From Thursday's Daily—
Herbert Schuetz Host—
 Members of the Shuffle & Deal card club were entertained at the Coronado apartments Tuesday—Herbert Schuetz acting as host. Owing to the absence of Louis Egenberger, Martin O. Webb served as a guest.

 Dr. W. V. Ryan and Martin O. Webb were the winners of the highest scores.

Dorcas Circle Members Meet—
 Mrs. Fred Bourck entertained the members of the First Methodist church Dorcas circle at her home Wednesday afternoon. The attendance list showed seventeen present at the combined business-social (Christmas party). Mrs. C. C. Westcott gave a Christmas story. "Matter of System." In serving the refreshments Mrs. Bourck was assisted by Mrs. Fred Howland.

Entertain Sunday School Class—
 Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George W. Hall, Mrs. Hall, Mrs. James Yelick and Miss Ella Kennedy were hostesses to a very pleasant meeting of the members of their Bible class, of which Mrs. William Baird is the teacher. Mrs. Val Burkell, president, presided.

A very pleasant afternoon of "Bible Bingo" was enjoyed by the ladies as a part of the program. There were eighteen present.

At the close of the afternoon the hostesses served dainty refreshments.

G. R. Club Meets—
 The G. R. club held its annual Christmas party and dinner at the home of Mrs. Albert Stokes Wednesday. She had her home decorated very festive for the occasion and a beautiful Christmas tree made the colorful decorations complete.

Twelve members and five children were there, and the members elected their officers for the coming year. The club enjoyed the colorful surroundings and the well prepared dinner. To keep the Christmas spirit they all participated in exchanging gifts.

Attend Birthday Party—
 Mr. and Mrs. John Rummel and son spent last Saturday evening at Hamburg, Iowa where they were invited guests at a birthday party given in honor of Mr. A. J. Black, whose birthday occurred on December 10. The evening was spent in playing cards. At a late hour a delicious lunch was served. Mr. Black was presented with a lovely birthday cake from Mrs. L. G. Anderson of Omaha. Mr. Black is an uncle of Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Rummel. All departed at a late hour wishing him many more such birthdays.

There were about one hundred neighbors and friends gathered for the occasion. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Cloyd Black, Jo Ann and Jimmie of Omaha and Mr. and Mrs. John Rummel and son of this city.

Four Mile Creek Club—
 Mrs. Philip Kehne and Mrs. Henry Born very pleasantly entertained the members of the Four Mile Creek club at the home of Mrs. Kehne Tuesday, December 12th.

In answer to the roll call, each member read a short verse. This was followed by reading of the minutes of the last previous meeting and reports of the committees for the Christmas party being held today (Thursday, Dec. 11) at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Born.

Mrs. John Wehrlein had charge of the lesson and gave a very interesting account of "Christmas in Other Lands."

At the close of the business meeting a social hour was enjoyed. Mrs. L. G. Meisinger and Miss Helen Hunter were the prize winners.

Mrs. Born and Mrs. Kehne served a very delicious lunch.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Elmer Tritsch on January 9.

Mrs. Floyd Becker and Miss Pauline Ingwerson were guests.

Circles Hold Christmas Party—
 Circles I and II of St. John the Baptist church met for their December meeting Wednesday afternoon at 1 and 2 p. m. respectively. In conjunction with the business meeting the ladies also held their Christmas party.

At 1 o'clock a covered dish luncheon was served at the Henry Stark-john home for members of Circle I. Assistant hostesses were Mrs. Lucille Gaines, Mrs. Emmons J. Richey, and Mrs. Mike Hauslauden. Mrs. Frank Mullen and Miss Alice Bennett were guests at the combined business and social meeting. Following the luncheon a short business meeting was held and the social hour consisted of visiting. The circle prize was awarded to Mrs. Frank Rebal.

Mrs. Harold Chandler, Mrs. Bronson Timm and Mrs. J. C. Wagner served as hostesses at Circle No. 2's meeting, which was held at the former's home. Bingo was played during the social hour and the prize winners were pronounced as Mrs. J. C. Petersen, Mrs. Corda L. Pittman, and Mrs. John Bergman. Mrs. Timm and Mrs. Chandler led the bingo at various intervals. A Christmas luncheon was served by the hostesses at the conclusion of the party.

The customary routine at all Christmas parties—the exchange of gifts—was carried out by both circles.

Entertains at Christmas Party—
 Members of the Wednesday afternoon bridge club were entertained at a Christmas party yesterday at the home of Mrs. Neville Hodson at the Herald apartment, Unit C. Present at the Christmas party were Mrs. John Sattler, Mrs. Theodore Ptak, Mrs. Herbert Schuetz, Mrs. James Mauzy, Mrs. M. O. Webb, Mrs. G. J. Jaeger, Mrs. D. B. Ashbaugh and the hostess.

The afternoon was spent in playing bridge and Mrs. Jaeger received the first prize; Mrs. Ashbaugh, second; and Mrs. Martin O. Webb, the third. Mrs. Webb also won the Ace of Spades prize. The ladies also exchanged gifts.

Star Has Initiation—
 Last evening Home chapter No. 189, Order of Eastern Star held a very largely attended meeting at the chapter rooms in the Masonic building to attend the initiation ceremonies at which candidates were received into the order. Some 100 of the members were in attendance.

The local officers conducted the ceremonies in a very impressive manner.

The chapter had a number of very distinguished members of the order from other points, and officers of the grand chapter of Nebraska. Mrs. Frona Van Anel of Lincoln, grand worthy matron; William S. Cochran, of Auburn, grand worthy patron; Mrs. Crabtree of Lincoln, grand chaplain; Miss Cochran of Auburn, grand representative from Utah. Others here were Mrs. Hall, worthy matron. Auburn; Mr. and Mrs. Bosshamer, Mrs. Pierson, Auburn; Mrs. Myra Richards, worthy matron, Trinity chapter and Mrs. Tillery, worthy matron, Vesta chapter, of Omaha, Mr. and Mrs. Bailey, Omaha.

One of the pleasant features of the social hour was the numbers given by the Eastern Star quartet composed of Ray Cook, Mrs. J. R. Reeder, Mrs. Harry Nielsen and Don C. York, giving a medley of the songs of yesteryear and the present.

In honor of the occasion Home chapter presented lovely gifts to the Grand Matron Mrs. Van Anel, Mrs. W. L. Seybold, new worthy matron, making the presentation and the gift to Mr. Cochran, grand worthy patron, was made by L. L. Wiles, local worthy patron.

The evening was closed with the serving of refreshments by the kitchen committee and the dining room committee decorated the room with Christmas decorations—red and green holders being used for the mints.

From Friday's Daily—
Clubs Hold Christmas Parties—
 Mrs. William Woolcott entertained the members of the Two-Square bridge club at a Christmas party at her home at 323 South Eighth street yesterday. Guests present were Mrs. P. I. Rea, Mrs. William Swatek, Mrs. Cyril Kalina, Mrs. Frank Rebal, Mrs. Lester Gaylord, Mrs. John Bergman, and Mrs. Henry Starkjohn. Mrs. John Hadraha was unable to be present. The ladies played bridge and Mrs. Gaylord, Mrs. Rea were the prize winners. Mrs. Gaylord winning the first prize and the Ace of Spades prize. The exchange-of-gifts feature was carried out by the members. Christmas colors predominated in the decorations of the Woolcott home.

The Stitch & Nibble club's Christmas party took place at the James Zitka home last evening with eleven present—Mrs. John V. Svoboda, Mrs. Ernest Janda, Mrs. William Nelson, Mrs. Louis Svoboda, Mrs. James Zitka, Mrs. Frank Koubek, Misses Lillian and Antonette Koubek, Rose Janda, Dorothy Svoboda, Anna Knieke. Guests all arrived with yuletide packages, which were exchanged at a later hour. The centerpiece of the dining table at the Zitka home comprised a decorated Christmas tree with lighted candles at opposite ends. Mrs. Joseph Knoficek was unable to attend.

A no-host dinner and Christmas party was given at the Hotel Platts-mouth last evening, when members of the Thursday evening bridge club were tendered a 6:30 dinner in the dining room of the hotel. Club members present were Mrs. Guy Long, Mrs. Ray Herring, Mrs. Ray Bryant, Mrs. Marie Richards, Mrs. Walter Tritsch, Mrs. Bernard Klinger, Mrs. Rudolph Iverson, and Mrs. Fred Sharpnack. Mrs. Ray Bryant and Mrs. Rudolph Iverson won first and second prizes respectively. The members also exchanged gifts during the evening.

Miss Ruth Westover and Miss Catherine Reeves entertained the members of the Daughters of the American Legion at a Christmas party last evening at the Westover home at 805 Main street. Guests at the party included Misses Shirley Walling, Catherine Strickland, Betty and Maxine Vroman, Mrs. James Hauzy, Misses Wilma Reeves, Kenne Brown, Dorothy Jean Turner, and Rose Mary Steppatt. Misses Shirley Walling and Catherine Reeves received the awards for the game. Cards were also played by the girls. Following the exchange of gifts the girls all enjoyed the refreshments served by the hostesses.

Mrs. Lora Lloyd Kieck was hostess to the Delta Deck club Thursday evening at a most charmingly arranged three-course 6:30 dinner at the Hotel Platts-mouth dining room, followed by an evening of bridge. The dinner table was arranged in the Christmas theme, a small lighted tree forming the centerpiece with tall red tapers adding a very attractive touch to the scene. A large Christmas tree beautifully decorated was placed near the table and where the exchange of gifts by the members was enjoyed. In the evening of bridge that followed Miss Laura Meisinger was the winner of the first prize, Mrs. Louis Ward Egenberger, second and Mrs. William H. Schmidtman received the consolation prize. Mrs. John Albert and Mrs. William H. Schmidtman were guests of the club and Mrs. Kieck. The members attending were Mrs. Louis Ward Egenberger, Mrs. F. R. Gobelman, Miss Mathilde Soennichsen, Mrs. Lillian Livingston, Miss Amelia Martens, Miss Margaret Seottien, Mrs. Thomas Walling, Miss Laura Meisinger, Mrs. Henry McMaken of Omaha and Mrs. Kieck.

Guild-Auxiliary Meeting—
 Thursday afternoon the St. Mary's Guild and the Woman's Auxiliary of the St. Luke's church met at the home to Misses Mia and Barbara Gering for a very interesting and enjoyable session. The devotions of the afternoon were led by Mrs. Frank L. Cummins, president. In the roll call the members responded with their impressions of the meeting held at the St. Mary's church at Nebraska City last week, and the highlights of the talk given by Mrs. Burke on the mission work in Alaska. Mrs. J. M. Roberts gave a very interesting Christmas story, "Christmas Around the World," taken from the mission magazine, "The Spirit of Missions." It was also voted by the guild to purchase new altar hangings for the St. Luke's church. The report of the treasurer showed all quotas of the societies paid for the year and which was very pleasing to the membership. The hostesses, at the close of the afternoon, served refreshments suitable to the Christmas season.

Former Residents Entertain—
 Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Slatinsky, former Platts-mouth residents now residing at Sedalia, Missouri entertained a group of Platts-mouth, former Platts-mouth, and Sedalia, Missouri friends at their home Saturday evening, December 9. Platts-mouth and former Platts-mouth resident guests of the Slatinskys were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sedlak, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Hula, Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Kahoutek, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brinkman. Six other Sedalia, Missouri couples were present at the occasion, which honored Mrs. Timothy Kahoutek, who spent the week-end in Missouri with her husband, who has been employed in the Missouri Pacific shops. The evening was spent in playing cards and visiting.

The Slatinskys entertained at a turkey dinner in honor of the Kahouteks Sunday, December 10. Mr. and Mrs. Kahoutek returned to their Platts-mouth home Monday morning.

From Saturday's Daily—
High School Dance—
 One of the very pleasant social events of the pre-holiday season in the high school calendar, was that of the all high school dance last evening at the gym of the school.

The committee in charge, Jimmie Jones, chairman; Shirley Mason and Shirley Speck, had prepared a fine program that made the dance even more delightful than usual.

Games were played as a part of the program and specialized dance numbers added to the fun of the large group of young people during the evening. Special favors had been arranged in keeping with the Christmas season, the boys being presented with stars and the girls with bell bracelets as remembrances of the happy gathering.

The members of the faculty and the board of education and their ladies were guests of the evening.

The music for the dance was furnished by Pete Gradoville and his Night Hawks.

Chaperons of the dance were Fred I. Rea, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Cloyd, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Devoe, Mrs. Don Seiver, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Reeder, Lumir Gerner

Auxiliary Christmas Party—
 The American Legion Auxiliary's annual Christmas party, in conjunction with the regular December business meeting, was held Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Elmer Webb.

A one o'clock covered dish luncheon opened the afternoon's festivities. Sickness in a number of homes prevented some of the officers and members from attending.

Members brought foodstuff to go into the baskets to be sent to the families of eleven local needy veterans at Christmas time. The unit has also contributed money to the Veterans hospital gift shop, where hospitalized men may select toys and other gift items to send to their families back home.

Considerable time at the business session was given to discussion of plans for the local toy shop, to be opened Wednesday morning in the basement of the Style Shop, for distribution of new and usable toys to the children of all needy families in this community. The toy shop will remain open four days, Wednesday to Saturday, when parents receiving gift scrip may call and select toys for their children. There will also be some articles of clothing.

Following the business session, cards were played with Mrs. Fay McClintock and Mrs. Eugene Vroman the high point winners, and Mrs. Janacek recipient of the consolation prize.

Attorney J. C. Bryant and E. A. Wiggernhorn of the Farmers and Merchants bank of Ashland, were here Friday to look after some matters at the court house for a few hours.

Neighborhood Pinochle Meets—
 Mrs. Raymond Larson, Mrs. John Woest, John Alwin, and John Woest were the winners of the awards presented at the Neighborhood pinochle party Friday evening, December 15 at the Elmer Lohnes home at 302 South Ninth street. Since the resignation of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Manners, who are in California for the winter, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Hild have been added to the club's list of members. Three tables of pinochle were played that evening.

Mrs. Henry Herold Hostess—
 At the December business meeting of Chapter F, P.E.O. which was held at the home of Mrs. Henry Herold, Miss Helene Perry, instructor in the Junior High school, related a Christmas story. The evening took place Friday, December 15.
