Two Injured on One Job

While Harold Krecklow, George Davis and John Rohrdanz were sawing wood with a power saw last week, Mr. Rohrdanz allowed the index finger of his left hand to get too close to the saw and a gash was inflicted that required the attention of the doctor. After the wound had been dressed he was allowed to return to work. On the same job, George Davis had a large piece of wood roll on his hand, mashing it quite badly. Although he was unable to use it for some time, he is now getting along very nicely.

A large group of his neighbors assembled at his home recently and with fourteen teams in the field gathered the remaining 1,400 bushels of his corn crop in one day, some of it having already been picked by hired help.

Oliver Johnstone Well Known Here is Commissioned

Grandson of the Late Mr. and Mrs. Emil Walters Receives Naval Aviation Commission.

The Sheridan (Wyoming) Press has the very interesting article on the recent commission of Oliver Johnstone, well known in this city where he was a visitor a number of times during the lifetime of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Walters. He is a nephew of Ed Walters of this city:

At a critical time like this, it is interesting to note the type of strapping and intelligent young men being trained for naval aviation by the United States.

After all, the wings of the fleet will play an important part in America's first line of defense in case of necessity.

Those thoughts came in mind the other day with the visit to his home in Sheridan of Oliver P. Johnstone, ensign in the Naval Air Reserve.

Commissioned recently at the navy's outstanding aeronautic school at Pensacola, Florida, Ensign Johnstone will now go to Colo Solo, Panama, to continue his career in the navy's flying forces.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Johnstone, 520 West Works street, and was graduated from the University of Wyoming in 1936.

His mother, Marguerite E. Johnstone, is a well-known contralto singer.

Tall and well-built, Ensign Johnstone frankly admits that he likes to fly, and that the large flying boats have an especial appeal for him.

That is one of the reasons he is going to the naval air base in the Panama Canal Zone—where aviation is becoming virtually all-important—instead of accepting offers as an instructor.

SOCIAL CIRCLE CLUB

One of the most enjoyable meetings of the season was held at the country home of Mrs. Arthur Hansen and Miss Margaret Moore where the Social Circle club held their first all-day meeting. Each member brought a covered dish and together with the delicious roast chicken, dressing, gravy and roast pork shoulder made a dinner fit for a king.

After this sumptuous dinner a short business session was held by the president, Mrs. Harry Gobelman. Mrs. Raymond Halth gave a lovely Thanksgiving reading which everyone enjoyed. The meeting was then turned over to the music leader, with Mrs. Halth at the piano, several national songs were sung and enjoyed. The rest of the afternoon was devoted to sewing and fancy work. All in all it was a gala day. Several visitors were present.

The next meeting will be the second Tuesday of December and this be sure to bring a gift for their cap-bearer the Christmas party everyone will bring, also a gift for the grab bag, costing not more than 10c. The men are invited to come and bring a gift for the men's grab bag. The meeting will be at the home of Mrs. S. Y. Smith. Come and have a good time. It is an all day meeting.

Urges Churches to Unite Forces

Lutheran Hour Speaker Says Threat of Communism is Something to be Reckoned With.

Communism in America has dropped its friendly mask and revealed its leering hatred of the Christian church, Dr. Walter A. Maier of Concordia Seminary asserted Sunday in his coast to coast Lutheran Hour broadcast. He referred to the statement attributed to Earl Browder, general secretary of the Communist party in the United States, that a Communist triumph in the United States would bring a "purge of religion" and "liquidation" of most of the present leaders and teachings.

"Communist victory in our country would mean one thing, closed and desecrated churches, a deposed and persecuted clergy, a Christless, hopeless worship," Dr. Maier added. "Mr. Browder promises consideration and lenience only for a small group of preachers. He does not name these favored few, but it may be assumed that he refers to so-called modernists with whom Communism has an unmistakable tie-up and understanding, indicated by the mutual endorsement with which Communists have approved religious radicalism and modernist preachers have praised Communism."

The Church of God will survive all these brutal onslaughts, the noted theologian declared, but he added that the time has come for a united front against the inroads of "clerical unbelief and infidelity in high church places." "The day has dawned," he said, "when all groups which accept the Bible as the errorless revelation of God and the only source of faith, and which in whatever denominations they may be found accept Jesus Christ as their God and Saviour, should come together. First of all they should examine the doctrinal differences that have separated Christians into dozens of different denominations. Then they should learn just what the Word of God teaches in these disputed issues, and on the basis of the clear testimony of that divine truth, the Christian churches should be completely realigned with an absolute unity of faith in all scriptural teachings and with a determination to defend that truth, under the cry: Back to God and His Bible! Back to Christ and His Cross!"

TOY CHRISTMAS SHOW DEC. 9

Saturday forenoon, December 9, at the Cass theatre, there will be held the annual Christmas toy show that is sponsored jointly by the Child Welfare committee of the American Legion Auxiliary and Manager Guy Griffin of the theatre. It will be the sixth consecutive year that Mr. Griffin has contributed the use of his theatre and equipment and paid all the rental cost of the film in order to further the program of toy distribution sponsored by the ladies of the Legion Auxiliary.

This year's offering will be a surprise show, appropriate to Christmas time and featuring one of the best known movie stars on the screen today. Admission will be gained only by the giving of a discarded—but useful—toy. Toys needing only minor repairs to restore their usefulness will be acceptable, but badly broken and useless toys will not be taken.

Also co-operating with the ladies this year is the Style Shop, which is donating the use of its basement room. There, a full week before Christmas day, the "Toy Shop" will be opened. Parents receiving "Toy Scrip" may go there and select the kind of toy they feel their children would be most pleased with. This new plan of distribution is being tried out this year for the first time in an effort to bring about a more orderly distribution of toys.

Besides toys received at the theatre solicitation is being carried on by the ladies among parents of older children for discarded toys and among business men and others not having children to give some new toy to help make Christmas day happier for the children in homes who might otherwise be overlooked by Santa in making his rounds Christmas eve.

The list of families to whom "Toy Scrip" will be issued is now being compiled and checked. All persons knowing of needy families are invited to phone members of the Child Welfare committee, which is composed Mrs. Elmer Web, Mrs. Robert Cappel, Mrs. Raymond Larson, Mrs. Edgar Creamer and Mrs. Eugene Vroman, Auxiliary president.

PLACE BOOKS IN CIRCULATION

The new books that the Plattsmouth public library had on display last week in the room adjoining the Bates Book Store on the north have almost all been circulated to its readers. The books were put on display in the observance of National Book Week. The librarians have arranged for each child to take one new book—the choice being depended upon them.

NEED ONLY ONE NUMBER

Once a person obtains a Social Security account number, that number is his forever. When a person changes employment, he does not need a new account number card. For this reason, workers should carefully preserve their Social Security account number card, at the same time copying the number and placing the copy in a safe place.

Many Inquiries as to Positions as Enumerators

Present Setup Indicates Enumerators to Be Recommended by Pary Chairman.

The announcement of the appointment of Francis Robinson of Lincoln as census supervisor for eastern Nebraska, has led to a great deal of inquiry as to the positions of enumerators in the different counties, cities and precincts.

Many have called at the court house to inquire as to the positions that might be available but find that the county officials have no part in the selection of parties to be employed or the direction of the census.

The taking of the census is strictly a federal proposition and will be handled by the state supervisors and district heads who will in turn expand the organization into smaller units with the men and women who are to personally take the census.

Recommendation of the county chairman of the democratic party for the places as census takers is to be used as the basis for the filling of the positions. Those who wish to enter this had best take the steps of applying to the chairman as higher officials of the census will not handle this phase of the census taking.

The whole program is still in the process of being ironed out and meetings and conferences of the heads of districts will be necessary before the whole program can be announced.

In all these years it has given continuous service to homeless and destitute children, to whom the doors of the home have never been closed, day or night. In that time thousands of little children from all parts of the country have been tenderly cared for, trained and educated and placed in fine private families, and in every way they have been given the opportunity to grow up into outstanding Christian men and women.

The Christian Home Orphanage has been built up to its present great size by the free-will offerings of good people from all sections of the nation.
