Ray E. Fredrick, whose serious illness was noted in these columns last week, remains little improved at his home in Nebraska City. Friends in Murray and Greenwood, where the Fredrick family formerly resided will be pained to learn that he is not improving.

Spent Thanksgiving at Syracuse

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Troop, of Syracuse entertained at Thanksgiving dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bestor of Plattsmouth, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Wehrlein and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Troop, of near Murray, and Tommy Troop. A most enjoyable time is reported.

Mother and Babe Home

Mrs. Gou Murdoch and daughter, who was born a fortnight ago, returned home Sunday and were well pleased to be home, but no more so than was Guy and the children, who are enjoying making the acquaintance of their new sister.

Hunted Ducks on the Island

Frank Dugay came to Murray last Thursday (Thanksgiving day), and accompanied by Earl Merritt and wife, Robert Lewis and Bill Gayer, went over to the island in the Missouri river south of Rockbluffs, on a duck hunting trip. Although they were not able to bag any ducks, they did not go hungry for they had brought other food and built a fire in the open and cooked their meal. The mild weather has made this one of the poorest duck hunting seasons in recent years.

Visited at Kansas City

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Tutt, of Murray and Julius A. Pitz and daughter Margaret Ann, of Plattsmouth, drove to Kansas City last Thursday morning for a Thanksgiving day visit at the home of Mrs. Emma Nims, sister of Mrs. Tutt and Mr. Pitz. They remained until Sunday, leaving there about noon and arriving in the early evening. While there they also visited at the homes of Mrs. Nims' son and daughter, Arnold Nims and family and Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Pallas and children, Harriett and Lucele Pallas. They enjoyed a most pleasant three days in the Missouri city.

Christmas Decorations

When the writer entered the store of Tuit & Brubaker early this week, we found the store nicely decorated with festoons and streamers of varicolored crepe paper hanging from the ceiling and gracing the walls, thus betokening the rapid approach of Christmas, as well as a generous display of holiday goods throughout the store. And, whether you are aware of it or not, there are only fourteen actual shopping days until Christmas.

W. S. Smith Home

W. S. Smith, who was at Excelsior Springs, Mo., for thirty days, taking treatment for his health, was brought home Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Merritt, who drove down after him. Mr. Smith has received much benefit from his treatments there and is assured by the physicians that he will continue to improve as time goes on.

The Merritts had arranged to call for him at noon, but made better time than they had anticipated and got there by 11 o'clock, which was most pleasing to the patient, as he was desirous of getting back home after a month down there.

Enjoyed Brief Visit Here

Rev. Loyd Shubert, former pastor of the Murray Christian church, and Mrs. Shubert, enjoyed a short visit here during the Thanksgiving vacation season. Rev. Shubert is attending school in Lincoln and they are dividing time between there and Ulysses, where he has a pastorate—spending four days of each week at Lincoln and three at Ulysses. While here they enjoyed meeting many of their old friends, as well as attending the Thanksgiving dinner which was served by the ladies of the church.

Shortly after dinner, they departed for Wann, as Rev. Shubert was to officiate at a wedding at the home of friends living north of that town on Thanksgiving afternoon, going from there to Lincoln and then on to their home at Ulysses.

Weeping Water Welfare Club Members of the Welfare club and a number of friends met last Wednesday afternoon at the parlors of the Methodist church, where a fine program and a delicious luncheon were enjoyed. Two very worthwhile addresses were made, in addition to the other numbers on the program.

Visited Plattsmouth and Lincoln. C. C. Boldin and grandson, Wayne Dowler were in Plattsmouth where they went to secure a driver's license for Wayne, and were informed they would have to wait until the patrolman who has the matter in hand would be at the court house which date is to be December 14th. They then returned to Weeping Water and also went to Lincoln, where they met with no better success in finding a patrolman, so they will wait until December 14th.

Junior C. of C. Elects.

At the recent meeting of the Weeping Water Junior Chamber of Commerce, after the regular order of business had been cared for, election of officers was held which resulted in the following selections: Art Burthold, president; Wilber Long, vice-president; Arch Crozier, secretary. The chamber has a bowling team and as well a ping-pong team and would like to meet such teams from other Junior Chamber of Commerce from any surrounding city. Any chamber having such teams get in touch with Richard Keckler and the matter can be arranged.

Renew Filtering Plant Here.

Weeping Water which has a filtering process to remove dirt and foreign substance as well as to clarify the city water have recently cleaned their filtering process and now have an extra amount of good pure water. They also have plenty of water as the stream, the Weeping Water creek which furnishes the supply has been rising lately. This is attributed to the rising of the water level in the soil which has a tendency to be lower during the summer months and is thought by some to be caused by the use of more water for irrigation during the growing season.

Visiting in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Earl Oldham, who with the husband has been enjoying a visit for some time from their son, Randall Oldham and wife of Los Angeles, has accompanied them on their return to the west where she will visit for a time with them and also another son, wife, Mr. and Mrs. Denzel Oldham, as well as see the country and get a glimpse of conditions there as she and Mr. Oldham have been desiring to go to California to make their home. However Mrs. Oldham expect to return home after a visit there for a time. Mr. and Mrs. Randall Oldham spent some time in Weeping Water visiting with his parents and also visited in Omaha with the parents of Mrs. Oldham and with a brother of Mrs. Oldham in Chicago.
