

SOCIAL

From Monday's Daily—

Entertained at Omaha— Mrs. R. A. Bates was at Omaha Sunday where she was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Manacek at a dinner party.

Attend Peru Social Event—

Miss Shirley Petersen of this city and Miss Mary Elizabeth Beckman of Omaha returned Sunday from Peru where they had been guests of Miss Edna Mae Petersen.

Hold Steak Fry—

Sunday the Starkjohn summer cottage northwest of the city, was the scene of a very pleasant steak fry and which was very much enjoyed in the pleasant fall weather conditions.

Those who enjoyed the event were Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Knorr, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Sundstrom, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mullen, Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Cloldt and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Starkjohn.

R. E. Club Entertained—

Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mullen entertained the members of the R. E. club at their apartments in the Bates building, a very

LAND, FARM and RANCH BARGAINS

FOR SALE Poland China Boars, J. L. Young, Murray, Nebr.

FOR SALE Six room house, 1102 Pearl street, Address H. R. Brinkman, Sedalia, Missouri. n20-41w

FOR SALE Table top gasoline range. Practically new. Priced reasonable. Call or see Mrs. W. H. Burns. Phone 418-W. 1td&w

FOR SALE 40 acres of well improved land adjoining city on the west. Terms reasonable. See John M. Leyda, Bonded Abstractor of Land Titles, Plattsmouth, Neb., 50 years experience. n23-2wd&w

LIVESTOCK STILL THE FARMER'S BEST BET

Let Novak Supply You WE HAVE 15 head good milk cows—Reds, Roans and Holsteins. 10 head piggy sows. 1 team of good young mares. Novak's Easy Terms if Desired Novak Auto Co. Nebraska City delightful 6 o'clock dinner being served and the evening spent at cards. In the playing Frank Rice was awarded the first prize for gentlemen. William P. Rice the second, while in the ladies Mrs. L. D. McKinney was high with Mrs. Frank Mullen as second. W. P. Rice was awarded the special prize. Those to enjoy the event were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rice, Mr. and Mrs. William P. Rice, Mr. and Mrs. John Mien, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Tritsch, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. McKinney and Mr. and Mrs. Mullen.

Attends Sorority Parties—

Mrs. William A. Robertson was at Lincoln over the week-end, a house guest of her daughter, Mrs. Harold O. Murphey and family. Mrs. Robertson was also a guest at the Founder's day observance of the Delta Delta Delta sorority of which she is an alumni member.

The sorority banquet was held at the Hotel Cornhusker and Mrs. Agnes B. Loomis of Lincoln spoke for the alumni members and Miss Rachel Robertson, of this city for the activities of the chapter at the University of Nebraska. Mrs. Elizabeth Pfanner was the toastmistress of the banquet.

Active members of the sorority from this city are Miss Robertson and Miss Mary Gayer. Mrs. W. A. Robertson and Mrs. Murphey are alumnus of the Lincoln chapter.

On Sunday Mrs. Robertson was joined by Mr. Robertson for the dinner party at the sorority house, arranged for the mothers of the members of the active chapter. Songs and music were enjoyed following the dinner. Among the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Robertson attending were Chief Justice and Mrs. Robert Simmons.

From Tuesday's Daily—

Entertain at Cards— Mr. and Mrs. John Sattler, Jr., entertained on Sunday evening at the home on North Fourth street a group of the friends at bridge. The prize winners of the evening were Hilt Martin, first, Theodore Ptak, second, and M. A. Webb, third.

Murray Social Club—

The Social club met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. E. Brubacher. Ten members and one guest, Mrs. J. F. Stastka of Nebraska City were present. The afternoon was spent in playing pinocle and Chinese checkers.

At a suitable hour the hostesses served lunch, assisted by Mrs. George Nickles.

From Wednesday's Daily—

Inkler's Club Meets— Mrs. Fred Lugsch entertained the members of the Inkler's bridge club Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. John Hatt served as a guest of the club, Mrs. Elmer Sundstrom being unable to attend.

High score in bridge was had by Mrs. Henry Starkjohn and Mrs. Raymond Larson had the second highest score.

Enjoy Covered Dish Luncheon— A 6:30 p. m. covered dish luncheon for the elders and trustees and their wives of the First Presbyterian church was served Tuesday in the Fellowship room of the church. Eight of the nine elders, four of the six trustees, and two guests comprised the attendance list. Along with the other favorite trimmings that go to make up a tasty meal, chicken pie was served. Mrs. George Lushinsky and Mrs. George Fornoff supervised the service.

The elders and their wives present were Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Pollock, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Giles, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cloldt, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Farley, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Tritsch, and Mr. and Mrs. John Wehrlein. Mr. and Mrs. William A. Robertson were unable to be present. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Knorr and Mrs. Carl Schneider were present.

The trustees and their wives present were Mr. and Mrs. Harrison L. Gayer, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Born, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Perry, Leslie Niel. Mrs. Niel was unable to be present. Dr. and Mrs. Paul Heineman and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Noltling were also numbered among the absentees.

Guests of the group comprised Arthur Wurga and Floyd Shanholz, Dr. and Mrs. H. G. McClusky were among the group to enjoy the social evening with the members of their congregation.

Following the introductory devotionals the business session was devoted to plans and preparations for the church service work for the coming winter season.

Degree of Honor Meets—

Fifteen members were present at the November meeting of the Degree of Honor yesterday afternoon. The meeting, which was held at the home of Mrs. Andrew Kroehler on Washington avenue, was under the direction of the unit president, Miss Anna Hassler.

A social hour consisting of card playing and visiting was held by the members. Assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Walter Tritsch, the hostess served a luncheon.

DEATH OF ROY DEW

Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock Roy Dew, 52, passed away at the family home on east Pearl street after an illness of several months duration. Mr. Dew yesterday morning was taken much worse and continued to sink until death came to his relief.

The deceased has made his home in this community for a great many years, coming here from Watson, Missouri, and has spent the past years here.

For several years he was engaged in work at the local Burlington shops but has in recent years been retired from active work owing to his failing health.

Mr. Dew is survived by the widow, three sons and two daughters, Hershel Dew of Omaha, Hubert Dew of this city, James Dew of Oakland, California, Mrs. Robert Hart of this city and Mrs. Isabel Stepp of Falls City.

INVITED TO TEMPLE DEDICATION AT SCRIBNER

The Masonic quartet of this city, composed of Frank A. Cloldt, Dr. H. G. McClusky, Raymond C. Cook and R. W. Knorr, have been invited to participate on the program at Scribner, Nebraska, next Monday, November 27th.

The occasion is the dedication of the new Masonic temple and will bring many of the grand lodge officers and dignitaries to Scribner for the event.

DELL SYLVESTER BETTER

The reports from the Omaha hospital where he has been under treatment state that Dell Sylvester, under treatment there for typhoid fever, is showing a marked improvement and it is hoped will continue to improve until able to resume his usual activity.

WALTER MINNIEAR BETTER

While cutting wood in his backyard at 1009 Main street, Walter Minniear, an employee in the BREX shops, suffered a slight stroke Saturday afternoon. Since that time he has been ably cared for by his daughters, Misses Frances and Helen Minniear.

LEAVES FOR MISSOURI

Mrs. Nancy Berger of Beverly, California, who has been here for a visit at the R. H. Patton home, departed Tuesday for Worth, Missouri, where she will visit with relatives and later go to Chicago to visit her relatives there. Mrs. Berger will then return to the west coast.

TO INSPECT COMMANDERY

William A. Robertson, grand generalissimo of the grand commandery of Nebraska, is to be the inspecting officer at the inspection of Mt. Carmel commandery.

Subscribe for the Journal.

HINKY-DINKY BRINGS YOU BIG VALUES FOR

Thanksgiving

PREPARE for a festive Thanksgiving... enjoy the delicious foods of the holiday season. HINKY-DINKY has all the makings for a grand Thanksgiving feast... from appetizer to dessert. And all are priced to save you more money than ever.

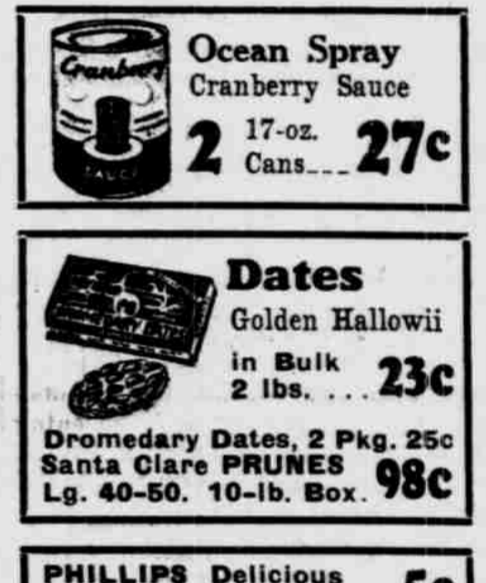

- Pineapple 15c, Fruit Cocktail 23c, Mince Meat 25c, Raisins 15c

- Pineapple Juice, Grapefruit, Corn, Blackberries, Olives, Pickles, Chocolates, Cookies, Calumet, Crackers, Tomato Juice, Brazil Nuts, Pudding, Nuts

- GRAPES, Cranberries, Grapefruit, Celery, Oranges, Yams

- LARD, Pork, Beef, Hamburger, Steak, Pork Chops, Mince, Bacon, Oysters

WALNUTS 17c

- Waconia Brand Sorghum, HEINZ KETCHUP, Super Suds, Sunsweet Prunes, Hershey Candy Bars, Omar Flour, Cake Flour, Starch, Salad Dressing

- JOHNSON'S GLO-COAT, JOHNSON'S Furniture Polish, STALEY'S Waffle Syrup, DEL MONTE Coffee, CLOROX, ScotTowels, CRISCO

Look! This IS Something For the next 10 days with every Overcoat or Topcoat $18 to $25 you select FREE any Hat up to $3

NO FURNACE CHORES FOR ME WE'RE USING STANDARDS NOW! Standard Briquets

FLOUR Sale! HINKY-DINKY FLOUR, ROYAL FLOUR, JOHNSON'S GLO-COAT, JOHNSON'S Furniture Polish, STALEY'S Waffle Syrup

DEL MONTE Coffee, Smooth, Mellow, Delicious

Sugar, Coffee, Soap, Pancake Flour

HEINZ KETCHUP, CRISCO, Palmolive Soap

Tidball Lumber Co. Phone 40, Plattsmouth