Former Resident
Fatally Burned at Vim, Colorado

Ellis Goolsby One Time Switchman Here Injured While Using Kerosene to Kindle Fire.

Tragedy marked the death of Ellis W. Goolsby, Vim, Colo., farmer, whom misfortune had plagued throughout his 73 years of life.

Goolsby died in a Kimball hospital about 4 o'clock Friday morning, December 15th of burns suffered Thursday afternoon at the farm home of his step-son, Carl Kline living near New Raymer, Colo.

Thursday's fatal accident occurred when the elderly man attempted to start a fire in the stove and kerosene he used to hasten it exploded. Burned with the explosion, Goolsby's injuries were further aggravated when he fought the flames which threatened to consume his house.

Children returning from school and other relatives found him shortly following the mishap and he was rushed to a Kimball hospital. He remained conscious until death though second degree burns covered nearly 90 per cent of his body, according to the physician who attended him.

He was caring for the home during Kline's absence for treatment in a Cheyenne hospital.

Run Over by Train

When Goolsby was 21 years old, he was run over by a switch engine. He was at that time engaged as a switchman in the Plattsmouth rail road yards of the Burlington. Doctors gave him no hope for life. Goolsby refused them permission to amputate the mutilated limbs. Though he was unable to walk for several years he gradually regained use of both legs and in later years, was only slightly crippled.

About 20 years later he worked in a lumber camp where he sustained an injury which cost him an eye.

Ellis Wesley Goolsby was born near Brownsville, Nebr., March 22, 1866. He moved with his family to Plattsmouth when seven years of age. April 1, 1907, he was married to Mrs. Ethel Kline. There were no children born to this union.

In 1917, Goolsby moved to this vicinity, locating near Vim where he made his residence until the time of his death.

Surviving relatives are four step-children: Carl W. Kline; Mrs. William A. (Eunice) Burns of Kimball; W. T. Kline of Omaha and Glen Kline of Wheatland, Wyo. One sister, Mrs. J. R. (Cora) Spurgin of Stoneham.

His wife died seven years ago. Funeral services were held from the Burwell funeral home Sunday at 2 p. m., the Rev. Oscar W. Low of the Methodist church officiating. Interment was in the Kimball cemetery.—Kimball (Neb.) Record.

MOVE TO NEW HOME

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Cohn have moved to their new home on North Fourth street which has been just recently erected and is one of the very lovely homes in the city. The home has been built and arranged just as the family has desired and will make them an ideal home.

SECURE WANTED MAN

Sheriff Joe Mrasek was out at Eagle Saturday where he was called to secure Dan Smith, wanted at North Platte on a forgery charge. The man was brought here and Sunday turned over to Sheriff Shayne of Lincoln county for return to North Platte.
