Santa Claus is Welcomed by Great Crowds

Visit Here Saturday Gives Santa Op- for their excellent work. portunity to Treat 1,500 Children Thronging Reception Room.

Santa Claus made his official preafternoon and was greeted by a great on a charge of intoxication and after Rotary club today, County Attorney was little less than that of the small costs was given by the court.

Santa's plans of arriving by plane were interfered with so that it was necessary for Santa to drive from Murray to this city where he arrived on the scheduled time, 1:30.

The Plattsmouth city school band under the direction of David Fowler, led the procession and escorted Santa and his guard of honor composed of children named by the various schools in this section of Cass county, who fittingly carried out their part of the program. The guard of honor comprised the following:

Raymond Rhoden, Dist. 88, Bion A. Hoffman, teacher; Kenneth Amelia Martens, teacher; Richard Soennichsen, Dist. 1, Agnes Muenster, teacher; Darlene White, Plattsmouth, Ellen Ubben, teacher; mins, Dist. 1, L. Cummins, teacher; Ross Abel, Dist. 45, Mildred Wilson, Vernon Grady, Dist. 76, Dorothy teacher: Walter Kimberling, Dist. 1, Ehlers, teacher; Sandro Kolb, Dist. county and Nebraska City. 1. Margaret Bauer, teacher; Junior Kaffenberger, Dist. 1, Thelma Tritt, teacher: Beverly Sutton, 7A, Dow Armstrong, teacher; Donald Ahl, Dist. 47. Gertrude Hardt, teacher; Alice er; Nelly Jean Lloyd, Dist. 60, Esther Rhoden, teacher; Jack Noell, Dist. 56; H. A. Grier, teacher; Dar-Korbel, teacher; Gary Klinger, Dist. 1. Sylvia E. Korbel, teacher; Billy teacher; Ronald March, Room 17, the Czech and English languages. Lois Mead, teacher; Norman Ash-

Rex Burhee, Dist. 13, Jane Christensen, teacher; Mary Lou Walling, Dist. 1. Sister Celestine, teacher; and Timothy Kahoutek. Billie Baumgart, Dist. 28, Margaru-Dist. 37: Martha Kaffenberger, teacher; Eidell Speck, Dist. 41, Dorls E. Wall, teacher; Cyril Kocian, Dist. 1, Sister Mary Oda, teacher; Ted Stokes, Dist. 6, Dora Trively, teacher; Betty Ann Koubek, Dist. 1, Lorraine Dall, teacher; Donna Lott er; Gladys Kuhns, Dist. 5, Marie Thomason, teacher.

Wanda Schomaker, Dist. 80, Inez the photo section. Manis and Florence Shafer, teachers.

In handling the large crowd that congregated at the corner of Fourth and Main streets, the police deserve a great deal of commendation for the prevention of accidents and keep- is quite ill at the family home on ing the onrushing pushing group in Santa had his reception in the east room of the Journal building to learn of her condition and trust and it was more than an hour be- that she may soon be able to rally fore the children could pass through from the illness. the building and receive their treat. There were 1.500 sacks of candy given away by Santa to the boys and moved to the small house erected just is reported as being some improved voyage to South America the past the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Han- not been in good health for the past tion, real cheap. See or call Bob the county and the many friends are north of the Plattsmouth State bank altho his condition is still serious. summer.

viewed by several hundred of the County Attorney building and where he was interchildren from all sections of the

The committee in charge of the visit of Santa, headed by Lumir Gerner of the high school faculty, deserves a great deal of commendation

DRAWS DOWN FINE

Monday in the court of Judge C. L. From Tuesday's Dany-Christmas visit to the city Saturday Graves, Ralph Eaton was arraigned crowd of the youngsters and many hearing the evidence and the plea of Walter H. Smith, was the guest older residents whose enthusiasm the defendant, a fine of $10 and speaker and brought a most interest-

Judge Wilson to Seek Return

Nomination Shortly After First of Year.

From Puesday's Dally-

City, while here today to hold a short of race, sex or creed and with a body session of the district court, stated and soul functioning to attain suc-Tschirren, Dist. 29, Miss Shelhorn, to the Journal representative that cess, happiness asd reward. Each of teacher; Patty Ann Mason, Central he expected to file for the nomination us working for the same goal by for district judge shortly after the means only in themselves different; first of the year.

Judge Wilson has filled the post Mary Irene Libershal, Dist. 1, Miss of judge in the second judicial dis- pendents sustainance of body and Noiting, teacher; Mary Alice Cum- trict since May 1937 when he was soul in a dwelling place engaged by appointed by Governor R. L. Cochran us all. Essentially then we are all teacher; Jack Scott, Dist. 7, Lucille to fill the post made vacant by the one in nature and purpose, all com-A. Meisinger, teacher; Wanda Lou death of Judge W. G. Kieck. Judge prising the unity of mankind. If Cacy, Dit. 1, Selma J. Diehm, teach- Wilson has served very efficiently at such unity is preserved from it must er: Helen Neil, Dist. 12, Miss Ruth his post in the time that he has been come as a natural consequence peace, Carper, Dist. 56, Irma Dvorak, teach- Prior to being appointed to the operative spirit of good will. The ench Judge Wilson was engaged in Gakemeler, teacher; Eldon Meisin- private practice at Nebraska City no other result. ger. Dist. 42, Ruth Alexen, teacher: after a number of years on the stat? "The development of racial and Doris Knox, Dist. 4. Ruth Horn, supreme court commission, serving national hatreds and jealousies and Rose Prohaska, teacher; Ralph Hild, there until the abolishing of the the yearning for selfish gain without Dist. 25. Nellie Carlson, teachers; commission. He also has served as consideration of fellowmen and their Dick Fischer, Dist. 55, Dorothy county and city attorney in Otoe rights of justice and morality has salutation and honor to the Christ-

FUNERAL OF FRANK JANDA

Thierolf, Dist. 31, Jimmie Franke, Janda, who passed away in Omaha to the club. Betty Dieter, Dist. 97, Geogetta Saturday morning, were held this Hazen, teacher; Elmer Pegden, Dist. morning at 9:30 o'clock at the Holy singing two of the Christmas caro's 1. Helene Perry, teacher; Patty Jo Rosary Catholic church and were at- in keeping with the Christmas theme Taenzler, Dist. 1, Jane Oakes, teach- tended by a large group of the friends Richard Spangler being the leader. and relatives.

Rev. Joseph R. Sinkula, pastor of lene Sowards, Mary Ann Yardley, the church, celebrated the requiem luncheon. Dist. 34, Ruth Stuhr, teacher; Mary high mass and he was assisted by Jo Ann Lohnes, Dist. 1. Sylvia E. the choir of the church and Mrs. Allan McClanahan. Father Sinkula McCormick, Dist. 1, Zella Traudt, also delivered the sermon in Both baugh, First Ward, Blanche Hughes, diately following the services at the district. The line which operates teacher; Betty Peterson, Dist. 26, Holy Sepulchre cemetery beside the from Syracuse north is now serving the city occurred the death of Marvin Light Bearers organization, and section of the city occurred the death of Marvin Light Bearers organization, and section of the city occurred the death of Marvin Light Bearers organization, and section of the city occurred the death of Marvin Light Bearers organization, and section of the city occurred the death of Marvin Light Bearers organization, and section of the city occurred the death of Marvin Light Bearers organization. ener, Dist. 79, Mrs. Shelhorn, body of his first wife, Louise. Pall the patrons and the farm homes teacher; Lena Baier, Dist. 77, Dor- bearers were selected from among that have been signed up and equipothy R. Lepert, teacher; Teddy Smith, the old friends of the deceased—John ped are now enjoying the benefits of death came as a severe blow to the Dist. 15, Flora Belle Mead, teacher; Libershal, Joseph Holly, James No-the service. wacek, Adolph and Anton Koubek, ette E. Dall, teacher; Clifford Dress, grave, the major portion of the relatives returned to Omaha, where they of convenience and added comfort spent the remainder of the day.

APPEAR IN ROTOGRAVURE

In the World-Herald rotogravure Richards, Columbian, Margaret L. section Sunday appeared pictures districts. Iverson, teacher; Phyllis Grunwald, taken at the military ball at the Arvil Campbell, Dist. 8, Alice Mae University of Nebraska. Among Campbell, teacher; Jean Stava, Dist. those who were captured by the 2. Dorothy Fowler, teacher; Alice camera as they were watching the and Mrs. Searl S. Davis of this city. the County Superintendents' associathis city. Santa Claus Escort

Joan Franke, Dist. 31, Mildred The pictures were excellent and Boys Town the seat of Father Electron Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kain were O'Brien seems assured. Joan Franke, Dist. 31, Mildred Ram as a great surprise to the Boys Town, the seat of Father Flan- also made parents of a fine little son Dist. 88, Zelma W. Johnson, teacher; Plattsmouth parties to find them in agan's Home for Boys. It was very who is a pleasing addition to the

MRS. BAUMGART ILL

Mrs. Fred Baumgart, one of the old time residents of the community. east Vine street, suffering from an attack of pneumonia. The many friends of Mrs. Baumgart will regret

SHOWS SOME IMPROVEMENT

After the candy distribution Santa der medical treatment for some time, the San Francisco and enjoyed a to visit for a short time as guests at bert, was not so well. Mr. Albert has

is Guest Speaker of Rotary Club

Walter H. Smith Gives Very Fine Talk on Ideals Found in the Christmas Thought.

At the noonday luncheon of the ing message on the Christmas theme of good will and the brotherhood of Referring to the appreciation of the unity of mankind as being fundamental in the preservation of peace, Mr. Smith said: "Create in to Dist. Bench men and rulers an appreciation of the unity of mankind and strife and distress will be but ancient history. Jurist States He Will File for Re- And why should it be so difficult to convince rulers and men of the importance of that unity in preserving peace? Each of us possesses the same fundamental nature, a nature of ra-Judge W. W. Wilson of Nebraska tionality identical in all regardless each of us centering our actions upon that which will give us and our de-L. Morris, teacher; Irvene Meisinger, the presiding judge of the district. kindliness, mutual trust and a co-> caused the breach of that unity. From it has resulted war, strife and blood-

James G. Mauzy was the leader of Funeral services for the late Frank the meeting and presented Mr. Smith

The members of the club enjoyed Attorney Carl D. Ganz, of Alvo, was a guest of the club at the

FARMS GET ELECTRIC POWER

The rural sections west of the city are now being served with power The interment was made imme- from the Loup River public power

The service has enabled the farmers to have electric lights in their Following the services at the homes, as well as in the barns and to the farms. Electric appliances are of the funeral. being installed at many of the farms in order to have full advantage of the electric service through the rural interesting and the visiting party had family circle. the opportunity of seeing all departments of the home in action. They studied the government of the Home where the boys themselves conduct From Wednesday's Dailytheir city affairs and learn the full responsibility of citizenship.

VISITS AT BOYS TOWN

SAILOR VISITS RELATIVES

is visiting at the Percy Wheeler and Iowa where they will reside. Harry Nielsen homes this week, Jerry

MOVING TO ASHLAND

From Monday's Dally-This morning Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Moore departed with their household effects for their new home at Ashland, where Mr. Moore has been for the past several months as the first trick operator at that place. They have sold their home here to Mrs. Jehn L. Tidball.

It is with regret that the many iriends see Mr. and Mrs. Moore leave the city where they have so long resided and have a very large circle of

In their new home they will take the best wishes for happiness and success from the old time friends.

Lyle L. Horton is Commander of

Election of Officers of Mt. Zion Commandery No. 5 Knights Templar Held Monday Evening.

From Tuesday's Dany-

Last evening the members of M Zion commandery No. 5, Knights Templar, held their annual election of officers at the asylum in the Masonic building and with a very fine attendance of the membership. The officers elected were as fol-

Commander-Lyle L. Horton. Generalissimo-Roy O. Cole. Captain of the Guard-L. L. Mc-

Treasurer-Frank A. Cloidt.

Recorder-William F. Evers. Other officers will be appointed by the new commander and the installation of the officers will be held on Monday, January 15th.

mas observances at the asylum on eral times at the church the staging spector of want stalks in a land of and the two red pylon candles which Christmas day at 11 a. m. and at which hour Templars in all parts of the world will join in the universal

MRS. FOSTER IMPROVING

From Wednesday's Daily --

Union, were here today for a few deeper as the time drew nearer. ments. She is, however, feeling very sent a generous contribution of much better and has shown a very Christmas cheer to the Navajo In- other contributors. pleasing rate of improvement over dians, at Ganado, Arizona. In Noher recent severe illness and hospital. vember the Light Bearers sent a large follows: ization. The many friends over the box of lovely gifts to the children be pleased to learn that she is doing day the spirit of unselfish giving was Hunt, M. E. Boren, Clarence Slossen, lighted in blue,

DEATH OF BABE

Elton Davis, five-day-old son of Mr. retary of children's work in the Williams, Miss Phyllis Robinson, Mrs. Jeanne Galland, Elleen Aylor, Jeanne and Mrs. James Elvin Davis. The Woman's Federation. parents and grandparents.

ing the religious service. The Sattler munity. funeral home of this city had charge

NEW ARRIVALS

From Monday's Daily-Lora Lloyd Kieck, county super- daughter, who with the mother is Rochester, Minnesota, for the greater This morning in the district court holtz, David Fowler, Russell Nielsen, Woster, Dist. 3, Louise Rishel, teach- colorful dancing groups, were Mr. intendent of schools, while at Omaha doing very nicely. Mrs. Wiater was part of the year. Mr. and Mrs. John Weise, of Omaha, who was conand Mrs. Frank A. Cloidt and Mr. Monday attending the meeting of formerly Miss Helen Persinger of O'Brien are now home and feeling victed by the jury in the November next few months. They will spend ence Meisinger. the Christmas holiday in Harlan, Jerry Halter, formerly of Lincoln lowa with Mr. Christensen's parents, but who is now in the United States Mr. and Mrs. Peter Christensen. navy stationed at Norfolk, Virginia. From there they will go to Ames, From Tuesday's Daily-sen and family.

TO VISIT IN IOWA

'Why the Chimes Rang' Presented

bers of Church and Produced Impressive Scenes.

From Monday's Dally-

Rang" was very capably presented by a group of the members of the here with his daughters. congregation as well as the musical accompaniment by E. H. Wescott and the boy's choir of the church under the direction of Mrs. L. S. Devoe.

The story was based on the fact that it is not the value of the gift, but rather the manner of the giving Knights Templar and its sacrifice that finds favor in the eyes of the Christ.

In the presentation of the Victor the role of the priest was taken by C. C. Wescott; business man by L. S. Devoe; courtier by Allan White; a beautiful woman by Mary K. Wiles, scholar by R. C. Jahrig, a lovely young girl by Florene Lowson and the king by Milo Price.

The speaking parts were most etfe tively presented by Dorothea Mae ger," whose sacrifice found favor and This was very beautifully given and brother, Richard Duxbury was very clever. Thornton Baker as "Bertel, an uncle of the boys gave a very ramatic presentation. Mrs. Rose Mary Duxbury appeared as the cld visit and sacrifice of Holger.

and effects of the persentation were plenty. An army of 13,000,000 un- stood on the outside, one at each the best that has been offered, was employed live aimless lives without side of the main entrance to the the opinion of the large audience

SHOW CHRISTMAS SPIRIT

The Christmas spirit began to manifest itself early in the season among the young people of the Pres-Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Foster of byterian church, and has grown noon at the annual Christmas party ter. Mrs. Fred Smith, Mrs. George chimes, which had been concealed Funeral services were held this of the Federation, contributions will Trunkenbolz, Mrs. Arthur Walberg, near the entrance of the church from afternoon at the grave in Glendale be brought which will be distributed Mrs. Clyde West, Mrs. Ted McCart- which came the strain; of the sweet cemetery with Rev. A. Lentz conduct- among the needy in the local com- ney, Mrs. F. B. Camper, Mrs. John Christmas carols.

Ridge, South Dakota.

MRS. O'BRIEN IMPROVING

long time resident at South Bend, Fred Wulf and Mrs. Harry Fisher. will be pleased to learn that she is Last evening the home of Mr. and now feeling much better from a long SENTENCED FOR CHICKEN THEFT Marjorie Tidball, Helen Hiatt, Mrs. Mrs. Steve Wiater was made very illness and which had made necessary happy by the arrival of a fine little treatment at the Mayo clinic at From Tuesday's Daily-

CARD OF THANKS

knowledge the acts of kindness and sentences to run concurrently. expressions of sympathy shown us in our bereavement at the loss of our Mr. and Mrs. Arley Christensen baby son and grandson, by the dear and son, Ronald left for Iowa yes- friends and neighbors. - Mr. and terday where they will spend the Mrs. Elvin Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Clar- at home for the past few weeks, is

JOHN ALBERT NOT SO WELL

Mrs. Irene Albert, stenographer at medical care. the office of the county superincame last Wednesday and will return Mr. and Mrs. Henry Biehm, of tendent, was home today owing to Martin Petersen who has been un- Wednesday, December 20. He is on Greenwood, were in the city Monday the fact that her husband, John Altwo years.

TO SPEND WINTER HERE

J. J. Lohnes of Grant, Nebr., arrived here from the western part of the state and is visiting here with at M. E. Church his daughters, and grandchildren, Mrs. Elsie England and Mrs. Luther Womack. Mr. Lohnes states the west last June.

His son Harry Lohnes who has been so seriously ill and was operated on in a hospital at North Platte Last evening as a part of the pre- is now getting along very well and Christmas observances at the First gaining in health which is very pleas-Methodist church, "Why the Chimes ing to his relatives and friends here. Mr. Lohnes will spend the winter

Congressman George Heinke to Seek Re-Elect'n

Nebraska City Representative Makes Florence Leamy, Harriet Goos, Mrs. Filing in Lincoln and States Platform and Position.

NEBRASKA CITY, Dec. 20 (UP) braska City, republican congressman phonally with the adult choir and from the first district, filed for re- also rendered selections alone. They election today with the declaration wore white cottas, stiff white Eton that the "republican party is the collars, and black Windsor ties. The only refuge for people clamoring for complete program rendered by the constitutional government, economy, choir showed real skill and reflected reduction of governmental expenses, much credit on their capable leader. lower taxes, and common sense gov- To those who attended, the set-will be momentous in the country's tee from the Woman's Federation, in history following seven years of New charge of the decoration was Mrs. Deal experimentation in government John Sattler, Jr., Mrs. C. J. Schneider and economics. He charged that "by and Mrs. Carl Ofe. They were asprogressive steps national socialism sisted by Mr. Sattler, Mr. Schneider woman that had encouraged the is being substituted for constitutional and Mr. Schutz, the church sexton. government. Free industry is re- The Christmas red was evidenced While this has been presented sev- placed by regimentation. The grim by red roses and potted poinsettas, hope for the future."

EAGLE RED CROSS ROLL

of the Red Cross roll call in Eagle, ations were white, cobalt blue, and has furnished our Eagle correspon- silver. On each chancel step, formdent Miss Dorothea Keil, with the ing an aisle, stood ten three feet tall, hours today while en route to Omaha In October the Westminster Guild, list of those enrolled as members of ornamental candles of cobalt blue, where Mrs. Foster is taking treat- as has been their custom for years. the Eagle branch, numbering 35, to- twined with silver and silver bells. gether with the names of several On the altar were placed blue candle

Mrs. Virgil Perry supervised the Mrs. Carl Bender, Mrs. Fred Muen- white tapers. Sunday at the farm home west of latter two. She is sponsor of the chau, Mrs. Wm. Copple, Mrs. R. C. The candle lighting ceremony was Ernest Underwood, Mrs. Bert Lytle, Hudson, and Eldora Shellenbarger. This week on Wednesday after- Mrs. Marvin Carr, Mrs. Edward Por- Especially realistic were the Vickers, Mrs. Belle Jack, Mrs. Orin The members c. the choir render-Lanning, Mrs. Wm. Umland, Mrs. ing the splendid program were: Lester Scattergood.

Contributions of 50 cents each ger. Wilhelmina Henrichsen, Mar-Friends of Mrs. William J. O'Brien, were received from Mrs. Jesse Wall, garet Bauer, Harriet Goos, Juanita encouraged that the recovery of Mrs. term of the district court of chicken White, Mary Gorder, Margaret Heinestealing, was sentenced by Judge man, Jeanne Galland, Eileen Aylor, W. W. Wilson.

one year each on the two counts of Lohnes. Eldora Shellenbarger, Dor-Deeply grateful, we wish to ac- which he had been found guilty, the orthy Warga, Mary Ann Lindner,

STILL CONFINED TO HOME

W. W. Wasley, who has been ill still in very serious condition and

FOR SALE

Candlelight Service at Presbyterian Church

Beautiful Story Is Given by Men- is very dry, having no rain since Beautiful Church Decorations and Splendid Program Given by Choir of the Church.

From Monday's Daily-

A very impressive and inspiring candle-light vesper service was held at the Presbyterian church last evening at 5 o'clock, given by the adult and children's choirs, under the direction of Mrs. J. R. Reeder. Assisting Mrs. Reeder as accompanist were Mrs. H. F. Goos, pipe organ; David Fowler, violin; and Mrs. Fowler,

The hour was one of musical interpretation of the Biblical Christmas Story and Folk Song. Solo and recitive parts were taken by Miss R. C. Shellenbarger, F. A. Cloidt and Dr. McClusky. Especially enjoyable was the violin solo of Mr. Fowler.

Particularly impressive was the -Representative George Heinke, Ne. children's choir which sang anti-ting for the service will be a linger-Heinke forecast the 1940 election ing memory of beauty. The commit-> church. A tall bronz candelabrum stool in the vestibule. Each window of the sanctuary was graced by a CALL VERY SUCCESSFUL candelabrum holding three white candles, surrounded by evergreen.

Mrs. Bert Lytle, who had charge The main colors used in the decorholders, blue candles and red roses, The list of members for 1940 is as while above the altar was hung a star, electrically lighted in blue. At Harry Robertson, Valley Trumble, the side of the chancel stood a county and here in her old home will in the Tennessee mountains. Yester- W. A. Nenstiel, S. A. Stover, Jasper stately, silvered Christmas tree, also > climaxed with a box sent by the Sab- G. C. Burton, Mrs. E. M. Stewart. Artistically placed before the chanbath school to the Indians at Pine Mrs. G. M. Jones, Mrs. Willm, Mrs. cel were four large pedestal, white John Peterson, Miss Dorothea Keil, candelabra, each holding seven tall

Sopranos: Mrs. R. C. Shellenbar-

Sigler, Agnes Muenster, Florence Leamy, Maxine Nielsen. Altos: Estelle Baird, Eleanor Giles,

Karl Keil. Tenors: Frank Cloidt, Floyd Shan-Bases: L. D. Hiatt, Harold Hues-

tis, Don York and William Knorr. Children's Choir: Annice Lee Carol Lou Bernhardt, Clara Belle Rhoden, Gertrude Harris, Mary Hitt, The court gave Weise a sentence of Shirley Martin, Ann Martin, Millie Jeanne Hudson, Janet Tiekotter, Elizabeth Perry, Dorothy Jean Cappell, Mary Phyllis Soennichsen, Darlene White, Eleanor Willis.

RETURNS TO CASS COUNTY

Bert Jameson, of near Nehawka, confined to his bed. The patient has was here Monday afternoon to visit shown some improvement but his friends and looking after some matprogress has been slow and made ters of business. Mr. Jameson who necessary his being under constant has been living in Omaha, has decided to return to Cass county and will be located the coming season on the farm in the south part of the county. He is a member of one of ADDING MACHINE, good condi- the old and prominent families in pleased to see him back.