoying a vacation during the present week and is visiting at a number of points away from Nehawka.

Robert Chapman, sr., father of our townsman, R. H. Chapman, who makes his home in Omaha was visiting at the home of the son last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Wunderlich were in Lincoln last Saturday where they enjoyed the Kansas-Nebraska football game which Nebraska won 7 to 0.

Henry Bartling of Nebraska City, representative of a life insurance company was in Nehawka looking after some business matters and visiting with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Geade and little daughter of Unadilla were guests last Sunday afternoon and evening at the home of the parents of Mrs. Geade, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Kruger.

Marion Pittman and wife of Avoca were in Nehawka last Saturday evening, coming to visit with the mother of Mr. Pittman, Mrs. Thomas S. Pittman, who makes her home with her daughter, Mrs. R. H. Chapmas. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed.

George C. Sheldon, operator of the Sheldon Manufacturing company, speaking of business at the plant said that it was much better than it has been in the past few years and that more concrete mixers are being sold and being shipped to many other states. He is much encouraged over the better business.

Moving Back to Farm.
Bert Jamison and wife who some few years ago moved from their farm northwest of Nehawka to Omaha, will move to the farm again. Since they moved to Omaha Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Livingston have been farming the place. They are to move to another farm owned by Mr. Livingston and then Mr. and Mrs. Jamison will move to the place that was occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Livingston.

Visited in Omaha Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Albert Anderson and their son Kenneth were in Omaha last Sunday, guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Cunningham, who make their home at 4529 Pine street. Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham being brother-in-law and sister of Mr. and Mrs. Anderson. A very fine afternoon was spent and an excellent afternoon dinner enjoyed.

Refined Some of the Crude.
Dr. Hibbard of Nebraska City was down last week to the oil well at Falls City and securing a bottle took some home and with the apparatus which he has in his office refined a small portion which yielded the several products obtainable from crude oil. Gasoline, coal oil, distillate, tar, refined petroleum, and satisfied himself that the products of this well compare favorably with that of wells in northern portions of the country. This is all stimulating interest of people in and around Nehawka.

Enjoyed Very Pleasant Time.
The Nehawka American Legion and the Woman's Auxiliary in their observance of Armistice day enjoyed a very pleasant time and especially as they were in their home land instead of far away Flanders field. The boys celebrated the occasion with an oyster supper and a meeting in which many a mirthful story of the times over there were recited. The old time Mulligan stew was also in evidence.

Found 600 Hungry Men.
As an advertisement of the Pillsbury feeds which he handles, Herb Kuntz put on a pancake feed last Thursday at the Nehawka auditorium in which he provided pancakes, syrup and coffee for all who might come and during the evening provided provided pancakes and the trimmings for some 600 hungry men of Nehawka and vicinity. Prizes were given at games which were a portion of the evening's entertainment.

Visited at Geo. Sheldon Home.
Mr. and Mrs. George E. Sheldon were host and hostess at their home last Sunday and entertained their daughter, Miss Rithan who is a student in the state university at Lincoln for over the week end. There were also there for the occasion Mr. and Mrs. Ernest C. Giles, Mrs. Giles being a sister of Mr. Sheldon and Mrs. I. L. Sheldon, mother of Mr. Sheldon and Mrs. Giles who makes her home with the daughter in Plattsmouth. A most enjoyable visit was had.

Three Young Men Injured.
Last Saturday night three young men of Nehawka and vicinity, Buck Neumeister, Buck Schumaker and Roy Frans, who had been spending a short time in Union were returning home when a tire blew out on their car as they were crossing the Weeping Water creek west of Union, causing the car to be deflected to the side, striking the bridge, wrecking the car and injuring the entire party until they had to have the services of a doctor. The auto was almost entirely demolished. Just after they had been injured another car came along and the injured men impounded the car to take them to a doctor, but they were refused and told that the members of the other car did not have time as they had to hurry or the liquor house at Union would be closed and they could not get any liquor. It would seem that the occupants of the second car must have thought they were needing the stuff pretty bad. However, the injured men got to the doctor and had their injuries dressed.

Visited Golden Rod Oil Well.
Many people of Nehawka and vicinity were over near Murray last Sunday where they visited and saw in operation the drilling at the Goldenrod oil well, which is now some 1,200 feet deep and were curious as to the different kinds of earth, rocks and sand which is passed through. Verner Lundberg and Clifford Trotter were over and found hundreds of curious people with all kinds of questions and ideas as to how the work should be carried on. With the similarity of the different stratas which have been encountered in the drilling would seem to favor the idea that there is a likelihood of soon striking oil. Still no one can tell.

Looking to Drill Near Town.
With the interest which has been generated by the striking of oil at Falls City, there has been encouraged the idea that there is oil near Nehawka and other circumstances seem to favor the idea. For without much ceremony the hole which was drilled on the Shrader farm was abandoned which led to the belief that the prospects were good and that the place would be drilled again when needed as there are plenty of producing wells at this time over much of the country.

Map Looks Very Favorable.
Some years ago a party of university students came to the region of Nehawka and spent a month making surveys and sinking small holes to ascertain the anti cline of the rock formation under the soil. Ralph Sturm was with the party and all of the party would go during the forenoon and make investigations and during the afternoon Mr. Sturm and another man would figure out the depth of the stone and make maps or work on them while the other members of the party would still investigate. We had the privilege of looking at a copy of the maps made which shows a dome running northwest of Nehawka, also there are a number copies of this map at the offices in Lincoln. From these surveys it would look favorable for oil in this neighborhood.

DEATH OF JESS KLEISER
Residents of Ashland and vicinity were shocked to hear of the sudden death of Jesse Kleiser, which occurred Sunday, Nov. 5, death being caused by heart trouble. Although he had been ailing a short time, his death was unexpected.

Mr. Kleiser was born at the Kleiser farm south of Ashland, and spent his entire life there. He had never married. He was well-known in the entire community and was loved and respected by all who knew him. He was possessed of a genial, happy disposition, and was always ready to be of service to all.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 8, at the farm home, with the Rev. T. Porter Bennett, pastor of the Methodist church in charge. Mrs. Verda Weeth and Mrs. Cort Tangeman of Gretna, sang two duets, "Abide With Me," and "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere." Pallbearers were Glenn Weaver, Joe Knecht, David Campbell, George Wallinger, John Gakemeier and August Gakemeier. Burial was in the Ashland cemetery.

Jesse Edwin Kleiser was the son of the late John and Mary Elizabeth Kleiser, and was born near South Bend, Aug. 9, 1878. He departed this life Nov. 5, 1939 at the family home.

Two brothers, Charles Walter and John Henry, preceded him in death. He leaves to mourn his loss, one sister, Miss Carrie Kleiser; one brother, William, and other relatives and a large circle of friends.

Dockage facilities make Plattsmouth an ideal factory site. Wellcome and a splendid opportunity to expand should be an inducement to those contemplating a change in location from the more thickly populated centers and flood areas of the east.

EAGLE ELEVATOR A LICENSED WAREHOUSE
The Continental Grain Company at Eagle, which is managed by Waldo A. Nienstiel, has a modern, up-to-date elevator that has been licensed as a Federal Warehouse. The property was purchased in June of this year from Mr. Trunkenholz, who built it some twenty years ago. Immediately after acquiring it, the Continental company set about remodeling it. A new Fairbanks truck scale was installed and other improvements made to place the buildings in first class condition.

They are advertising their old 14-foot scale for sale in this issue of the Journal at a low figure.

Mr. Nienstiel, the manager is very courteous and accommodating and is building up a splendid patronage for the concern he represents, one of the largest grain companies in the nation, with gigantic elevators of many million bushels capacity in the larger cities throughout the grain belt.

We can furnish you with Rubber Stamps made to order at a price considerably below that you have been paying. Prompt service. If you need stamps, see us.

EAGLE NEWS ITEMS

Mrs. Charles Lyon of Lincoln spent last Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Piersol.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Axe of Lincoln called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Houston last Sunday.

Floyd Hursh of Grand Island spent Saturday and Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hursh.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ewerth of Lincoln were in Eagle last Saturday, looking after some business matters.

The Eagle high school team defeated the Weeping Water team at Weeping Water last Friday evening.

Ormond May, who is attending school at Peru spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. May.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Burton attended a social gathering at the Presbyterian church in Palmyra last Saturday evening.

Mrs. Carl Oberle was taken to the Bryan Memorial hospital the first of the week, where she is being treated for pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Robertson of Lincoln visited Mrs. E. C. Oberle and Mrs. Lloyd Oberle and daughter last Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Opp of Nehawka were Wednesday evening dinner guests of Mrs. Sarah Keil and Miss Dorothea Keil.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Judkins announce the birth of a daughter at the Bryan Memorial hospital in Lincoln Sunday morning, Nov. 12.

Sunday guests of Mrs. Emma Judkins were Ralph Judkins, Mrs. Mattie Hamilton and Edward Edison of Lincoln, and Rev. Ernest Metzger.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Peterson of Lincoln visited with relatives and friends in Eagle last Saturday evening, being dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Trumble.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hoffmeister and daughter of Weeping Water spent Sunday with Mrs. Hoffmeister's mother, Mrs. Anna Earl and Mr. and Mrs. William Hudson.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lindell and son of Murdock and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Robertson and daughter, of Unadilla, were Sunday guests of Mrs. Myrtle Robertson and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hite of Weeping Water, Mrs. Marie Hamilton and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Mick of Lincoln called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Wright last Sunday.

E. C. Oberle and Lloyd Oberle returned from Rochester, Minn., Wednesday morning of this week. E. C. Oberle underwent an operation at the Mayo hospital there recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Root came from Scottsbluff last week and spent several days with relatives and also packed and stored their household goods before returning to the west.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Burton on Thursday evening of last week were Mr. and Mrs. Guy McKee, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clarke and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Whyman of Palmyra.

Mrs. Arthur Adams spent last week at Akron, Iowa, with her daughter, Mrs. Jay Busker and Mr. Busker. She was accompanied home by Mr. and Mrs. Busker Friday evening, they being guests until Sunday evening at the Adams home.