Nehawka

Mr. and Mrs. C. Steffens of Lor-ton, parents of J. H. Steffens and Mrs. Albert Anderson were visiting in Nehawka last Sunday.

Fred Guade and family of Unadilla and Lawrence Kruger of Nebraska City were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Kruger in Nehawka for the day last Sunday.

Forest K. Cunningham was called to Plattsmouth where he had some business matters to look after and while there made the payment of his taxes, which he was pleased to get off the calendar.

The Busy Workers of the Methodist church, composed of young people of the church met Thursday of this week at the church where they were devising ways and means of doing their full portion for the church.

Eugene J. Nutzman, who has been troubled much of late with attacks of rheumatism was in Lincoln late last week to consult a specialist in order to secure relief from the continued severe pain which accompanies the disease.

Attorney W. A. Robertson of Plattsmouth was called to Nehawka Monday of this week to look after some legal business and was accompanied by Abstractor Robert Walling. They also visited with their many friends here.

John Hicks and family who recently moved to Nehawka from Gilman, Mo., were visitors in Plattsmouth last Monday where they were looking after some business matters and as well visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Hitt, Mrs. Hitt being a sister of Mr. Hicks.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Anderson were host and hostess last Sunday evening at a very pleasant evening of entertainment with an evening of cards and which was followed by a very delightful luncheon, which was enjoyed by their three family friends Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lemon, Dergen Nelson and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Herbie Kuntz.

The Tobin Quarries working force of men was diminished Monday this week when a large number of the employees were sent to Forest City, Missouri and Rulo, Nebraska, which materially reduced the number employed by that concern here. The force is being made as small as can be conveniently gotten along with until the opening of warm weather in the spring.

Clyde Flaishman, who is holding a sale of his farming, household goods and other property next week, is preparing to go to Eugene, Oregon to make their home. They will be met there by a brother of Mrs. Flaishman, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Chappel where they will locate for the present and get their daughter, Marolyn in school. After that they will look the country over for a suitable place for a location and will make their home there.

able place for a location and will make their home there.

Married at Beatrice.

J. L. Young, Jr., of west of Murray and Miss Ella Lehnardt of east of Avoca were united in marriage at Beatrice last Friday, they making a trip to the west after which they will make their home in the neighborhood north of Nehawka.

Married in Old Missouri.

Miss Hazel Brenner and Mr. Ray Schumacher who have been among the best of society in this neighborhood slipped away late last week and going to Rock Port, Mo., were united in marriage, and after a tour of a few days will return to Nehawka where they will expect to make their home for the present and will live on a farm.

Gave Benefit Party

The members of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of Nehawka were both enjoying the evening last Monday and as well making a little money for the benefit of the order. They gave a card party at their lodge room which was attended by a large number of members and friends of the order. A neat sum was received for the use of the order, and a most enjoyable time was had.

Mrs. Iva Beatrice Bobbitt

Mrs. Iva Beatrice Bobbitt, wife of John W. Bobbitt of Eldorado Springs, Missouri, 43, passed away Saturday, November 11, after a lingering illness of many months. Mrs. Bobbitt has been very poorly of enema and hardening of the arteries. She had had former severe attacks but had seemingly overcome the disease and had been in fairly good health for some time until about six months ago when she was stricken again. The children were called and those from this neighborhood were over to the funeral, those residing here being T. J. Bobbitt and family, a son, Mrs. Harold Philpot of north of town.

The funeral was held Monday, November 13. Those left to mourn the untimely departure were the husband, J. W. Bobbitt, J. T. Bobbitt, Nehawka, Mrs. Howard Philpot of near Nehawka, Miss Josephine and Paul Bobbitt at home, and Wanda and LeRoy, small children at home, Miss Mildred Bobbitt of Wood, Missouri. The funeral was held from the Baptist church near the home with the interment at the Mount Vernon Baptist cemetery.

Played Last Scheduled Game.

The Nehawka football team was engaged last Friday with the champion team from Lincoln, which had a reputation of playing just right football, and in honor of the game the business houses with the exception of the post office closed and attended the game, which resulted in the visitors winning 26 to 14. However a very fine game was played.

Justin Sturm Play Writer.

Justin Sturm of New York where he has made his home for some time, has written a play which is to be given on this Friday evening at the Hudson theatre, New York City. The play, which is entitled, "I Know What I Like" is announced by I. Edward Hambleton and Richard Skinner with John Bell and Helen Claire and Halta Stoddard, staged by Aural Lee, settings by Donald Owenschlager. The play is a comedy, and is from the pen of a former Nehawka man who has gone from here to the east and there has made a success in writing. Justin is a man of fine character and one who can be depended on to produce the very best and is a credit to the little city from which he went to the east and to the state of Nebraska. His success has brought much satisfaction to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Sturm here and all his friends here.

Hustling on Building New Home.

Dr. R. R. Anderson, local physician and also maintaining an office in Union, practicing in the territory of both Union and Nehawka, has been having a new home constructed at Nehawka, which is being constructed by John Alwin of Plattsmouth. The writer chanced to pass by the new edifice recently, and found very different from the building of Solomon's temple where the sound of a hammer or the merry tune of a saw was not heard. But in this case there were many hammers going and the saws played a merry tune. Mr. Alwin with a coterie of carpenters were very busy, while plumber, painters and many others were busy. No plasterers were as yet at work but John Bauer with his force of workmen were there in full force installing a heating plant for the home, to be all modern, the home to be all on the ground floor with a garage attached with a concrete driveway leading from the street to the garage, where the car can be stepped in from the home. It is the desire to get the work completed before the coming of real cold weather. The continued mild weather has been a boon to the contractor. This will make Dr. Anderson and wife a most pleasant home.

Finds Joy in News.

Stuart Rough received the very happy news last Sunday of the arrival of a great granddaughter, a granddaughter of Mrs. Harold J. Lane, of Iowa City. The new arrival is daughter of Mrs. Dane, daughter-in-law of Mrs. Harold J. Dane and great granddaughter of Mr. Stuart Rough. The mother and little one are getting along very nicely. The little one has been named Patricia Lee.

Death of Former Plattsmouth Man in Iowa

Services for E. T. Younker Held at Glenwood Where He Had Resided for Many Years.

Funeral services for E. T. Younker, 66, well known former resident of Mills county, Iowa, who died suddenly of a heart attack in the home of his daughter, Mrs. Laura London, in Sioux City, last Thursday, were held in Raynor's chapel in Glenwood Friday afternoon, with many of his former neighbors and old friends in attendance.

The service was conducted by Rev. Ira Carney, pastor of the Glenwood Christian church, of which Mr. Younker had been an active member during the some thirty years of the family's residence in Glenwood. The ladies in charge of the floral offerings were Mrs. Lucy Wilcox, Mrs. J. R. Graves, Mrs. Art Evans, Mrs. Fern Widows and Mrs. Walter Glenn. Those who served as pall bearers were George Swinney, Joe Wilcox, Harry Widows, Wade Delevan, Ivory Linville and Tom Caley. The body was laid to rest in the family lot in the Glenwood cemetery.

Elmer Tilden Younker was born April 29, 1873, in Coshocton county, Ohio, and came west when a young man. He was married to Cora May Jones Feb. 22, 1889 at Plattsmouth, Neb. To this home three daughters and two sons were born: Mrs. Laura London, Sioux City, Mrs. Vesta Copple, Torrington, Wyo., Mrs. Ethel Purdue, Council Bluffs, Everett Younker, Oelwein, Ia., and Robert Younker, Seattle, Wash., who survive him. There are eleven grandchildren.

Mrs. Younker passed away Dec. 12, 1933. Since he has made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Ethel Purdue of Council Bluffs. He had gone to Sioux City for a visit in the home of his daughter, Mrs. London, when stricken. During the active years of his life he engaged in farming and in the real estate business. He was a kind, genial man, who made friends rapidly and his sudden death came as a distinct shock to relatives and friends alike.

LEAVES ON SAD MISSION

Deputy Sheriff Emery Doody received the message Tuesday afternoon of the death at St. Onge, South Dakota, of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Marie Doody, 45. Last evening in company with his sister, Mrs. Tom Lindley, of Omaha, Mr. Doody departed for the old home in South Dakota to be with their brother, Frank Doody in their bereavement. Mrs. Doody has been ill for some time.

Mrs. Emery Doody was unable to go to St. Onge owing to the illness of their son, Tommie, who has been confined to the home for the past few days.

Ellison-Slatinsky Wedding Occurs on West Coast

Robert Slatinsky, Son of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Slatinsky, Former Residents, Married

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Ellison, of Smithton, Mo., announce the marriage of their daughter, Martha Jane to Mr. Robert Slatinsky, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Slatinsky, Sedalia, Missouri. The wedding was solemnized at 5 o'clock in the afternoon, October 26 at the Catholic church in Seattle, Washington, where the bridegroom, who is in the United States navy is stationed.

The bride's wedding gown was gray with accessories to match. She carried a bouquet of gardenias. A young couple, who were friends of the bridegroom, were their attendants.

Miss Ellison, now Mrs. Slatinsky went to Seattle from her home in Smithton a short time preceding the wedding. Following the ceremony the wedding party went to the modern furnished apartment which the groom had ready for his bride and enjoyed a wedding supper she prepared. The bride is a graduate of Smithton high school in the class of 1939. Smithton is about four miles from Sedalia, Missouri. The wedding of this couple proved to be the climax of their school-day romance.

The groom is well known in this city, he having been born and reared here prior to the removal of the family to Sedalia, Missouri. He has been a visitor in Plattsmouth on several occasions and had made many friends here who are pleased to learn of his marriage. He is a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Carol Janda and a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Pliz and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Slatinsky of this city.

UNION ITEMS.

Mrs. Charles Green visited friends and relatives in Omaha Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lidgett were visitors at the Joseph Lidgett home last Sunday.

A. O. Pearsley drove to Plattsmouth last Saturday to look after business matters.

Mrs. C. F. Harris was called to Beatrice last Sunday on account of the serious illness of her niece.

Henry Ross, who lives south of Nehawka, was a Union visitor Monday, calling on friends and transacting business here.

Del Sylvester, who has been seriously ill for a fortnight, was taken to an Omaha hospital for treatment for a severe case of pneumonia.

Mrs. Henry Ruhman, who has been in poor health for some time, continues in about the same condition. Friends hope she may enjoy a change for the better soon.

Robert Walling, of Plattsmouth, was a Union visitor last Friday, calling on A. L. Becker, at the farm of the latter located near the Missouri river, east of town.

Mrs. Bryan, sister of Mrs. Barriet, was able to return to Union last week, following a long period spent in an Omaha hospital, recuperating from a fractured hip.

Mrs. Henry H. Becker, Mrs. Otto Ehlers, Donald Becker and the little babe of Mr. and Mrs. Ehlers were in Nebraska City last Saturday, doing some shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Chapman and little son of Springfield were guests last Sunday at the home of the parents of Mrs. Chapman, C. H. Whitworth and wife, of Union.

Mrs. E. M. Griffin of Plattsmouth spent several days here last week, guest at the home of her son, H. W. Griffin and family. She was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. George Winscott, Jr., who returned home the same evening.

The Union high school football team is to play under the flood lights at the Plattsmouth athletic field on Friday evening of this week. Their competitors will be the Rulo high school team and many from here expect to go to the county seat to see the game.

William Craig was a business visitor in Nebraska City last Friday, although 84 years old, Mr. Craig remains active and on Monday as we met him, he had just finished harvesting his crop of vegetables and was marketing them to the citizens of Union.

Vacation Day at Post Offices

Government employees, including the postal clerks will celebrate today as Thanksgiving day in accordance with the president's proclamation, but for the most part people in this state will have their celebration a week from today. The mix-up in dates is causing much confusion.

Church Nicely Decorated

With the completion of the painting and varnishing and other decorations at the Baptist church, the building is now in the best of condition. The annual Thanksgiving dinner and supper will be served by the ladies of the church on November 30, the date when most Nebraskans will celebrate.

Entertained the Card Club

Mrs. Dale Karnopp was hostess to the card club last Friday afternoon. Besides the members, two guests were present. The members of the club who attended were Miss Pearl Banning, Mrs. Joe Banning.

Mrs. Mickey, Mrs. Barritt, Mrs. Ralph Opp and Mrs. Fred McCarroll, Mrs. M. G. McCarroll, who is also a member of the club, is in California, and was unable to be present. A very enjoyable time was had by all.

Will Feed Cattle

Melvin Todd was in Omaha one day last week, where he purchased some 50 head of feeder cattle and had them brought to his farm north of Union. There he will put them on feed until they are ready to be returned to market.

Visited Friends Here

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Lindsay Vallojo, California, drove into Union last week and have been visiting relatives and friends here. Mr. Lindsay is a son of Joseph Lindsay and wife, and has been a member of the United States navy for several years. He is now enjoying a furlough and they will visit here for some time before returning to their home in the west.

David Stuart Buried at Sciota

The funeral of David Stuart, an old and familiar character in this part of Cass county, was held Sunday at Sciota. Mr. Stuart died on Friday at the institution in Lincoln, where he had been a patient for some time. Prior to being taken there, he had been a patient in an Omaha hospital. Although he lived in Nehawka, he had visited frequently in Union and was well known here.

Write from Salt Lake City

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. McCarroll, who left last week for California, accompanied by Mrs. Addie Amos, sister of Mr. McCarroll, whose home is in the west, wrote to friends here from Salt Lake City, stating they were having a very pleasant trip but had encountered quite cold weather. The McCarrolls expect to be gone three weeks to a month and were looking forward to a very pleasant visit on the west coast.

Candidate for Legislature

W. B. Banning has filed as a candidate for the office of state senator in the Nebraska unicameral legislature. Mr. Banning is experienced in the legislative field, having served as a state senator several terms under the old bi-cameral system which many claim is superior to the new one-house plan.

Quilting Bee

Neighbors of Mrs. W. O. Burbee were gathered at the Burbee home Monday afternoon, when they made the needles fly as they assisted Mrs. Burbee with the completion of some quilts.

The Red Cross Needs You

The American Red Cross, greatest humanitarian agency the world has ever known, is now in the midst of its annual roll call, or drive for members. When disaster strikes, in time of war or other emergencies, the Red Cross is always on the job, furnishing food, shelter and clothing to those in need. The price of a membership in this organization is not enough to make it prohibitive to anyone. A dollar turned in now to Miss Mary Becker at the bank will make you a member for the coming year and it shouldn't be necessary to have to go out and solicit members. Better drop in at the bank, if you haven't already done so, and leave your contribution toward the carrying on of this splendid program. The Red Cross needs you. Half of each dollar remains right here in our own community and the other half goes to the national organization.

Former Mayor Sattler Celebrates Birthday

Long Time Resident of City Enjoys Passing of 75th Anniversary with Members of Family

Saturday was the seventy-fifth birthday anniversary of John P. Sattler, resident of Plattsmouth over fifty years and for many years mayor of the city and civic leader. The anniversary was quietly spent with the members of the family circle and friends.

The birthday festivities opened at noon Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Waga on high school hill, with a lovely dinner. Mrs. Waga was assisted in preparing and serving by Mrs. H. M. Burdick, of Omaha.

Saturday evening the Sattler home at Fourth and Vine streets was the scene of a delightful family party, all of the children and grandchildren gathering there for an evening of visiting and cards. At a late hour a lovely lunch was served by Mrs. Bernard Meisinger, assisted by Mrs. H. M. Burdick and Mrs. Charles Lohmann of Omaha.

In the anniversary Mr. Sattler had the pleasure of being personally greeted by seven children, twelve grandchildren and two great-grandchildren, and received many birthday greetings from relatives and friends in Wisconsin, Illinois, Indiana, California and Nebraska.

Sunday noon a birthday dinner was served at the Sattler home by Mrs. Waga and Mrs. Charles Lohmann. The centerpiece of the dinner was a large and attractive cake in white and gold prepared by Mrs. Lohmann.

Sunday afternoon Mr. Sattler, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Waga and Shirley Mason accompanied Mrs. Lohmann to her home in Omaha and spent the remainder of the day in visiting with friends and relatives.

Mr. Sattler received many remembrances which he will long cherish, among them the following verses from his grandson, Laurence Sprecher, 5859 Third avenue, Los Angeles, California:

Birthday Greetings in Life's Harvest Time A birthday in life's autumn, How wonderful it seems In all the bright fulfillment Of spring and summer dreams.

May gold and crimson glory Remain for many more, And with the harvest grow still richer With time, than e'er before.

Our equipment is the finest, yet our services cost less. Porter Funeral Home, Nebraska City.
